The men of Ham dwelt there formerly.

⁴¹Now these who are recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah, Judah's king; and they struck their tents and the people who were found there, and utterly destroyed them, as to this day it is.

TO you the birthright belongs,
But you will lose your 'head'
If you forsake the Lord's commandments
And defile your father's bed.
Passed down to another,
But transferred to the prevailing one;
You will prevail in battle,
If your cry goes up to God.

I CHRONICLES 5

¹The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—Reuben was firstborn of Israel, and had the birthright as the head, but his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, because he defiled his father's bed.

Therefore the genealogy is not recorded according to birthright;

²yet Judah prevailed over his brothers, and became the chief ruler, although the birthright was Joseph's—³the sons of Reuben, firstborn of Israel, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

⁴The sons of Joel were Shemaiah who fathered Gog, who fathered Shimei, ⁵who fathered Micah, who fathered Reaiah, who fathered Baal, ⁶who fathered Beerah, whom Tiglath-pleser, king of Assyria carried into captivity. He was the leader of the Reubenites.

⁷His brethren by their families, according to genealogy: the chiefs were Jeiel and Zechariah.

⁸And Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-meon.

⁹They settled eastward, as far as the entrance of the wilderness this side of River Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

¹⁰In the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who were defeated, and they dwelt in tents in the entire area east of Gilead.

¹¹The children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salchah.

¹²Joel was chief, Shapham was next, then Jaanai and Shaphat there in Bashan, ¹³and their brethren of their father's house: Michael Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Eber—seven in total.

¹⁴These were the children of Abihail son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; ¹⁵Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house.

¹⁶The Gadites dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its towns, and in all the common-lands of Sharon within their borders.

¹⁷These were all recorded by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸The sons of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh were forty-four thousand, seven hundred and sixty valiant men, able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and experienced in war, who went to war.

¹⁹They made war with the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

²⁰They were helped against them; the Hagrites were delivered into their hands, and all the people with them, for—they did not trust in their weapons or their expertise—they cried out to God in battle.

And God heeded their prayer, because they placed their trust in Him.

²¹Then they took away the livestock—fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, and two thousand donkeys—also one hundred thousand men;

²²for many were killed because the battle was the Lord's.

And so they dwelt in their place until captivity.

²³So the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land.

Their population increased from Bashan to Baal-hermon, that is to Senir, or Mount Hermon.

²⁴These were the heads of their father's households: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel,

They were all mighty men of valor, famous men and heads of their fathers' houses.

²⁵But they transgressed against the Lord God of their fathers, and played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land whom God had destroyed before them—and so defiled God their Father's bed.

Sin will cause you to lose your birthright; to be driven from the land.

²⁶And so the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, that is Tiglath-pileser of Assyria.

He carried the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into captivity. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river Gozan to this day.

But Someone died for yours.
In Gilboa it all happened;
He fell on his own sword.
Oh, what a day in Israel,
When the king's household was slain.
Valiant men took up Saul's body,
But was his soul ever saved?

1 CHRONICLES 10

¹The Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and on mount Gilboa the slain fell.
²The Philistines doggedly pursued King Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchi-shua.
³The battle was strong against Saul, and by the archers he was hit. The king of Israel fell down wounded; now he would die because of sin!
⁴Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But this his armor-bearer refused to do, for he was very afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.
⁵And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell on his own sword and died.
⁶So Saul and his three sons, and his entire house with him died together that day. He died because of his own sins.
⁷When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that the army fled and Saul and his three sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

⁸And the following day when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons lifeless bodies on Mount Gilboa.
⁹They stripped him and took his armor and his head, and sent the news throughout the land of the Philistines to spread the news in the temple of their idols and among the people.
¹⁰They placed his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.
¹¹And when the people of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all the valiant men went up and took the bodies of Saul and his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried the bones under the oak tree at Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.
¹³So Saul died for his transgressions, which he had committed against the Lord, because he did not keep the word of the Lord, and also because he took counsel with a medium for direction.
¹⁴But he did not inquire of the Lord; therefore the Lord killed him, and transferred his kingdom to David the son of Jesse.
Saul indeed died for his transgressions, but Someone else died for yours!

MIGHTY men of David,
I will tell you who these were;
They made to them a captain,
A mighty man of war.
King over all Israel,
Elevated in God's sight;
And to him the Lord added,
Great men of valor and might.

I CHRONICLES 11

¹And all Israel gathered to David at Hebron, saying, "We are your flesh and your bone.
²"And moreover, when Saul was king, You were the one to lead Israel out and bring them in; and the Lord your God said to you, "You shall feed My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel."
³So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and there David made a covenant with them before the Lord.
Then they anointed David as king according to the word of the Lord by Samuel.
⁴Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus.
The Jebusites were there; they lived in the land.
⁵"You shall not come in here!" The people of Jebus said to David, a mighty man.
Nevertheless David took the fortress of Zion (that is, the city of David).
⁶And David said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain."
So Joab the son of Zeruiah, one of David's mighty men, went up first to battle and was made chief of them.
⁷And David dwelt in the fortress, therefore they called it the City of David.
⁸And he built the city around it, from Millo to the areas all around it.
And Joab repaired the rest of the city.
⁹And David grew greater and greater, for the Lord of host was with him.
¹⁰These were the heads of the mighty men of David, those who strengthened themselves with him, in his kingdom, with all Israel to make him king, as the Lord had spoken concerning Israel.
¹¹This is the sum of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite was chief of the captains.
He lifted his spear and killed three hundred men at one time.
¹²After him was Eleazer the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men.
¹³It was a battle at Pasdammin. He was there with David and the Philistines had gathered there for battle. There was a barley field there full of barley.

And Israel fled from the Philistines.

¹⁴They positioned themselves in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. The Lord brought about a great deliverance there.

¹⁵And three of his thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam. And the army of the Philistines camped in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁶David was in the stronghold, and the Philistines were garrisoned in Bethlehem.

¹⁷And David spoke longingly, "Oh, that someone would give me water from the well of Bethlehem by the gate!"

¹⁸Speak of these three:

They broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem by the gate and brought water to David the king.

However the leader of mighty men would not drink it. He poured it out to the Lord.

¹⁹And David said, "The Lord forbid that I do such a thing.

Shall I drink the blood of these men who have jeopardized their lives? For they brought it at the risk of their lives.

He would not drink it therefore.

This was done by the three mighty men."

²⁰These three men whom I speak of were very mighty among his men of might. Abshai, Joab's brother was chief of three other mighty men.

He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men and killed them, therefore he had a name among these three.

²¹He was more honorable than the other two of the three, therefore he became their captain. He did not attain to the first three however.

²²Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who himself had many mighty acts.

He killed two lion-like men of Moab.

He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a snowy day.

²³He also killed a man of great built who was five cubits tall.

This man had a spear in his hand like a weaver's beam;

he went down to him with his staff and plucked it from his hand and killed him with it.

²⁴Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did all these things and won a name among the three mighty men.

²⁵He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three.

And David placed him over the guard.

²⁶These were the valiant warriors:

Asahel, Joab's brother, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

²⁷Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, ²⁹Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, ³⁰Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite, ³¹Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, ³²Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Ar-bathite,

 Just some of David's mighty men.
³³Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, ³⁴the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shageh the Hararite, ³⁵Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur, ³⁶Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, ³⁷Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ez-bai, ³⁸Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, ³⁹Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite (armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruah), ⁴⁰Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
⁴¹Uriah the Hittite, Zabab the son of Ahlai, ⁴²Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite (a leader of the Reubenites) and thirty men with him, ⁴³Hanan the son of Maachah, Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, ⁴⁶Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, ²Eiel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.
*Men of valor and of might.
 Mighty men of David;
 We have stated who these were;
 And they had David for their captain,
 A mighty man of war.*

THEY came to him at Shiloh; they came from all around. They came to him at Ziklag, and helped when he was down. They came to him at Hebron, from every background tribe and skill; God added to him daily, to exalt him at His will. Like the army of God in number, his army grew great and big. We have with us a Son of David, and God is adding to Him still. Yes, will you come to Him?

I CHRONICLES 12

- ¹They came to David at Ziklag, where he fled because of Saul; they were among the mighty men, to help him in the war, ²they came armed with bows; they could hurl stone and shoot arrows with both hands, left and right;
 They were of Saul's brethren; they were Benjamites.
³The chief was Ahiezer; with him were Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite.
⁴Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over them, Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Josabad the Gederathite; these also came to him.
⁵Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephathiah the Haruphite; ⁶Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jas-hobeam; these were Korahites and they also came to him.
⁷and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor also came.
⁸And some of the Gadites came to David at the stronghold in the wilderness, and to him they too dedicated themselves. They were mighty men of valor, ready for battle, who could handle spear and shield; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and who were like the mountain gazelles for swiftness of feet.

⁹Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, and Eliab the third,

¹⁰Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

¹¹Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

¹²Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

¹³Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh.

¹⁴These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

¹⁵These were the ones who went over Jordan in the first month, when it overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

¹⁶Then some of the children of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.

¹⁷And David went out to meet them, and said to them, "If you have come in peace to help me, my heart will be knitted to you; but if it is to betray me to my enemies, may the God of our fathers rebuke you for this, since there is no wrong in my hands."

¹⁸Then the Spirit came on Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said, "We are your servants, O David; We are on your side, O son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helpers, for we know God is helping you."

So David received them, and made them captains of the band;

@And he knew God was adding to him; He was drawing the hearts of everyone.

¹⁹Some from Manasseh resorted to him, as he went to battle with the Philistines against Saul, but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him back, saying,

"He may defect to Saul his master and so put our heads in danger."

²⁰When he went to Ziklag these are the men of Manasseh who defected to him:

Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of Manasseh's thousands.

²¹They helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and captains in the army.

²²At that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

²³These were the numbers of the people who were armed and ready for war, who came to David at Hebron to turn the kingdom over to him, according to the word of the Lord:

²⁴of the sons of Judah armed with shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred men ready for war;

²⁵of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor ready for war, seven thousand and one hundred.

²⁶of the sons of Levi four thousand six hundred;

²⁷Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred.

²⁸Zadok, a young man, mighty and of valor, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;

²⁹of the sons of Benjamin, Saul's relatives, three thousand,

(for until then the greater part of them were loyal guards to the house of Saul).

³⁰Of the sons of Ephraim twenty-two thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their father's house;

³¹with eighteen thousand of the half-tribe of Manasseh, appointed by name to come and make David king;

³²of the sons of Issachar, men of wisdom who had understanding of the times, who knew what Israel ought to do, their leaders were two hundred, and all their brethren followed their commands;

³³of Zebulun, fifty thousand men who went to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, men sound in heart who could keep ranks;

³⁴of Nephthali came one thousand captains, and with them with thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

³⁵of the Danites who could be organized in battle, twenty-eight thousand, six hundred;

³⁶of Asher, forty thousand, who could go out to battle, all expert men of war;

They came to David, men from near and far.

³⁷of the Reubenites, and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand men, armed and ready for battle with every kind of weapon for war.

³⁸All these men of war, could keep ranks, came with a loyal heart to Hebron; this is the way to come;

with one heart to enthrone him, that is the way it must be done;

to make David king over all Israel, and all Israel were united to make him king.

³⁹They were with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.

⁴⁰And those who were near to them, from as far a distance as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, and camels, on mules and on oxen; they also brought flour and cakes of figs and of raisins and cakes, wine, oil, oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in all Israel.

@A Seed of David, King of kings, is Lord over all. Tell me, can you hear Him? Will you come? God is drawing you to Him.

I CHRONICLES 13

¹David consulted with the captains of hundreds and of thousands, and with every leader.

He had the heart of God, but his way was consultation.

²Then David consulted with all the assembly of Israel, saying, "If this seems good to you, and if it is what the Lord our God would have for us to do, let us send everywhere and bring our brethren who are left in Israel, with the priest and Levites in their cities and suburbs to come gather with us as well; ³and let us bring again the ark of the Lord, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul."

⁴This thing was good to all the people, so that they would do so.

⁵Then David gathered all of Israel together from Sihor in Egypt as far as the entrance of Hemath, to bring up the ark of the Lord from Kirjath-jearim.

⁶So David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath-jearim, which was in Judah, to bring from there the ark of the Lord, who dwells between the cherubims, where His name is declared.

⁷Therefore they carried the ark on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

⁸And David and all Israel celebrated before the Lord with all their might; rejoicing with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets likewise.

@God regards our good intentions, and He regards our praise, but He regards His word, above His very name.

⁹It happened in a moment, when they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzza reached out his hand to hold it firm.

¹⁰And the anger of the Lord rose up against Uzza, and there the Lord struck him, because he held the ark with his hand; and he died there before the Lord.

¹¹And David was very displeased because of the Lord's breach on Uzza, therefore he named the place Perrez-Uzza to this day.

¹²David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?"

¹³So David would not move the ark of God into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

¹⁴God regards our wellbeing, this Obed-edom was to know.

The ark of God remained in the house of Obed-edom with his family for three months. And the Lord blessed the house of Obededom, and everything he had increased in the presence of the Lord.

THERE is a sound of movements in the mulberry trees, The mulberry trees, the mulberry trees. There is a sound of movements in the mulberry trees; It signaled that God had gone before His army to war. When timber and cedar are sent down to me, Sent down to me, sent down to me! When workmen are sent, and labor is free, I know, I am being confirmed as king by the Lord.

I CHRONICLES 14

¹Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, with timber of cedar, and masons and carpenters to build him a house.

²So David knew that the Lord had established him as king of Israel, for his kingdom was exalted highly for the sake of God's people Israel.

³Then David took more wives in Jerusalem and he fathered more sons and daughters.

⁴These are the names of his children who he had in Jerusalem:

Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,
⁵Ibhar, Elishua, Eliphelet,

⁶Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

⁷Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

⁸And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. When David heard of it he went out against them.

⁹And the Philistines went and spread themselves in the Valley of Rephaim, ¹⁰And David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?"

And the Lord responded to David,

"Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."

¹¹So they went up to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there.

Then David said, "God has broken in on my enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of water, like a dam that is breached."

Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.

¹²And when they left their gods there, David commanded that they burn them with fire.

¹³Then the Philistines came yet again and spread themselves in the valley.

¹⁴David inquired once again of God, for in every battle he would be led, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around them and come upon them beside the mulberry trees.

¹⁵And it shall be, when you hear the sound of movements in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go to battle, for know God has gone out before you to strike the Philistines."

¹⁶So as God commanded him, this David did, and they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon to as far as Gezer.

¹⁷And the fame of David went out into all lands and the Lord made all nations to fear him.

His strength was at the feet of God.

I CHRONICLES 15

¹David built houses for himself in the City of David; and prepared a place for the ark of God, and he pitched a tent for it.

²Then David said, "No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for the Lord has chosen them to carry the ark of God to minister before Him forever."

³And David gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Lord to its place, that he had prepared for it.

⁴Then David assembled the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

⁵of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren;

⁶of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and with him two hundred and twenty of his brethren;

⁷of the sons of Gershon, Joel the head, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren;

⁸of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and with him two hundred of his brethren;

⁹of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren with him;

¹⁰of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

¹¹And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites:

Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

¹²And he spoke to them, saying, "You are chief men of the Levites, heads of the fathers' houses;

sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the Lord, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared;

¹³For because you did not do it the first time, the Lord our God made a breach against us, because we did not seek Him about due order."

¹⁴And the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of the Lord God of Israel.

¹⁵And the Levites bore the Ark of the Lord on their shoulders, with its poles, as Moses had commanded by the word of the Lord.

¹⁶Then David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be singers and players of musical instruments, psalteries, harps, and cymbals by lifting up the voices with a joyful noise.

¹⁷And the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

¹⁸With them were their brethren of the second order: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, keepers of the gate;

¹⁹the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were appointed to sound the cymbals of bronze;

²⁰Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to Alamoth;

²¹Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith;

²²Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was appointed as the instructor with responsibility for the music, for he was a skilful man;

²³Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark;

²⁴Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, Eliezer, the priests, were appointed to blow the trumpet before the ark of God.

The doorkeepers for the ark were Jehiah and Obed-edom.

²⁵So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom with singing, with dancing and with joy.

²⁶And when the Lord helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the Lord, they offered to the Lord seven bulls and seven rams.

²⁷David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, along with all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the music with the singers. David wore a linen ephod.

²⁸And so all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets, cymbals, psalteries and harps.

²⁹And as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David dancing and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

@They may despise your dancing and rejoicing, but this is what it is all about, a ravenous passion for His presence; an unquenchable thirst.

I CHRONICLES 16

¹And so they brought the ark of God and set it in the midst of the tent that David had set up for it.

And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

²And when David had finished the offerings,

he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.
³Then he gave to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to each he gave a loaf of bread, a good piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

⁴And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, to record, to praise Him and give Him thanks.

⁵Asaph was chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-edom:

Jeiel with psalteries and harps, but Asaph made music with the cymbals;

⁶Benaiah and Jahaziel, the priests, played the trumpets continually before the ark of the Lord.

Yes they praised Him continually and gave Him thanks.

⁷And on that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren;

A psalm of thanksgiving to give the Lord thanks and praise.

⁸“Oh give thanks to the Lord!

Call on His name;

Make His deeds known among the peoples!

⁹“Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;

Talk of all His wondrous works!

¹⁰“Glory in His holy name;

Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice!

¹¹“Seek the Lord and His strength;

Seek His face continually all your life.

¹²“Remember His marvelous works which He has done,

His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,

¹³“O Israel, give Him thanks!

O children of Israel His servant,

You children of Jacob, His chosen ones.

¹⁴“He is the Lord our God;

His judgments are in all the earth.

¹⁵“Be ever mindful of His covenant,

His word for a thousand generations;

¹⁶“The covenant which He made with Abraham, and His oath to Isaac, ¹⁷“Which he confirmed to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

¹⁸Saying, ‘To you I will give the land of Canaan, as your inheritance.’

¹⁹“When you were few in number, even then when you were few and you were strangers in it.

²⁰“When from nation to nation they went, from one kingdom to another people, ²¹“He did not allow any man to do them wrong; He rebuked kings for their sakes;

²²Saying, ‘Do not touch My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm.’

²³“Sing to the Lord, all the earth;

Show forth His salvation from day to day.

²⁴“Among the nations declare His glory,

His marvelous works among all peoples.

²⁵“For the Lord is great and greatly to be praised;

He is also to be feared above all gods.

26“For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the Lord made the heavens;

27“There is glory and honor in His presence; In His place is gladness and strength.

28“Give to the Lord you descendants of the peoples;

Give to the Lord glory and strength!

29“Give to the Lord the glory due to His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him.

O, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

30“Fear before Him all the earth.

The world shall be stable, it shall not be moved.

31“Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;

And let them say among the nations, “The Lord reigns.”

32“Let the sea roar, and praise Him;

Let all its fullness praise Him!

Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.

33“Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice before the Lord,

For He shall come to judge the earth.

34“O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! His mercy endures forever.

35“Say, ‘Save us, O God of our salvation; Gather us together and deliver us from the Gentiles, that we may give thanks to Your holy name, and glory in Your praise!

36“Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, Forever and ever!”

“Amen, praise the Lord!”

All the people said, “Amen!” and praised the Lord.

37So he left Asaph and his brethren there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to minister before the ark continually, day by day, as every day’s work required;

38and Obed-edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah were gatekeepers;

39and Zadok and his brethren were priests before the tabernacle of the Lord at the high place at Gibeon.

40They burned offerings to the Lord on the altar of burnt offering continually, morning and evening, to do in accordance with all that was written in the Law of the Lord which He commanded Israel.

41With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were expressed by name to give thanks to the Lord, because His mercy endures forever.

42With them were Heman and Jeduthun to sound loudly with trumpets, and cymbals, and with musical instruments of God.

43And the sons of Jeduthun were among the gatekeepers.

44And all the people departed then, each going to his house;

and David departed to bless his house.

CANNOT build Him a house made with cedar,
Cannot build Him a house in my days;
My son may use stones and use timber,
But I will build Him a house made of praise!

I CHRONICLES 17

¹Now, when David was living in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, "See, I live in a house made of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord is under tent curtains today."

²And Nathan answered David, "Do all that is in your heart, for the Lord is with you, O my king."

³But that night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying,

⁴"Go tell My servant David, 'This is what the Lord says: You shall not build me a house to dwell in.'

⁵"For I have not dwelt in a house since I brought Israel up, even to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to the next;

⁶"Wherever I have walked with all Israel, did I ever speak to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people, saying,

'Why have you not built Me a house made of cedar?'"

⁷"Now therefore, go speak to David, My servant;

'This is what the Lord of hosts says: "I took you out from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, and made you ruler over Israel, My people."

⁸"Wherever you have gone, I have been with you, and before you I have cut all your enemies off, and have made your name like the name of the great men of this earth."

⁹"Also I will ordain a place for My people Israel, I will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place and no longer be moved;

nor shall the sons of the wicked oppress and destroy them anymore, as they have done, ¹⁰"since the time I commanded judges to be over My people Israel.

But I will subdue all your enemies. And moreover I tell you that the Lord will build you a house.

¹¹"And when the days come when you die and go to be with your fathers,

I will raise up your son after you, and I will establish his kingdom.

He will build My house and I will establish his throne forever.

¹³"I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not remove My mercy from him, as I took it from the one who was before you.

¹⁴"And I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever."'"

¹⁵And Nathan spoke all these words, in accordance with all this vision to David the king.

¹⁶Then King David went and sat before the Lord; and he said,

"Who am I, O Lord God? And what is my house that You have brought me here? See how far You have brought me from!

¹⁷"And this is but a very small thing in Your eyes, O God;

You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me just as a man of high degree, O Lord God.

¹⁸"What more honor can I speak or seek from You?

For You know Your servant very well.

¹⁹"Lord, for your servant's sake, and according to all that is in Your heart,

You have done all this greatness in revealing all these great things.

@Cannot build You a house made of cedar, But will build You a house made of praise.

²⁰"There is none like You O God, nor is there any God besides You, not according to anything that we have heard with our ears.

²¹"And who is like Your people Israel; which other nation on earth has God ever gone to redeem for Himself to be His people; to make for Yourself a name by great and amazing deeds;

by driving nations out before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt?

²²"And You have made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and Lord You, their Redeemer, has become their God.

²³"Now, O Lord, let the thing You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning His house be established forever. Do as You have said.

²⁴"And let it be established, that Your name, Lord, may be magnified forever, saying,

'The Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God.'

And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

²⁵"For Lord, My God, You have said to Your servant that You will build him a house.

Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You.

²⁶"And Lord, You are God, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant.

²⁷"And it has been Your pleasure to bless Your servant's house, that it may continue before You forever;

Yes I receive Your blessings; for You have blessed my house, and when You bless, Lord, it is forever blessed; my house shall be blessed forever."

@Cannot build Him a house made of timber, But praise is more eternal than gold!

God was faithful to fulfill all He promised; A SON of David is King of kings right now!

They brought to him vessels of silver, and all manner of vessels of gold; He gathered the spoils for God's temple, and made all the nations he subdued to serve.

I CHRONICLES 18

²Then he struck Moab, and the Moabites became his servants, and brought tributes to him.

³And David struck Hadadezer the king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he established his dominion by the River Euphrates.

⁵When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of them.

⁶And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants and they brought him tributes.

And the Lord preserved David wherever he went.

⁷And David took the shields of gold that the servants of Hadadezer had on them, and he brought them to Jerusalem.

⁸And from Tibhath and Chun also, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the vessels of bronze.

⁹And when Tou the king of Hamath heard how David had defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah,

If they want war then they shall have war,
 though our approach to them was peace.
 Let them come up in their thousands;
 Israel shall make of them a feast.
 Feel the sword, you sons of Ammon;
 Syrians come feel the sword.
 Feel the sword all you who are gathered,
 Until you say, "We will fight no more! We can take no more!"

1 CHRONICLES 19

¹After this Nahash the king of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.
²Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash for his father's sake, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him in his bereavement for his father. And the servants of David came to Hanun in the land of Ammon to comfort him.
³And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun,
 "Do you think David honors your father by sending comforters to you?"

Did his servants not come to search and to spy out the land in order to overthrow it?"

⁴Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at the buttocks, and sent them away.

⁵And some went and told David what happened to the men; and he sent out to meet them, for they were greatly ashamed.

And the king said, "Remain at Jericho, and return when your beards have grown again."

⁶And when the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, Aram-maachah and from Zobah.

⁷So they hired thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maacah and his people; they came and camped before Medeba.

And the people of Ammon gathered from their cities and came to battle.

⁸And when David heard it he sent Joab and all the army of his mighty men.

⁹The people of Ammon positioned themselves before the city gate, and the kings who were hired were by themselves in the field.

¹⁰When Joab assessed the situation and saw that the battle was against him in front and behind, he chose some of the best men of Israel and set them in position against the Syrians.

¹¹He then placed the rest of the people under the command of Abishai his brother, and they positioned themselves against the people of Ammon.

¹²And he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong from you, I will help you.

¹³"Be courageous, let us be valiant for the people, and for the cities of our God.

And may the Lord do with us what is good to Him."

¹⁴*If they want war let them have war; come and feel the sword!*

So Joab and the people with him engaged the Syrians in battle, and they fled before him. Ammon what is the matter? What is the cause of your sweat?

¹⁵When the Ammonites saw that the Syrians were fleeing, before Abishai they too turned and fled. And they entered the city. So Joab returned to Jerusalem.

¹⁶When Syria saw they were defeated by Israel, they wanted to try again.

They sent for the Syrians beyond the River, led by Shophach captain of the Hadadezer's army.

¹⁷When David heard, he gathered all Israel, crossed over Jordan and came upon them, and entered battle against them.

And the Syrians fought with David.

And against them the Syrians fled.

¹⁸Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand men in chariots and forty thousand footmen of the Syrian army. They came and felt king David's sword; and Shophach the captain of the army was killed also.

And when the servants of Hadadezer saw they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants.

They would have no more. The Syrians refused to help the Ammonites anymore.

For the Syrians would remember, the pungent taste of David's sword.

SSPEAK of the giants that David had slain!
Speak of the crown and how much it weighed!
Speak of the people; the fear was real;

For if you fight against King David, it is best not to speak.

I CHRONICLES 20

¹It was in the spring time—a time when kings would go out to battle—Joab led out the army and wasted the country of the children of Ammon.

He came and besieged Rabbah, but David remained in Jerusalem.

And Joab defeated Rabbah and destroyed it.

²Then David took the crown from the head of their king.

Speak of the crown; it weighed a talent of gold with precious stones in it.

They set it on David's head, and they brought the spoil out.

And the spoil was an exceedingly abundant amount.

³And he brought out the people in the cities, and put them to labor with saws, picks and axes.

And David did this to all the cities of Ammon. So David and all the people returned to Jerusalem with so much to speak and tell.

⁴Afterwards there was war at Gezer with the Philistines, at that time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the sons of the giant.

And they were subdued.

⁵Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite.

And speak of the shaft of Lahmi's spear. It was like a weaver's beam.

⁶And again there was war at Gath, and there was a man of great stature among them.

He had twenty-four fingers and toes; six on each hand and foot. And he too was born to a giant.

⁷Speak of how he defied Israel, how he spoke words to make them fear, but Jonathan, the son of Shimea, David's brother killed him.

⁸These were born to the giants in Gath; and they all fell by the hand of David, and the hand of his servants.

Yes! They lost their speech and their defiance.

This thing is costly and I must pay. But I will trust in God's mercies and in His right hand which spares. Thank God for atonement and for sacrifice, Yet this has to cost me; I will pay a price.

I CHRONICLES 21

¹Then Satan stood up against Israel and tempted David to number them.

²So David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, "Go now and number Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, and bring me the final count that I may know it."

³And Joab reasoned, "May the Lord increase His people a hundred times more than they are today.

But O king, are they not all your servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should this be a cause of guilt in Israel?"

⁴But the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

⁵Then Joab brought back the sum total of the people to David.

The number of Israel was a million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand.

⁶But the king's word was abominable to Joab, so he did not count Levi and Benjamin.

⁷Then God struck Israel for He was displeased with this thing.

⁸And David said to God, "I have sinned greatly sinned because of this thing I have done; but now, I pray, take the iniquity of Your servant away, for I have done foolishly."

⁹And the Lord spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

¹⁰"Go tell David, Thus says the Lord, "I offer you three things; choose one of them, that I may do it for you."

¹¹*One of three he had to choose, three years, three months, or three days, but there was no way to win.*

¹²So Gad came to David and said to him, "This is what the Lord says, You now must choose for yourself, ¹²Either three years of famine, or three months to be defeated before your foes with the sword of your enemies punishing you, or three days of destruction by the sword of the Lord—by a plague in the land, with the angel of the Lord destroying throughout all Israel."

And ponder this and tell me what answer I should return to Him who sent me."

¹³And David said, "I am in great distress. Let me fall into the hand of the Lord, for His mercies are great.

Do not let me fall into the hand of man."

No I will put no confidence in man; I will trust the mercies of the Lord.

¹⁴So the Lord sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

¹⁵Then God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it.

While he was destroying it, God looked and relented of the destruction; His mercies proved true.

He said to the angel who was destroying it, "It is enough, stay your hand now."

And the angel of the Lord stood there by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

¹⁶Then David lifted his eyes and saw the angel standing between the earth and heaven; it was a fearsome sight, in his hand was a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

¹⁷And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be counted?

It is I who have sinned in doing this evil; but what have these sheep done?"

Let your hand, O Lord my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued."

¹⁸And the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to tell David to build an altar to the Lord on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

¹⁹So David went up at the word that Gad spoke to him in the Lord's name.

²⁰And Ornan turned and saw the angel, and his four sons with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat just the same.

²¹So David came to Ornan. And when Ornan saw David he went out from the threshing floor and bowed before David with his face to the ground.

²²And David said to Ornan, "Grant me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the Lord.

You shall sell it to me at full price, that this plague may be removed from us all."

²³But Ornan replied to David, "Take it, and let my lord the king do whatever is good in your eyes.

I will also give you the oxen for burnt offering, the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for grain offering; take it, I give it all."

²⁴But King David said to Ornan, “No, I will certainly buy it for the full price. I will not take what is yours for the Lord, nor offer burnt offering with that which cost me nothing at all.”

²⁵So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place, ²⁶And David built an altar there to the Lord, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the Lord; and the Lord answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

²⁷And the Lord commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

²⁸When David saw that the Lord had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

²⁹For the tabernacle of the Lord and the altar of burnt offering which Moses had made in the wilderness were at the high place in Gibeon at that time.

³⁰But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the Lord.

GOD is with you in your wars,
 but His house is a place of rest.
 God gives to you victories,
 but He builds in quietness.
 Prepare the gold and silver, and give your son the charge;
 “Keep God’s commandments and prosper; for you will build a sure building to the Lord.”

I CHRONICLES 22

¹Then David said, “This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.”

²And David commanded to gather all the strangers who were in the land of Israel, and he assigned masons to prepare cut stones to build the house of God.

³And David prepared iron in abundance to make nails for the door of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in such abundance it was without measure.

⁴and cedar trees in abundance, for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought David much cedar wood.

⁵And David said, “Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house to be built for the Lord’ must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and glory throughout all countries. I will make preparation for it.”

So David prepared abundantly for it before his death.

⁶Then David called his son Solomon, and charged him to build the Lord’s house.

⁷And David said to Solomon: “As for me, my son, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the Lord my God;

⁸but the word of the Lord came to me, saying, ‘You have shed a lot of blood and made great wars;

you shall not build a house for My name, for you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.

⁹but you shall have a son, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side.

His name shall be Solomon, for I will give rest and quietness to Israel all his days.

¹⁰He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son, and I will be his Father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

¹¹“Now, my son, may the Lord be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the Lord your God, as He has said to you.

12“Only may the Lord give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the Lord your God.

13“Then you will prosper, if you are careful to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the Lord charged Moses concerning His people Israel.

Be strong and of good courage; do not fear or be dismayed.

14“See, I have taken much care to prepare for the house of the Lord, one hundred thousand talents of gold, and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron without measure, because of its abundance.

I have also prepared timber and stone; and to these you may add.

15“In addition, there are workmen with you in abundance:

Workers in timber and in stone, and all types of skillful men for every type of work.

16“Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit.

Arise and be doing, for in the doing you shall be blessed; the Lord will be with you.”

17David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to assist his son Solomon, saying, 18“Is not the Lord your God with you? Has He not given you rest on every side?

For he has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, now the land is subdued before the Lord and before His people.

19“Now seek the Lord your God with a fixed heart and soul.

Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the Lord God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord and the holy vessels of God into the house that is to be built for His name.”

DAVID counted all the Levites for the service of the Lord’s house; And the last words of the aged stalwart proceeded from his mouth. He called his sons, the princes, and he called Solomon; But he gave his last charge to the Levites, for the future was with God.

I CHRONICLES 23

1When David was very old and full of days, He made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3And the Levites were counted from the age of thirty years old; and the number of males was thirty-eight thousand.

4From this number, twenty-four thousand were assigned duties in the work of the house of the Lord,

5four thousand were porters, four thousand were appointed to praise the Lord with musical instruments,

“which I made to be used for praise,” David said.

6And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

7Of the Gershonites: Laadan and Shimei.

8The sons of Laadan: Jehiel the first, then Zetham and Joel, a total of three.

9And the sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziël, and Haran, a total of three.

These were the heads of the fathers’ houses of Ladan.

10The sons of Shimei were four: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah.

11Jahath was the first, and Zizah second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons;

therefore they were assigned as one father’s house.

12The sons of Kohath were: Amram,

Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel; a total of four.

¹³Aaron and Moses were the sons of Amram; And Aaron was separated to the Lord, he and his sons forever, that he should sanctify the most holy things, to burn incense before the Lord; to minister to Him and to bless His name forever.

¹⁴Now the sons of Moses the man of God, were numbered with the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶Shebuel was first of the sons of Gershom.

¹⁷Rehabiah was first of the sons of Eliezer, And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were many.

¹⁸And Shelomith was first of the sons of Izhar.

¹⁹Jeriah was first of the sons of Hebron.

The others were Amariah, Jahaziel and Jekameam.

²⁰Michah was the firstborn son of Uzziel, and Jesshiah the second.

²¹The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. To sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

²²And Eleazar having no sons, only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

²³These were three sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jeremoth.

²⁴These were the sons of Levi, by their fathers' houses, the heads as they were counted by names, by their polls, and who worked in the service of the house of the Lord, from age twenty years old and upward.

²⁵For David said, "The Lord God of Israel has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever";

²⁶and to the Levites he said, "They shall carry the tabernacle no more, or any of its vessels for service."

²⁷For by the last words of David the king, the Levites were counted from twenty years of age and upwards;

²⁸for their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the Lord's house, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all the holy things, and in the work of the service of the Lord's house,

²⁹both with showbread and the fine flour for the grain offering, with the unleavened cakes and what is baked in pan, with what is mixed and with all types of measures, of sizes;

³⁰to stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord, and to do likewise in the evening;

³¹and every time the burnt offering is being presented to the Lord on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts, by number according to the set ordinance of each, continually before the Lord;

³²and they were assigned to the responsibility of the tabernacle of meeting, the responsibility of the holy place, and the responsibility for the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of the Lord."

THESE are the divisions of the sons of Aaron, the priest; These are their names and number by governors and chiefs.

I CHRONICLES 24

¹Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

²But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, having no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the duties of priest.

³And David along with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices in their service.

⁴There were more leaders of the sons of Eleazar than of Ithamar, and so they were divided. There were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Eleazar, and eight heads of their fathers' houses from the sons of Ithamar.

⁵These were divided by lot, each group alike, for the governance of the sanctuary, and of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and of Ithamar.

⁶And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one principal household taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

Shubael of the sons of Amram, and Jehdeiah of the sons of Shubael.

hundred men of valor, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David assigned over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

THIS is the pattern of the Lord's house that David gave to Solomon, But he left one eternal pattern for the temple of every man:

Serve God with a willing mind and with a perfect heart; Seek Him and you will find Him; forsake Him, He will cast you off—yes, defile your temple and it will be destroyed.

I CHRONICLES 28

¹David called all the leaders of Israel to Jerusalem: the officers of the tribes, the captains over thousands and hundreds, the stewards over all the kings and his sons' possessions, with the officers, his mighty men, and all the mighty men of valor.

²Then King David stood up, and he addressed them, saying, "Hear my brethren and my people,

I had this in my heart, to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and I had prepared greatly for this building.

³"But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name, for you have been a man of war, and you have shed much blood.'

⁴"However, the Lord God of Israel chose me above all my father's house to be the king of Israel forever; for He has chosen Judah to be ruler. and of my father's house, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over Israel.

⁵"And of all my sons (for the Lord has blessed me with many sons) He has chosen Solomon to sit forever on the throne of the Lord's kingdom over Israel.

⁶"And He said to me, 'Your son Solomon shall build My house and My courts; for I have made Him to be My son, and I will be His Father.'

And I will establish his throne forever, if he will keep My judgments and My commandments unwaveringly, as it is this day.'

⁷"Now, in the sight of all Israel, and the congregation of the Lord, and before our God, be careful to seek and keep all the commandments of your God—this is the secret of possessing—that you may possess this good land, and leave it for your children after you to inherit forever."

@Children of God, here is the pattern that David

*gave to Solomon,
To build a temple called eternal; a temple that is not made with hands;*

“As for you Solomon my son: know the God of your father;

serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind;

for the Lord searches all the hearts and understands every imagination.

If you seek Him you will find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will forever cast you off.

¹⁰Consider now, for the Lord has chosen you to build Him a house for His sanctuary; be strong and do it.”

¹¹Then David gave Solomon the plans for the porch, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner parlors, and the pattern of the mercy seat.

¹²It was the Spirit who gave David the plans and he gave all these plans to Solomon.
The plans for the courts of the Lord’s house,
for the chambers all around,
for the treasuries of the house of God, and the treasuries for the dedicated things;

¹³also for the assignment of the priest and Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the Lord,

and for all the vessels of service in the house of the Lord.

¹⁴He gave gold by weight for golden items,
for all articles used in every type of service,
and silver for all articles of silver by weight,
for all articles used in every area of service;

¹⁵the weight of the lampstands of gold, and their lamp of gold,

the weight for the lampstands of silver and its lamps according to their individual use.

¹⁶He gave gold by weight for the tables of the showbread, per table, and silver for the tables of silver;

¹⁷pure gold for the flesh-hooks, the basins,
the pitchers of pure gold, and the bowls—
he gave gold by weight for every bowl;
for the silver bowl, he gave silver by weight per bowl;

¹⁸and he gave refined gold by weight for the altar of incense,
and for building the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings over the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

¹⁹“All this,” said David, “the Lord made me understand in writing with His hand upon me, all the works of these plans.”

²⁰And David said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and be of good courage, and do it;
do not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord
God—my God—He will be with you;
He will not leave you nor forsake you until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

²¹“This is the assignment of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God;
and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship,

for all areas of service;
and the leaders and all Israel will be totally at your command.”

- Father God, we count it a privilege to be children of God; we refuse to cast this aside by ignoring the rules of Your house. Amen.

ABOVE all I dedicate, I offer of my own;
Above all that he had offered, the people brought silver and gold.
They gave to the Lord willingly, and it brought to them much joy.
David said, “Unto You be the glory; Yours is the earth indeed, O Lord.
When we offer with this willingness, we really offer You what You already own,
What millions in the earth today are still withholding from Your work?”

I CHRONICLES 29

¹And King David said to all the congregation:
“My son Solomon, whom God has chosen alone, is still young and tender, and the work is great that is to be done.
for the temple is not for man, but for the Lord our God.

²“Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God, gold for things to be made of gold, silver for the silver items, bronze for things to be made of bronze, iron for iron things, wood for wooden objects, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening of colored diversity, all types of precious stones, and marble stones abundantly.

³“And because I have set my affection on the house of my God,

I have given to the house of my God, in addition to all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own silver and my own gold;

⁴“three thousand talents of gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;

⁵“the gold for things of gold and silver for things of silver, and for all types of work to be done by the hands the smiths.

I ask you now, who is willing to consecrate his service to the Lord today?”

⁶They came and offered willingly in response to King David’s prompting:

The heads of the fathers’ houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the officers over the king’s work.

⁷For the work of the house of God, they gave five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

⁸And all who possessed precious stones gave them to the treasury of the Lord’s house, into the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

⁹The people came, they gave, and they rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, for with a faithful heart they had offered willingly to the Lord;

it was a happy moment, and King David also rejoiced greatly.

¹⁰Then David blessed the Lord before all the congregation, and David said:

“You are blessed O Lord God of Israel, our Father forever and ever.

¹¹“To You belong the greatness,

The power and the glory,

The victory and the majesty;

All that is in heaven and in the earth is Yours;

The kingdom belongs to You, O Lord,

And You are exalted, head above all.

¹²“Riches and honor come from You, and You reign over all.

In Your hand is all the power! In Your hand is all the might!

It is in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all alike.

¹³“Therefore, O God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name.

¹⁴“But who am I and who are my people, that we are able to offer so willingly as now?

For all things come from You, and we have only given you of what is Your very own.

¹⁵“For we are strangers and pilgrims before You, just as all our fathers were;

Our days on earth are like a shadow, and hopelessly.

¹⁶“O Lord, all this store we have prepared to build a house for Your holy name is from Your hand; it all belonged to You.

¹⁷“I know also, my Lord, that You try the heart and in uprightness You are pleased;

As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I willingly offered all these,

and now with joy I have seen Your people who are present here offer willingly to You.

¹⁸“O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, let this remain forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and let their hearts remain steadfastly on You.

¹⁹“And give my son Solomon a perfect heart, to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies and Your laws, to do all these things and to build the house that I made these provisions for.”

²⁰Then David said to all the congregation, “Now bless the Lord Your God.”

And all the people blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and worshipped with bowed heads and laying prostrate before the Lord and the king.

²¹Then they made sacrifices to the Lord the next morning, and offered burnt offerings to Him:

one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, one thousand lambs, with their drink offering and abundant sacrifices for all Israel.

²²So they ate and drank before the Lord with great gladness on that day.

And they made Solomon the son of David king for the second time, and they anointed Solomon before the Lord to be ruler and Zadok to be priest.

²³And Solomon sat on the throne of the Lord as king in David’s place; he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

²⁴And all the leaders and the mighty men, and all of David’s sons submitted themselves to the king Solomon.

²⁵So the Lord exalted Solomon greatly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty that no king in Israel before him had.

²⁶So David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

²⁷He reigned over Israel for a total of forty years, seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

²⁸And he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son succeeded him as king.

²⁹Now the acts of King David, first and last, are written in the books of Samuel the seer, of Nathan the prophet, and of Gad the seer;

³⁰with all his reign and his might, and the things that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the land.
