

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS

WILL men speak well of your belief, and of your faith and labor of love?
Do you know, without a question, your election of God?
Are you an example to all believers?
Is your faith towards God known?
Do you wait for the Son from heaven with all patience, and with all hope?

1 THESSALONIANS 1

¹Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus;

Grace be to you and peace, from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

²We give thanks to God always for you all,
making mention of you in our prayers,

³remembering without ceasing your work of faith and your labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of our Father God,

⁴knowing, beloved brethren, your election by God;

⁵For our gospel did not come to you in word
only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost with much assurance;
you know the type of men that we were among you for your sake.

⁶And you became followers of us and of the Lord,

having received the word in much affliction with the joy of the Holy Ghost,

⁷so that you became examples to those in Macedonia and Achaia who believed.

⁸For you spoke forth the word of the Lord not in Macedonia and Achaia only, but also in every place your faith towards God has gone out,

so there is nothing that we need to say.

⁹For they themselves speak to us of the manner of impact we had on you, and how you turned from idols to God,
to serve the true and living God,

¹⁰and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus who has delivered us all from the wrath that is to come.

YOU are our joy and our glory,
But that is not where the story starts.
We were shamefully entreated but we spoke boldly;
We bared to you our very hearts.
Not with uncleanness, nor deceitful guile,
Nor flattering words at any time;
Not imparting the gospel alone,
but giving to you our very souls,
Gently, yes gently, as a mother nurses her child.

¹For you yourselves know, brethren, that our coming to you was not in vain,
²but even after we had suffered before, we were treated with much spite at Philippi, but, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak the gospel of God to you, in the midst of contention.
³For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of guile nor any unclean thing, ⁴but we were approved of God to be entrusted with the gospel.
 and even so we speak, pleasing God who tries our hearts, and not as pleasing men.
⁵For neither did we use flattering words at any time, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God Himself is our witness.
⁶Nor did we seek glory of men, neither from you or from others, when we could have been demanding, forasmuch as we are apostles of Christ.
⁷But we were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cherishes her child.
⁸So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted to you not the gospel of God only, but also even our very lives, because you were dear to us.
⁹For you remember, brethren, our labor and travail, for we labored both night and day, that we would not be a burden to any of you, and even so we preached the gospel of God to you.
¹⁰You are witnesses, and God also is, how justly and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you who believed;
¹¹and as you know we exhorted you constantly, and comforted and charged everyone, as a father does to his children,
¹²that you walk worthy of God who has called you unto His kingdom and His glory.
¹³For this cause we thank God without ceasing because, when you heard the word of God, you did not receive it as the word of men but as it is in truth, God's word, which effectually works in you who believes.
¹⁴For brethren, you became followers of the churches of God, which are in Judea in Christ Jesus.
 For you have suffered similar things of your own countrymen, just as they have suffered of the Jews, ¹⁵who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets and have persecuted us; they do not please God and are contrary to all men, ¹⁶forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins, but wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.
¹⁷But, brethren, we having been taken from you for a short time in person, yet not in heart, more abundantly endeavor to see your face with earnest desire.

¹⁸Therefore we would have come to you, even I, Paul, more than once, but Satan hindered us.

¹⁹For what is our hope, our joy and our crown of rejoicing?

Are not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ when He comes again?

²⁰For you are our glory and our joy.

CARING, such caring;

We just have to know your state.
When we could not take it any longer, we sent Timothy your way.
When he told us of your faith and love, it brought us great relief;
For we live if you stand fast, and only if this be.

Caring, such caring; night and day we are praying.

May you abound in love for each other and like us, for all men be caring.

1 THESSALONIANS 3

¹When we could restrain no longer, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone
²and sent Timothy our brother, minister of God and fellow laborer in the gospel, to establish you there and to comfort you concerning your faith, ³that no man should be moved by these afflictions, for you yourselves know that we were appointed to this.

⁴When we were with you, we told you beforehand that we would suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, and you know.

⁵For this reason, when I could no longer restrain myself, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter has tempted you and our labor be in vain.

⁶And now when Timothy came back from you to us again, and brought us good tidings of your faith and of your love, and that you have had good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us as we also to see you.

⁷Therefore brethren, we were comforted, in all our affliction and distresses, by your faith.

⁸For now we live if you stand fast in the Lord.

⁹For what thanks can we render for you unto God for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God, ¹⁰praying exceedingly night and day, that we may see your face, and that we might perfect what is lacking in your faith.

¹¹Now, may God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way, that we may come to you.

¹²And may the Lord make you to increase and to abound in love towards each other, and towards all men as we do towards you,

¹³so that He may establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

GOD called us to holiness, not to be unclean.

Abstain from fornication; among you let it not be heard or seen.

Learn to possess your bodies; study to be quiet and to work,
Ready in knowing, the Lord shall descend from heaven,
With the trump of God and an archangel's shout.

1 THESSALONIANS 4

¹Furthermore, brethren, we charge and exhort you now, by the Lord Jesus, as we told you before,
how you ought to walk and to please God;

²for you know all the commands that we gave you by Jesus our Lord.

³For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that you should abstain from fornication.

⁴that everyone of you should know how to possess your own vessel in sanctification and honor, ⁵not in lustful passion, as the Gentiles do who do not know God.

⁶That no man goes beyond the trust and defraud his brother in any matter, for the Lord is an avenger of such as we have testified and forewarned.

⁷For God has not called us to uncleanness but unto holiness.

⁸He who despises, therefore, despises not man, but God, who has given us His Holy Spirit.

⁹But now, concerning brotherly love, you do not need me to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by the love of God, to love each other,

¹⁰and this you do towards all the brethren who are in Macedonia.

But we entreat you, brethren, that you increase more and more,

¹¹and that you study to be quiet and to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,

¹²that you walk in honesty towards those who are outside,

and that you have lack of nothing.

¹³I would not have you to be ignorant or to doubt concerning those who are dead in Christ, and that you do not sorrow as others who are without hope.

¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those also who are asleep in Jesus Christ will God bring with Him.

¹⁵For to you, we say, by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who are asleep.

¹⁶For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trump of God; and then those who are dead in Christ shall arise first.

¹⁷And we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; so shall we be forever with the Lord.

¹⁸Therefore comfort one another with these words.

1 THESSALONIANS 5

¹But of the times and seasons, brethren, you do not need that I write to you,

²for you, yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord comes as a thief in the night.

³For when they shall say, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction comes as travail upon a woman with child, and there shall be no escape.

⁴But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this day shall overtake you as a thief comes, unexpectedly.

⁵You are all children of the light and children of the day, we are not of the night nor of darkness.

⁶Therefore, let us not sleep as others do, but let us watch and be sober.

⁷For those who sleep, sleep in the night and they get drunk in the night;

⁸but let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of love and faith, and for a helmet, the hope of salvation;

⁹for God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by Jesus Christ our Lord, ¹⁰who died for us so that whether we are asleep or awake, we should live together with Him.

¹¹So therefore, comfort each other, and edify one another, as you also do now.

¹²And brethren, we beseech you, know those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you,

¹⁴Now, brethren, we exhort you, warn those who are unruly, comfort the feeble minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

¹⁵See that none render to any man evil for evil, but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves and to all men.

¹⁶Rejoice evermore

¹⁷and pray without ceasing.

¹⁸Give thanks in everything, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
