

The Epistle of JAMES

DRIVEN on the seas of life,
on waves of faithlessness tossed aside,
asking but not receiving from God,
hearing the word but not doing it,
seeing the reflection yet into the image
not changed,
but a blessing I would rather have.
It is a joy when into temptations I fall,
for trial works patience in us all;
Now be swift to hear, slow to speak,
For we are working the righteousness of God.

JAMES 1

¹James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, unto the twelve tribes scattered abroad, greetings.

²Now, brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials,

³knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience;

⁴But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, with nothing lacking.

⁵But if any man lacks wisdom, let him ask of God who gives to all men liberally, and without reprimand, and it will be given to him.

⁶But let him ask in faith, not wavering, for he who wavers is like a sea wave, driven with the wind and tossed.

⁷Do not let that man assume that he shall receive anything of the Lord.

⁸A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

⁹But let the lowly brother rejoice in that he is exalted by God, ¹⁰but the rich in that he is abased, because as the flower of the field he will pass away.

¹¹For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, than it withers the grass; the flower falls, and its grace and beauty perishes; so shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

¹²Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for after he is tested, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

¹³Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted of God"; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither does He tempt any man.

¹⁴But every man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed.

¹⁵Then when lustful desire is conceived, it produces sin, and the end of sin is death.

¹⁶So my beloved brethren, do not be deceived.

¹⁷Every good and perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with Him there is no variableness, nor shadow of turning.

¹⁸He birthed us of His own will with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of His creation.

¹⁹Therefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath, ²⁰for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

²¹Therefore lay aside all filthiness and excess of wickedness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

²²Therefore be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

²³For if any man is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is likened unto a man who is a gazer, looking at his image in a mirror;

²⁴for he sees himself, goes away and forgets what he looked like.

²⁵For whoever looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in the things he does.

²⁶If any among you thinks he is religious, yet he does not control his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

²⁷Before God and the Father this is pure and undefiled religion:

to visit the widows and fatherless in their affliction, and to keep oneself in the world without being spotted by the world.

CWDS Bible Quotes

- 1. Your consolation in Christ is the breakthrough and comfort your countrymen needs irrespective of the country they are in; have the heart to reach them.*
- 2. Your trials may be countless but they can never count you out; if you count the blessings your trials produce your will count it all joy to be held accountable to and by them.*
- 3. Patience is the product of processing primarily by trials. Patience is not perfection but performance that perfects the person and their provision.*

8. Doubt aborts your request and escorts your expectation from the presence of God.
9. You have everything to lose by losing your faith; doubting God gives you no doubt of failure, for without faith, do not wait, you will receive nothing of God.
10. Your wealth may buy you time but it cannot buy you eternity; humility does.

14. Sin is a fruit produced by the engagement of temptation and the consummation of its marriage to the lust in your heart.
15. The supply determines the source; it is all God if it is any good for God is all good; it does not matter the channel, all good and perfect gifts come from God.
16. You know the giver by the gift; it may look good, feel good, smell and taste good, but unless it is good, perfect, perfecting or produces a good and perfect end, it is not God.
17. God is character built for time but made in eternity; He is not changed by time or with time, nor does He change for any period of time at any time.

PRAYER POINTS

- Loving and forgiving God, give us the heart to reach our countrymen at home and abroad with the good news, in the name of Jesus.
- Holy Spirit, use the story of every burdened Christian to produce glory in their hearts and from their lives. Amen.
- Loving Father, I thank you for the fiery trials refining me to produce Christ in me, in the name of Jesus.
- All wise and most generous God, grace me with all wisdom from on high. Amen.
- Holy Spirit, baptize me with the gift of faith; give me unwavering confidence in word and character of my Father God even in the most trying circumstances. Amen.

MOVING from faith to works, Changing gears, changing gears, For your new car is no use if the engine is dead, so hear. Go ahead and admire its looks; say "Cool!" The devils believe and tremble at this car, too, But would you not prefer to feel the car move, just as Abraham and Rahab did? For without works your faith is dead.

- ¹My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality.
- ²For if a person enters your assembly with gold rings and in expensive clothes, and a poor man comes in, in filthy clothes, and you give respect to the one who wears the rich clothing, and say to him, "Sit here in a good place!" but you say to the poor, "Stand here," or "Sit at my footstool!"
- ⁴are you not then partial among yourselves and have become judges with evil thoughts? Rather, hear, my beloved brethren;
- ⁵has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of His kingdom which He has promised to those who love Him?
- ⁶But you have despised the poor. Does not the rich oppress you and drag you into courts?
- ⁷Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by which you are called?
- ⁸If in accordance with the Holy Scriptures you fulfil the royal law,

“You shall love your neighbor as yourselves,” then in this you do well;

⁹but if you show partiality, you commit sin and also you are convicted of the law as transgressors.

¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law, yet offends in just one point, he is guilty of all.

¹¹For He who said “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not kill!”

Now if you commit no adultery, yet if you murder, then you have become a transgressor of the law.

¹²So speak and so do as those who will be / judged by the law of liberty.

¹³For he who shows no mercy shall be judged without mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

¹⁴What profit is it, my brethren, if a man says he has faith and has no corresponding action? Can he be saved by faith?

¹⁵If a brother or a sister is naked and destitute of daily food,

¹⁶and one of you say to them, “Depart in peace,

God bless you, be warmed and filled!”

yet you do not give to them the things that are needed for the body, what good is it, what does it profit?

¹⁷Even so with faith, if it has no works with it, it is dead all alone.

¹⁸Now a man may say, “You have faith but I have works;

Show me your faith without your works and I will show you my faith by my works.”

¹⁹You believe that there is one God;

You do very well. But I tell you, even the devils believe and tremble!

²⁰But will you be informed, O vain man, faith without works is dead?

²¹Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he offered Isaac his son on the altar?

²²See how faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect;

²³And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “Abraham believed God and it was accredited to him for righteousness.”

And he was called the friend of God.

²⁴And you see how a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

²⁵Was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

²⁶For as the body without the spirit is dead, know that faith without works is just as dead also.

As a fancy car without an engine, it is a gasp without a go.

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Faith is not fragmented; it is fueled only by love. Love has one blend that is colored in blood and has no shades. Partiality or preference because of person, personality, influence or affluence is not practical or possible in Christ.

2. Your wealth is your faith and not your fortune; the greatest fortune is the kingdom of God that flamboyance, fame or funds cannot purchase; we are fortunate to be extended the grace.
3. The richness of a person's wealth is not in their aptitude or affluence in life but in their attitude towards wealth and towards each other.
4. The law of royalty applicable to the kingdom of God is the law of love relevant to every citizen.
5. It is not possible to practice partiality and love every person as yourself at the same time; you give preference to what you love most.
6. Partial compliance is complete non-compliance; you make the law totally pointless if you are fully compliant in everything except in one point.
7. The law of liberty judges what the absence of your mercy exposes. Mercy from you, yields mercy to you and it subdues the judgment you are due.
8. Faith is in the works not just the words. If faith is not auctioned it cannot be auctioned.
9. Faith is failure and futility where there is no corresponding action. Faith is not just expression of intention to do, it is follow-through.
10. Your charm of faith must be supported by extending the arm of faith to the needy; your blessing is just a dressing if there is no expressing of love by giving to the need.
11. Faith works if you work faith; you put your faith on display by your works of faith.
12. The class act of demons is fearful trembling at the awareness and terror of the one God but with no hope of change; the class act of humans is having the hope of change but not repenting with fearful trembling before the God of terror.
13. You are classified with demons if you tremble at the name without entering the game or crying out for change.
14. Your action or absence of it is an expression of what you believe, not just what you believe in; believing in God may not move you but believing God certainly will.
15. Faith without expression is just an impression; faith with expression of supporting action is perfection of faith.
16. The working of your faith yields righteousness; the righteousness of your works is faith.
17. There can be no friend of God without faith because without faith it is impossible to please God.
18. Works is the spirit of faith that makes faith alive and tangible; works without faith is dead works; faith without works is dead faith.

PRAYER POINTS

- Loving Father, give me Your heart of love so I may release my faith with positive effect. Amen.
- Holy Spirit, open my heart to the wisdom of wealth and the overwhelming riches of the kingdom.
- Most High God, I humble myself to You; give me astounding wealth with a selfless extravagant heart for the kingdom. Amen.
- My King and my God, teach me to release love for everyone and to treat my fellow brethren as the royalty they are. Amen.
- Merciful God, baptize the church with the spirit of love that will drive partiality from our midst. Amen.

DIRECT a large horse by a small bit; with a small helm, direct a ship; direct your world by your words. Oh, tongue, Oh, tongue! No man can tame you, A very small thing with such great potency. If a man does not offend in words, he is perfect and able to keep his whole body. No fountain can in one place send forth water that is both bitter and sweet; The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace.

¹My brethren, do not let many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater judgment.

²For we all offend in many things. If anyone does not offend in word, he is a perfect man, able also to restrain his entire body.

³Behold, we put bits in horses' mouths that they obey us, and we turn their whole body about ⁴Observe also the ships; although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder to wherever the pilot desires.

⁵Even so, the tongue is a little member that boasts very great things.

See how great an area a little fire kindles.

⁶And the tongue is a fire; a world of iniquity; So is the tongue among our members that it defiles the whole body and sets on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

⁷For every kind of bird and of animal and of serpent and creature of the sea is tamed and has been tamed by man, ⁸but no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

⁹With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men who are made in the image of God.

¹⁰Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing.

My brethren, it ought not to be that way.

¹¹Does a spring send forth bitter and sweet water at the same place?

¹²Brethren, can the fig tree bear olive berries, or a vine bear figs?

Even so no spring can yield both salt water and fresh.

¹³Who is a wise person with knowledge here among you?

Let him show by good behavior that his works is with meekness of wisdom.

¹⁴But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth.

¹⁵This wisdom does not descend from above but is earthly, sensual, and devilish.

¹⁶For where envying and strife exist, there is confusion and every evil work.

¹⁷But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

¹⁸Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

- My Father, my God, I speak life into the spirits of all those who teach the word of life; give them the passion for consecration. Amen.

RESIST the devil and he will flee;
Draw near to God, He will draw near to you.

Resist the devil and he will flee;
Draw near to God, He will draw near to you.

Life is as a vapor; do good with your smoke.

Resist the devil and watch that vapor go.

JAMES 4

¹Where does the war and fighting among you come from?

Do they not come from the lust that war in your members?

²You lust and you do not have. You murder and covet, yet you cannot obtain.

You fight and you war, yet you do not have because you do not ask.

³You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it upon your own personal pleasure.

⁴Adulterers and adulteresses!

Do you not know that to be friends with this world is to be enemy with God?

Whoever therefore desires to be a friend of this world makes himself an enemy of God.

⁵Do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who dwells in us desires jealousy?"

⁶But He gives more grace. Therefore He says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

⁷Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

⁸Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you.

Cleanse your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, you double-minded.

⁹Mourn and weep, be afflicted;

Let your laughter be turned into mourning and let your joy turn to sorrow.

¹⁰Humble yourself in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

¹¹Do not speak evil of each other. He who speaks evil of his brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law; and he who speaks evil of the law judges the law.

If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.

¹²There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy.

Who are you for you to judge another?

¹³Come on now, you who would say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such or such a city and we will spend a year there, buy and sell and make a profit."

¹⁴For you do not know what will happen tomorrow.

For what is life? It is a vapor; just as smoke that appears for a little time, then vanishes away.

¹⁵For you ought to say, rather, "If the Lord permits, we will live and do this or that.

¹⁶But now you rejoice in your boastings. All such boasting is evil.

¹⁷Therefore, to him who knows to do good yet he does not do it, to him it is sin.

- ¹²But above all things, brethren, do not swear, either by heaven, or by earth, or with any other oath. Let your "Yes" be "Yes," and your "No" be "No," lest you fall into judgment.

¹³Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray.

Is any cheerful? Let him sing psalms.

¹⁴Is any among you sick?

Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.

¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up.

And if he has committed any sin, they shall be forgiven him.

William Tyndale had a passion to see the scriptures in the hand and hearts of the ordinary man. He is accredited for the first printed English translation of the New Testament. In 1536, William Tyndale was condemned to death for his efforts to bring forth an English translation of the Bible for the profit of the common man. Brought to the place of execution in a town outside Brussels, he was tied to the stake, strangled by the hangman, and then consumed with fire for his so-called "heresy."
