

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to TITUS

LOOK around; what do you see?
Do you see works of love and purity?
Do you see beyond all evil to the hand of the Lord?

For to the pure, all things are pure.
Look around, Titus, in every city,
and ordain elders as I have appointed you.
Not those who are self-willed, but who loves hospitality
and who will see with purity.

TITUS 1

¹Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ,

according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is according to godliness,

²in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before the world began,

³but has, in due time, made His word known through the preaching of Christ, which was committed to me in accordance with the commandment of God, our Savior;

⁴to Titus, my own son in this common faith. Grace, peace and mercy from God our Father and our Savior Jesus Christ.

⁵For this reason I left you in Crete that you should urgently set in order the things that are lacking there, and that you should ordain elders in every city as I have appointed you;

⁶if any is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, nor unruly ways.

⁷For a bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God,

not self-willed, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for filthy wealth;

⁸but a lover of hospitality, a lover of good, sober, just, temperate and holy,

⁹holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught,

that he may be able by sound doctrine to exhort and convince those who are contradictory.

¹⁰For there are many idle talkers, deceivers, unruly,

especially those of the circumcision,

¹¹whose mouths must be stopped, who destabilize entire households, teaching things they ought not for the sake of filthy gains.

¹²One of them, even their own prophet, said, "The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies."

¹³This witness is true; therefore rebuke them

sharply that they may be sound in the faith,

¹⁴not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandment of men who turn from the truth.

¹⁵Unto the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but even their mind and their conscience are defiled.

¹⁶They profess to know God, but they deny Him in works, being abominable and disobedient and disqualified for every good work.

A MESSAGE to the aged men:
be sound in love, patience and faith;

A message to the old women:
be sound in love, yes, love always.
Aged women give the message to the young women,
and let the young men show good works;
And there is a message for all people who are looking for the blessed hope.

TITUS 2

¹But you should speak those things which amount to sound doctrine:

²that the older men be sober, temperate, reverent, sound in faith, in love and patience;

³the older women, likewise, that they be holy in behavior, not false accusers, nor given to much wine, teachers of good things;

⁴That they may teach the younger women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

⁵be chaste, discreet, home makers, good and obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God is not blasphemed.

⁶Also exhort the younger men to be sober minded,

⁷showing yourself an example of good works in all things;

not corrupt in doctrine, but show sincerity and reverence

⁸with sound speech that cannot be condemned, that those who are contradictory may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about you.

⁹Exhort bond-servants to be obedient to their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not answering back insolently,

¹⁰not purloining, but rather showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

¹¹For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men,

¹²teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lust, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world,

¹³looking for the blessed hope and the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, ¹⁴who gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify us unto Himself, a peculiar people, jealous after good works.

¹⁵These things speak, rebuke and exhort with all authority.

Let no man despise you.

Be ready in every good work,
Obey magistrates,
Show meekness to everyone,
for we ourselves were just as they:
Disobedient, foolish, deceived,
Living in malice and envy.
Be careful to maintain good works.
I have said this many times, over and again,
But this should not surprise you:
It is not by works that you are saved.

TITUS 3

¹Put them in the frame of mind to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey magistrates and to be ready for every good work.

²to speak evil of no one, to be no brawler, rather gentle, showing all meekness to all men.

³For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy hateful and hating each other.

⁴But when the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared,

⁵not by works of righteousness which we have done,

but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Ghost,

⁶Whom He gave to us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord, ⁷That being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

⁸This is a faithful saying, and these things I desire that you affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works.

These things are good and profitable to all men.

⁹But avoid foolish questions, genealogies, contentions and disputing about the law, for they are unprofitable and not beneficial.

¹⁰If a man who is divisive, reject him after the first and second admonition, ¹¹knowing that such a person is subverted and stained with sin, being condemned of his own self.

¹²Now when I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

¹³Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos diligently on their journey, that they may lack nothing.

¹⁴And let our people also learn to maintain good works, as necessary, that they may not be unfruitful.

¹⁵All those who are with me salute you.

Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

The missionary exploits of the apostle Paul, and his suffering, is recorded in the Books of Acts and evidenced in the Epistles he wrote which forms a significant part of the New Testament. Hippolytus records that Paul with Peter founded the church in Rome, and that like Peter, Paul met his fate in Rome. Paul, being a Roman citizen, could not be crucified as Peter was, but got an 'easier' death sentence, he was beheaded. He asserts that, the accounts of Peter and Paul is substantiated by the fact that their names are preserved in the cemeteries of that place to this present day.
