

The Book of HABAKKUK

ESTABLISHED for correction,
We know that you have,
When your strength is great and mighty,
But you give the power to your gods!
Ordained for judgment,
You can spot them, yes,
When they have a great drag of fishes,
And they make sacrifice to their nets!

HABAKKUK 1

¹The burden which Habakkuk the prophet saw.
²O Lord, how long shall I cry,
 And You will not hear?
 Even cry out to You, "Violence!"
³And You will not save.
 Why do You show me iniquity,
 And cause me to see trouble?
 For plundering and violence are before me;
 There is strife and those who raise up contention.
⁴Therefore the law is powerless,
 And justice never goes forth.
 For the wicked surround the righteous;
 Therefore perverted judgment proceeds.
⁵"Look among the nations and watch,
 Utterly marvel,
 For I will work a work in your days
 Which you would not believe,
 Though you were told of it.
⁶For behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans,
 A nation that is bitter and hasty;
 Which marches through the breadth of the earth,
 To possess dwelling places that are not theirs.
⁷They are terrible and dreadful;
 Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.
⁸Their horses also are swifter than leopards,
 And are fiercer than evening wolves.
 Their horsemen charge ahead;
 Their cavalry comes from far;
 They fly as the eagle that hastens to eat.
⁹They all call for violence;
 Their faces are set like the east wind.
 They gather captives like sand.
¹⁰"And scoff at kings,
 And princes are scorned by them.
 They deride every stronghold,
 For they heap up earthen mounds and seize it.
¹¹Then he changes his mind, and he transgresses;
 He commits offence,
 Ascribing this power to his god."
¹²Are You not from everlasting,
 O Lord, my God, my Holy One?
 We shall not die.

O Lord, You have ordained them for judgment;
 O Rock, You have marked them for correction.
¹³You are of purer eyes than to behold evil,
 And cannot look on wickedness.
 Why do You look on those who deal treacherous,
 Why hold Your tongue when the wicked devours a person more righteous than he?
¹⁴Why do You make men like fish of the sea,
 Like creeping things that have no ruler over them?
¹⁵They take up all of them with a hook,
 They catch them in their dragnet,
 After they catch them in their net.
 Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
¹⁶Therefore they sacrifice to their nets,
 And to their dragnet they burn incense;
 Because their food is plenteous by them,
 And their portion is fat by them.
¹⁷Shall they therefore empty their net,
 And continue to slay nations without pity?

AS the waters cover the sea,
So shall the earth be filled with this knowledge!
I am as he who watches and waits,
To hear what the Lord My God will say.
Yes, I know the just shall live by faith,
And the knowledge of God's glory shall be in every place.
Yes, the earth shall be filled with this knowledge
As the waters cover the sea!

HABAKKUK 2

¹I will stand my watch, and set myself on the tower;
 I will watch to see what He will say to me,
 And what I will answer when I am corrected.
²Then the Lord answered me and said,
 "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets,
 That he may run who reads it.
³For the vision is yet for an appointed time;
 But at the end it will speak,
 And it will not lie.
 Though it tarries, wait for it;
 For it will surely come,
 It will not tarry."
⁴Behold the proud,
 His soul is not upright in him;
 But the just shall live by his faith.
⁵Indeed, because he transgresses by wine,
 He is a proud man,
 And he does not stay at home.
 Because he enlarges his desire as hell;
 He is like death, and cannot be satisfied,
 He gathers to himself all nations,
 And heaps up for himself all peoples.
 Will all these not take up a parable against him,
 And a taunting proverb against him, and say,
 "Woe to him who increases what is not his;
 how long?
 And to him who loads himself with many pledges?
⁷"Will not your creditors rise up suddenly?
 Will those who oppress you not awake?
 And you will become their booty.
⁸"Because you have plundered many nations,
 All the remnant of the people shall plunder you,
 Because of the blood of men
 And the violence of the land and the city,
 And of all who dwell in it.
⁹"Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house,
 That he may set his nest on high,
 That he may be delivered from the power of disaster!
¹⁰"You have given shameful counsel to your own house,

 Cutting off many peoples,
 And sin against your soul.
¹¹"For the stone will cry out from the wall,
 And the beam from the timbers will answer it.
¹²"Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed,
 Who establishes a city by iniquity!
¹³"Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts
 That the people's labor to feed the fire,
 And nations weary themselves in vain?
¹⁴"For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord,
 As the waters cover the sea.
¹⁵"Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbor,
 Pressing him to your bottle to make him drunk,
 That you may look on his nakedness!
¹⁶"You are filled with shame instead of glory.
 You also, drink and be exposed as uncircumcised!
 The cup of the Lord's right hand will be turned against you,
 And great shame will be on your glory.
¹⁷"For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you,
 And the plunder of beasts which made them afraid,
 Because of the blood of men and the violence of the land and the city,
 And all who dwell in it.
¹⁸"What profit is the image, that its maker could carve it,
 The molten image, a teacher of lies,
 That the maker of its mould should trust in it,
 To make mute idols?
¹⁹"Woe to those who say to wood, 'Awake!'
 And to the dumb stone, 'Arise, it shall teach!'
 Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver;
 Yet there is no breath at all in it.
²⁰But the Lord is in His holy temple.
 Let all the earth keep silence before Him."

HE will make my feet like hinds' feet;
On my high places He will make me walk!

He is my rest in the day of trouble;

I will joy in the Lord!

The Lord came from Paran;

His glory filled the skies!

The earth was full of His praises;

His brightness was as light!

HABAKKUK 3

¹A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth:

²O Lord, I have heard Your speech and was so afraid.

O Lord, revive Your work in the midst of the years!

In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember mercy.

³God came up from Teman,
The Holy One from Mount Paran;
His glory covered the heavens,
And the earth was full of His praise.

⁴His brightness was like the light;
His rays were flashing like horns coming out of His hand,
And there His power was hidden.

⁵Before Him went pestilence,
And fever followed at His feet.

⁶He stood and measured the earth;

He looked and startled the nations,
And the everlasting mountains were scattered,
The perpetual hills bowed.

His ways are everlasting.

⁷I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction;
The curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

⁸O Lord, were You displeased with the rivers,
Was Your anger against the rivers?

Was your anger against the sea,
That You rode on Your horses,
Your chariots of salvation?

⁹Your bow was made quite ready;
Oaths were sworn over Your arrows.
You divided the earth with rivers.

¹⁰The mountains saw You and trembled;
The overflowing of the water passed by.

The deep uttered its voice,
And lifted its hands on high.

¹¹The sun and moon stood still in their habitation;

At the light of Your arrows they went,
At the shining of Your glittering spear.

¹²You marched through the land in indignation;

In Your anger You trampled the nations.

¹³You went forth for the salvation of Your people,

For salvation with Your Anointed.

You struck the head from the house of the wicked,

By uncovering from foundation to neck.

¹⁴You thrust through with his own arrows,
The head of his villages.

They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me;
Their rejoicing was like feasting on the poor in secret.

¹⁵You walked through the sea with Your horses,

Through the heap of great waters.

¹⁶When I heard, my belly trembled,

My lips quivered at the voice;

Rottenness entered my bones;

And I trembled in myself,

That I might rest in the day of trouble,

When He comes up to the people,

He will invade them with His troops.

¹⁷Though the fig tree may not blossom,

Nor fruit be on the vines;

Though the labor of the olive tree may fail,

And the fields yield no food;

Though the sheep may be cut off from the fold,

And there is no herd in the stalls,

¹⁸Yet, I will rejoice in the Lord.

I will joy in the God of my salvation.

¹⁹The Lord God is my strength;

He will make my feet like hinds' feet

And He will make me walk on my high hills.

To the Chief Musician. With my stringed instruments.
