

The Book of ISAIAH

They shall be white as snow.
Wash yourself, make yourself clean,
Put away evil and from sin cease.
Though your sins are as scarlet,
They shall be white as snow.

ISAIAH 1

¹The vision of Isaiah, son of Amoz,
Which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem

In the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz,
And Hezekiah, Judah's kings.

²Hear, O heavens; O earth, give ear!
For the Lord has spoken:

"I have nourished and brought up children,
But they have rebelled against Me.

³"The ox knows its owner,
And the donkey its master's stall,
But My people do not consider,
Israel, does not know."

⁴Ah, sinful nation,

You can be white as snow!

A people laden with iniquity,
A bunch of evildoers, children who are corrupters!

They have forsaken the Lord God and provoked Israel's Holy One to anger.
They have all slidden backwards.

⁵Why should you be smitten any longer?
You will revolt more and more.

The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faints.

⁶From the sole of the foot to the head,
There is no soundness in it anymore,
But wounds, bruises and putrefying sores.
They have not been bound up nor been closed,

Nor with ointment have they been soothed.

⁷Your country is in desolation,
And your cities burnt with fire.
Strangers devour your land in your presence,
before your eye;
It is overthrown by strangers and made desolate.

⁸As a hut in a vineyard, so is the daughter of Zion deserted,

As a lodge in a cucumber garden,
As a city that is besieged.

⁹Unless the Lord had left us a small remnant,
We would have been as Sodom, we would have been made like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of the Lord you rulers of Sodom;

You people of Gomorrah, give ear to the law of God:

¹¹"To what purpose is your many sacrifices to Me?" says the Lord God.

"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams

and I am full of the fat of fed cattle.

I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of male goats, or of lambs.

¹²"When you come to appear before Me,
When you come to walk on My courts,

Who has required this from your hand?

¹³"Bring no more useless sacrifices;

To Me, incense is an abomination.

The New Moon, the Sabbaths, the calling of assemblies—

I cannot endure iniquity mixed with the sacred meeting.

¹⁴"Your New Moon and set feasts My soul
hates;

They are a trouble to Me, I am weary of them.

¹⁵"When you spread out your hands,

I will hide My eyes from you;

I will not hear your many prayers,

I will not listen, for with blood your hands are full.

¹⁶"Wash and make yourself clean;
Put from before Me your evil deeds.

Learn to do well and from evil cease.

¹⁷"Practice good and seek justice;

Rebuke the oppressor;

Defend the fatherless and plead for the widow.

¹⁸"Come let us reason together, you and Me,"
Says the Lord,

"White as snow, white as snow,

Though your sins are as scarlet,

They shall be white as snow.

Though they are red like crimson,

They shall be just as wool.

¹⁹"If you are willing and obedient,

You shall eat of the land's good;

²⁰"But if you refuse and rebel,

You shall be devoured by the sword."

The mouth of the Lord has spoken,

But the choice is truly yours.

²¹How has the faithful city become a harlot!

It was once full of justice;

Righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers.

²²Your silver has become dross,

Your wine mixed with water; tasteless.

²³Your princes are rebellious;

Companions of thieves they have become.

Everyone loves bribes;

They pursue rewards.

They did not defend the fatherless,

And the cause of the widow they refuse.

²⁴"Therefore," says the Lord of hosts,
Israel's mighty One who sees and knows,

"I will rid Myself of My adversaries,
And avenge Myself of My enemies.

²⁵"I will turn My hand against you,
I will purge away your dross,
And take away all your tin.

²⁶"I will restore your judges as at the first,
And your counselors as they once were.

Afterwards you shall be called
The city of righteousness, the faithful city!"

²⁷"With judgment Zion shall be redeemed,
And her converts with righteousness.

²⁸"The destructions of transgressors and of sinners will be together.
Those who forsake the Lord will be consumed.

²⁹"For they shall be ashamed of your attitude,
Because of the oak trees you have desired
And embarrassed because of the garden of your choice.

³⁰"You will be as an oak whose leaf fades
And as a garden that has no water, no rain.

³¹"The strong will be as tinder;
The work of it as a spark.

They will both burn together,
And no one will put their fire out."

THE day of the Lord is coming,
Is coming and all will know;
Where everything that is proud and lofty
And every high thing is brought low.
Where the house of the Lord will be established in the top of the mountains,
Exalted above all hills, and to it all nations will flow.
Come, everybody; let us walk in the light of the word,
For certainly it is coming, the great and terrible day of the Lord!

ISAIAH 2

¹The word seen by Isaiah, son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem:
²It will come to pass in the latter days, This will surely happen in the end, The mountain of the Lord's house Will be established on the top of the mountains;
 It will be exalted above the hills, And all nations will flow to it.
³Many people will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, To the house of the God of Jacob; He will teach us of His ways, And we will walk in His paths." For out of Zion will go forth the law, And the Lord's word from Jerusalem.
⁴He will judge between the nations, Many people to rebuke. They will beat their swords into plowshares, And their spears into pruning hooks; Nation will not lift sword against nation, Nor will they learn war anymore.
⁵Come, house of Jacob; Let us walk in the light of the Lord.
⁶You have forsaken Your people; You removed Yourself from the house of Jacob, Because they are filled with the ways of the people of the East; They are soothsayers like the Philistines. They please themselves with strangers;
⁷Their land is also full of silver and gold, And there is no end to their treasures; Their land is full of horses and chariots also.
⁸But their land is also full of idols; They worship the work of their own hands, Things made with their own fingers, designed to their own hurt.
⁹The people bow down, And the great man humbles himself; Therefore do not forgive them.
¹⁰Enter into the rock and hide in the dust, From the terror of the Lord and His majestic glory.
¹¹The lofty look of man will be humbled, His haughtiness will be brought down. The Lord alone will be exalted In that day, yes, the Lord alone.
¹²For the day of the Lord of hosts Will come upon everything lofty and proud, Upon everything lifted up, They will be brought low.
¹³Upon the cedars of Lebanon, And upon all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴And upon all the high mountains, And upon the high and exalted hills.
¹⁵And also upon every high tower, Upon every wall that is fenced;
¹⁶Upon all the ships of Tarshish, And upon every pleasant picture.

¹⁷The loftiness of man will be brought down, The haughtiness of men made low; The Lord alone will be exalted in that day, The Lord, God alone.
¹⁸He will utterly abolish the idols;
¹⁹They will go into the holes in the rocks And into the caves of the earth From the terror of the Lord, the mighty God, And from the glory of His majesty, When He arises to shake the earth mightily.
²⁰In that day men will cast their idols of silver and of gold to rodents, moles and bats, ²¹The idols they made to worship, They will cast away to run into the cleft of the rocks And into the crags of rugged rocks, For the terror of the Lord and for His majestic glory, When He arises to shake the earth mightily.
²²Sever yourself from such a man, whose breath is in his nostrils, for of what account is he?
The day of the Lord will test every work!

EAT the fruit of your doings;
Tell the righteous, "It is well."
Eat the fruit of your doings;
See the wicked, woe to them.
When store and bread He takes away,
And their good things have been changed,
The Lord has entered into judgment... woe;
Now they eat the fruit of the seeds they sow.

ISAIAH 3

 Now takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
 The stock and store,
 The whole provision of bread;
 The whole provision of water He takes from them,

Because their tongue and their deeds are against the Lord,

 Woe to their soul! They brought themselves an evil reward.

 For you have eaten up the vineyards;
 You have plundered the poor.
¹⁵Why do you beat My people to pieces?
 Why do you grind the faces of the poor?" says the Lord God of hosts.
¹⁶Moreover, says the Lord, "Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
 Walking with necks stretched out and with flirting eyes,
 Walking and mincing as they go,
 With their feet making a jingling noise,
¹⁷Therefore with a scab the Lord will strike the crown of their heads.
 He will uncover their secret parts."

 The jingling ornaments on their feet,
 And their scarves and their anklets that are round as the moon;

The blood is purged and all the stains,
The branches of the Lord shall be glorious.
To all those who escape, so glorious,
Because of the spirit of burning,
And because of the spirit of judgment.

ISAIAH 4

¹Seven women will take hold of one man, in that day,
Saying, "We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes,
Only let us be called by your name,
To take our reproach away."
Yes, so will it be in that day.

²And the Branch of the Lord will be glorious,
Beautiful and glorious in that day,
The fruit of the earth excellent and desirable
For those of Israel who have escaped.

³And it will come to pass that, he who is left in Zion,

And who remains in Jerusalem, will be called holy,

All those whose names are recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

⁴When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion,

And He has purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst,

By the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning,

⁵Then the Lord will create above all the dwelling places of Mount Zion.

And above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day,

And the shining of a flaming fire by night.

For over all the glory there will be a covering,

⁶And there will be a tent for shade in the daytime from the heat;

For a place of refuge and for a shelter from storm and rain.

Glorious!

YOU are My vineyard; I planted you.
What can be done to My vineyard that I did not do?

I looked for grapes but the grapes were wild;

I will break down the hedges; waste will it be.

Woe to the vine that calls bitter “sweet,”
That calls good, “evil!” Woe and rottenness.

ISAIAH 5

¹I will sing to my Well-beloved a song of my Beloved;
I will sing to Him a song regarding His vineyard.
²My Well-beloved owns a vineyard on a fruitful hill, fenced around.
He dug it up, cleared out all the stones and He planted it with the best vines.
In the midst He built a tower and built a winepress in it;
He anticipated that it would produce good grapes, but it produced wild grapes.
³Now, O men of Judah and Jerusalem, judge between Me and My vineyard.
⁴What more could have been done to My vineyard that I have not done?
Why then did it bring forth to Me wild grapes when I expected good grapes?
⁵Let me tell you what I will do to My vineyard, I will take the hedge away from you and it will be burned and break down the wall and it will be trampled.
⁶“I will lay it waste;
It will not be pruned or dug.
There will come up briars and thorns;
I will command the clouds that they do not rain on it.”
⁷For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel
The men of Judah are His pleasant plant.
He looked for justice, but sees oppression;
For righteousness but instead, a cry for help.
⁸Woe to those who join house to house,
Who add field to field until there is no place where they may dwell alone in the midst of the land!
⁹In My ears the Lord of hosts spoke,
Saying, “Many houses will be desolate,
Great and beautiful houses uninhabited.
¹⁰“For ten acres of vineyard will yield just one bath,
And a homer of seed will yield just one ephah.”
¹¹Woe to those who rise early in the morning,
That they may pursue strong drink;
Who continue until night, until they are fully inflamed by wine!
¹²The harp, tambourine, viol, pipe and wine are in their feasts.
They do not regard the word of the Lord, neither consider the operation of His hands.
¹³Therefore my people have gone into captivity, because knowledge is gone from them.
Their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.
¹⁴Therefore Hell has enlarged herself;
Beyond measure she has opened her mouth.
Into it their multitude will descend with their glory and their pomp

And he who is jubilant
All their terrible men will be brought down,
The eyes of the lofty will be humbled.
¹⁶But the Lord of hosts will be exalted in judgment.
The holy God will be hallowed in righteousness.
¹⁷Then the lambs will feed in their pasture,
And in the waste places of the fat ones strangers will eat.
¹⁸Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as if with a cart rope.
¹⁹They say, “Let Him make speed and hasten His work that we may see it;
Let the counsel of the Holy One draw near and come that we may know it.”
²⁰“Woe to those who call good evil and evil good,
Who put light for darkness and darkness for light;
Who call sweet bitter and bitter sweet! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight!
²¹Woe to those men who are mighty at drinking wine,
²²Woe to men valiant for mixing strong drink,
²³Who justifies the wicked for a bribe,
And takes away justice from the righteous!
²⁴Therefore, as fire devours the stubble
And as flame consumes the chaff,
So their root will be rottenness,
And their blossom will be blown like dust;
For they have cast away the law of the Lord of hosts,
And despised the word of Israel’s Holy One.
Therefore the Lord’s anger is aroused as a sword against His people;
²⁵Against them He has stretched out His hand;
He has smitten them.
The hills trembled;
Their carcasses were as refuse in the midst of the streets.
For all this His anger is not turned away; His hand is stretched out still.
²⁶He will lift up a banner to the distant nations;
From the end of the earth He will whistle to them;
They will come with speed swiftly;
²⁷None will be weary or stumble among them.
None of them will slumber nor sleep,
Nor will the belt of their loins be loosed,
Nor their shoe latchet break.
²⁸Their arrows are sharp and all their bows bent;
²⁹Their horses’ hooves will be like flint,
And their wheels like a whirlwind.
Their roaring will be like that which a lion makes;
They will roar like young lions;
Yes, they will roar and lay hold of the prey;
They will carry it away safely and no one will deliver it.

³⁰In that day they will roar as the roaring of the sea.

If one beholds the land all they will see is darkness and sorrow,
And the light is darkened by the clouds!

He was sitting on a throne, high and lifted up,
And the train of His robe filled the temple.

²Above it stood the seraphims;
They all had, each one, six wings:
Two covered the face and two the feet,
The other two they used to fly.

³One to another I heard them cry,
"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.
Holy, holy, the Lord is holy;

The entire earth is filled with His glory!"

⁴The post of the door moved as he spoke;
Awesome, the house was filled with smoke.

⁵Then I said, "Woe, woe is this man;
Woe is me for I am undone!

I am a man of unclean lips;
And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips;

For my eyes have seen the King,
The Lord of hosts!"

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me;
He had a live coal in his hand,
Which he had taken from the altar with tongs,
And oh, sweet relief, it touched my lips.

⁷As he touched my lips with it, he said,
"Behold, this has touched your lips;
Your iniquity is taken; your sin is purged."

Then from my head was gone all noise

⁸And I clearly heard the Lord's sweet voice,
"Whom shall I send, who will go for Us?"

And I said, "Here I am! Send me; I will go."

⁹And He said, "Go and tell this people: 'Hear, you hear very well,
You keep on hearing, but you do not understand;

See, you see indeed,

You see but without perception.'

¹⁰Make the heart of the people fat;

Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes;
Lest with their eyes they should see
And with their ears they hear,
And understand with their heart,
And return and be healed.”

¹¹Then I said, “Lord, O Lord, how long?”

He answered,

“Until the cities are wasted without inhabitants,

Until the houses are without a man in them,

And the land is utterly desolate.

¹²The Lord has removed men far away, and to the forsaken places many in the midst of the land.

¹³“Yet a tenth will remain in it,

And will return and be for eating,

As a terebinth tree or as an oak,

Whose stump remains when it is cut down,

So the holy seed will be its stump.”

HE gives to you a sign, though you did not ask for one;
A virgin will conceive and bring forth salvation.
She will bring forth a Son, Immanuel, His name will be.
But you will not be established if you do not believe.

ISAIAH 7

¹In the days of Ahaz, son of Jotham, Uzziah’s son,

Who was king of Judah,

Rezin, Syria’s king came down,

With Pekah, king of Israel to Jerusalem

To make war against the city, but could not prevail against them.

²It was told to the house of David, “Syria is confederate with Ephraim.”

So his heart was moved, and the hearts of the people, as trees sway before the wind.

³Then the Lord said to Isaiah, “Go out to meet Ahaz,

You and Shear-jashub your son on the highway of the Fuller’s Field, ⁴“At the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool.

Say to him, ‘Listen, do not fear, be quiet, yes, just maintain your cool.

Do not let these two tails of smoking firebrands make your heart afraid ⁵Because of the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria and the son of Remaliah and Ephraim.

They have plotted evil against you, saying,

⁶“Let us go up against Judah.

Let us trouble it and make a breach in its walls for ourselves,

And set the son of Tabeel as king over them.”

⁷This the Lord says, “Their counsel will not stand, neither will it come to pass.

The head of Syria is Damascus,

The head of Damascus is Rezin.

⁸I know their time and years.

Ephraim shall no more be a people; they will be broken in sixty-five years.

⁹The head of Ephraim is Samaria; Remaliah’s son is their chief.

I know, but if you will not believe, you will not be established!”

¹⁰Moreover, the Lord spoke again to Ahaz, saying, “Ask a sign of the Lord your God.

¹¹Ask it either in the depths beneath or in the heights above.”

¹²Ahaz said, “I will not ask for a sign. I will not tempt the Lord.”

¹³And he said, “Hear me now, O house of David, and tell me now,

It is a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also?
¹⁴“Therefore the Lord Himself will give a sign:
Behold, a virgin will conceive;

She shall bear a Son and call His name Immanuel;

¹⁵He will eat butter and honey, that He may have the power of choice; He will know to refuse evil and choose the good and what is right.

¹⁶“But before the Child will know good and evil, even before these things, The land that you dread will be forsaken by both her kings.

¹⁷The Lord will bring the king of Assyria upon you and your people and your father’s house; Days that have not been since the day Ephraim departed from Judah.”

¹⁸It will come to pass in that day, The Lord will hiss for the fly in the farthest parts of the rivers of Egypt and for the Assyrian bee;

¹⁹They will come, and they will rest in the desolate valleys and in the clefts of rocks, And on all the thorns and in all the bushes.

²⁰In the same day, the Lord will shave with a hired razor, With those from beyond the River, with king of Assyria.

The hair of the head and hair of the feet And will also remove the beard.

²¹In that day a man will nourish a young cow and two sheep,

²²And they will give milk so abundantly that he will eat butter.

Everyone left in the land will eat butter and honey.

²³And wherever there could be a thousand vines,

Worth a thousand shekels of silver, There will be briars and thorns.

²⁴With bows and arrows men will come there because of these briars and thorns.

²⁵To any hill which could be dug with the hoe, Men will not go there for fear of the briars and thorns, But it will become a pasture for oxen and for the flocks to roam.

SANCTIFY the Lord; let Him be your fear and dread.

Should not a people seek the Lord rather than seek the dead?

ISAIAH 8

¹The Lord said to me, “Take a large scroll and write this down

With the pen of a man concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz, your son.”

²I took some to bear record; I took faithful witnesses to me, Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah and Uriah the priest.

³I went in to the prophetess; I went in and she conceived; She conceived and bore a son. Then the Lord said to me,

“Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz,

⁴For before he has knowledge to cry ‘Father’ or ‘Mother’, the king of Assyria will take away the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria!”

⁵Again the Lord spoke to me, saying,

⁶“Inasmuch as the people refuse the waters of Shiloah which flow softly, But in Rezin and Remaliah’s son, they chose to rejoice, ⁷The Lord brings over them the waters of the River in its might, Waters strong and many, even the hand of the king of Assyria.

He will come with all his glory and go up over all his channels and banks.

⁸He will pass through Judah; there he will overflow, Reaching even to the neck, and through the whole land he will go.

His stretched-out wings will fill the breadth of Your land, O Immanuel.

⁹Be shattered, O you peoples,
Be broken into pieces!

Give ear, all you peoples of distant countries;
Gird yourselves, but be broken to pieces.
Gird yourselves, but be broken.

¹⁰“Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing;

Speak the word; but it will not stand,
For our God is with us.”

¹¹For the Lord spoke this to me with a strong hand,

¹²“Do not walk in the way of the people!” was His instruction.

“Do not be a confederate with them; do not join them in their ways.

Nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.

¹³Hallow the Lord of hosts; let Him be your fear;

Let Him be your dread.

¹⁴“He will be a sanctuary,

But a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense,
To both the houses of Israel,
And a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁵Many of them will stumble; they will fall and be broken;

They will be snared and will be taken.”

¹⁶Seal the law among My disciples; bind the testimonies.

¹⁷And I will wait on the Lord who hides His face from Israel and from the house of Jacob; and I will hope in Him.

¹⁸Here am I and the children God has given me!

We are for signs and wonders in Israel,
From the Lord of hosts who dwells in mount Zion.

¹⁹When they say to us, “Seek familiar spirits and wizards, who speaks whispering,” should not a people seek their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?

²⁰To the law and to the testimony!
But they have no light in them, that is why they do not speak according to this word;

²¹They will pass through it, hungry, unsteady and barely alive,

And when they are hungry they will be enraged and curse their king and their God alike, ²²And they will look upwards.

They will look to the earth then,
And behold trouble and darkness,
Gloom and anguish; and they will be driven to darkness.

WONDERFUL shall His name be,
Counselor, Mighty God and Prince of Peace.

A great light to pierce the darkness.

On His shoulder He will carry the government.

Wonderful shall His name be.

ISAIAH 9

¹Nevertheless the gloom will not be on her who is distressed,
When at first He lightly afflicted Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, both of them.

And afterwards He afflicted her more grievously

Beyond Jordan, in Galilee by the way of the sea.

²The people who walked in darkness, they have seen a great light.

Those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,

Upon them a light has shined.

³You have multiplied the nation, and increased its joy.

They rejoice before You with joy as in the harvest time,
And as men rejoice when they divide the plunder.

⁴You have broken the yoke of his burden;
His yoke you have broken off,
And also the staff of his shoulder and his oppressor's rod
As in the day of Midian.

⁵For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise,
And garments rolled in blood of wasted lives,
But this one will be with burning and fuel of fire.

Not the normal battle of the warrior.

⁶For unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given;
And the government will be on His shoulder,
And His name will be called Wonderful,
Counselor, the Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace.

Wonderful will His name be.

⁷Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end.

Upon the throne of David, and over His kingdom,
He will reign,
To order and establish it with judgment,
And from that time forward and forever with justice;

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

⁸The Lord sent a word against Jacob,
And it has fallen on Israel.

⁹All the people will know,
Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria,
Who say in pride and arrogance of hearts:

¹⁰"The bricks have fallen down but we are not hurt.

We will build again with cut stones instead.
The sycamores are cut down but we will replace them with cedar."

¹¹Therefore the Lord will set up adversaries to Rezin,

And spur his enemies on,

¹²The Syrians before and the Philistines behind.

They will devour Israel with an open mouth.
For all this His anger will not be turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still in that day,

¹³For the people do not turn to Him who smites them,

Nor do they seek the Lord of hosts, nor turn from their sins.

¹⁴Therefore the Lord will cut from Israel both head and tail,
Palm branch and bulrush; all this in just one day.

¹⁵The elder and honorable, He is the head;
The tail is the prophet who teaches lies to them.

¹⁶For the leaders of this people cause them to err;

Those who are led by them are all destroyed as well.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will have no joy in their young men,
Nor will he have mercy on the widows and fatherless;

They are all hypocrites and evildoers,
Every mouth speaks folly, therefore no one can stand.

Yet still His arm is stretched out, His anger will not die, ¹⁸For wickedness burns just as the fire.

It will devour the briars and the thorns
And will kindle in the thickets of the forest and burn.

They will mount like the rising of smoke.

¹⁹The land will be therefore burned up through the wrath of the Lord of hosts;
The people will be as fuel for the fire;
No man, not one, will spare his brother.

²⁰He will snatch on the right hand and be hungry still;

He will eat on the left hand and will not be filled;

Every man will eat the flesh of his own arm.

²¹Manasseh will devour Ephraim and Ephraim, Manasseh,

And they will be against Judah, together as one.

For all this His anger is not turned; it still burns hot,

And there still remains His fearsome hand stretched-out.

HAVE you considered, what will you do, In the day of visitation when desolation comes to you?

Will the ax boast itself against the one who hews?

Or the saw against the shaker?

Consider this, will you.

Yet just a little while and indignations will cease;

The anointing will destroy the yoke and bring great relief!

ISAIAH 10

¹“Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees

And write grief and misfortunes, which they have so prescribed to be,

²To rob the needy of justice, and from among My people to take away the rights of the poor, That widows may be their prey and that they may rob the fatherless.

³What will you do in the day of punishment? In the day when desolation comes from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory?

⁴Without Me, they will bow down among the prisoners;

They will fall among the slain.”

For all this, His anger is still not turned away,

But the hand of God is stretched out still; His anger is unchanged.

⁵“Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger,

The staff in their hand is My indignation.

⁶Against a hypocritical nation, I will send him, And I will give him charge against the people of My wrath,

To plunder them and take the spoil and to tread them down

Like mire in the streets, trodden to the ground.

⁷“However, he does not mean it so; his heart does not think of you alone.

It is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations, and not just a few.

⁸For he says, ‘Are not my princes altogether kings?’

⁹Is not Calno like Carchemish, Hamath like Arpad and Samaria like Damascus?’

¹⁰“My hand has found the kingdom of the idols whose carved images excelled, above those of Jerusalem and Samaria; Yes, my hand has found them.

¹¹Shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols as to Samaria I have done?”

¹²It shall come to pass, when the Lord’s entire work is performed,

When the Lord had performed all His work on Jerusalem and on Mount Zion,

Then He will say, “I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart, of the king of the Assyrians, And I will punish the glory of his haughty looks.”

¹³For he says, “I have done it by the strength of my hand,

And also by my wisdom, for I am prudent; Also I have removed the boundaries of the people;

I have robbed their treasuries;

So have I put the inhabitants down.

¹⁴The riches of the people, my hand has found just as a nest;

I have gathered all the earth as one gathers eggs.

There was no one who moved his wing or opened his mouth.”

¹⁵Now, shall the ax boast itself against him who chops with it?

Shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws with it?

Can the rod wield itself against those who lift it high?

Can the staff lift itself up as if it is not wood?

¹⁶Therefore the Lord of hosts shall do this, He will send leanness among his fat ones, and under his glory to devour

He will kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

¹⁷So the Light of Israel will be for a fire, and His Holy One for a flame;

It will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day.

¹⁸It will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field;

As when a standard-bearer wastes away, so shall both soul and body be.

¹⁹The rest of the trees of his forest that remain shall be so few

That a child may write the number; it will be so easy to do.

²⁰And those remaining of Israel, and those of the house of Jacob who have escaped, Will no longer depend on him who defeated them in that day, But will depend on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel.

²¹Those remaining of Jacob will return to the mighty God.

²²Though Israel is as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them will return; The decreed destruction will overflow with righteousness.

²³The Lord has determined an end in the midst of the land;

²⁴Therefore, says the Lord of hosts, "O My people who dwell in Zion,

Do not be afraid of the Assyrian.

He will smite you with a rod

And lift up his staff against you after the manner Egypt had done.

²⁵"For yet a little while and the indignation will cease,

And My anger in their destruction; you will have peace."

²⁶As with the slaughter of the Midian at Oreb, the Lord of hosts will stir up for him a scourge; He lifts up His rod, as it was on the sea in Egypt.

²⁷It shall come to pass in that day, that his burden will be taken away from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, And the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing.

²⁸He is come to Aiath, to Migron he is passed, He attended to his equipment at Michmash.

²⁹They have gone over the passage; at Geba they lodge.

Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul has fled away.

³⁰O daughter of Gallim, lift up your voice! Let it be heard as far as Laish;

O poor Anathoth!

³¹Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim flee.

³²He will remain at Nob that day, and shake His fist at you,

Against the mountain of the daughter of Zion, The hill of Jerusalem.

³³Behold, the Lord of hosts will lop the boughs with terror;

Those of high stature He will hew down;

The haughty will be humbled, brought to the ground.

³⁴He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron,

And Lebanon will fall by a Mighty One.

THE earth will be filled with Your knowledge
As the waters cover the sea;
None will destroy again in Your holy mountain
When the knowledge of the Lord reigns free.
The wolf will dwell with the lamb;
The leopard will lie with the kid;

The calf and young lion and the fatted calf lie in Zion
With a little child in the lead.

ISAIAH 11

¹There will come a Rod from the stem of Jesse;

²Out of his root a Branch will grow.

The Spirit of the Lord will rest upon Him,
The spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The spirit of counsel and of might,
The spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

³His delight is in the fear of the Lord.
It will make Him of quick understanding in the fear of God;

He will not judge by sight,
No, not by the observation of the eyes, or the conception of the mind,

Or reprove by the hearing of the ears.
⁴But with righteousness He will judge the poor,

And decide with equity for the meek.
With the rod of His mouth will He smite the earth

And slay the wicked with the breath of His lips.

⁵Righteousness will be the belt of His loins
And faithfulness the belt of His waist.

⁶The wolf will dwell with the lamb,
The leopard and goat kid will be as one,
The calf and young lion and the fatted calf will lie together there,
And a little child shall lead them.

⁷The cow and the bear will together graze;
Their young ones will lie together.

The lion will eat grass just like the ox.

⁸The nursing child will play by the serpent's hole;
On a viper's den the weaned child will put his hand.

⁹They will not hurt nor destroy in My holy mountain,
For the knowledge of the Lord will be strong.
The earth will be full of knowledge of the Lord
As the waters cover the sea;

*None shall destroy again
In My holy mountain
When the knowledge of the Lord reigns free.*

¹⁰On that day a Root of Jesse
As a banner to the people will stand.

The Gentiles will seek Him;
His resting place will be glorious.

¹¹And it will come to pass,
The Lord will set His hand a second time to recover those remaining of His people, wherever they are,
From Egypt and Assyria, Pathros, Cush and Elam's borders,
From Shinar, Hamath and the islands of the sea.

¹²He will set up a banner for the nations
And will assemble all of Israel's outcasts;
He will gather Judah's dispersed, from the four corners of the earth.

¹³The envy of Ephraim also will depart;
The adversaries of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not envy Judah;

Judah will not trouble Ephraim, ¹⁴They will fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines towards the west.

They will plunder those of the East together;
They will lay their hand on Edom and Moab;
And the people of Ammon will obey them.

¹⁵The Lord will utterly destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt.

With His mighty wind He will shake His fist over the River and smite it in the seven streams

And make men cross over on dry ground.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant of His people left from Assyria,
Just as it was for Israel in the day he came up out of Egypt;

Even so, even so, will it be.

HOWL for it is come, from the Almighty,
A great destruction.
Howl for the day of the Lord; the day of the Lord is at hand,
When by the Lord’s fierce anger sinners
will be destroyed,
When because of their great evil He will punish all the world,
When the sun will be darkened and the moon will no more shine,
And man is more scarce and precious than gold that is refined,
When the Lord will shake the heavens, and the earth is moved;
It is the day of the Lord’s anger, great and terrible, so let men howl!

¹The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw,
²“Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
 Raise your voice to them;
 Wave your hand that they may enter the gates of noble men.
³I have commanded My sanctified ones; My mighty ones I have called away.
⁴“I have called My mighty ones for My anger,
 Those who rejoice in My exaltation.”
 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like that of a many people!
 A tumultuous noise of the nations gathered together!
 The Lord of hosts musters the army for battle on that day.
⁵They come from a distant country;
 From the end of the heavens, the Lord and His weapons of indignation, to destroy the entire land.
⁶Wail, for it is at hand; the day of the Lord is at hand.
 It will come as a destruction from the Almighty, yes, from the Almighty One.
⁷Therefore all hands will be faint and every man's heart will melt

And they shall be afraid.

⁸Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them;
They will be in pain as a woman in travail,
Everyone amazed at each other;
Their faces will be as flames.

⁹Behold it comes, the day of the Lord comes, Cruel with wrath and fierce anger to make the land a desolation.

He will destroy the sinners, all sinners out of it,

¹⁰For the stars of heaven and their constellation will not give their light in it.

The sun will be darkened as it goes out,
The moon will not cause her light to shine
there anymore.

¹¹And I will punish the world for its evil
And the wicked for the iniquity they do;
I will stop the arrogance of the proud,
And the haughtiness of the terrible I will lay low.

¹²I will make mortal man more precious than rare gold,
More precious than the golden wedge of Ophir.

¹³Therefore I will shake the heavens, the earth will move out of her place,
In the wrath of the Lord of hosts,
And in the day of His fierce anger.

It will be as a sheep that no man takes up

¹⁴And as the hunted roe;

To his own people every man will turn and flee to his own land.

¹⁵Everyone who is captured will be thrust through by the sword.

¹⁶Their children will be dashed to pieces before their eyes;

Their wives ravished, their houses spoiled.

¹⁷I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not regard silver nor delight in gold;

¹⁸Their bows will dash the young men to pieces

And they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb.

Their eye will not spare children.

¹⁹And Babylon the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' boasts,
Will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah;

²⁰It will never be inhabited nor dwelt in from generation to generation;

Nor will the Arabian pitch his tent there,
Nor in that place will shepherds make their sheepfold,

But wild beasts of the desert will dwell there;
It will be the dwelling place of owls.

²¹The houses will be full of doleful creatures,
There, the goats will dance,
And the wild beasts of the islands will howl in their desolate houses.

²²The hyenas will howl in her pleasant palaces.

Her time is near to come,

For indeed it is determined, her days will not be prolonged.

○ LUCIFER, son of the morning,
How have you fallen! What a great fall!

You are brought down to hell,
You who would exalt your throne above the stars.

God will give rest to His people
From sorrow, fear and difficult bondage.
Babylon the oppressor has ceased,
And Lucifer is made to crawl.

ISAIAH 14

¹The Lord will have mercy on Jacob;
He will still choose Israel.

He will set them in their own land;
Strangers will be joined with them.

They will cling to the house of Jacob;

²The people will take them and bring them to their place,

And the house of Israel will possess them;

They will be servants and maids in the land of the Lord.

 They will take their former captors captives;
 Over their oppressors they will rule.
³In that day the Lord God gives you rest from your sorrow,
 And from your fear and the hard bondage you were brought into,
⁴That you may speak this proverb against the king of Babylon and say,
 "How has the oppressor ceased! How has the golden city ceased!
⁵The Lord has broken the staff of the wicked,
 The scepter of the rulers;
⁶"He who smote the people in wrath continually,
 He who ruled the nations in anger now feels;
 He is persecuted and no one hinders it.
⁷The whole earth now has quietness and peace.
 They break forth into joy and singing.
⁸The Cypress tree rejoices over you,
 And the cedars of Lebanon, also, saying,
 'Since you were cut down, no one has come against us.'
⁹"Hell from beneath is excited to meet you at your coming;
 It stirs up the dead for you,
 All the chief ones of the earth,
 And all the kings of the nations from their thrones.
¹⁰To you they will all speak and say this,
 'Are you become weak, even as weak as us?'
¹¹Your pomp is brought to the grave,
 And the noise of your harps;
 Maggots are spread under you and worms cover you up.'
¹²"O Lucifer, son of the morning,
 How have you fallen from heaven and have been cut down!
 You who weakened the nations,
 You are fallen and cut down to the ground.
¹³For you said in your heart,
 'I will ascend up into heaven
 I will exalt my throne above the stars of God in its glory;
 I will sit on the mount of the congregation.
 On the farthest sides of the north;
¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
 I will be like the Most High God.'
¹⁵You will be brought down to Hell.
 To the lowest depths of the Pit.
¹⁶Those who see you will gaze at you and consider,
 Saying, 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble?'
 Is it he who made the kingdoms shake,
¹⁷Who made the world as a wilderness and destroyed its cities,
 Who did not open the house of his prisoners again?'
¹⁸The kings of the nations all lie in glory,
 Everyone in his own house,
¹⁹But you are cast out of your grave,
 As an abominable branch,

As the garment of those who are slain,
 Thrust through with a sword.
 Who go down to the stones of the pit,
 As a carcass trodden under feet.
²⁰You will not be joined with them in burial,
 Because you have destroyed your land and slain your people in it.
 The family of evildoers will never be popular;
²¹Prepare slaughter for his children
 Because of the iniquities of their fathers,
 Lest they rise and possess the land,
 Lest they fill the face of the world with cities.

 And swamps of water also;
 I will sweep it with the broom of destruction."

 Saying, "As I have thought, surely it will come to pass.
 As I have purposed, so will it stand.
²⁵On My mountain, I will tread the Assyrian under foot,
 And break him in My land.
 Then will his yoke be removed from them;
 And from their shoulders, his will be removed.
²⁶This is the purpose that is purposed against the whole earth,
 This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations,
²⁷Who will disannul what the Lord of hosts has purposed;
 Who will turn away His stretched out hand?"
²⁸This is the burden that came in the year King Ahaz died,
²⁹"Philistia do not rejoice, because the rod that struck you is broken;
 For out of the serpent's root will come a viper,
 Its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.
³⁰The firstborn of the poor will feed,
 And the needy will lie down in safety then;
 And I will kill your roots with a famine,
 And it will slay those remaining.
³¹Wail, O gate! Cry, O city!
 You who are of Philistia are dissolved.
 Smoke will come from the north;
 In his appointed times, no one will be alone.
³²What will they answer the messengers of the nation?
 That the Lord has founded Zion,
 And the poor of His people will find refuge in it."

THE burden of Moab; Moab will flee;
Moab will cry!

Heshbon, Nebo, Nimrim will be desolate and dry!

My heart will cry out for Moab; their weeping will be strong.

And those who escaped of Moab will be destroyed by lions.

ISAIAH 15

¹The burden against Moab.

Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste and destroyed,

²Because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste and destroyed,

He is gone up to the temple and to Dibon,
To the high places to weep.

Moab will wail over Nebo and over Medeba bitterly.

On their heads will be baldness and every beard cut off.

³In their streets they will clothe themselves with sackcloth;

On the tops of their houses and in their streets everyone will wail;

They will weep bitterly.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out.

Their voices will be heard as far away as Jahaz;

The armed soldiers of Moab will cry out aloud.
To him his life will be a burden, his soul will be dry, ⁵And also for Moab my heart too will cry.

His fugitives their voices shall be heard flee to Zoar like a three year old heifer.

For by the Ascent of Luhith, they will go up weeping with many tears;

For in the way of Horonaim they will raise up a cry of destruction, ⁶For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate.

The green grass has withered away;

The grass fails; there is no green thing.

⁷The abundance they have gained and what they have stored up they will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.

⁸The cry is gone all around the borders of Moab

The wailing to Eglaim,

And to Beer Elim also, the wailing has gone.

⁹The waters of Dimon will be full of blood.

I will bring more on Dimon; yes, they will feed lions now,
For on all who escape of Moab will the lions feed,
And on the remnant of the land. Howl, yes, wail bitterly!

WITHIN three years it shall happen,
When Moab's glory is forgotten,
To leave a remnant small and feeble
From a great multitude!
As a bird cast out of its nest,
So at the fords of Arnon there will be no rest;
None will tread wine in Moab's press
Because of his proud attitude!

ISAIAH 16

¹From Sela to the wilderness, send the lamb;
Send it to the ruler of the land,
To the mountain of the daughter of Zion.
²For it will be as a wandering bird thrown out of the nest,
So will the daughters of Moab be at the ford of Arnon.
³Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make your shadow like the night in the midst of the noonday;
Hide the outcast and do not deny the escapees.
⁴O Moab, let My outcasts dwell with you;
Be a refuge for them from the face of the plunderer.
For the extortioner is at an end,
The plunder ceases;

The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
⁵In mercy the throne will be established;
One will sit on it in truth;
In the tabernacle of David He will sit,
Judging and seeking justice and expediting righteousness."

⁶We have heard of Moab's pride;
He is very proud of his haughtiness and pride,
And also of wrath;
But it will not be according to his lies.

⁷Therefore, Moab will wail;
Because of Moab everyone will wail.
For the foundations of Kir-Hareseth you will mourn;

Surely they are stricken.

⁸For the fields of Heshbon languish;
The vine of Sibmah too.

So have the lords of the nations destroyed and broken its principal plants down,
The plants which have reached to Jazer.

And have wandered through the wilderness.
Her branches are stretched out over the sea.

Therefore with the weeping of Jazer

⁹I will bewail the vine of Sibmah;

I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh;

For battle shouts have fallen over your summer fruits and your harvest.

¹⁰Gladness is taken away,
Joy is gone from the field that held plenty;
In the vineyards there will be no more singing,
Nor will there be shouting;

Treaders will no more tread out wine in the presses;

I have made their vintage shouting to stop.

¹¹Like a harp, for Moab, my heart will resound in me,

And my inner being for Kir-hareseth.

¹²It will come to pass,

When it is seen that on the high place Moab is weary;

He will come to his sanctuary to pray,
But he will not prevail; his prayer will be broken.

¹³This is the word the Lord has spoken,
Since that time concerning Moab.

¹⁴But now the Lord has spoken and He says,
"Within three years, as the years of a hired man,

The glory of Moab will be despised with all his great multitude.

Those remaining will be small and feeble."

WHEN you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and when, When you have not been mindful of the Rock of your strength, Then you shall plant pleasant plants and set them on strange slips; In the morning they will flourish, but the harvest day is grief. Man will look to his Maker with eyes of respect When the harvest has been gathered and just a gleaning is left.

ISAIAH 17

¹The burden of Damascus: "Damascus will stop from being a city; It will be a heap of ruins.

²The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they will be for flocks to stay, Which will lie down and no one will make them afraid.

³The fortress will cease from Ephraim, the kingdom of Damascus; And those remaining of Syria will be as the glory of the children of Israel," says the Lord of hosts.

⁴"In that day it will happen; Jacob's glory will be made thin, And the fatness of his flesh will grow lean.

⁵It will be, as when the harvester gathers grain and reaps the ears with his arm; It will be as when he gathers ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶"Yet gleaning grapes will be left in it, Like the shaking of an olive tree; In the top of the highest branches, two or three berries, Four or five in the most fruitful branches," says the Lord God of Israel.

⁷On that day a man will look to his Maker with respect; His eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.

⁸He will not look to the altars he made; He will not respect what his fingers have made,

Nor the groves, nor the wooden images.

⁹In that day his strong cities will be as a bough that is forsaken or a branch far away; A branch they left because of the children of Israel;

And there will be desolation.

¹⁰Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation.

You have not been mindful of the Rock of your strength,

Therefore you will plant pleasant plants but will set it with strange slips.

¹¹"In the day you will make your plant to grow,

In the morning, you will make your seed to flourish,

But your harvest will be a heap of ruins, And desperate sorrow in the day of grief.

¹²Woe to the multitude of people who make a noise like the rush of the seas, ¹³And to the rushing of nations and that rush like the rushing of mighty waters!

The nations will rush like many waters, but God will rebuke them and they will flee away. They will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind,

And like a rolling thing that before the whirlwind is blown.

¹⁴Behold, at evening there is trouble, and before morning he is no more.

This is the portion of those who plunder us, And the inheritance of those who rob us."

GO you swift messengers
To a nation scattered and peeled,
A people terrible from the beginning,
Whose land the rivers have repealed.
The beasts of the earth
And the fowls will take the land,
The place of the name of the Lord's house;
Go, swift messengers, to Zion!

ISAIAH 18

¹Woe to the land, shadowed with buzzing wings,

Which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,

²Which sends ambassadors by sea,

in vessels of reed on water, Saying, "Go, go and deliver.

Go, you swift messengers,

To a nation scattered and peeled,

A people terrible from beginning to now,

A nation divided and trodden down,

Whose land the rivers have spoiled and re-pealed."

³All you inhabitants of the world,

And all you who dwell in the earth everywhere,
When He lifts up a banner on the mountains,
see;

When He blows the trumpet, hear.

⁴For the Lord said to me, "I will take My rest;

I will consider from My dwelling place,

Like clear heat in the sunshine,

And like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."

⁵For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect

And the sour grape is ripening in the flower,

He will both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks,

And take away and cut down the branches thereof.

⁶They will be left together for the preying birds of the mountains

And for the beasts of the earth;

The birds will summer on them,

And the beasts of the field will winter on them.

⁷In that time a present will be brought to the Lord of hosts,

From a people scattered and peeled,

A people terrible from their beginning to now,

A nation divided and trodden down,

Whose land the rivers have spoiled,

To the place of the name of the Lord of hosts,

To Mount Zion.

THE Lord rides on a swift cloud;
On Egypt He will rest.
Egypt, you are not forgotten,
Nor is your wickedness.
The Lord will be known to Egypt;
To Him they will build an altar.
They will vow to the Lord of hosts,
Who will smite and then will heal!

ISAIAH 19

¹The burden against Egypt.

The Lord rides on a swift cloud and will come into Egypt;

At His presence the idols of Egypt will be moved;

The heart of Egypt will melt in its midst.

²I will set Egyptians against Egyptians;

Everyone will fight against his brother,

And everyone against his neighbors,

City against city and kingdom against kingdom.

³In the midst thereof the spirit of Egypt will fail.

I will destroy their counsel;

They will consult the idols and the charmers,

The mediums with familiar spirits and the wizards.

⁴I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord;

A fierce king will rule them,"

Says the Lord, the Lord of hosts.

⁵The waters will fail from the sea;

The rivers will be wasted and dried up totally.

⁶They will turn the rivers foul;

The brooks of defense will be emptied;

The reeds and rushes will wither.

The paper reeds by the mouth of the brooks,

And everything that is sown by the brooks;
Will wither, be driven away, and be no more.

⁷The fishermen also will mourn,
And all those who cast a line into the brooks will lament;
Those who spread nets on the waters will languish.

⁸Moreover, those who work in fine flax, and those who weave will be ashamed.

¹⁰All who make sluices and ponds for fish, will be broken in their purposes.

¹¹Surely the princes of Zoan have become fools and Pharaoh's wise counselors too;
All their counsels are become foolish.

How do you tell Pharaoh then?

"I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings"

¹²Where are they? Where are your wise men?
Let them tell you now;
Let them also know what the Lord of hosts will do,

What He has purposed against Egypt.

The princes of Memphis are deceived,

¹³The princes of Zoan are become fools;

They have seduced Egypt,

Those who are leaders,

Those who are the main providers of the tribes.

¹⁴The Lord has mingled a perverse spirit in her midst;

They caused Egypt to err in every work she has tried;

Err as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

¹⁵There will be no work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or bulrush may do.

¹⁶Egypt will be like a woman in that day,
It will be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the Lord's fist which He shakes over that land,

¹⁷And Judah will be a terror to Egypt.

Everyone who mentions this will be afraid in himself just at the mention,

Because of the counsel of the Lord of hosts, which against it He has determined.

¹⁸In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear
by the Lord of hosts;

One will be called, The City of destruction.

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to the Lord
in the midst of Egypt,

And a pillar to the Lord at the border thereof;

²⁰It will be for a sign and a witness to the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt,

For they will cry out to the Lord.

They will cry to Him because of the oppressors,

And He will send them a Saviour, and a Great
One, and He will deliver them.

The Lord will be known to Egypt in that day.

²¹The Egyptians will know the Lord of creation and will make sacrifice and offerings;

They will vow a vow to the Lord and perform it.

²²And the Lord will smite Egypt;

He will smite, then He will heal it.

They will return to the Lord and He will be entreated by them and heal them.

²³There will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria in that day;

Into Egypt the Assyrians will come,

And also the Egyptian into Assyria;

The Egyptians and Assyrian will serve together,

²⁴And Israel will be one of three.

They will join the Egyptian and the Assyrian,
As a blessing in the midst of the land,

²⁵Whom the Lord of hosts will bless,

Saying, "Blessed is My people, Egypt, and Assyria the work of My hands,

And Israel My inheritance."

LOOSE the shoe from your feet!

Three years for a sign!
Can you read the signs around you?
So will it be; control your fate!
If the prophet walked naked and barefoot,
How will we escape?

 Saying, "Go remove the sackcloth from your loins,
 And remove the shoes from your feet."
 He did so and, naked and barefoot, he walked.

 walked barefoot and naked three years for a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia, ⁴"So will the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoner
 And take the Ethiopians as captives away;
 Young and old will be barefoot and naked,
 Their buttocks uncovered to Egypt's shame.

 ashamed
 Of Egypt who is their glory and Cush their

MY loins are filled with pain; I bowed as a woman in travail!
I was very afraid at the vision that I saw;
Babylon is fallen, and the images she has carved;
Her gods he has broken!
This I heard of the Lord.

ISAIAH 21

¹The burden against the Desert of the Sea:
 As whirlwinds in the south pass through,
 So from the desert it comes,
 From a land that is terrible.
²A grievous vision is declared to me; the treacherous dealer deals treacherously,
 And the plunderer plunders continually.
 O Media, besiege! O Elam, go up without fail!
 All its sighing I have made to cease,
³Therefore my loins are filled with pain,
 And pangs have taken hold on me,
 Like the pangs of a woman in travail.
 When I heard it I was distressed;
 On seeing it I was dismayed;
 I was frightened by fearfulness;
⁴My heart panted, the night of my pleasure turned to fear.
⁵Prepare the table,
 Set a watchman in the watchtower;
 Eat and drink. You princes rise up;
 Anoint the shield, the time has come.
⁶The Lord said to me, "Appoint a watchman,
 Let him declare what he sees!"
⁷And he saw a chariot with two horsemen,
 A chariot of donkeys and a chariot of camels,
 And he listened diligently and gave heed.
⁸Then he cried, "A lion, a lion, my lord!
 I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime,

And I remain at my post every night,

⁹And behold, here comes a chariot full of men with a couple of horsemen!"

Then he answered and said, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen!

All the carved images of her gods have been broken to the ground and trodden."

¹⁰Oh my threshing and the grain of my floor! That which I heard of the Lord of hosts, to you I have declared it all.

Inquire if you will inquire, inquire;

Return! Come back!"

¹³The burden against Arabia:

In the forest of Arabia you will lodge,

O traveling companies of Dedanites.

¹⁴O inhabitants of Tema, bring water to the thirsty to drink;

They met and restored with their bread, those who fled.

¹⁵For they fled from the sword, from the bent bow that left many dead,

And from the distress of war.

¹⁶For this, the Lord said to me,

"Within a year, according to the year of a hired man,

The glory of Kedar will fail,

¹⁷And all the remainder of the archers,

The mighty men of Kedar will be diminished."

The Lord God of Israel has spoken it.

JOY and gladness, sheep's flesh and wine,
Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.
When you repair the breaches and do not look to the Know,
To the One who had fashioned it so long ago,
It is time for sackcloth and baldness, to weep and to mourn;
The Lord calls for this when your sins are not purged.

ISAIAH 22

¹The burden against the Valley of Vision: What ails you now that up to the housetops you have gone?

A tumultuous city, full of noise you are;

A joyous city.

²Your slain men are not slain with the sword nor did they die in battle.

³All your rulers have fled together;

They are captured by the archers.

All who are found in you, are bound together; They have fled from afar.

⁴Therefore I said, "Look away from me;

Do not labor to comfort me, though I weep bitterly;

Because of the plunder of the daughter of my people I mourn."

⁵For it is a day of trouble and of treading down;

A day of perplexity by the Lord of hosts.

In the Valley of Vision,

A day of crying to the mountain and breaking down of walls.

⁶Elam bore the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen;

Kir uncovered the shield.

⁷It will be that your best valleys will be full of chariots;

The horsemen set themselves in position at the gate.

⁸He removed the protection of Judah in that day.

You looked in that day to the armor of the House of the Forest;

⁹You have seen that the breaches to the city of David are many;

You gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

¹⁰You have numbered the houses of Jerusalem,

And you have broken down the houses to fortify the wall.

¹¹You also made a reservoir between the two walls

For the water of the old pool.

But you have not looked to your Maker, the One with the know,

Neither had respect to Him who fashioned it long ago.

¹²In that day the Lord of hosts called for weeping, Girding with sackcloth, baldness and mourning.

¹³Instead, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep,

Eating meat, drinking wine; you drink and eat.

“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

¹⁴Now this is what the Lord has revealed in my ear at this time,

“For this iniquity there will be no atonement for you, unto your death.”

This is what the Lord of hosts has said.

Therefore says the Lord of hosts,

¹⁵“Go to this steward,

To Shebna, who is over the house,

And say,

¹⁶“What have you here? Whom do you have as aide

That you have hewn a sepulcher like he who builds for himself a sepulcher on high,

Who carves a tomb for himself in a rock?”

¹⁷The Lord will throw you away, you did not engrave in the Rock;

He will carry you with a mighty captivity and will cover you.

¹⁸He will turn violently and toss you like a ball is thrown;

He will toss you into a country, a country large and wide;

There your chariots of glory will be your shame; there you will die.

¹⁹I will drive you from your station!

From your position I will put you down.

²⁰In that day I will call My servant Eliakim, Hilkiyah’s son;

²¹I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt;

I will commit your government into his hand. He will be a father to Jerusalem and to all the house of Judah.

²²I will lay on his shoulder the key of the house of David;

He will open and no one shall shut;

He will shut and no one will open.

²³In a secure place, I will fasten him just as a peg,

And he will become a glorious throne to his father’s house.

²⁴All the glory of his father’s house they will hang on him alone,

The offspring and the posterity and all the vessels of small amounts,

From the cups to the pitchers.’

²⁵In that day,’ says the Lord of hosts, ‘the peg will be removed;

The peg that is fastened in the secure place, will be removed and be cut down;

The burden that was on it, will be cut off,

For the Lord has spoken; so shall it be in that day.”

A CITY turned to whoredom
With all the kingdoms of the world,
Yet her merchandise and hire
Will be holiness to the Lord.
A treasure not laid up,
For her merchandise will be,
For those who dwell before the Lord
To eat and drink sufficiently!

ISAIAH 23

¹The burden against Tyre:
Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For it is laid waste,
So there is no house, no harbor;
It is revealed to them from the land of Cyprus.

²Be still, you inhabitants of the coast,
You who are replenished by Sidon's merchants

Who cross over the sea;

³And by great waters the grain of the Nile,
The harvest of the River is her revenue,
She is a marketplace for the nations and for fishers.

⁴Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken,
The strength of the sea, saying,
"I did not labor nor bring forth children;
Nor do I nourish young men nor bring up vir-gins."

⁵When the report reaches Egypt,
They also will be agonized at the report of Tyre.

⁶Cross over to Tarshish;
Wail, you inhabitants of the coasts!

⁷Is this your joyous city whose antiquity is of ancient days,
Whose feet carried her far off to dwell?

⁸Who has taken this counsel against Tyre,
the crowning city,
Whose merchants are princes,
Whose traders are the honorable of the earth?

⁹By the Lord of hosts this has been purposed,
To dishonor the pride of all glory,
To bring all the honorable of the earth into contempt.

¹⁰Pass through your land like the river,
O daughters of Tarshish;
There is no more strength.

¹¹He stretched out His hand over the sea;
He shook the kingdoms, all of them.
The Lord has given a commandment against the city of merchandise,
To destroy its strongholds.

¹²He said, "You will no more rejoice,
O you oppressed virgin;
Daughter of Sidon, arise,
Cross over to Cyprus;
You also will have no rest."

¹³Behold the land of the Chaldeans;
They were not a people until this,
Until the Assyrians founded those who dwelt in the wilderness.

They set up its towers,
They raised up its palaces,
And brought it to ruin.

¹⁴Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For your strength is laid waste,
¹⁵It will come to pass in that day,
Tyre will be forgotten seventy years,
According to the days of one king.
After the end of seventy years.
Like a harlot Tyre will sing,
¹⁶"Take a harp, go about the city,
You harlot that all men forgot;
Make sweet melody, sing many songs,
That you may be remembered."

¹⁷It will be, after seventy years have ended,
Tyre will be visited by the Lord.
She will return to her hire,
Committing fornication with all the kingdoms of the world

On the face of the whole earth.

¹⁸And her merchandises and wages
Will be set apart for the Lord.

It will not be treasured nor laid up,
For her merchandise shall be
For those who dwell before the Lord to eat sufficiently,

And for durable clothing.

Laid up for the righteous indeed,

For the wealth of sinners

Will be holiness to our King.

ISAIAH 24

¹The Lord makes the earth empty;
The Lord makes the earth waste.
He turns it upside down
And scatters the inhabitants in every place.
²And it shall be:
As with the people, so with the priest;
As with the servant, so with his master it shall be;
As with the maid, so with the mistress then;
As with the buyer, with the seller just the same.
As with the borrower, so the lender will see;
The same with the giver and the taker of interest.
³The land will be entirely emptied and plundered;
The Lord has spoken this.
The earth mourns and fades away,
⁴The world languishes and fades away;
The proud people of the earth languish.
⁵The earth is also defiled under the inhabitants,
Because they have changed the ordinance,
Broken the everlasting covenant
And transgressed the laws.
⁶Therefore the earth is devoured,
Devoured by the curse,
Those who dwell in it are desolate.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned,
Very few men are left.
⁷The new wine fails, the vine languishes;
All the merry-hearted sigh.
⁸The mirth of tambourine ceases;
The noise of the jubilant has come to an end;
The joy of the harp ceases.
⁹They will not drink wine with a song;
Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.
¹⁰The city of confusion is broken down;
Every house is shut up, so that no man may go in.
¹¹There is the cry for wine;
It is heard in the streets.
The joy is all darkened;
The mirth of the land has ceased.
¹²Desolation is left in the city;
The gate is smitten with destruction.
¹³When this shall be in the midst of the land

among the people,
It shall be like the shaking of an olive tree,
Like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done.

¹⁴They will lift up their voice,
And sing for the majesty of the Lord.
From the west they shall cry loudly;
¹⁵They will glorify the Lord in the east,
The name of the Lord God of Israel in the coastlands of the sea.

¹⁶From the utmost parts of the earth
we have heard the songs,
“Glory to the righteous!”

But I said, “Oh,
My leanness, I am ruined! Woe to me!
The treacherous dealers,
Have dealt very treacherously.”

¹⁷O inhabitants of the earth,
Fear is on you,
Fear and the pit and the snare also.

¹⁸It will be, he who flees from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit,
And he who comes up from the midst of the pit

Will be captured in the snare;
For the windows from on high are open,
And the foundations of the earth shake.

¹⁹The earth is utterly violently broken down;
The earth is dissolved and removed.

²⁰The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard;
It will be removed like a cottage from the plain.
Its transgression will be heavy on it;
It shall fall and shall not rise again.

²¹It shall come to pass in that day,
The Lord will punish the host of exalted ones on high,
And the kings of the earth on the earth.

²²They will be gathered together in one,
As prisoners are gathered in a pit,
And will be shut up in prisons,
And after many days they will be punished.

²³The moon will be confounded,
And the sun will be made ashamed,
For the Lord of hosts will reign
On Mount Zion and in Jerusalem,
And before His elders gloriously.

 Shadow from the heat, that is who You are Lord!

 You have wiped all tears from the eyes and swallowed up death in victory!

 I will exalt You my King;
 I will praise Your name for You have done wonderful things.

²You have made a city a ruin, a fortified city ruinous.
 You have made a palace of foreigners to be a city no more;
 It will never be rebuilt.
³The strong people shall glorify You therefore;
 You will be feared by the cities of the terrible nations, ⁴For You have been a strength to the poor, a refuge from the storm, a strength to the needy in distress, a shade from the heat to all;

 When the blast of the terrible ones is like an explosion against the wall.
⁵Like heat in a dry place, you will reduce the noise of strangers;
 As heat with the shade of a cloud, the branch of the terrible ones will be diminished.

 And bring to the ground;
 To the dust He will bring them down.

Yes, that is what You will do, to him whose mind is fixed on You!
Lord, open the gates; a righteous nation awaits
That they may enter through with praise;
All those whose minds are fixed on You!

The feet of the poor and the steps of the needy."

O Upright One,
 You weigh the path of the just in the way of Your judgments,

⁸O Lord, we have waited for You;
 Our soul's desire is for Your name and for Your memory.

In the night I have desired You

⁹With my soul.

With my spirit within me, I will seek You early;
 For when Your judgments are in the earth,
 The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

¹⁰To the wicked, let favor be shown;
 Yet righteousness he will still not learn;
 He will deal unjustly in the land of the upright,
 And he will not behold the majesty of the Lord.

¹¹Lord when Your hand is lifted up, they will not see;

But they will see and be ashamed for their envy of the people.

The fire of Your enemies will devour them.

¹²But, Lord, for us You will ordain peace,
 For all our works in us You have also done.

¹³O Lord our God, our hope and trust, other masters have had dominion over us,
 But Your name is the only name we will make mention of.

They are dead; they will not live, O Lord;

¹⁴They are deceased; they will not rise,
 You have visited and destroyed them.
 You made all their memory to perish.

¹⁵You have increased the nation, Lord;
 You alone are glorified.

All the borders of the land You have expanded.
 Lord, in trouble they have visited You;

¹⁶Lord, to You they poured out a prayer when
 You chastened and distressed them

Like as a woman with child pangs they cried, ¹⁷As a woman in pain whose delivery time draws near.

O Lord, so have we been in Your sight;
 As when she cries out in her pangs.

¹⁸We have been with child, we have been in pain;

We have, as it were, brought forth wind;
 We have not done any deliverance in the earth.

Nor have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

¹⁹Your dead men will live; I know they will stand;

Together with my dead body they will arise.
 Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust,

For your dew is as the dew of herbs;
 And the earth will cast out its dead.

²⁰Come, my people, enter into your chambers;
 Enter your chambers and shut your doors.
 Hide yourselves as if but for a little moment it were

Until the indignation is past.

²¹For behold, the Lord comes out of His place;
 To punish the inhabitants of the earth for the iniquity they have done;

The earth will also disclose her blood,
And will no more cover her slain.

He will punish the leviathan!
A vineyard of red wine kept by the Lord;
He will beat the river channels. Israel will be gathered one by one!
A trumpet will be blown; they will worship
in the holy mountain;
From Egypt they shall return,
O yes, it all shall be in that day!

"A vineyard of red wine come see!
³I the Lord keeps it securely.
I will water it every moment.
I will keep it both night and day lest any should hurt it;
⁴Fury is not in Me.
Who would set the briars and thorns to battle
Me?
I would go through them,
All of them together I would burn.
⁵Let him take hold of My strength and learn
That with Me he may make peace."
⁶He shall cause those who come, to take root in Jacob;
Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

who smote him?
Or has He been slain in accordance with the slaughter of those He slew?

debate with it;
By His rough wind He has taken it away,
In the day of the east wind.

When he makes the altar stones like chalk-stones, beaten to dust,
The groves and wooden images will not stand.

 O you children of Israel.

PRECEPT upon precept, line upon line,
 Here a little, there a little, but there is a stone that is tried.

Priests, how can you forget precepts and teach with a drunken tongue?

The people will not hear you; precept upon precept is the judge!

He will lay the stone in Zion; make haste if you believe.

Righteousness will go to the plumbline; the hail will sweep away all refuge of lies!

ISAIAH 28

¹Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim,
 Whose glorious beauty is a flower that fades
 away,

Which is at the head of the fat valleys,
 To those who are overcome with wine!

²The Lord has a mighty and strong one,
 Who is like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,

Like a flood of mighty waters overflowing its banks,

Who will throw them down to the earth with
 His hand;

³The crown of pride and Ephraim's drunkards will be trodden on.

⁴And the glorious beauty which is at the head of the fat valley

Shall be as a fading flower and as a fruit hast-ing away,

The first fruit before the summer which, when he that looks on it sees,

While it is still in his hand, he eats it.

⁵In that day the Lord of hosts will be
 For a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty,
 To the residue of His people.

To him who sits in judgment, a spirit of justice,

To him who turns back the battle at the gate,
 He will be his strength.

⁷But they also have erred through wine, and by strong drink are gone out the way.

The priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink just the same.

They are swallowed up by wine,
 They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

⁸For all their tables are full of vomit and filthiness; no place is clean.

⁹To whom will he teach knowledge?

Who will he make to understand the doctrine?
 Those just weaned from the milk?

Those just drawn from the breast?

¹⁰For precept must be upon precept;

Precept upon precept

Line upon line; line upon line

Here a little, there a little.

¹¹For He will speak to His people with stammering lips and a foreign tongue,

¹²To whom He said, "This is rest for the weary,
 this is the refreshing!"

Yet they would not hear.

¹³But the word of the Lord was to them

Precept upon precept; precept upon precept,
 Line upon line; line upon line.

Precept upon precept, line upon line, here a little and a little there,

That they may go and fall backwards and be broken, caught when snared.

¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the Lord you scornful men,

You who rule this people who are in Jerusalem.

¹⁵Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death
And are in agreement with Hell,
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
it will not come on us.
We have made lies our refuge;
We have hidden ourselves under falsehood for safety.”

¹⁶Therefore, says the Lord God, “Behold, I lay in Zion a tried stone;

A precious corner stone, a sure foundation;
Whoever believes will not act hastily;

¹⁷I will also make justice the measuring line
And righteousness the plumbline;

The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies;
The waters will overflow the hiding place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be annulled;
Your agreement with Hell will not stand.

When the scourge passes through,
You will be trampled down by it;

¹⁹Every time that it goes out it will take you.
For morning by morning it will pass over,
And by day and by night;

It will be a terror just to understand the report.”

²⁰For the bed is too short to stretch out on,
And the covering so narrow than no one can use it to wrap himself.

²¹For the Lord will rise up as in Mount Perazim,

He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon,
That He may bring to pass His unusual act and that He may work His awesome work.

²²Therefore do not be mockers, lest your bonds be made strong;

For I heard from the Lord God of hosts, He has determined destruction upon the whole earth.

²³Give ear and hear My voice;
Listen and hear My speech.

²⁴Does the plowman plow all day to sow?
Does he keep turning his soil and breaking the clods?

²⁵Does he not sow the black cumin when he has tilled the land,

And scatter the cumin, plant the principal wheat, the barley and rye in their place?

²⁶For his God instructs him to use discretion;
God who teaches man.

For the black cumin is not threshed with a threshing instrument,

Nor is the cartwheel rolled over the cumin,
²⁷But the black cumin is beaten with a staff and the cumin beaten with a rod.

²⁸Bread grain is ground therefore he never threshes forever,
Break it with the wheel of his cart,
Or crush it with his horsemen.

²⁹This also comes from the Lord of hosts,
The Lord who is wonderful in counsel and is excellent in works.

DO you deliver a book that is sealed
To an educated man and tell him, read?

Do you draw near with your lips
And speak things of righteousness,
Honoring God with your false kiss,
But your heart is far from Him?

ISAIAH 29

¹Woe to Ariel, to Ariel
The city where David dwelt.
Add year to year;
Let them kill sacrifices there;

²Yet I will distress Ariel with sorrow and heaviness,
And it will be to me as Ariel.

³I will camp against you all around,
I will lay siege against you with a mound,
And against you I will raise forts.

⁴You will be brought down,
You will speak out of the ground.
Your speech will be low, out of the dust;
Your voice as a medium's, out of the ground;
Your speech will whisper out of the dust.

⁵Your many foes will be like small dust,
The many terrible ones like chaff that passes away;
It shall be at an instant, suddenly.

⁶With thunder you will be visited by the Almighty.
With earthquake and a great noise,
With tempest and storm,
And the flame of devouring fire.

⁷The multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel and her fortress and distress her will be as a dream of a night vision.

⁸It shall be as when a hungry man dreams;
He eats but wakes up and his stomach is empty.
Or the dream of a thirsty man who awakes;
He dreams he drinks but wakes up thirsty and faint.

So will the multitude of nations that fight
Mount Zion be."

⁹Stop and wonder!

Blind yourself and be blind!
They are drunk but not with wine,
They stagger but not with strong drink,

¹⁰For the Lord has poured on you the spirit of a deep sleep.
The Lord has closed your eyes, namely the prophets;

He has covered the heads of the seers.

¹¹The entire vision has become like the words of a book that is sealed,
Which men deliver to the literate and tell him
to read,

Saying, "Read this, please." And he says, "It is sealed; I cannot.
Though I am literate and I can read, I do not have access!"

¹²And the book is delivered to one who is not literate;
He says, "I cannot read."

¹³Therefore says the Lord, "Inasmuch as the people honor Me with their lips.

They draw near to Me with their mouths, but their hearts are far,
For they have removed their hearts far from Me," says the Lord.

"Their fear towards Me is as man dictates;
It is taught by the precepts of men;

¹⁴Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people,
A marvelous work and wonder.

For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent will be hidden."

¹⁵Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord;
Their works are in the dark.

"Who sees us? Who knows us?" This is what they say.

¹⁶Surely you have things turned around!
Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay,
For can the work say of him who made it,
"You did not make me"?

Or shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, "You have no understanding"?

¹⁷Is it not a very little while? A little while it shall be,
Until Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,

And because of abundance, the fruitful field will be esteemed as a forest.

¹⁸In that day the deaf will hear the words of the book,

And the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity,

And the blinded eyes see out of darkness.

¹⁹In the Lord, the humble will increase their joy;

In the Holy One of Israel, the poor will rejoice.

the scornful is consumed;
All who watch for iniquity are cut off.

And lays a snare for him who reproves in the gate,

And turns aside the just for nothing.

²²"Therefore," says the Lord who redeemed
Abraham,

Concerning the house of Jacob:

"Jacob will not be ashamed, nor shall his face grow pale anymore,

²³"But when he sees his children,

The work of My hands in his midst,

They will hallow My name

And hallow the Holy One of Jacob and fear the God of Israel.

²⁴Understanding will come to those who erred
in spirit,

And those who murmured will learn doctrine."

YOUR strength is to be still!
It is not in the shadow of Egypt's wings;
Your strength is to be still!
In rest you will be saved,
In quietness and confidence;
There one will make a thousand flee.
The Lord awaits, gracious to be!
Do not go adding sin to sin;
Your strength is to be still!

ISAIAH 30

- ¹“Woe to the rebellious children,” says the Lord. “Woe to them, Those who take counsel, but not of Me, Who plan strategies but not of My Spirit. My Spirit was not their covering, That they may add sin to sin.”
- ²“They walk to Egypt, they go down, And have not asked My advice, To strengthen themselves in Pharaoh’s strength, And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!”
- ³Therefore the strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, And your trust in the shadow of Egypt your humiliation.
- ⁴For at Zoan his princes were; To Hanes his ambassadors came.
- ⁵Of a people who could not profit them, they were all ashamed, A people who could not profit or help them, But a shame and a reproach.”
- ⁶The burden against the beasts of the south: Through the land of trouble and anguish, From which direction come the young and old lion, The viper and the fiery flying serpent along, They will carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys, And they will carry their treasures on the humps of camels To a people that will not profit them. Their strength is to be still,
- ⁷For the Egyptian will help in vain, To no purpose and to no avail. Therefore I called her Rahab-Hem-Shebeth.
- ⁸Write it before them in a tablet; In a book make note of it, That it may be for the time to come forever and ever:
- ⁹That this is a rebellious people, a people of lies, A people who will not hear the laws of God,
- ¹⁰Who say to the seers, “Act as if you do not see!” And say to the prophets, “Do not prophesy right things to me; Do not speak to us right things, speak niceties. Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits.”
- ¹¹“Get out of the way, turn aside from the path, Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us, we ask.”
- ¹²Therefore says the Holy One of Israel, “Because you chose to despise this word And trust in oppression and perversity, And rely on them,
- ¹³Iniquity will be to you as a breach ready to fall away, Like the bulging in a high wall, that should be strong, Whose breaking comes suddenly and in an instant.
- ¹⁴“He will break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel which is broken in pieces.

 He will not spare.
 There will not be found among its rubble a shred to take fire from the hearth;
 Neither to take water from the pit."
¹⁵This is what the Holy One of Israel says,
 "In returning and rest you will be saved!
 Your strength will be in quietness and confidence."
 But you rejected this,
¹⁶You said, "No, on horses we will flee."
 Therefore, you will flee!
 You say, "We will ride on swift horses!" But hear this,
 Those who pursue you will be swift.
¹⁷One thousand will flee at the rebuke of one;
 At the rebuke of five you will flee.
 Until you are left as a beacon on the mountaintop
 And as a banner on a hill.
¹⁸Therefore the Lord will wait that He may be gracious to you;
 And therefore He will be exalted,
 That He may have mercy on you.
 For He is a God of justice;
 Blessed are all those who wait for Him.
¹⁹For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem;
 You will weep no more.
 He will be gracious to you at the sound of your cry;
 When He hears it, He will answer from on high.
²⁰Though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore,
 But your eyes shall see them.
²¹Your ears shall hear a word behind you,
 Saying, "This is the way, walk in it,"
 When you turn to the right hand,
 Or you turn to the left.
²²You will also defile the silver covering of your carved gods,
 And the ornaments of your molten images of gold;
 You will cast them away as a menstruation
 cloth;
 You will say to them, "Get out!!"
²³Then He will give rain for your seed
 That you may sow,
 And He will give bread of the increase;
 It will be fat and plenteous.
 In that day your cattle will feed in large pastures.
²⁴The oxen too and the young donkeys, that work the ground,
 Will eat clean provision,
 Which have been winnowed with the shovel and fan.
²⁵On every high mountain and on every high hill,
 There will be rivers and streams filled with water,

In the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.
²⁶The light of the moon will be as bright as the sun;
 The light of the sun will be sevenfold strong,
 As the light of seven days,
 In the day that the Lord binds the bruises of
 His people,
 And heals the stroke of their wound.
²⁷The name of the Lord comes from afar,
 Burning with His anger; the burden is heavy and hard;
 Indignation fills up His lips.
 And His tongue as devouring fire.
²⁸His breath is like an overflowing stream,
 Which reaches to the center of the neck,
 To sift the nations with a sieve of futility.
 There will be a bridle in the jaws of the people causing them to err .
²⁹You will have a song, a song as in the night
 a holy festival is kept,
 And gladness of heart as when one goes with a pipe to come into the mountain of the Lord, the Mighty One of Israel.
³⁰The Lord will cause His glorious voice to be heard,
 And show the descent of His arm,
 With the indignation of His anger and the flame of a devouring fire,
 With scatterings, tempest and hailstones to devour.
³¹By the voice of the Lord, the Assyrians will be beaten down,
 As He strikes with the rod.
³²And in every place where the reproving staff passes,
 Which the Lord will lay on him,
 It will be with tambourines and harps;
 In the battles of shaking, He will fight with it.
³³For Topheth was established of old,
 It is prepared for the king.
 He has made it deep and large;
 Its pile is fire with much wood.
 The breath of the Lord kindles it like a stream of brimstone.

When righteousness is its pleasure, "Strength of Salvation," will a nation find. Her treasures will be in the fear of the Lord, And the king in his beauty they will surely behold!

Wisdom and knowledge will bring stable times,

But if the Lord rises up, He shall devour the spoils!

For we have waited long for You.
Be our arm every morning, and in troubled times be our salvation.

He who despises the gains of oppression.

He who shakes his hands from holding of bribes;
From hearing bloodshed and seeing evil he stops his ears and shuts his eyes.

¹⁶He will dwell on high, on high lifted up,
His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks.

He will be given bread, his water will be sure,
¹⁷Your eyes will behold the King in His beauty.

The hawks shall also be gathered there, everyone with their mate.

16<sup>Seek from the book of the Lord and read;
 Not one of these shall fail.</sup>

Not one shall lack her mate,
 For My mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

17<sup>He has cast the lot for them;
 His hand has divided it between them with a measuring line.
 They will possess it forever;
 From generation to generation, they will dwell
 there.”</sup>

 The joy of the ransomed and the re-

 Deaf ears, tell me, have you heard
 The song of glad and joyful words?
 Do you see a wilderness when you look

IN spite of the Assyrian sword,
Our hope is in the Lord!
Despite their strong and grievous words,
Our hope is in the Lord!
When they say, “In what confidence do you trust that you should rebel against us?
Be it the Lord your God or in Egypt’s husk,
We have destroyed many gods; have you
not heard?”
We will say, “We put no confidence in man, nor in horses great and strong, nor in gods that are made with hands;
Our hope is in the Lord!”

ISAIAH 36

- ¹In the fourteenth year of Hezekiah, Sennacherib the king of Assyria Came up against the fortified cities of Judah;
 He fought and he took them.
²Then the Assyrian king sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, and a great army with him,
 To Hezekiah the king of Judah;
 By the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the Fuller’s Field he stood.
³Then to him Eliakim, Hilkiyah’s son, came forth;
 He was over the household at that time.
 With him was Shebna the scribe and Joah, who was of Asaph’s lineage;
 He was the recorder.
⁴Then Rabshakeh said to them, “Tell Hezekiah, ‘So says the great king, the king of Assyria, “What is this confidence wherein you trust?’
⁵I say, ‘you speak of having counsel and strength for war, but your words are vain.’
 Now on whom do you trust that against me you rebel?’
⁶“If it is the staff of Egypt that you trust in, it is a staff of a reed that is broken; it will pierce the hand of those who lean on it.
 So is Pharaoh, Egypt’s king, to all who trust in him.
⁷But should you say to me, ‘We trust in the Lord our God only,’ then is it not He, whose high places and altar Hezekiah has taken away,
 And said to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship at this altar?’
⁸“Now give pledges, I urge you, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses,
 If you are able, on your part, to put riders on them.
⁹How will you then turn the face of one of the least of my master’s captains away,
 And put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
¹⁰“Have I now come up without the Lord against this land to destroy it?”

¹¹‘Go up and destroy it,’ was the Lord’s word, ‘Go up against this land.’”

Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, “Speak, I beg you, in the Syrian language, for we understand your tongue.

Do not speak to us in the language of the Jews, that the ears of the people may hear you, even those who are on the wall listening.”

¹²But Rabshakeh said,

“Has my master sent me to your master, and to speak these words to you?

Is it not the people that he is after?

The men who sit on the wall,

That they may eat their own dung, and who will drink their own urine with you?”

¹³And with a voice that was very loud,

Rabshakeh stood and he cried;

He cried in the Jews’ language, saying, “Hear the words of the Assyrian king.

¹⁴This is the great king’s message that I bring; ‘Do not permit Hezekiah to deceive you with lies’

¹⁵He cannot deliver you; do not let him make you trust the Lord,

Saying, ‘The Lord will surely deliver;

The city will not be delivered into Assyria’s hand.’”

¹⁶Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this says the king of Assyria, ‘Make an agreement with a gift and come to me;

Then let everyone eat of his vine and of his fig tree; go on enjoy and drink of your own reservoir at this time,

¹⁷Until I come to take you away

To a land just like your own, a land of wine and of grain, a land of bread and of vineyards.’”

¹⁸Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you and say, ‘In the Lord we put our hope.

The Lord will deliver us; He is our shield and trust.’”

Consider this and be wise,

Have any gods of the nations delivered his land from the king of Assyria’s hand?

All gods are powerless before his might.

¹⁹“Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? Speak of Sepharvaim; where are their gods? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

Who among all the gods has delivered his land?

²⁰Who among all the gods of these lands has delivered their lands out of my hands, that the Lord should make Jerusalem strong?

To deliver out of my hand; He cannot.”

²¹But they all remained silent; they did not answer him one word,

For the king had commanded and told them not to speak,

Saying, “Give no answer to him.”

We put no confidence in man, or in horses great and strong, or in gods that are made by hands; Our hope is in the Lord!

²²Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the recorder, with their clothes torn to Hezekiah

And told him Rabshakeh’s words.

And he reflected, “We put no confidence in man or in horses great and strong, or in gods that are made by hands;

Our hope is in the Lord!”

“WHOM have you reproached with noise?

Against whom have you lifted your voice?
I know your abode, your coming in and going out, and the rage of your mouth;
I have you in My sight!”

ISAIAH 37

¹And it came to pass when King Hezekiah heard,

He covered himself with sackcloth and tore his clothes.

Then he went up into the Lord’s house,

²And he sent Eliakim and Shebna the scribe out,

And the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth,

To Isaiah the prophet Amoz’s son.

³And they said to him, “This is Hezekiah’s word,

“This is a day of trouble and rebuke and of blasphemy,

For the children are come to birth

But there is no strength to bring forth.

⁴It may be the Lord your God will hear

The words Rabshakeh has spoken in our ear, Whom the king of Assyria sent to us here

To reproach the living God,
 And so reprove the words that He has heard.
⁴“Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant!”
⁵This Hezekiah’s servants came to Isaiah and said,
⁶And Isaiah responded to them,
 “Say this to your master;
 ‘This is what the Lord God of Israel says,
 ‘Of these words you have heard do not be afraid!
 Do not be afraid of the king of Assyria’s word,
 The words his servants used to blaspheme the Lord;
⁷Behold on him I will send a blast.
 He will hear a rumor to divide the heart,
 And will return to his own land speedily,
 And in his own land by the sword I will cause him to fall.”
⁸So Rabshakeh returned and found,
 War raged between the king of Assyria and Libnah;
⁹This was told to him.
 He heard how he had departed from Lachish,
 And how Tirhakah king of Ethiopia came to make war with Assyria.
 And so he sent messengers to Hezekiah,
¹⁰Saying, “Speak to Hezekiah, Judah’s king, and say,
 ‘Do not let the God you trust in deceive you this day,
 Saying, “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the Assyrian king.”
¹¹Behold you have heard, you must have heard this thing,
 What our king has done to all lands; all the happenings,
 How he has destroyed them utterly.
 Will you be delivered then; how will you stand?
¹²Have any of the gods of the nations delivered those which my fathers have destroyed,
 Even Haran, Rezeph and Gozan
 And the children of Eden in Telassar?
¹³Where are the kings of Hamath, Hena and Arphad,
 Of Sepharvaim and of Ivvah?”
¹⁴And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers;
 He read it and to the house of God he went,
 And before the Lord, he spread the letter.
¹⁵And he prayed to the Lord and said,
¹⁶“O Lord of hosts, You are God of Israel,
 The God who dwells between the cherubims.
 You are God, even You alone,
 Of all the earth’s kingdoms and its thrones.
 You have made the earth and the heavens also;
¹⁷Incline your ear, O Lord, and hear.
 Open your eyes and see, draw near.
 Hear all the words that Sennacherib sent to us,
 To reproach the living God,
¹⁸“The Assyrian kings, O Lord, have of a truth laid waste all the nations and their countries too, ¹⁹And into the fire cast their gods, and not a few,

 For they were no gods; there is not but You.
 They are wood and stone that men designed,
 Therefore these have they destroyed.
²⁰Save us from his hand, O Lord, this do.
 Save us so that all the earth will see and know
 That You are God, and You alone.”
²¹Then Isaiah sent to Hezekiah, “Let it be known,
 So says the Lord your desire,
 ‘Whereas you have prayed this prayer
 Against Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²Concerning him, this is the Lord’s word:
 ““It is you, the virgin, the daughter of Zion has despised,
 And laughed you to scorn with rage in her eyes.
 The daughter of Jerusalem shook her head at you.
²³Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
 Against whom are you exalted, tell Me?
 Against whom have you exalted your voice,
 And lifted up your eyes on high?
 Against the Holy One of Israel!
²⁴By your servants you have reproached the Lord and said,
 ‘By the multitude of my chariots and by my strength
 I am come up to the height of the mountain
 And to the sides of Lebanon;
 I will cut down the tall cedar trees,
 And the fir trees of beauty and of choice,
 And I will enter the heights of his border,
 And its fruitful forest.
²⁵“I have dug and drunk water,
 And with the soles of my feet dried up all the brooks of defense of besieged places.”
²⁶Have you not heard long ago,
 How I made it;
 That I formed it of olden days?
 And I have brought it to pass now,
 That you should lay waste fortified cities,
 And turn them into heaps of ruins.
²⁷Therefore their inhabitants had little power;
 They were as the grass of the field.
 As the green herbs they have been;
 As grass on the housetops in the heat
 And grain blighted before it grows.
²⁸But I know your abode,
 Your coming in and going out,
 The rage against Me with your mouth!
²⁹Now because your tumult and your rage
 Is come up into My ears,
 In your lips a bridle I will place,
 And My hook into your nose,
 And I will turn you back the way you came.
³⁰To you this sign will make it plain;
 This year you will eat, you will fill your plate
 With that which grows of itself,
 And the second year that which springs of the same,

And in the third year sow and reap
And plant vineyards, and eat of its fruit.

31“And that which remains that is escaped
Of the house of Judah will take root downward again,

And they will bear many fruits upwards.

32For out of Jerusalem those who remain will go,

And those who escape out of the mount of Zion.

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.”

33“Concerning the king of Assyria,” says the Lord,

“Into this city he shall not come,

Nor shoot an arrow here, not one,

Nor come here with shields nor cast an embankment,

35For I will defend this city; I will save.

He shall return the same way he came,

And shall not come into this city!” the Lord says.

“For I will save it for My own sake,

And for David and the covenant that with him
I made.”

36Then the angel of the Lord went out

And struck the Assyrian camp;

One hundred and eighty-five thousand, never awoke.

For when in the early morning they rose,

Behold their dead corpses were all about!

37So Sennacherib the Assyrian king departed;

He returned to Nineveh and there he remained.

38As he worshipped with lifted hands

In the house of Nisroch, who was his god,

There came Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons.

They struck him with the sword that day,

And into the land of Ararat they escaped.

And in his place his son Esarhaddon reigned.

The Lord God delivered, but his god could not save;

God knows where you live, therefore know... He reigns!

SET your house in order,
SFor you will surely die;
I have walked in truth before You,
O Lord, oh, no, not I!
Who will sing Your praises?
Death cannot celebrate at all!
The living, yes, the living,
Lord, only the living shall!

¹Hezekiah was deathly ill,
 Very sick in those days;
 Isaiah the prophet, son of Amoz,
 Came to him and said,
 "Set your house in order
 For this is what the Lord says:
 'You will die, you will not live;
 Very soon you will pass away.'"
²Toward the wall he turned then;
 There Hezekiah turned his face,
 And prayed to the Lord,
³Weeping and unashamed.
 "Remember now, O Lord,
 I beg you, see how I have walked.
 I have walked before You in truth
 And with a perfect heart.
 I have done that which is good,
 Only good in Your sight."
 And he wept, oh, how he wept grievously,
But for the Lord comfort him!
⁴Then God's word came to Isaiah,
⁵"Go to Hezekiah and say,
 So says the God of David, your father,
 I have heard all that you have prayed.
 I have heard your prayer,
 And I have seen your tears,
 And I will add to your life
 Another fifteen years.
⁶And I will deliver you and this city
 From the hand of the Assyrian king,
⁷And this will be a sign
 That I will perform this thing.
⁸"I will bring again the shadow of degrees
 That is gone down in the sun,
 The dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward!" And so it was done.
⁹These are the writings of Hezekiah,
 When Judah's king was sick,
 And he recovered from his sickness.
 Judah's king wrote this:
¹⁰"I said, 'In the cutting off of my days
 I will go to the gates of the grave;
 I am deprived of the remainder of my years.'
¹¹I said, 'I shall not see the Lord.
 I shall not see the Lord, my King,
 In the land of the living, no;
 No more a man will I behold
 With the inhabitants of the world.
¹²"My age is removed, departed, spent;
 Removed, even as a shepherd's tent.
 Like a weaver, He has cut off my life;
 With pining sickness I shall die.
 Yes, He has cut me off from day to night;
 Will You make an end of my life?
¹³I contemplated until morning,
 As a lion, will He break all my bones.
¹⁴"Like a crane or swallow, so did I chatter; I mourned like a dove;
 My eyes failed.
 Undertake for me, Lord; I am oppressed;
¹⁵What shall I say? He spoke to me Himself;
 From Him the word has come.
 He, Himself spoke.
 All my years softly I shall go in the bitterness of my soul.

¹⁶"O Lord, by all these things men live;
 In all these is the life of my spirit,
 So will You recover me and make me to live.

¹⁷Instead of peace, I had great bitterness,
 But in love for my soul, You delivered me.

From the pit of corruption I was snatched;
 You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

¹⁸"For You cannot get praise from the grave,
 Nor can death celebrate.

And those who go down into the pit cannot hope for Your truth.

¹⁹The living, the living shall praise You, yes,
 even as I do this day.

The fathers will show their sons;

They will make Your truth to be known.

²⁰"The Lord was ready to save me; I give thanks.

Therefore we will sing my songs
 To the stringed instruments all our days,

In the house of the Lord giving praise.

²¹"For Isaiah has told me to do this,

"Let them take a lump of figs and lay it for a plaster, on the boil,

And he will be revived.'"
 Hezekiah also said at that time,

"What shall be the sign that I may go up at your word to the house of my Lord?"

PRECIOUS gifts from the enemy
May be a covering for his guile.
What has the enemy seen?
On what has he set his eyes?
All your pride and treasures
By his wiles he has now seen;
He will come back for his gifts and, also,
All you have he will take with him.
Yes, he will even take your children!

ISAIAH 39

¹Merodach-baladan son of Baladan,
 The king of Babylon at that time,
 Sent letters and a present to Hezekiah,
 For he heard he was sick but now was fine.

²Hezekiah was glad for them,
 And he showed to them the house,
 The house of his precious things,
 His spices, ointments, silver and gold,
 And all the house of his armor,
 And all in his treasuries that were found.
 There was nothing in his house,
 Or Hezekiah's dominion, not shown.

³Then came Isaiah the prophet to Hezekiah
 the king and said,
 "What did these men say to you?
 And where did they come from? Now tell!"
 Hezekiah said, "They came from Babylon, a country very far."

⁴"What have they seen in your house?"
 And Hezekiah answered, "They saw all.
 They have seen all that is in my house;
 There is nothing they were not shown,
 Nothing among my treasures
 Or in my kingdom that was not known."

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah,
 "Hear the word of the Lord of hosts,
⁶Behold the day will come, is coming,
 That all that you have here in your house
 And all that your fathers have laid up in store to this day
 Will be carried into Babylon.
 Nothing will remain.

⁷"And of your sons, your very issue,
 The sons whom you beget,
 They will take to be their eunuchs
 In the Babylonian king's palace."

⁸Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah,
 "The word the Lord speaks is good,
 As long as in my days, there will be peace and truth."

1. Discern the spirits before you engage them or you will decide and dictate your future before you engage it.
2. Do not open yourself up to every person who shows affection, care, concern or empathy to you; engage spirits in flesh and you will engage the spirit of the flesh for all flesh is spirit.
3. There is no situation too big to place before God and no situation too small to release to Him; seeking God is absolute; faith in God must be resolute; failure to seek God leaves you desolate; it makes the small become enormous.
4. Build a future of peace and safety for your generations through your careful walk of righteousness and faith and not a future of destruction through selfishness and lack of empathy.
5. If you can change the word of God speaking death to you, you can change the word of God speaking death to your generations, travail until something breaks.
6. Never be satisfied with life if your children face a future of death, never be satisfied with freedom if they face bondage.

- Let the fire of the living God drive away every unfaithful, deceiving, lying spirit from my company and my environment, in the name of Jesus.
- My Father, my God, I invite You into every area of my life and every decision. Amen.
- By the Spirit of the living God, I will be sensitive to my generations; I declare that I will leave a legacy that will last by careful intentional actions. Amen.

“COMFORT ye, comfort,” I heard a voice cry.
All flesh is like grass, like flowers that fade and die!
But the Spirit of God blows, like a shepherd who feeds a flock;
His word stands forever! No, it is not like the grass!

ISAIAH 40

*Those who wait on the Lord will renew their strength;
 They will rise up once more; with fresh wings they will soar.
 His words are not like the grass, renewed strength at long last;
 It is best to wait on the Lord!*

¹"Comfort, oh, comfort My people," says your God.

²"Speak comfortably to Jerusalem; cry to her now;

Her warfare is accomplished; I have pardoned her sins.

She has received double of the Lord's hands for her sins committed!"

³The voice of him who cries in the wilderness,
 "Prepare the way of the Lord;

Make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

⁴Every valley will be exalted, these He will exalt;

Every mountain and hill will be made low.

And the crooked will be made straight,

And the rough places made plain; then His glory will be seen.

⁵Yes the glory of the Lord will then be revealed; All flesh see together, the revelation of His glory.

The mouth of the Lord has spoken; so shall it be."

⁶The voice said, "Cry!" And he said, "What shall I cry?"

"All flesh is grass and all the beauty alike!

All the beauty is as the flower of the field;

⁷The grass withers, the flower fades; soon it will not be,

Because the Spirit of God blows on it.

Surely the people are grass, even just as this;

⁸"The grass withers, the flower fades, they will not last for long,

But the word of God will forever stand."

⁹O Zion that brings good tidings, get into the mountain high.

O Jerusalem who brings good tidings, with strength lift up your voice.

Lift up your voice, do not be afraid; make yourself to be heard.

Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"

¹⁰Behold the Lord will come with strong hands;

His arm will rule for Him; with Him is His reward.

His work is before Him;

¹¹He will feed His flock just like a shepherd.

He will gather the lambs with His arms and carry them in His bosom,

And He will gently lead those who are pregnant.

¹²He has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand,

And divided the heavens, divided it with the span,

And in a measure He has measured the dust of the earth,

And weighed the mountains in scales and the hill in a balance?

¹³Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord?

Who has been His counselor or His instructor?

¹⁴With whom did He take counsel? Who instructed Him?

Who has taught Him in the path of judgment?

Who has taught Him knowledge? Who taught this to Him,

Or showed to Him the way of understanding?

¹⁵As a drop in a bucket, so are the nations; They are counted as small dust in the scales.

He takes up the islands as a very small thing,

¹⁶And Lebanon is not sufficient for His burning,

And for a burnt offering, its beasts are not sufficient.

¹⁷Before Him, all nations are just as nothing; They are counted less than nothing, just as vanity.

¹⁸To whom will you compare God? Of what likeness is He?

¹⁹By a workman a molten image is melted and formed;

The goldsmith decorates it with silver chains and overlays it with gold.

²⁰He who is so poor that he cannot afford this, Chooses a tree that will not rot to prepare his image;

Cunning workmen prepare an image that will not be moved.

²¹Tell me, have you not known? Have you not heard?

From the beginning have you not been told?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the world?

²²It is He, even He who sits on the circle of the earth,

And all the inhabitants of the earth are as grasshoppers before Him.

He stretches out the heavens as a curtain, and He spreads them out like a tent for one to dwell in.

²³He brings the princes to nothing, makes the judges of the earth as vanity.

²⁴They will not be planted, nor will they be sown;

Their stock shall not take root downwards in the earth.

He will blow on them, and they will wither to the dirt,

And as stubble, the whirlwind will blow them away.

²⁵"To whom will I be equal; to whom will you compare Me?"

²⁶Behold who has created these things--yes, lift up your eye--

That brings out their host by number; lift it up on high.

He calls them by name, by the greatness of His might,

For He is strong in power; not one fails.

²⁷Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, saying,

"My way is hid from God; He passes over my justice"?

²⁸Have you not known? Tell me, have you not heard,

That the Everlasting God, the Lord and creator of the earth,

Does not faint or get weary? He is the creator of the ends of the earth,

And there is no searching of His understanding.

²⁹He is the One who gives power to the powerless;

To those who have no might, He increases strength.

³⁰All the youths will faint and be weary, And then the young men will utterly fall;

But for those who wait on the Lord this is not so; Their strength is renewed like the eagle and they shall rise once more!

³¹Those who wait on the Lord will renew their strength;

They will mount up with wings like eagles; They will run and not be weary; they will walk and not faint.

Wait on the Lord, all you people; all you people, wait!

HE who raised up the righteous man,
On his feet calls him to stand;
Gives to him the nations,
Makes him to rule over kings.
Yes, He who opens rivers in high places,
In the valley makes fountains;
Makes pools in the wilderness,
And turns dry land into springs,
Even He says, "I am with you; do not fear!
Do not be dismayed, for I am here!
I will help, strengthen and uphold you,
With the right hand of My righteousness!"

ISAIAH 41

¹"Before Me, O coastlands, keep silence;
Let the people renew their strength.

Let them come near; let them speak;
Let them come near as one to judgment.

²Who raised up the righteous man from the east,

And called him to his feet?

And gave the nations before him,
And over kings made him to rule.

Who gave them as dust before his sword,
As driven stubble before his bow?

³Who pursued them and safely went by the way he had not gone with his feet?

⁴Who has performed, who has done this thing,
Calling the generations from the beginning?

I am the Lord, the first and last."

⁵The coastlands saw it and feared;
The ends of the earth were afraid.

They all drew near;

⁶Everyone helped his neighbor,
And said to his brother, "Be of good courage."

⁷So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith,
And he who smote with the hammer, he who smote the anvil,
Saying, "It is ready to be soldered," and with nails he fastens it that it should not be moved again.

⁸"But you are My servant, Israel,
Jacob whom I have chosen,

The seed of Abraham who is My friend.

⁹You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
I called you from the chief men and this to you I said:

"You are My servant; I have chosen you, yes,

And I will never cast you away.

Fear not, do not be dismayed,

¹⁰“Do not fear, for I am with you.

Do not be dismayed; I am your God.

I will strengthen you, help you, make you strong,

And uphold you with My righteous right hand.’

¹¹Behold all who are incensed against you, Ashamed and confounded they will be.

They will be as nothing;

Those who quarrel with you shall perish.

¹²“You will seek but will not find, those who contend with you;

Those who war against you will be as nothing.

¹³For I, the Lord your God, will hold your right hand,

Saying, ‘Fear not, I will help you, be bold.’

¹⁴Fear not Jacob, Jacob you worm;

Do not be afraid you men of Israel.

The Lord your God, says, ‘I will be your help,’

The Lord your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵I will make you a new, sharp threshing instrument, having teeth, and you will thresh the mountains.

You will thresh the mountains and beat them small,

You will make the hills just like chaff;

¹⁶You will fan them, and the wind will carry them off,

And the whirlwind will scatter them,

And in the Lord you will rejoice

And glory in the Holy One of Israel with lifted voice.

¹⁷For when the poor and needy seek water and they find none,

I, the Lord, will hear them.

Yes, when for thirst their tongue fails,

I, the Lord, their God, will hear,

And these I, the God of Israel, will not forsake.

¹⁸I will open rivers in high places;

I will make fountains in the midst of the low valleys;

I will make a pool of water in the wilderness,

And in dry lands springs of water will flow.

¹⁹I will plant trees in the wilderness,

The cedar, the acacia and myrtle tree,

And there I will also plant the olive tree.

The pine, box and fir trees shall be together in the desert;

²⁰They will consider, they will see, they will know,

They will consider and together understand

That this was done by the Lord’s hand

And created by Israel’s Holy One.

Produce your cause, let it be known.

²¹“Produce your cause,” says the Lord. “Produce them;

Bring forth your strong reasons,” says the God of Israel.

²²“Let them bring them forth and show us what will happen;

Show what the former things are,

That we may consider them and know the latter end.

²³Declare things to come, yes, declare them.

Show the things to come after this moment,

That we may know you are gods.

Do good or evil that we may be dismayed

And behold it together; do this if you may.

²⁴You are of nothing and your works of nothing;

He who chooses you is an abomination.

²⁵I have raised up one from the north and he will come;

He will call on My name from the rising of the sun.

He will come upon princes as upon mortar;

As the potter treads clay, this he will do.”

²⁶Who has declared this from the beginning that we may know them,

And in advance that we may say of Him,

“He is righteous! Righteous is He”?

Yet there is none who shows, none to declare;

There is none who can hear your words.

²⁷“The first shall say to Zion, ‘Behold give your ear.’

I give Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.

²⁸“I looked and there was no man, one or another;

There was none among them, no, not a counselor,

That when I asked of them could give an answer;

They could not answer a word.

²⁹Behold, they are all vanity;

All their works are indeed nothing;

Their molten images are all wind;

Wind and confusion.”

DECLARE His praises in the islands;
Isles of the sea sing out,
Because of My elect and My delight.
He will bring justice to the Gentiles.
In the street He will not lift up His voice;
He will be a guide to the blind,
Making their darkness into light!
Let the wilderness lift its voice;
From the mountaintop now shout!

ISAIAH 42

¹Behold My Servant whom I uphold.
My Elect and the delight of My soul;
Upon Him I have put My Spirit;
He will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.
²He will not cry, nor raise His voice,
Nor make His voice heard in the street.
³He will not break a bruised reed,
And He will not quench a smoking flax,
He will bring forth justice for truth;
⁴He will not be discouraged, nor will He fail,
Until He has established justice in the earth;
"The coastlands will wait for His law."
⁵This says the Lord God,
Who created the heavens and stretched them out;

Who spread forth the earth and all that which from it comes;

Who gives breath to the people of the earth
And spirit to those who walk in it:

⁶"I the Lord have called You in righteousness,
And will hold Your hand.

I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people,

For a light to the Gentiles,

⁷To open the eyes of the blind,
To bring out the prisoners from the prison,
Those who sit in darkness from the prison house.

⁸I am the Lord; that is My name.

I will not give My glory to another,

Nor My praise to carved images.

⁹Behold, the former things have come to pass,
And now new things I declare;
Before they spring forth, of them I make you aware."

¹⁰Sing to the Lord, sing a new song,
From the ends of the earth make His praise resound.

You who go down to the sea,
And all that is in it.

The islands and all their inhabitants.

¹¹Let the wilderness and cities lift their voices,
The villages that Kedar inhabits.

Let the inhabitants of the rock sing;
Let them shout from the mountaintops.

¹²Let them give glory to the Lord God
And declare His praise in the coastlands.

¹³Like a mighty man the Lord will go forth;
He will stir up His zeal jealousy like a man of war.

He will cry, yes, He will roar,
And against His enemies He will prevail.

¹⁴For a long time I have held My peace;
I have been still and have refrained Myself.
Now like a travailing woman I will cry
And devour at once and I will destroy.

¹⁵I will lay waste the mountains and hills,
And all their vegetation I will make dry.

I will make their rivers into coastlands,
And I will dry up all their deep pools.

¹⁶I will lead the blind by a way they never knew;

I will lead them in paths they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them;

And crooked places straight.
These things I will do for them and not forsake them."

"You are our gods."

In prison houses they are hidden; They are for a prey, and there is none to deliver; For a plunder and no one says, "Restore," to them.

²³Who will give ear to this? Who will attend? Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

²⁴Who gave Israel to robbers and Jacob for plunder? Was it not the Lord against whom we have sinned?

For they would not walk in His ways, Nor were they obedient to His law.

²⁵He poured the fury of His anger on him therefore, And the strength of battle.

It has set Him on fire all around, Yet he did not know; Though it burned him, he did not lay it to his heart.

I WILL be with you, I will be by your side, When you pass through the rivers or walk through the fire.

I have redeemed you, I have called you by name,

And I will be with you. I will be with you; I will blot out your sins!

Created for His glory, called by His name, He has formed us; by Him we were made.

We will not consider the past things, but with every new thing He shapes

We will consider, yes, we will consider; we were created for praise!

“I AM the first, I am the last,
Besides Me there is none!
Is there a God besides Me?”
No, Lord, You stand alone!
“I am the Lord who made all things,
Spread the earth all by Myself.
I frustrated the signs of liars,
Made diviners mad with no help!
Is there a God besides Me?”
Lord, there is no one else!
You spread forth the heavens
All alone, all by Yourself!

ISAIAH 44

¹“Hear, O Jacob, my servant; Israel, whom I have chosen, ²Thus says the Lord who made you and formed you from the womb,
Who will help you.
Do not fear, O Jacob, My servant, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
³For I will pour water on the thirsty man and floods upon dry ground;
I will pour My Spirit on your descendants; and My blessing on your offspring.
⁴“They will spring up among the grass like willows by the watercourses.”
⁵One shall say ‘I am the Lord’s,’ because of My blessing on your house.
Yes, one will call himself Jacob’s, and another will subscribe by lifted hands to the Lord and making Israel his surname.
⁶This is what the Lord says, the King of Israel, his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts, ‘Besides Me there is no God; I am the First and I am the Last!

⁷Who can declare as I do?

Let him declare it and set it in order for Me, Since I appointed the ancient people.
And the things that are coming and shall be Let them show these to them.

⁸Do not fear or be afraid; have I not told you from back then?

Have I not declared it? You are My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me?

Indeed there is no Rock: I know not one!”

⁹Those who make a carved image are useless, all of them;

Their desirable things will not profit; they will witness for themselves.

They do not see, they do not know, that they may be ashamed.

¹⁰Who would form a god or mold an image that profits him nothing?

¹¹All his companions would be ashamed; his workmen are just men.

Let them be gathered together; let them stand. Yet they shall fear, and together shall be ashamed.

¹²The smith with the tongs, fashions the gods with his hammer;

He works in the coals, makes it with the strength of his arms.

He is hungry; his strength fails; he drinks no water and is faint.

¹³The carpenter stretches out his rule; he marks out one with a chalk;

He fits it with planes, and lines it out with a compass.

He makes it like the figure of a man, according to his beauty

That it may remain in the house for his eyes to see.

¹⁴He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak;

He selects it for himself among the forest trees. He plants a pine, and it is nourished by the rain.

¹⁵Then it shall be for a man to burn, to take some of it to warm himself.

He kindles it and he bakes bread; He then makes a god and worships it;

He makes a carved image and falls down to it.
¹⁶He burns part in fire and with part he eats flesh;

He roasts a roast and is satisfied; yes, he also warms himself.

He says, “Aha, I am warm, I have seen.”

¹⁷With the residue he makes a god, even his carved images.

He falls down and worships it, and to it he prays,

“Deliver me, you are god!” or “O wood;” it goes both ways.

¹⁸They do not know or understand, for He has shut their eyes,

So that they cannot see, they cannot understand.

¹⁹None ponders in his heart;

No one applies knowledge and understanding to say, "I have burnt it in the fire, I have baked bread with a part, I have roasted flesh and eaten; shall I make the residue of it to be an abomination?"

Shall I fall down before the stock of a tree?"

²⁰He feeds on ashes;

A deceived heart has turned him aside.

He cannot deliver his soul or say, "Is there not a lie here in my right hand?"

²¹"Remember these, O Jacob and Israel, for you are My servants.

I have formed you, My servant; I will not forget you.

²²"Like a thick cloud, I have blotted your transgressions out.

Return to Me, I have redeemed you; I blotted your sins out like a cloud!"

²³Sing, O you heavens, for by the Lord this has been done;

Break forth into singing you mountains;

Let the lower parts of the earth shout.

O forest and every tree, sing with all your strength,

For the Lord has redeemed Jacob; in Israel He has glorified Himself.

²⁴Thus says the Lord your Redeemer; He who formed you from the womb.

"I am the Lord who made all things;

Who stretched forth the heavens all alone.

Who spread abroad the earth all by Myself;

²⁵Who frustrates the signs of liars, and makes diviners mad!

Who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolishness.

²⁶Who confirms the word of His servant, and performs the counsel of His messengers.

²⁷Who says to Jerusalem, 'You will be inhabited,' to the cities of Judah, 'You shall be built.' I will raise up her desolate places.

I am He who says to the deep, 'Be dry.' I will dry up your rivers too.

²⁸Who says to Cyprus, 'He is my shepherd; all My pleasure he will perform,'

Saying to Jerusalem, 'You will be built again,' And to the temple, 'Your foundation will once more be laid.'"

EVERY knee shall bow and every tongue confess,
"In the Lord I have strength and righteousness!"

All men shall bow, yes, one day every knee!

ISAIAH 45

¹"Thus says the Lord to His anointed; to Cyrus,

Whose right hand I held
 To subdue nations before him and loose the armor of kings,
 To open the double gates before him,
 So that the gates will never be shut again.
²I will go before you and make the crooked places straight;
 I will cut in pieces the bars of iron and break
 in pieces bronze gates;
³I will give you the treasures of darkness, hidden riches of secret places,
 That you may know that I, the Lord, who calls
 you by your name,
 Am the God of Israel.
⁴For Jacob My servant's sake, I will do this,
 And for Israel who is My elect.
 I have called you by name and I have named
 you,
 Though you have not known Me.

ISAIAH 46

¹Bel bows down, Nebo stoops;
 Their idols were on the beasts and also on the cattle.
 You had lain heavy burdens on carriages;
 To the weary beast they were a burden.
²They stoop, together they bow down;
 They could not deliver the burden,
 But into captivity they themselves have gone.
³Listen to Me, O house of Jacob,
 And all the remnant of Israel's house
 Who are carried by Me from the belly,
 Who have been carried from the womb;
⁴Even to your old age, I am He,
 And even to your grey hairs I will carry you;
 I have made, and I will bear,
 Even I will carry you and deliver you.

 To whom will you make Me equal?
 To whom will you compare Me,

 From there it has no power to move.

MANY choices to make, each one deciding your path;

God is waiting in judgment, to gather or cast off!

If driven you God's anger, His righteous seed are brought to you,

Will you show mercy, will you spare, Or act as if your sins are not open to His eye and ear?

When God's judgment is turned on, You will lose both children and husband; Can your sinfulness then make you strong?

Let your astrologers save you if they can!

ISAIAH 47

¹O virgin daughter of Babylon, come down; Sit in the dust. Sit on the ground without a throne,

Daughter of the Chaldeans!

For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

²Take the millstone and grind meal;

Uncover your locks; make your legs bare.

Uncover your thigh and pass over the river;

³Your nakedness will be uncovered.

Your shame will be seen;

I will take vengeance,

And I will not meet with a man."

⁴As for our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is His name;

The Holy One of Israel.

⁵Sit in silence, go into darkness,

O daughter of the Chaldeans;

For you will no longer be called

The Lady of Kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with My people; I took a strong stance;

I polluted My inheritance;

And gave them over into your hands.

You showed them no mercy;

You laid your heavy yoke on the elderly.

⁷And you boasted, 'I will be a lady forever,'

So that you did not lay these things to heart,

Nor did you remember the latter end of them.

⁸Hear this now, you who are given to pleasures, hear me,

You who dwell securely;

Who say in your heart,

'I am, and there is no one else besides.

I will not sit as a widow,

Nor will I know the loss of children.'

⁹But these two things will come your way,

In a moment, yes, in one day.

The loss of children and widowhood,

They will come on you in perfection, very good,

Because of your many sorceries,

And the great abundance of your enchantments,

¹⁰For in your wickedness you did trust.

'No one sees me,' you have uttered.

Your wisdom and your knowledge have perverted you;

'I am, and there is no one besides me'; your heart lied to you.

¹¹Therefore evil blots out your skies.

You will not know from where it arises.

Upon you trouble will fall;

You will not be able to put it off.

Desolation will come on you suddenly;

You will not know desolation.

¹²Stand now! With your enchantments stand,

And in your many and strong sorceries;

In which you have labored from your youth.

If perhaps you may profit,

If perhaps you will prevail.

¹³Your many counsels have wearied you.

Now let the astrologers and stargazers,

And the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save you,

From the things that will come on you.

¹⁴They shall be as stubble, to be burnt by the fire,

That shall not deliver themselves from the flame's power.
It will not be a coal by which you get warm,
Nor fire to sit before and laugh.
¹⁵So will they be to you,
With whom you have labored,
Your merchants from your youth;
Everyone will wander to his quarter; No one will save you."

HE shows to us the future,
So all will know when it comes;
He is the Lord, there is no other!
He will share His glory with no one!
He teaches you to profit;
He leads you in the way to go.
Oh, that you would listen to His command,

Then you should know
Peace like the river,
Righteousness as gentle waves!
He has refined you, but not with silver,
But in affliction and with pain!

ISAIAH 48

¹"Hear this, O house of Jacob,
Who are called Israel by name,
And have come forth out of Judah's waters,
And by the name of the Lord you swear;
You who make mention of the God of Israel,
But not in righteousness or truth.
²They call themselves after the holy city,
And lean on the God of Israel,
The Lord of host.
³"I have declared the former things from the beginning;
They went out of My mouth,
And I made them hear it.
And suddenly, I did them; they came to pass.
⁴Because I knew that you are obstinate,
Your neck an iron sinew, your brows bronze,
⁵Even from the beginning I declared it;
Before it came to pass, I proclaimed it to you,
Lest you say, 'My idol has done them;
My carved and molded image commanded
them.'
⁶You have heard and seen all this.
Will you not declare it then?
I have showed you new things from this time,
Hidden things you did not know;
⁷They are created now, not from the beginning:
Before this day you have not heard them,
Lest you should say, 'Behold I knew them!'
⁸You did not hear, surely you did not know;
From ever since your ear was not opened;
For I knew you had dealt very treacherously;
You were called a transgressor from the womb.
⁹For My name's sake I will defer My anger,
And for My praise I will refrain it from you,
So that I do not cut you off.
¹⁰"I have refined you, but not as silver;
In the furnace of affliction I have selected you.
¹¹For My own sake, yes, for My own sake I will do it,
For how should My name be polluted?
I will not give My glory to another.
¹²O Jacob, listen to Me,
O Israel My called,
I am the First, I am the Last; I am He.
¹³"My hand has laid the earth's foundation;
The heavens were stretched out by My right
hand;
When I call to them,
Together they do stand.
¹⁴Assemble yourselves, all of you, and hear.
Who among them has declared these things?
The Lord loves him;
He will do His pleasure on Babylon and His arm shall be against the Chaldeans, ¹⁵"I, even I, have spoken;

I have called him,
I have brought him, and I will make his way prosperous.

¹⁶Come near to Me; hear Me now:
From the beginning I have not spoken in secret,
From the time that it was, I was there.
And now the Lord God and His Spirit, have sent Me.”

¹⁷This says the Lord your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel to you:
“I am the Lord your God who teaches you to profit
Who leads you by the way you should go.

¹⁸Oh, that you had heeded My commandments;
Then your peace would have been like a river,
And your righteousness as gentle waves on the sea.

¹⁹Your descendants also would have been like the sand,
Your offspring like the grains of sand.
His name would not have been cut off
Or destroyed from before Me.”

²⁰Go forth from Babylon!
From the Chaldeans flee!
With a voice of singing, declare, proclaim this;
Utter it to the ends of the earth;

“The Lord has redeemed His servant Jacob;
²¹They were not left thirsty,
When He led them through the deserts;
From the rock He caused the waters to flow.
He split the rock, made it hollow;
Out of it the water gushed.”

²²“There is no peace,” says the Lord,
“For the wicked, no peace; no, there is none.”

Or, rather, you are engraved!
The Lord will not forget you;
You are His suckling child, His pains!
I am the Lord, your Saviour and Redeemer;
This all flesh shall know!
Sing, O heavens; be joyful, earth!
Mountains, with singing, go on, break forth!
All His people take comfort;
Those who wait on Him will not be ashamed!

ISAIAH 49

¹Listen to Me, O islands,
Take heed, you peoples from afar;
The Lord has called Me from the womb;
From My mother's body, He has called My name.

²He has made My mouth like a sharp sword;
He has hidden Me in the shadow of His hands;

He made Me a polished shaft;
In His quiver He has hidden me.

³“He said to me, ‘Israel, you are My servant,
In whom I will be glorified.’

⁴Then I said, ‘I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing.
Surely my work is with my God,
And my reward is with the Lord.’

⁵Now says the Lord who formed me
 And made me His Servant from the womb,
 To bring Jacob again to their Lord,
 So that Israel is gathered to Him.
 In God's eyes I shall be glorious,
 And He will be My strength also.
⁶And He said, "It is such a small thing,
 That You should be My servant,
 To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
 And to restore the preserved of Israel to Me.
 I will also give You as a light to the Gentiles,
 That You should be My salvation to the ends of the earth."
⁷This is what the Lord says,
 The Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One,
 To Him whom man despises,
 To Him who is abhorred by the nations,
 To the Servant of rulers:
 "Kings shall see and rise;
 Princes will also worship,
 Because of the Lord who is faithful,
 The Holy One of Israel,
 And He has chosen You."
⁸Thus says the Lord,
 "In an acceptable time I have heard You;
 In the day of salvation, I have helped You,
 And I will preserve you,
 And give You as a covenant to the people,
 To restore the earth,
 To cause them to inherit the desolate heritages,
⁹That You may say to the prisoners, 'Go forth,'
 And say, 'Show Yourself,' to those who are in darkness.
 They shall feed along the road ways;
 Their pastures will be on the barren high places.
¹⁰They will neither thirst nor hunger,
 Neither will the heat nor sun smite them,
 For He who has mercy on them will lead them.
 By the springs of water He will guide them.
¹¹I will make all of My mountains a roadway,
 And My highways will be exalted.
¹²Behold, they will come from far away."
¹³Behold! People from the north and the west,
 And these from the land of Sinim.
¹³Sing, O heavens! Be joyful, O earth!
 O mountains, break out with singing!
 For to His people the Lord has brought comfort;
 He will have mercy on His afflicted ones.
¹⁴But Zion said, "The Lord has forsaken me;
 By my Lord I am forgotten.
¹⁵Can a woman forget her nursing child
 And not have compassion on the son of her womb?
 Surely they may forget,
 Yet I will not forget you.
 See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;
¹⁶On My palms inscribed, always in My hold;
 Your walls are before Me always.
¹⁷Your children shall make haste;
 Your destroyers and those who laid you waste.

shall go away from you.

¹⁸"Lift up your eyes, look all around and see,
 All these gather themselves together and come to you.

As I live," says the Lord,

"You will clothe yourself with all of them, as
 with an ornament,

And bind them on you as a bride does.

¹⁹For your waste and desolate places,
 And the land of your destruction,
 Will even now be too narrow for the inhabitants;

Those who swallowed you will be far away.

²⁰"The children you have after you have lost
 the others,

Will say again into your ears,

"This place is too small for me;

Give me a place where I may dwell."

²¹Then you will say in your heart,

"Who has begotten these for me,

Since I have lost my children and I am desolate,

A captive, wandering to and fro?

Who has brought these up? Behold, I was left alone.

Where have these been?"

²²Thus says the Lord,

"Behold, I will lift up My hand in an oath to
 the nations,

I will set up My standard for the peoples;

They shall bring your sons in their arms,

And carry your daughters on their shoulders.

²³Kings will be your guardians;

Their queens will be your nursing mothers.

They will bow down to you with their faces to the earth,

And lick up the dust of your feet.

Then you will know that I am the Lord.

Those who wait for Me will not be ashamed."

²⁴Shall the prey be taken from the mighty man,

Or the captives of the righteous be delivered?

²⁵But this is what the Lord says,

"Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,

And the prey of the tyrant delivered.

I will contend with him who contends with
 you,

And I will save your children.

²⁶I will feed all your oppressors with their very own flesh.

With their own blood they will be drunken as with sweet wine.

And all flesh will know, that I am the Lord;
 And Your Savior and Redeemer,

The Mighty One of Jacob."

The Mighty One of Jacob."

THE tongue of the educated
This the Lord has given me,
To speak a word in season
To those who are weary.

Morning by morning He awakens my ear,
As the voice of an educated person He makes me to hear.
He who justifies me, yes, He is near;
The tongue of the educated is my prayer!

ISAIAH 50

- ¹“Where is the bill of your mother’s divorce,
Whom I have put away?
To which of my creditors have I sold you?”
This is what the Lord says:
“For your iniquities, you have sold yourself,
And your mother put away because of your transgressions.
²“Why when I called, was there no man?
Why was there none to answer when I called?
Is My hand shortened that it cannot redeem?
Do not I have the power to deliver?
With My rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a wilderness.
Their fish stink, because there is no water;
Because of thirst they are dead.
³I clothe the heavens with blackness,
And with sackcloth I cover them.”
⁴The Lord God has given Me
The tongue of the educated,
That I should know how to speak
A word in season to the weary souls.
Morning by morning He awakens Me;
As the educated He awakens My ear to hear.
⁵The Lord God has opened My ear;
I was not rebellious nor did I turn away.
⁶I gave My back to those who smote Me;
My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard.
I hid not My face from shame and spitting.
⁷For the Lord God will help Me.
Therefore I will not be disgraced;
Therefore, like a flint I have set My face.
I know that I will not be ashamed,
⁸For He who justifies Me is near.
Who will contend with Me?
Together let us stand.
Who is My adversary?
Let him come near Me.
⁹Behold, the Lord God will help Me;
Who condemns Me?
Like a garment they will all grow old;
They will be eaten up by the moth.
¹⁰Who among you fears the Lord?
Who obeys His servant’s voice?
Who walks in darkness and has no light?
In the Lord’s name let him trust and let him delight;
Let God be his confidence both day and night!
¹¹Behold, all you who kindle a fire,
Who surround yourself with sparks;
Walk in the light of your fire,
And in the sparks you have kindled.
You shall have this from My hand:
You shall lie down in torment.

OH, what a day it shall be,
The return of the redeemed
With everlasting joy and gladness;
Sorrow and mourning shall flee!
By the shadow of His hand we are covered;
He puts words in our mouth.
What a day, what a day! O ransomed,
When the Lord will bring comfort.
Yes, He Himself will comfort you!

ISAIAH 51

¹⁴Listen to Me you who follow after righteousness,
 Who seek the Lord.
 Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
 To the hole of the pit you were dug from.
²Look to Abraham your father,
 And to Sarah who bore you;
 For I called him, yes, him alone,
 And blessed and increased him."
³For the Lord will comfort Zion;
 He will comfort all her waste places.
 He will make her wilderness like Eden,
 Her desert like the Lord's garden.
 Joy and gladness will be found in it,
 Thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

⁴Listen to Me, My people;
 Give ear to Me, O My nation;
 For a law will proceed from Me,
 I will make My justice rest
 As a light of the peoples.
⁵My righteousness is near,
 My salvation has gone forth;
 My arm shall judge the peoples.
 The coastlands will wait upon Me,
 And on My arms they will trust.
⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
 And look beneath on the earth.
 The heavens will vanish like smoke;
 Like a garment, the earth will wax old.
 Those who dwell in it will die in like manner;
 But My salvation will be forever,
 And My righteousness will not be abolished.
⁷Listen to Me, you who know My righteousness,
 You people in whose heart My law is:
 Do not be afraid of the reproach of men,
 Neither be afraid of their insults.
⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment,
 The worm will eat them like wool,
 But My righteousness will be forever;
 And My salvation from generation to generation."
⁹Awake, awake, put on strength.
 O arm of the Lord!
 Awake as in the ancient days,
 As in the generations of old.
 Are You not the One who cut Rahab apart and wounded the dragon?
¹⁰Are You not the One who dried up the sea,
 The great waters of the deep;
 Who made the depths of the sea
 A roadway for the ransomed to pass through?
¹¹Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return
 And come with singing to Zion;
 Everlasting joy shall be on their head.
 They shall obtain gladness and joy;
 Sorrow and mourning shall flee away.
¹²"I am He who comforts you, yes I, even I.
 Who are you that you should be afraid
 Of a man who will die,
 Of the son of man who will be made as grass,
¹³And you forget the Lord your Maker,
 Who stretched out the heavens
 And laid the foundations of the earth;
 And you have feared continually every day before the oppressor's fury,
 As if he was prepared to destroy.
 Where is the fury of the oppressor?
¹⁴The exiled captive hastens that he may be loosed,
 That he should not die in the pit,
 And that his bread should not fail.
¹⁵But I am the Lord your God,
 Who divided the sea whose waves roared.
 The Lord of hosts is His name;
¹⁶I have put My words in your mouth;
 I covered you with the shadow of My hand,
 That I may plant the heavens,

Lay the foundations of the earth,
 And say to Zion, "You are My people."
 17Awake, awake, O Jerusalem, stand up.
 You who have drunk at the hand of the Lord,
 The cup of His fury;
 You have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling;
 You drained it out.

18There is no one to guide her
 Among all the sons she has brought forth;
 Nor is there any to take her by the hand
 Among all the sons she has brought up.

19These two things have come to you.
 Who shall be sorry for you?
 Desolation and destruction;
 Famine and the sword;
 By whom shall I comfort you?

20Your sons, all your sons have fainted,
 They lie at the head of all the streets,
 Like an antelope in a net.
 They are full of the Lord's fury,
 The rebuke of your God.

21Therefore hear this now, you afflicted,
 Drunk, but not with wine.

22Therefore says your Lord,
 The Lord and your God,
 Who pleads His people's cause,
 Look, I have taken out of your hand
 The cup of trembling;
 The dregs of the cup of My fury
 You shall no longer drink it.

23But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you,
 Who have said to you,
 'Lie down so we may walk over you.'
 "You have laid your body
 Like the ground for them to go,
 Like a street and like a highway for them to walk over on you."

THE feet on the mountain
 Bringing good news of salvation free and full,

Telling men, "Your God reigns!"

Oh, what feet! Oh, how beautiful!

Saying, "You sold yourself for nothing;

Without money you shall be redeemed!"

Awake, awake, O Zion,

Put on garments beautiful and clean!

ISAIAH 52

1Awake, awake, O Zion!

Put on your strength;

O Jerusalem, the holy city,

Put on your beautiful garments!

The uncircumcised and the unclean

Shall no longer come to you.

2Shake yourself from the dust;

Arise, O Jerusalem.

Loose yourselves from the bonds of your neck,

O captive daughter of Zion.

3For, says the Lord:

"You have sold yourself for nothing,

Without money I will buy you back.

You shall be redeemed without money."

4For this the Lord God says:

"My people went down at first into Egypt

To dwell there in that place;

The Assyrian also oppressed them without cause.

5Now therefore, what have I here,

That My people are taken away for nothing?

Those who rule over them make them wail;

My name is blasphemed continually every day.

6Therefore My people shall know My name;

They shall know in that day that I am He;

The one who speaks; it is I."

7How beautiful on the mountains,
Are the feet of him who brings good news,
Who publishes peace, who brings good tidings
of good things;

Oh, what feet! Oh, how beautiful.

He who proclaims salvation,
Who says to Zion,

“Your God reigns! Your God reigns!”

8Your watchmen shall lift up their voices;
With their voices, they shall sing together;
For they shall see eye to eye
When the Lord shall bring Zion back again.

9Break forth into joy and sing together,
You waste places of Jerusalem!

For the Lord has comforted His people;
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

10The Lord has made bare His holy arm;
In the eyes of all the nations.

All the ends of the earth shall see,
The salvation of our God.

11Depart, depart! Go out from there.

Touch no unclean thing;

Go out of the midst of her.

You who bear the vessels of the Lord, be clean.

For you shall not go out with haste

Or go by flight, but in peace;

12For the Lord will go before you;

The God of Israel will be your rear guard.

13Behold, My servant shall deal prudently;
He will be very high, exalted, extolled.

14Just as many were astonished at you,
So His countenance was marred more than any man,

And His form more than the sons of men;

15So shall He sprinkle many nations.

Kings shall shut their mouths at Him.

For they shall see that which they were not told,

And they shall consider that which they had not heard.

DESPISED and rejected,
Bruised, battered, grieved!
Wounded, chastised, dejected,
And He was not esteemed!
All we like sheep have gone astray,
Have turned everyone to his own way.
To bring us again, make us His sons,
He was despised, rejected,
Bruised, battered, grieved!

ISAIAH 53

1Who has believed our report,
Oh, who has believed?

And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

2For He shall grow up before Him

As a plant tender and young,

Green and freshly springing,

As a root out of dry ground.

He has no form or comeliness,

And when we look at Him,

There is no beauty that we should desire Him,
by His outward form.

3He is despised and rejected of men,

A Man of sorrow and acquainted with grief.

And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him;

He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

4Surely He has borne our griefs

And our sorrow He has carried;

We esteemed Him stricken,

Smitten by God, and afflicted.

5For our transgressions He was wounded,

For our iniquities He was bruised.

He was chastised for our peace,

And by His stripes we were healed.

6All we like sheep have gone astray;

We have turned, every one, to his own way,

And the Lord has laid on Him

The iniquity of us all.

7He was oppressed and He was afflicted,

Yet He opened not His mouth.

He was led like a lamb to the slaughter,

And as a sheep before his shearers is dumb,
He held His tongue.

⁸He was taken from prison and from judgment,
And who shall declare His generation?
For He was cut off from the land of the living.
He was stricken for the transgressions of My people.

⁹With the wicked they made His grave;
But with the rich at His death,
For He had done no violence,
Nor was any deceit in His mouth.

¹⁰Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise Him,
To put Him to grief as an offering.
When You make His soul an offering for sin,
Then shall He see His offspring;
He shall see His seed then and His days He will prolong;
The pleasure of the Lord will prosper in His hand.

¹¹He will see the travail of His soul,
And He shall be satisfied.
By His knowledge My righteous Servant shall justify many,
For he shall bear their iniquities.

¹²Therefore I will give Him a portion with the great.

He will divide the spoil with the strong,
Because He poured out His soul unto death.
He was numbered with transgressors;
He bore the sins of many,
And for the transgressors He made intercession;
Although He was despised, rejected; bruised, battered, grieved.

- I have received, and I have believed the report of the Lord; I speak to the heart of unbelievers, be tender to the wisdom of God's saving grace. Amen.
- Most High God, place the beauty of service and righteousness in my heart. Amen.
- Man of Sorrows, I accept the joy You brought me through Your own sorrows; I reject all sorrows of the enemy but enter into Your sacrifice of joy. Amen.
- My Jesus, my Lord; You were wounded for my transgressions; I consciously refuse to transgress so I do not reopen Your wounds. Amen.

O YOU afflicted and tempest tossed,
You had no comfort, all seems lost!
In righteousness you will stand tall;
From oppression you will stand far!
Defeated are all weapons formed;
Your soul will forget all your youthful shame!
O you afflicted and tempest tossed,
Your stones shall be fair colors and sapphires!

ISAIAH 54

¹"Sing, O barren, you who did not bear.
Break forth into singing and cry aloud,
You who have not labored with child!
For more are the children of the desolate,
Than the children of the married wife," says the Lord, rejoice.
"Sing, O barren, you who did not bear;
²Enlarge the place of your tent, go on and prepare.
Let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings;
Lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes.
³For you will expand to the right and to the left,
And your descendants will inherit the Gentiles,
And make the desolate cities inhabited again.
⁴Fear not, for you will not be ashamed,
Neither be confounded,
For you will not be put to shame.
You will forget the shame of your youth,
And remember the reproach of your widowhood no more.

⁵For your Maker is your husband;
The Lord of hosts is His name.
Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;
He will be called, 'The God of the whole Earth.'
⁶Like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,
So has the Lord called you;
Like a youthful wife when you were refused,"
Says your God.

⁷For a small moment I have forsaken you,
But with great mercies I will gather you.
⁸With a little wrath I hid My face from you;
It was just for a moment, but you shall see,
With everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,"

This is what the Lord your Redeemer says.
⁹"This is like the waters of Noah to Me in that day,
For as I have sworn that the waters of Noah would no more cover the earth,
So have I sworn that I would not be angry with you,
Nor rebuke you any more.

¹⁰"The mountains will depart and the hills be removed,
But My kindness shall not depart from you,
Nor shall I remove My covenant peace,"
Says the Lord who shows mercy to you.

¹¹"O you afflicted and tempest tossed,
You are tossed with tempest and not comforted;

I will lay your stones with fair colors,
And lay your foundations with sapphires.

¹²"I will make your windows of rubies,
Your gates crystal,
And all your walls of pleasant stones,
Decorated with beauty all around!

¹³Your children will be taught by the Lord then,
And great will be their peace.

¹⁴"In righteousness you will be established;
You will be far from oppression, for you shall not fear;

And far from terror, for it shall not come near.
¹⁵They will gather together, but not by Me;
All who gather against you will fall because of you.

¹⁶"I have created the blacksmith who blows the fire coals
And brings forth an instrument for his work;
And I have created the spoiler to destroy.

¹⁷"No, no weapons formed against you will prosper.
This is your heritage;
Every tongue that rises against you in judgment,
You shall condemn.

Servants of the Lord, this is your heritage;
Your righteousness is of Me," says the Lord.

COME to the waters,
All who are thirsty in life;
Buy wine, buy milk and buy laughter,
Without money, without a price!
Delight your soul in my fatness,
Incline your ear and hear.
Seek the Lord while He is with us;
Call on Him while He is near!

ISAIAH 55

Come to the waters;

His ways are not our own.

As the heavens are high above us,

So His ways glimmer down.

But as the rain from the heavens

Brings water and brings life,

So the word of the Lord's mouth

Will not return to Him void.

¹⁴Ho, everyone who is thirsty,

Come to the waters, come;

Although you who have no money,

Come, buy and eat, come.

Yes, come buy wine and milk,

Without money and without price.

²Why do you spend money for that which is not bread,

And your wages for that which does not satisfy?

Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,

Let your soul delight itself in abundance.

³Incline your ear and come to Me.

Hear and your soul will live;

And I will make an everlasting covenant with you,

The sure mercies of David.

⁴I have given Him as a witness to the people,
A leader and commander for them.

⁵You will call a nation you do not know,
And nations who did not know you, to you they will run,

Because of the Lord your God,

And the Holy One of Israel,

For He has glorified you.”

Come to the water; come to His care.

⁶Seek the Lord while He may be found;

Call on Him while He is near.

⁷Let the wicked forsake his way,

And the unrighteous man his thoughts;

The Lord will have mercy on him,

Therefore, let him return to the Lord.

Return to our God

For He will pardon abundantly.

⁸“For My thoughts are not your thoughts,

Nor are your ways My ways,” says the Lord.

⁹For as the heavens are high above the earth,

So are My ways higher than your ways,

and My thoughts higher than yours.

¹⁰As the rain and snow come down from heaven

And return to it no more but water the earth

And make it bring forth and bud,

That it may give seed to the sower

And bread to the eater,

¹¹“Even so, the word that goes forth from My mouth

Shall not return to Me void,

But it will accomplish what I please,

And it will prosper in its assignment; in the thing I send it to do.

¹²For you will go out with joy,

And you will be led out with peace;

The mountains and hills shall break forth

Before you into singing,

And all the trees of the field will surely clap their hands.

Fir trees will come up instead of the thorns;

¹³Instead of brier the myrtle tree will grow.

It shall be to the Lord for a name,

For an everlasting sign that will not be cut off.”

MA house of prayer for all!

In My house of prayer and joy;
A house of prayer for all nations,
Eunuchs and strangers too.

It is a house of prayer for you!

ISAIAH 56

¹Thus says the Lord,

“Do righteousness and keep justice,

For My salvation is near at hand;

And I will soon reveal My righteousness.

²Blessed is the man who does this,
And the son of man who lays hold on it,
Who restrains himself from defiling the Sabbath,

And keep his hand from doing any evil.”

³Do not let the son of the foreigner
Who has joined himself to the Lord Speak, saying, “The Lord has separated me from His people.”

No, neither let the eunuch say,
“Behold, I am a dry tree.”

⁴For, says the Lord, “To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths and choose to do what pleases Me,

Who steadfastly hold My covenant,

⁵To them I will give a place in My house and within My walls,
And a name better than that of sons and daughters;

I will give them an everlasting name,
A name that will never be cut off,”

Nor shall it ever change.

⁶Also the sons of the stranger
Who join themselves to the Lord, to serve Him
To love the name of the Lord,
To be His servants;

Everyone who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,

And steadfastly keep My covenant,

⁷To My holy mountain I will bring them,
And make them joyful in My house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and sacrifices,

Will be accepted on My altar;

For My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations.”

Lying down, loving to slumber.

¹¹Yes, they are greedy dogs
That can never have enough.

And they are shepherds who cannot understand;

They all look to their own way,
Every one for his own gain, from his own territory.

And yet much more abundant.”

peace!

ISAIAH 57

¹The righteous perish and no one takes it seriously;

Merciful men are taken away.

No one considers the reason the righteous is taken;

That from the evil to come he is being saved.

²He shall enter into peace; they shall rest in their beds;

Each one walking in his uprightness.

³“You sons of the sorceress, offspring of the adulterer

And of the harlot, come here;

Against whom do you vaunt yourselves?

⁴Against whom do you make a wide mouth and stick out the tongue?

Are you not children of transgression,
Offspring of falsehood?

⁵“You inflame yourselves with idols under every green tree,

Slaying the children in the valleys,
Under the cliffs of the rocks?
6Your portion is among the smooth stones of the streams;

These, yes, they are your lot,
Even to those who have offered a drink and grain offering.

Should I receive comfort in these?

7On a lofty and high mountain you have set your bed,

There you went up to offer sacrifices.

8You have set up your remembrance behind the doors and their posts,

For you have uncovered yourself to those other than Me,

And you are gone up to them.

You have enlarged your bed,

And made a covenant with them;

And you loved their bed where you saw their nudity.

9You went to the king with ointment;

You increased your perfumes,

And sent your messengers far away;

You did debase yourselves, even to hell.

10You are wearied in the length of the way,

Yet you never said, 'There is no hope.'

You have found the strength of your hand,

Therefore you were not grieved.

11Of whom have you been afraid,

Or feared, that you have lied

And have not taken it to heart nor remembered Me?

Have not I held My peace since of old,

That you did not fear Me?

12I will declare your righteousness

And your works, for they will not profit you.

13When you cry as you let your companies of idols deliver you.

But the wind shall carry them all away;

Vanity will take them.

He who trusts in Me shall possess the land;

He will inherit My holy mountain."

14And one will say, "Cast it up,

Cast it up, prepare the way.

Take the stumbling block out of My people's way."

15For this says the High and Lofty One,

He who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy,

"I dwell in the high and holy place,

With him who has a contrite and humble spirit;

To revive the spirit of the humble and contrite.

16For I will not contend forever,

Nor will I always be angry,

For the spirit would fail before Me,

And the souls whom I have made.

17For the iniquity of his covetousness,

I was angry and I struck him.

I hid Myself and I was angry;

He went on backsliding in his heart's desire.

18I have seen his ways and will heal him;

I will lead him also likewise.

I will restore comforts to him and to his mourners;

19I create the fruit of the lips:

Peace, peace to him who is afar off,

And to him who is near,

And I will heal him," says the Lord.

20But the wicked are like the troubled sea,

When it cannot rest,

Whose waters cast up mire and dirt abundantly.

No peace to the wicked,

21"There is no peace," says the Lord.

But there is peace in righteousness!

WANT your light to be as the dawning?
To have it break forth as the morning?

Health and righteousness to be your adorning?

Then let God's chosen fast be known.

It is to loose the bonds of wickedness,
Undo heavy burdens and free the oppressed;

Give the hungry bread and let the poor have rest;

This fast will satisfy your soul!

ISAIAH 58

¹Cry aloud, spare not;

Lift up your voice like a trumpet;
Show My people their transgressions,
And the house of Jacob their sins.

²Yet they seek Me every day,
And they delight to know My ways;
As a nation that did righteousness,
And they did not forsake the ordinances of their God.

They ask of Me the ordinances of justice,
They delight in approaching God.

³They say, 'Why have we fasted and You have not seen?

We have afflicted our soul and You take no notice.'

But, you find pleasure in the day of your fast,
And exploit all your laborers.

⁴Behold, you fast for strife and debate
And to strike with the fist of the wicked.
But you will not fast as you do this day
To make your voice heard on high.

⁵'Is it such a fast that I have chosen,
A day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush
And to spread out sackcloth and ashes under him?

Will you call this a fast?

An acceptable day to the Lord?

⁶Is not this the fast I have chosen?
This is the fast you must bring to Me:
To loose the bonds of wickedness,
To undo heavy burdens, to set the oppressed free,

And to break every yoke from the necks,

⁷Is it not to give the hungry some of your bread.

To bring the poor and outcast to your house;
When you see the naked, that you cover him with clothes,

And not hide yourself from your own flesh?

This fast is good, for it is then:

⁸'Yes, that your light will break forth as the morning,

Your health will spring forth speedily;
Your righteousness shall go before you,
And the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard.

⁹Then you will call and the Lord will answer;
You will cry and He will say, 'Here I am.'

If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger,

And also the speaking of vain words,

¹⁰'If to the hungry you extend your soul

And satisfy the afflicted,
Then your darkness will be as the noon,
And in obscurity your light will rise.

¹¹The Lord will guide you continually.

And in times of drought He will satisfy you,
And make your bones strong;
Like a watered garden you will be blooming with life,

Like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.
¹²Those from among you will rebuild the old waste places;

You will raise up the foundations of many generations.

You will be called the Repairer of the Breach,
The Restorer of Paths to Dwell In.

¹³If from the Sabbath you turn your foot away,
And from doing your pleasure on My holy day,
And call the Sabbath a delight, the holy day of the Lord,

And honor Him and not do your own ways at all.

And your own pleasure you do not find,
Nor speak the words that please your mind,

¹⁴Then the Lord will be your delight,

And on the high places of the earth I will cause you to ride,

And I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.

The mouth of the Lord has spoken."

*No lack, but fat, you will have all your delight,
If the fast you choose is right.*

MY Spirit is on you,
And My word I have put in your mouth,
Never to leave, no never to go,
Not from you, your children, or your descendants, no,
From henceforth and for evermore!
When like a flood the enemy comes,
The Spirit of God will raise a standard strong,
For He does not have a short hand.
Turn from all your transgressions,
And your Redeemer will come,
For His word is, "Never to leave again!"

ISAIAH 59

¹Behold the Lord's hand is not shortened that it cannot save,
Nor is His ear heavy that it cannot hear.

²But your iniquities have separated you from your God;
Your sins have hidden His face from you,
So that He will not hear.

³For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken lies, and your tongue has muttered perverse things.

⁴No one calls for justice, no one pleads for truth;
They trust in vain words, speak lies and conceive mischief too.
They bring forth iniquity; they weave the spider's web.

⁵They hatch the viper's eggs;
He who eats of their egg dies.
Yes, he who eats of their eggs dies;
And a viper breaks out from the ones they crush.

⁶Their webs will not become garments,
Nor will they clothe themselves with their works;

Their works are works of iniquity;
In their hands is the act of violence.

⁷Their feet run to evil; they make haste to shed the blood of the innocent.
Their thoughts are all thoughts of iniquity;

Wasting and destruction are in their paths.

⁸They do not know the way of peace; there is no justice in their ways.

They have made themselves crooked paths;
Whoever goes that route will not know peace.

⁹Justice is far from us therefore, nor does righteousness overtake us.

We look for light, but behold, obscurity!
For brightness but in darkness we walk.

¹⁰We grope as if we had no eyes;
Like the blind we grope for the wall.

We stumble at noonday as in the night; we are as dead men in desolate places.

¹¹We growl like the bears and moan sadly like doves;

We look for justice, but find none;
For salvation but it was far from us.

¹²For our transgressions are multiplied before You;

And our sins testify against us;
For our transgressions are with us,
And we know our iniquities:

¹³In transgressing and lying against the Lord
And departing from our God,
In speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and uttering words of falsehood from the heart.

¹⁴Judgment is turned back; justice stands afar off;

For truth is fallen in the street and equity cannot enter in.

¹⁵So truth fails.

He who departs from evil makes a prey of himself.

The Lord saw it and was displeased, that there was no justice;

¹⁶He saw that there was no man and wondered that there was no intercessor.

His own arm therefore brought Him salvation;
By His righteousness He was sustained,

¹⁷For He put a helmet of salvation on His head
And righteousness as a breastplate;

The garment of vengeance was His clothing,
And He was wrapped with zeal as a cloak.

¹⁸According to their deeds He will repay, fury to His adversaries,

Recompense to His enemies;
The coastlands He will fully repay.

¹⁹So shall they fear the name of the Lord
And His glory from the rising of the sun.

When the enemy comes in like a flood,
The Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him.

²⁰"The Redeemer shall come to Zion,
And to all those in Jacob who turn from transgressions."

"As for Me," says the Lord,

²¹"this is My covenant with them:

My Spirit that is on you, and My words which I have put in your mouth,

Shall not depart out of your mouth nor your descendant's mouth,
Nor from the mouth of your descendants' descendants from this time and forevermore."

IN the midst of gross darkness,
His glory has shone;
Arise, shine, for your light is come!
The sun will no more be your light by day,
When the everlasting light of God's presence gives glory its rays.
When your walls are salvation

And your gates praise, you will see,
The glory of the Lord is risen,
Yes, risen upon you!

ISAIAH 60

¹Arise, shine;
For your light has come!
The glory of the Lord is risen upon you.
²For behold, the darkness will cover the earth,
And gross darkness will cover the people.
But the Lord will arise over you;
His glory will be seen on you.
³The Gentiles shall come to your light,
And kings to the brightness of your rising.
⁴Lift up your eyes all around and see;
They all gather together; they come to you.
Your sons will come from far away;
Your daughters will be nursed at your side.
⁵Then shall you see and become radiant;
Your heart shall be thrilled and with joy it will swell;
Because the abundance of the sea will be converted to you,
The wealth of the Gentiles will come unto you as well.
⁶Camels will cover your land,
The dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
And all those from Sheba will come;
They will bring with them incense and gold;
The praises of the Lord shall they show forth.
⁷All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you;
The rams of Nebaioth will minister to you.
They will come up with acceptance on My altar,
And I will glorify the house, the house of My glory.
⁸Who are these who fly like a cloud,
And to their roosts they fly like doves?
⁹Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me,
And the ships of Tarshish will come first,
bringing sons from far away,
Their silver and gold with them,
To the name of the Lord your God,
And to the Holy One of Israel,
Because He has glorified you.
¹⁰The sons of strangers will build up your walls,
And their kings shall minister to you;
For in My wrath I smote you,
But in My favor I had mercy on you.
¹¹Therefore your gates shall be open continually;
They will not be shut by day or by night,
That men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles,
And that their kings may be brought with the forces.
¹²For the nations and kingdoms that will not serve you will perish;
Utterly wasted those nations will be.
¹³The glory of Lebanon shall come to you,
The fir tree, the cypress and the box tree;
To beautify the place of My sanctuary,
And I will make the place of My feet glorious.

¹⁴And the sons of those who afflicted you, will come to you bowing down,
And all those who despised you shall fall prostrate at the soles of your feet;
They will call you, "The City of the Lord, Zion of Israel's Holy One."

¹⁵"Whereas you were forsaken and hated, so that no one went through you,
I will make you an excellence,
A joy of many generations.

¹⁶You will drink the milk of the Gentiles and milk the breasts of kings;
You shall know that I, the Lord, am your Saviour and your Redeemer; the Mighty One of Jacob.

I will bring gold instead of bronze; silver instead of iron;

¹⁷Instead of wood, bronze; instead of stones, iron.

I will make your officers peace,
And your magistrates righteousness.

¹⁸Violence will no more be heard in your land,
Nor wasting or destruction within your borders;

You shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates, Praise.

¹⁹The sun shall no longer be your light by day,
Nor for brightness, shall the moon give you light.

The Lord your God will be an everlasting light to you;

Your God shall be your glory.

²⁰The sun shall no more go down, nor the moon withdraw itself;

For the Lord will be your everlasting light.
And the days of your mourning will come to an end,

²¹Your people shall be righteous, they shall all be righteous then.

They shall inherit the land forever,

The branch of My planting,

The work of My hands, that I may be glorified.

²²A little one shall become a thousand;

And a small one a strong nation;

I the Lord will hasten it in its time."

HE IS planting in His garden
Trees of righteousness and praise,
Where all your situations
Have been turned around and changed!
Receive beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for the times you mourn!
The garment of praise
When heaviness weighs you down!
The Spirit of God is upon Me,
Anointing Me to preach and to liberate;
Preparing tender plants for His garden,
Trees of righteousness and praise!

ISAIAH 61

¹"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me,

Because He has anointed Me

To preach good tidings to the poor,

To heal the broken-hearted;

To proclaim liberty to the captives,

The opening of the prison to those who are bound,

²To proclaim the acceptable year of our Lord,
And to comfort all who mourn;

To proclaim the day of vengeance of our God;

³To console those who mourn in Zion,

To give them beauty for ashes,

And for mourning, joyful oil.

The oil of joy for mourning,

The garment of praise for the spirit of heavi-

ness.

That they may be called,
Trees of righteousness,
Planted by the Lord,
That He may be glorified.”

sons of foreigners.

Lord;

Men will call you ministers of your God.
You shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And in their glory you will boast.

And instead of confusion, they will rejoice in their portion.

Therefore in their land they will possess double;

Theirs will be everlasting joy.

I hate robbery for burnt offering.

I will direct their work in truth,
And I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Gentiles,

All who see them will acknowledge them,
That they are the descendants whom the Lord has blessed.”

¹⁰In the Lord I will greatly rejoice,
My soul will be joyful in my God;
For He has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
And clothed me with the garments of salvation,

As a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments,
And as a bride adorns herself with jewels.

¹¹For as the earth brings forth its bud,
And the garden causes the things sown in it to spring forth,
So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to come;

It shall spring forth like the garden before all
the nations.

BEULAH land, I am longing for you,
And some day on you I'll stand,
Where the Lord rejoices over me
Like a bridegroom, his precious one!
No longer called, "Forsaken," no more called, "Desolate!"
He sought me and redeemed me, and in me He delighted;
He called me a crown of life, a royal dia-dem in His hand!
He tells me that I am married; I have stepped onto Beulah land!

For Jerusalem's sake I will not rest at ease,
Until the righteousness on which she stands
Goes forth like brightness and her salvation like a burning lamp.

²The Gentiles shall see your righteousness,
And all kings your glory just the same;
You shall be called by a new name
Which the mouth of the Lord Himself will name.

³You shall be a crown of glory in the Lord's
hand,
In your God's hand a royal diadem.

⁴You shall no longer be termed Forsaken.
Nor your land termed Desolate again.
Hephzibah, O Beulah land

Hephzibah, is the name you will be called,
For the Lord's delight you have become.
Your land shall be married, it is Beulah now,

⁵For as a young man marries a virgin,
So shall your sons marry you;
As a bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
So shall your God rejoice over you.

Beulah land, your walls kept tight.

walls
Who will not hold their peace day or night at all.

You who make mention of the Lord, speak up,

the Lord praise.

⁹Those who have brought it together shall drink it and be blessed;
They shall drink it in the courts of My holiness."

¹⁰Go through, go through the gates;
Prepare the way of the people.

MAKE mention, I will make mention,
Of Your loving kindness and praise,
Of Your great goodness towards us;
I will make mention of Your ways!
In our affliction You were afflicted;

By the angel of Your presence they were saved!
In love and pity You redeemed them,
And carried them all their days.

ISAIAH 63

¹Who is this who comes from Edom,
And from Bozrah with dyed garments,
The One who is glorious in His apparel,
Traveling in the greatness of His strength?
“I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save!”
²Why are Your clothes red,
And your garment like one who treads the winepress?
³I have trodden the winepress all alone.
There was not one of the people with Me,
For in My anger I have trodden them,
And trampled them in My fury.
Their blood is sprinkled on My garments;
I have stained all My clothes.
⁴For the day of vengeance is in My heart;
The year of My redeemed has come.
⁵I looked, but there was no one to help,
I wondered that there were none to uphold,
Therefore My own arm brought Me salvation,
And My own fury sustained Me,
⁶I have trampled down the peoples in My anger.
I made them drunk in My fury,
And brought down their strength to earth.”
⁷I will mention the loving kindness of the Lord,
And His praises and His worth,
According to all the Lord has bestowed on us,
And His great goodness towards Israel,
Which He bestowed on them according to His mercies,
And according to the multitude of His loving-kindness.
⁸For He said, “Surely they are My people,
Children who will not lie.”
So He was their Saviour.
⁹In all their affliction He was afflicted likewise.
The angel of His Presence saved them;
He redeemed them in His pity and love;
He bore them and He carried them,
All the days of old.
¹⁰But they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit,
Therefore He turned against them as an enemy,
And He fought against them.
¹¹Then He remembered the days of old, Moses and His people, Saying, “Where is He who brought them out of the sea,
With the shepherd of His flock?
Where is He who put His Holy Spirit in them,
¹²Who led them by Moses’ right hand?
With His glorious arm,
Dividing the waters before them as they passed on,
To make for Himself an everlasting name.
¹³Who led them through the deep waters,

As a horse in the wilderness,
That they should neither stumble nor fall?”
¹⁴As a beast goes down into the valley,
The Spirit of the Lord caused him to rest;
So You lead Your people,
To make a glorious name for Yourself.
¹⁵Look down from heaven and behold
From the habitation of Your holiness and glory.
Where is Your zeal and Your strength,
The yearning of Your heart and Your mercy towards me?
Are they restrained?
Though Abraham is ignorant of us,
And Israel do not acknowledge us,
¹⁶You, O Lord, are our Father,
And our Redeemer, Lord, You are.
Your name is our Redeemer from Everlasting.
¹⁷O Lord, why have You made us stray from Your ways,
And hardened our heart from Your fear?
Return for Your servants’ sake,
The tribe of Your inheritance.
Our adversaries have trampled down Your sanctuary;
¹⁸Your holy people possessed it for a little while only.
But Lord, we are Yours,
Yes, we are Yours. I will make mention,
¹⁹We have become like those of old,
Over whom You never ruled,
Those who were never called by Your name;
But we are Yours.

OH, that You would tear the heavens,
That the mountains might flow at Your presence!

We are the clay, You are our potter, God;
All our righteousness is but filthy rags!

Oh, that You would tear the heavens!
But we know that eye has not seen,
Nor has the ear perceived what You have prepared

For those who wait on You patiently!

ISAIAH 64

¹Oh, that you would rip the heavens!
That You would come down Yourself!
That the mountains might shake at Your presence,

²As when the melting fire burns and melts;
And fire causes water to boil,
To make Your name known to Your adversaries,

That the nations may tremble at Your presence Lord!

³When You did awesome things which we did not look for!

You came down,
At Your presence the mountains quaked.

⁴Since the world began men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear,
Nor has the eye seen, O God, any God besides You,

Who prepares and acts on behalf of all those who wait on Him.

⁵You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness,
Those who remember You in Your ways.
You were angry, for we have sinned,
Shall we be saved since we continue in these ways?

⁶We are all like an unclean thing,
And all our righteousness like filthy rags.
We all fade like a leaf,
And our iniquities like the wind have taken us away.

⁷There is no one who calls on Your name,
Who stirs himself up to take hold of You;

For from us You have hidden Your face
And You have consumed us because of our iniquities.

⁸But now, O Lord, You are our Father;
You are the potter, we are clay;
We are all works Your hand has made.

⁹Do not be angry, O Lord,
Nor remember our iniquity forever;
See, we beseech You, we are Your people!
Look at your holy cities now;

¹⁰Your holy cities are a wilderness;
Zion is a wilderness; Jerusalem is a desolation.

¹¹Look at our holy and beautiful temple,
The house our fathers praised You in,
With fire it is burned.

All our pleasant things are laid waste!
Will You restrain Yourself, O Lord?

¹²Will You restrain Yourself because of these things?

Will You hold Your peace, and afflict us very severely?

SOUGHT out by those who for Me never asked;
 I am found by those who never sought,
 So that I may not destroy them all;
 This I will do for My servants whom I sought!
 As new wine in a cluster, the blessing I will not destroy;
 I will hear while they yet speak and answer
 before they call!
 I will create a new heaven and a new earth;
 They shall no more remember the old!
 I will create in Jerusalem for a rejoicing,
 Sought out, yes, sought and forever found!

ISAIAH 65

¹“By those who did not ask for Me, I was sought;
 By those who did not seek Me, I was found.
 I said, ‘Behold, here I am,’ to a nation that was not called by My name.
²I stretched out My hands to a rebellious people all day;
 Who walk in a way that is not good,
 According to their own thoughts;
³“A people who provoked Me to anger continually to My face;
 Who burn incense on brick altars and sacrifice in garden places;
⁴Who remain among the graves and lodge at nights in the tombs;
 Who eat swine’s flesh and broth of abominable things in vessels;
⁵Who say, ‘Stand by Yourself, do not come near to me,
 For I am holier than you are! Do you not see?’
 These are a smoke in My nose, a fire that burns all day.
⁶Behold, it is written before Me, I will not keep silent, but will repay recompense into their bosom,
⁷Your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers with you,” Says the Lord “All you who have burned incense on the mountains
 And blasphemed Me on the hills;
 Therefore I will measure their former work of old into their bosom.”
⁸Thus says the Lord:
 “As new wine is found in the cluster,
 And one says, ‘Do not destroy it,
 For a blessing is in it,’
 So will I do for the sake of My servants,
 That I may not destroy them all.
⁹I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
 And an inheritor of My mountains out of Judah.
 My elect shall inherit it and there My servants will dwell.
¹⁰Sharon shall be a fold of flocks,
 And the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down as well,
 For My people who have sought Me.
¹¹But you are those who forsake the Lord

Who forget My holy mountain, and prepare a table for the troop,
 Who furnish drink offering to that number.

¹²Therefore, I will number you for the sword,
 And to the slaughter you will all bow down.
 Because you did not answer when I called,
 you did not hear when I spoke,
 But you did evil before My eyes, and the things in which I had no delight you chose.”

¹³Therefore, says the Lord, “My servants will eat but you shall be hungry;
 My servants will drink, but you shall be thirsty.

My servants will rejoice, but you shall be ashamed;

¹⁴My servants will sing for joy of heart but you shall cry for sorrow of heart,
 And wail for grief of spirit.

¹⁵“To My chosen, you shall leave your name
 as a curse,

For the Lord God will slay you,
 And call His servants by another name,

¹⁶So that he who blesses himself in the earth will do so in the God of truth;

And he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth;

For the former troubles are forgotten;
 And from My eyes they are hid;

¹⁷For behold, I create a new heaven and a new earth;

The old shall be forgotten.

The former shall not be remembered nor shall
 it come to mind,

¹⁸But in that which I create, forever, be glad and rejoice.

For I create Jerusalem for a rejoicing and her people a joy;

¹⁹I will rejoice in Jerusalem and joy in My people;

In her, the voice of weeping will no more be heard,

Nor a tearful voice.

²⁰No more will any infant there live only a few days,

Nor an old man without full days.

The child shall die a hundred years old,
 But for the sinner it is not so;

The sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed.

²¹They will build houses and inhabit them;
 They will plant vineyards and eat the fruit.

²²They will not build and another inhabit;
 They shall not plant and another eat.

For as the days of a tree, so shall the days of My people be,

And My elect shall enjoy their work for a long time.

²³They will not labor in vain nor bring forth
 offspring of trouble,

For they are the descendants of the blessed of
 the Lord,

and their offspring with them also.

²⁴“It shall come to pass,

That before they call I will answer;
 And while they are still speaking, I will hear.
²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
 and like the ox, the lion shall eat straw there,
 And dust will be the serpent's food.
 They will not hurt or destroy in My holy mountain," says the Lord.

ALL nations and every tongue,
ATo see His glory they shall come.
"Shall I travail and not bring forth life?"
All you who love Jerusalem, rejoice;
You will seek and be satisfied;
Her breast shall be your great delight!
Like a river I will extend her peace,
And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.

As the river flows from Jerusalem and on,
 All nations and every tongue shall come!

ISAIAH 66

¹Thus says the Lord, "The heaven is My throne,
 And the earth is My footstool.
 Where is the house that you build Me?
 Where is the place of My rest?
²For all those things My hand has made,
 And all those things already have been," the Lord says.
 "But to this man will I look: on him who is poor
 And of a contrite spirit, who trembles at My word.
³He who kills an ox is as if he slays a man.
 He who sacrifices a lamb, as if he cuts off a dog's neck.
 He who offers a grain offering, as if he offered swine's blood.
 He who burns incense, as if he blesses an idol.
 Just as they have chosen their own ways,
 And their soul delights in their abominations,
⁴I will choose their delusions, and bring their fears on them.
 For when I called, no one answered;
 They did not hear when I spoke;
 But they did evil before My eyes and that which I had no delight in, they chose."
⁵Hear the word of the Lord, you who tremble at His words:
 "Your brethren who hated you, who cast you out for My name's sake,
 Said, 'Let the Lord be glorified, that He may appear to your joy,'
 But they shall be ashamed."
⁶"The sound of noise from the city,
 From the temple, the sound of a voice!
 The voice of the Lord who repays all His enemies!
⁷"She gave birth before she travailed;
 She delivered a male child before her pain came.
⁸Who has heard or seen such things?
 Shall the earth in one day be made to give birth?
 Or shall a nation be born at once?
 For as soon as Zion labored,
 To her children she gave birth.
⁹Shall I bring to delivery and not cause to give birth?
 Shall I who cause reproduction shut up the womb?" says God.
¹⁰"Rejoice you with Jerusalem;

Be glad with her, all you who love her.
 Rejoice for her joy, all you who mourn for her,
 11<sup>That you may feed and be satisfied
 With the breasts of her consolation,
 That you may drink her milk and be delighted,
 With the abundance of her glory.”</sup> 12<sup>For thus says the Lord, “I will extend peace to her like a river,
 And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.
 Then you shall be carried on her sides as you feed,
 And be dandled on her knees.
 13<sup>I will comfort you as one whom a mother comforts,
 So will I comfort you in Jerusalem.”</sup>
 14<sup>When you see this, your heart will rejoice,
 And your bones shall flourish; like grass they will thrive.
 To His servants, the hand of the Lord shall be known,
 And His indignation to His enemies shown.</sup>
 15<sup>Behold, with fire the Lord will come,
 With His chariots like a whirlwind, terrible and fearsome,
 To render His anger with fury and His rebuke with fiery flames.</sup>
 16<sup>By fire and His sword The Lord will judge all flesh,
 And many shall be the Lord’s slain.</sup>
 17<sup>“Those who sanctify and purify themselves
 To go to the gardens after an idol in the midst, Eating the abomination and the mouse and swine’s flesh
 Shall together be consumed,” says the Lord.</sup>
 18<sup>“For I know their works and their thoughts.
 I will gather all nations and tongues;
 And they shall come and see My glory.</sup>
 19<sup>I will set a sign among them;
 Those who escape of them, I will send to the nations:
 To Tarshish, Pul and Lud, who draw the bow,
 To Tubal, Javan, to the coastlands far away,
 Who have not seen My glory, neither heard My fame,
 And among the Gentiles, My glory they shall declare.</sup>
 20<sup>Then they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the Lord
 Out of all the nations,
 In chariots and litters and on horses;
 On swift beasts, on mules and camels, to My holy mountain, Jerusalem,
 As the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the Lord’s house,” says the Lord,</sup>
 21<sup>“And I will take some of them for priests and Levites,” says the Lord.</sup> 22^{“For as the new heavens and the new earth}</sup> which I will make shall remain before Me,”

 says the Lord,
 “So shall your descendants and your name remain.
 23<sup>“And it shall come to pass that from one
 New Moon to the next,
 And from one sabbath to the other,
 All flesh shall gather to worship before Me.
 24<sup>And they shall go forth and look on the carcasses of the men who have transgressed against Me.
 For their worms shall not die, nor shall their fire be quenched;
 They shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.”</sup></sup>
