

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS

WHAT you sow will surely grow, so brethren, sow your faith. What you lay down shall abound, so spread your love around always. To you who are troubled, be at rest; When the Lord shall come, there will be redress. So may God count you worthy of this calling, and give you power to do the work of faith.

2 THESSALONIANS 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus, along with Timothy, to the Thessalonian churches, in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>Grace and peace be unto you, from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>We are bound to thank God always for you, as it is good, my brethren, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of everyone of you is abundant towards each other,

<sup>4</sup>so that we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God,

about your patience and faith in all your persecutions, and in all the tribulations that you endure,

<sup>5</sup>which is a distinct token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of God's kingdom for which you also suffer;

<sup>6</sup>since with God it is a righteous thing to punish those who trouble you with tribulation,

<sup>7</sup>and to give you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, <sup>8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup>These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power,

<sup>10</sup>when He comes, in that Day, to be glorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who believe, because our testimony among you was believed.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore we also pray for you always, that God would count you worthy of this calling and fulfil all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power,

<sup>12</sup>that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

RESTING in His comfort,
Reestablished in every good word and work;
Not to be deceived,
the man of sin must first be revealed.
But there are some who do not believe the truth;
They take pleasure in unrighteousness.

They are under strong delusions; Believing a lie, they lie in comfort day by day.

2 THESSALONIANS 2

<sup>1</sup>Now we beseech, brethren, regarding the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and also our gathering together to Him,

<sup>2</sup>that you are not to be so quickly shaken in mind, nor be troubled by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as though the day of Christ has arrived.

<sup>3</sup>Let no man deceive you by any means, therefore, for that Day shall not come except there is first a falling away, and unless the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition,

<sup>4</sup>who opposes and exalts himself high above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he as God sits in God's temple, showing himself that he is God.

<sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that when I was yet with you I told you these things?

<sup>6</sup>And now you know what is hidden, that he may be revealed in the time set for him.

<sup>7</sup>For the mystery of iniquity is already at work; only He who now permits will permit, until He is taken out of the way.

<sup>8</sup>And then shall the wicked be clearly seen, whom the Lord shall consume with the breath of His mouth, and shall destroy, likewise, with His coming.

<sup>9</sup>The coming of the wicked one is after the works of Satan, having all power, signs and lying wonders,

<sup>10</sup>and with all deceivable unrighteousness in them that perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth that they might be saved.

<sup>11</sup>For this reason God shall send them strong delusions,

<sup>12</sup>that they should thereby believe a lie and they might be condemned, who believed not the truth, but have pleasure in unrighteousness.

<sup>13</sup>But, brethren beloved of the Lord, we are bound to give thanks to God for you always, because God, from the beginning, had chosen you to salvation in Him through sanctification of the Spirit and believing in the truth,

<sup>14</sup>whereby He called you, by our gospel, to obtain the glory of Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, brethren, stand fast and hold the traditions you have been taught, whether by our epistle or by word.

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God, our Father, who has loved us and has given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup>comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

WORK that you may eat;
Eat of that which you have labored.
Busybodies, gossipers and the lazy,
give them no bread, no comfort.
For we were orderly, working night and day
Not to be chargeable to you, but to be examples constantly.
Now may God direct you, as with patience
for Christ you wait.

2 THESSALONIANS 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, brethren, pray for us that the word of the Lord may progress unhindered, and it may be glorified, even as it is with you, <sup>2</sup>that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for all men do not have faith. <sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful who will establish you and keep you from evil. <sup>4</sup>And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that the thing we command, you are both doing them, and will also do them. <sup>5</sup>And may the Lord direct your hearts in the love of God, and in the patient waiting for Christ. <sup>6</sup>Now, brethren, we command you, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you now withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks disorderly and not after the tradition he received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you know yourselves that you ought to follow us, for we did not behave ourselves disorderly among you, <sup>8</sup>neither did we eat any man's bread without paying, but worked with labor and hardship day and night, that we would not be burdensome to any of you, <sup>9</sup>not because we do not have the right, but rather to make examples of ourselves, for you to follow. <sup>10</sup>For when we were with you, we commanded you that if any would not work neither should they eat. <sup>11</sup>For we hear that there are some among you who walk disorderly and as busybodies, not working at all. <sup>12</sup>Now to those who are such we command and also exhort, by Jesus Christ our Lord, that they work with quietness and so eat their own bread. <sup>13</sup>Now, brethren, do not get weary in well doing. <sup>14</sup>And if any man does not obey our word by this epistle, note that man and have no company with him so that he may be ashamed. <sup>15</sup>Do not consider him to be an enemy, but admonish him, rather as a brother.

<sup>16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace at all times. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup>The salutations of Paul, written with my own hand, which is a custom in every epistle, so I write.

<sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
