

The First Book of Moses Called GENESIS

WHEN God speaks something happens,
When He speaks this we know,
All nature is respondent,
And streams begin to flow!
Through the void and the darkness,
Through the dark and the cold,
The Spirit is hovering, awaiting His word!

GENESIS 1

¹In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth;
²a formless void in darkness upon which the Spirit moved.
Suddenly it lit up!
³Suddenly the earth awoke!
The voice of God was commanding,
“Let there be light!” is what He spoke.
⁴God looked at the light, it was good in His sight;
⁵He called the light, Day, and the darkness He called, Night.
And the evening and the morning were the first day, and then ⁶as the Spirit hovered, God spoke once again:
“Let there be a firmament in the waters, right there in the midst, to divide the waters from the waters.”
⁷So God made the firmament.
And He divided the waters, it was as He spoke.
He divided the waters under the firmament from the waters which were above.
And it was so, by the authority of His Word.
⁸And God called the firmament Heaven.
And the evening and the morning were the second day.
⁹Then God said, “Let the waters under the Heaven be gathered together into one place; and let the dry land appear!”
And it was so, just as He spoke.
¹⁰And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters, Seas.
And it was good; God saw that it was good!
¹¹God spoke and said, “Let the earth bring forth grass, herb yielding seeds, and fruit trees yielding fruits after their kind, all with the power to increase, whose seed is within them on the earth.”
And it was so, according to His word.
¹²The earth brought forth grass, and herbs yielding seeds, fruit trees yielding fruits after their kind, all with the power to increase, for their seed were within them on the earth.
He spoke power to yield, power to increase, and the power to produce seeds!
And it was good; yes, God saw that it was good!

¹³The evening and the morning were the third day.

¹⁴Then, with artistic precision, God placed lights in the sky to divide the day from the night, and be for seasons; for days and for years and for signs.

¹⁵To be for lights in the firmament, to give light upon the earth.

@The creative Master took the void, transforming it with living words!

¹⁶Set there in the firmament, God made two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the less significant light to rule the night;
and He decorated the sky with beauty, as He also made the stars.

¹⁷God set the lights in the firmament of heaven, to give light on the earth;

¹⁸to rule over the day, and over the night, and to divide light from darkness.

And it was good; God saw that it was good!

¹⁹And the evening and the morning was the fourth day.

²⁰There were creatures moving in the waters; “Let the waters be filled,” He said,

“with living creatures in abundance.” And as the Lord God spoke again, birds were flying above the earth, in the open firmament of the skies;

for God said, “Let there be,” and they came forth at His voice.

²¹So God created the sea creatures, and every living thing that moves;

the waters were filled with them in abundance, and the heaven was filled with birds; all according to its kind.

And it was good! God saw that it was good.

²²God blessed them to increase, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply upon the earth.”

²³So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

While the Spirit of God hovered, waiting for another word!

²⁴Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to its kind:
cattle and creeping things, and beasts of the earth, each according to its kind”;

and it was so; it was even as God spoke,

²⁵and God made the creatures of the earth according to its kind, animals and everything that creeps;

they came forth abundantly at His word!

And it was good; God saw that it was good.
 26Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air; over the animals and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

27So God created man in His own image; in the image of God, He created him. He created them, both male and female. He created them in His image.
 28Then God blessed them to be abundant; His voice was heard again, "Be fruitful and multiply, fill the earth and subdue it."

When God speaks something happens; "Have dominion!" was His word, "Over the fish of the sea, the fowl of the air, over every living thing that moves on the earth."

29And God said, "See I have given you, every herb bearing seed which is on all the earth, and every tree with fruit yielding seed; it shall be to you for food.

30And I have given every green herb for food to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air and to everything with life that creeps on the earth."

And it was so.

Man was blessed to be abundant; God gave him dominion over all His creation. And it was so!

31The evening and the morning were the sixth day.

God's word had transformed the void!

And it was good.

God saw everything that He had made, He was satisfied.

Indeed it was very good. It was pleasing in His sight!

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. It is in God means that it is in you since God made you in His image; you have the power to speak and to establish.
2. It is in God means that it is in you, you have creative power to transform your world.
3. The word of God released unimaginable power that created a world for man, finally God placed His breath and His 'word' in man.
4. It is easy to accept the world already created though it takes faith to conceptualize the power of the word that established it; even so, many have not fully conceptualized the power of the word in them waiting to be unleashed by faith.
5. The earth did not argue with God's designation for its destiny, neither should man.
6. If God calls it good, it is good, human beings and all His creation, time and circumstances cannot change it.
7. If God says, "Have dominion," you have dominion; time and circumstances cannot change it.

8. The world sees null and void, God sees the immeasurable potential; all the world needs is a word to see it the way God sees it.
9. Search the word to determine how God sees you; seek the word that will take you to His designation for your life.
10. The adjectives associated with God are: good and perfect, beautiful in its time, and, God saw that it was good.
11. He made it means He owns it, and He has all the rights. He redeemed it means He bought it and He has all the rights. You are His twice; have you ever heard that you are not your own?

PRAYER POINTS

- O God of wisdom and power, release a word from heaven now that will unlock the hidden potential in me, in Jesus' name.
- Marvelous Lord, help me to see me as You see me and not as the world sees me, in Jesus' name. Help me to fully understand that the world that men exalt, was nothing until You spoke life into it, in Jesus' name.
- Father, help me to become everything that You see in me. Let every voice in me that will resist Your word, be silent, in Jesus' name.
- Amazing God, help me to embrace Your breath in me and to understand the divine nature that You invested in me after forming me from clay, in the name of Jesus.
- King of glory, I appreciate the power of Your word in me; let my spirit conceive You, and my lips release Your word by faith always. Amen.
- Father God, help me to fully understand the dominion mandate and instruction You programmed into me at creation and let me live every bit of my potential, in the name of Jesus.

A PRESENCE, a person, and a place,
 Where the Presence creates the person in the place,
 And the place of the person is the Presence;
 The person is at his best in his place...
 Fed by a mist, there was no rain,
 Man was naked yet not ashamed;
 Come let us walk, I will take you there Where the breath of God brought man to life.

GENESIS 2

1The heavens and earth were finished, and all its contents, 2and on the seventh day, God ended His work which He had done;
 and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.
 3Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which He had created and made.
 4This is the history of the heavens and the earth when they were created:
 in the day that God made the earth and the heavens,

⁵before any plant of the field was in the earth, and before any herb of the field had grown. For God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground;

⁶but a mist went up from the earth and watered all the ground.

⁷And the Lord God formed man from dust of the ground, and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and man became a living soul.

*@Invariably it happens,
God's breath electrifies.*

*When Heaven meets with earth, then the earth comes to life, formed from the dust and brought to life
by the very breath of God;
the heavenly Father got His hands dirty, but the garden of Eden was His plan.*

⁸The Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed.

⁹And from the ground He made to grow, every tree pleasant to look at, and good for food.

*@Oh, the garden, what a place to be!
Located in the east,*

*where rivers flow and fruitful trees would make a happy feast;
The tree of life was in the midst, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.*

¹⁰Out of Eden a river went to water the garden, and from there it parted, and it became four river heads, ¹¹the name of the first was Pison.

This river skirts the entire land of Havilah where there is gold.

¹²And the gold of that land is good.

The land also had in it bdellium and onyx stone.

¹³The name of the second is Gihon; it skirts all the land of Ethiopia.

¹⁴The name of the third river is Hiddekel, which goes towards the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵In the garden of Eden, God placed the man to tend it and to keep;

¹⁶and the Lord God commanded the man, saying,

“Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat, ¹⁷but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for the day that you eat of this tree, you shall surely die.”

¹⁸And the Lord God said, “It is not good that man should be alone; I will make for him a helper comparable to him.”

¹⁹Out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every bird of the air, and He brought them to Adam to see what he would call them.

And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.

@There Adam named all creatures, yet he never doubled up!

²⁰So Adam gave names to all the cattle, to the birds of the air and every beast of the field.

Adam named them one after another; but for Adam there was found no helper comparable to him.

²¹Oh, garden, where the Lord God caused Adam to sleep, and took one of his ribs to form someone he thought was rather neat, his own flesh and bone.

God took the rib from Adam and closed up the flesh.

²²The Lord God made the rib into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

²³And Adam said, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.”

²⁴Therefore man shall leave his father and his mother, and be joined to his wife, and they shall be one flesh.

*²⁵Oh, garden, where there was no pride,
The man and his wife the same,
They existed in God's natural light,
Both naked, yet not ashamed.*

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Run your hand over your body, every contour, crevice and corner; it is amazing to think that God's hands were there first; He sculptured you.
2. God was willing to get His hands dirty to form man; His Son was willing to get His hands bloody to redeem man; the Holy Spirit is willing to subject Himself to flesh to live in sinful man. What is man?
3. God's word had the power to bring man to life but He did not choose to speak but to mould and to breathe, for only the breath of God has the power to bring man to worship.
4. The fish for the water, the plant for soil, and man for the presence of God.
5. Man operates at his peak from the presence of God; even to naming all creatures without doubling up.
6. There is room for delegation, ownership and partnership, even at creation; there may be something for your subordinates to name.
7. There is abundance of joy, peace, happiness and provision in the presence of God.
8. When your world cannot provide a suitable companion, wait on the Lord.
9. Man was given a companion while living in the presence of God; let her find you there.
10. You will be amazed at what the Lord can bring out of you if you will rest in His hands.

11. Even in your paradise garden, you need a law to restrain you and to keep you focused on God.

PRAYER POINTS

- O God, my Father, help me to understand the real power that I generate from the platform of Your presence, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- O Lord God of creation, I decree that I shall achieve my full potential in You, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- King of Glory, help me to understand the glory that was deposited in me when You came down and breathed in me, in Jesus' name; let worship become as natural to me as the breath I breathe, the breath You breathed in me, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- O Lord of host, help me never to lose the essence of the touch of Your hand running all over my vessel of clay to carve me out; let this be the personality of my relationship with You, in Jesus name.
- Father God, help me not to be limited by the non-existence of the things of life, but let me recognize the beauty, greatness and perfection You can bring out of me; I will rest completely in Your hands, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

I*N the presence of God, what a great place to be,
Where we rest from our labors, live forever at peace;
Where fear can't beset us, we are fed from His tree.
Won't be moved from His Shadow; want His presence with me!*

GENESIS 3

@Man lived in God's presence; he just had to be; he had all things to his pleasure, except for one tree.

¹Now the serpent was more cunning than any animal God had made;

he said to the woman, "Has God really said, 'Of every tree of the garden you shall not eat?' Has God really said? Are you sure? Now tell me!"

²The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the trees;

³but of the fruit of the tree in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat nor shall you touch it...!' She exaggerated.

'...nor shall you touch it lest you die!'"

⁴*In the eyes of the serpent, God's word was a lie;* He questioned God's motive, and said, "You will surely not die!

⁵For God knows the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

@The truth about wisdom, when wrapped in deceit, was stronger than her will; she took fruit to eat.

⁶For when the woman saw the tree was good for food and oh, so pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, She cast off all restraint, and took of its fruit and ate.

She also gave to her husband with her, [@]and although he knew what he had; he honored the woman, and disobeyed God; he ate.

⁷Their eyes both were opened; [@]soon would come blame, remorse and self pity, unclothed and ashamed. conscious that they were naked, they sewed aprons of fig leaves.

⁸They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid from God's presence among the trees of the garden, no longer comfortable in that place.

[@]If man is not connected, fig leaves will not be enough, when shrouded in darkness, God's light will erupt!

They needed a covering, as all sinners do. When God shines on sin's darkness, He exposes the truth!

⁹The Lord God called to Adam and said, "Where are you?"

¹⁰So he said, "I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, and so I hid myself."

¹¹"Who told you that you were naked?" God replied and said.

"Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded that you should not?"

¹²Then Adam said, "The woman You gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree and I ate it."

¹³And the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?"

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." They passed the blame around.

¹⁴So the Lord God said to the serpent,

"Because you have done this, you are cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field;

you shall go around on your belly and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.

¹⁵And between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed,

I will put hatred and strife;

"He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel."

¹⁶And to the woman God said, "I will greatly increase your sorrow in childbearing; in pain you shall give birth to children; Your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you."

¹⁷Then to Adam He said, "Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying,

'You shall not eat of it': Cursed is the ground for your sake;

in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life. ¹⁸It shall bring forth to you both thistles and thorns, and you shall eat the herb of the field.

¹⁹By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken.

For you are dust, and to dust you shall return again!"

²⁰And Adam named his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

@God was loving and faithful as He offered that day, the first blood offering;

²¹He made coats of skins to clothe them, to cover their shame.

²²Then the Lord God said, "The man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, to prevent him taking of the tree of life to eat and so live forever, in this sinful state."

²³Therefore, the Lord God sent him out of the garden of Eden, to cultivate and plough the ground from which he was made.

²⁴So God drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

@Driven from God's presence, kept out by his improper choice, dead was man's spirit, and all cause to rejoice. Man needed redemption, to come back to that place where we rest from our labors, live forever in grace, where fear can't beset us; we are fed from His tree;

where we are not moved from His Shadow; to be in His presence constantly.

CWDS Bible Quotes

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, help me to be comfortable within the boundaries you have set for me to operate, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord of Creation, help me not to be like the many fools who have sacrificed everything for what they themselves consider nothing, in Jesus name.
- King of Glory, help me to violently resist the old serpent who would have me sacrifice the garden for a fruit, to sacrifice glory for a moment, in the name of Jesus.
- My Father, my God, I take responsibility for all the problems I have brought on myself because of my own lust, greed and stupidity; give me wisdom to respect Your word above my feelings and emotions, in the name of Jesus.
- Thank You Father for the Lamb that was slain for my covering; help me to respect and honor the awesomeness of the blood flowing from the cross every day I live, in the name of Jesus.

TO give just a little and yet to gain the best,

To give the least in offering and desire to have it blessed!

Just like Adam's firstborn, a farmer; his name was Cain;

His heart was not like Abel's, his gift God disdained!

GENESIS 4

¹Now Adam knew his wife Eve, and she conceived and bore Cain.

And she said, "I have received a man from the Lord."

²Then she bore his brother Abel, he was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a farmer, a tiller of the ground.

And she knew she had received, two men from the Lord.

³In the process of time, both brought offerings to the Lord.

Cain brought of the ground just anything;

⁴Abel brought of his flock the best he had; he brought the firstborn, the ones that were fat.

And the Lord had regard for Abel, and his offering, ⁵but He had no regard for Cain and his offering.

And Cain was very angry, and his face fell.

⁶So the Lord said, "Cain, why are you angry? And why is your posture fallen?"

⁷If you do well, will you not be accepted?

If not, sin lies at your door. Its desire is for you, but you should rule over it"

@With stinginess comes envy, with tardiness comes fear, thinking, "If you crush the 'God Reachers,' perhaps it will get you there!" Not so! Cain can tell you; he was in for a surprise; nothing done under heaven is hidden from God's eyes!

Oh, the curse of Adam, sin came into play; envy, greed and malice, the first murder on that day.

⁸Now Cain talked with his brother Abel, and when they were in the field.

He rose up against Abel and killed him.

But God knows, He hears, He sees!

⁹God could not reject it; the blood of Abel cried.

Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother?"

"I do not know, am I my brother's keeper?" was the insolent reply.

¹⁰And God said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground.

¹¹"So now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood at your hand.

¹²When you cultivate the soil in the future, it will no longer yield to you a good increase." He was driven from God's presence, a fugitive and a vagabond to be.

¹³*Cursed by God, he could not handle this.* "I am going to die," Cain feared.

The man who killed his brother said, "My punishment is greater than I can bear!

¹⁴"Lord, You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground, and from Your face I shall be hidden;

I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth; and anyone who finds me will kill me!" He resisted the offering, but he understood well the power and finality of God's word.

¹⁵And the Lord said to him, "Therefore, whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold."

And the Lord set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should shed his blood.

¹⁶Then Cain went from the presence of the Lord and dwelt in the land of Nod to Eden's east.

¹⁷And Cain got intimate with his wife, and Enoch his firstborn was conceived.

And Cain built a city, and named the city after the name of Enoch his son.

¹⁸To Enoch, Irad the father of Mehujael was born.

And Mehujael begot Metusael who begat Lamech.

¹⁹Then Lamech took for himself two wives: Adah and Zillah.

²⁰Adah bore Jabal, who fathered those who dwell in tents and had livestock.

²¹His brother's name was Jubal. He fathered the musicians who played the flute and the harp.

²²And Zillah his other wife, bore Tubal-cain, who instructed every craftsman in iron and bronze.

His sister was Naamah.

²³*With the curse of Adam active, Lamech said to his wives,*

"Adah and Zillah, hear me.

I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man is dead for hurting me!

²⁴*If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."*

@Something for consolation, someone to soothe the pain:

²⁵Adam got intimate with his wife again, and she bore him a son.

She named him Seth for she said, "God has appointed me another, for Abel whom Cain has killed!"

²⁶To Seth was born a son; and he named him Enosh.

@Do you love to give a little? If all men gave all they had; the flood could be averted, for men began to call on God!

THE world was corrupt and wicked, as Adam multiplied;
Death passed to all creation as he ate the fruit and died!
Is there someone with the passion?
Someone lost in love?
Faithful to the Master, someone who walks with God?

GENESIS 5

¹This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

²He created them male and female, and blessed them and called them Man in the day they were created.

³And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years and fathered a son in his own likeness, after his image; and he named him Seth.

⁴After Seth he lived eight hundred years and he fathered sons and daughters.

⁵So Adam lived a total of nine hundred and thirty years and he died.

⁶Seth lived one hundred and five years and fathered Enosh.

⁷After Enosh Seth lived eight hundred and seven years and fathered sons and daughters.

⁸So all the years of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years, after which he died.

⁹Enosh lived ninety years and fathered Cainan.

¹⁰After this, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years and fathered sons and daughters.

¹¹All the years of Enosh were nine hundred and five years, and he died.

¹²Cainan lived seventy years, and fathered Mahalaleel.

¹³After this Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and fathered sons and daughters.

¹⁴So Cainan lived a total of nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

¹⁵Mahalaleel lived sixty-five years.

¹⁶After he fathered Jared, Mahalaleel lived eight hundred and thirty years and fathered sons and daughters.

¹⁷So all the years of Mahalaleel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.

¹⁸Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and fathered Enoch.

¹⁹After Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years, and fathered sons and daughters.

²⁰So Jared lived a total of nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.

²¹Enoch lived sixty-five years, and fathered Methuselah.

²²After he fathered Methuselah, Enoch walked with God three hundred years, and fathered sons and daughters.

²³So all the days of Enoch totalled three hundred and sixty-five years.

²⁴*But Enoch would not be bound by Adam's sin.* Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him!

@Imagine, as some affirmed, God took Enoch; some perhaps said, "He disappeared!"

But all could say he served God and that he was, then wasn't there;

there was only one conclusion; Enoch walked with God by faith!

Yes, but it leaves the heart to wonder, "Walk with God?" what does it take?

@Did Enoch pray to God for hours? Or did he pray three times a day?

Did he think constantly on God's glory, and on His goodness meditate?

Did he order all his footsteps by first asking, "What would God have me do?"

Did he punctuate his day with praises as the love in his heart grew?

@Did he show God's love to others? Did he evangelise?

For all that knew him knew that, by love this man survived!

So great was his dedication that when he was taken away;

there was no hesitation, God took this man of faith!

²⁵Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and fathered Lamech.

²⁶After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and fathered sons and daughters.

²⁷So all the years of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; like all his forefathers, he was full of years; but yes, he died'.

²⁸Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and fathered a son.

²⁹And he called him Noah, for he prophesied, "This child will comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the Lord has cursed."

³⁰After he fathered Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years more, and fathered sons and daughters.

³¹So Lamech lived a total of seven hundred and seventy-seven years and yes, Lamech too died.

@But nature's appointment did not claim Enoch, though he was of their seed and line.

³²Noah was five hundred years old, and he begot Shem, Ham and Japheth.

@But there is great value, for all who will follow in Enoch's steps, for maybe God will take us, or maybe He will leave us here; maybe we will lose our old self, the old man will disappear!

Is there someone with passion? Someone full of love for God?'

Your old self will vanish, as you daily get lost in God!

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Long life is for procreation; eternal life is for His new creation.
2. It is best to live a Godly life than to live a good life or a long life; get your focus right.
3. The quality of your life will have a greater voice than the length of your life.
4. You are not living yet if you are living dead; find the Way; find the Truth; find the Life.
5. Get lost in God and you will be found with God.
6. When you pursue the presence of God with ardency, you lose yourself, literally.
7. When you spend quality time with God you will begin to look and act like God; Moses' face shone, the apostles reasoned beyond their educational capacity.
8. He cannot contain you on earth, He will take you to heaven; you will be caught away with Him.
9. A thousand years in our sight is as a day in God's sight, then comes morning where time stops; will your day have counted?

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, please translate for me the meaning of Enoch's walk with You. Help me to love You so much that earth is too distant, in the name of Jesus.
- Lover of my soul, let my passion for You consume me until it changes me completely, in Jesus name.
- My Father, my God, I will lose myself in You, so that when I am found they will see You and not me, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Father, I thank You for life, let the quality of my life move heaven on my behalf, in Jesus name.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus Christ, I have eternal life; I refuse to live for myself in time, but to live a quality life for Jesus. Amen.
- I forcefully refuse to boast about how long I live, or how much I achieve or attain, but I will boast about how strong I lived for Christ, and how much I represented His kingdom in this life, in Jesus name.

WHEN all things are good and perfect, Designed the way God planned, Yet the Builder must destroy it; Then something must be wrong!

GENESIS 6

¹When sin caused separation, as humans multiplied and to them daughters were born, the face of the earth buzzed with new life.

²When the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful, they were admired; they took them for their wives, all whom they chose, whom they desired.

³Then the Lord God said, "With man My Spirit shall not always thrive, for flesh dictated vision!" Something was not right.

One hundred and twenty years I will give him; yes, this shall be his days, for he is flesh indeed, and flesh dictates his ways!"

⁴Then there were giants great and mighty there in those days, the sons of God came in to the daughters of men in union and they bore giants, mighty men of old; the children of these unions were all men of might, famous and renown.

⁵When God saw that the wickedness of man in the earth was great, for thoughts corrupt and evil were their daily meditate;

⁶then God turned back from humans, He could not bear the sight; the earth was filled with violence; something was not right!

Then God was sorry He made man, it grieved Him to His heart; man's every imagination was evil, and also his continual thoughts.

⁷When God created all things, gave man a sovereign role, the sins of man at all times, on all creation took a toll:

first, the earth grew thorns and thistles; now the verdict, "Destroy all! Man and beast and creeping things, and fowls both great and small."

⁸When God expected order, all flesh had corrupted his way; man must be moved from office, but Noah; he found grace.

⁹A man found just and perfect; a man whose walk was right, in times bizarre and wicked, his deeds would save his life!

In an earth filled with violence, Noah walked with God.

¹⁰Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

¹¹The earth was also corrupt before God and full of violence.

¹²And God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt, for everyone had corrupted themselves.

@I wonder what had happened, when Noah heard God's plan to reprove the earth of violence, send a flood on everyone!

¹³God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before Me, for through them the earth is filled with violence; and now, behold, I will destroy the earth and all of them!

¹⁴Build an ark of gopher wood; in the ark you shall make rooms; seal it with pitch inside and out.

¹⁵The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits and its height thirty.

¹⁶You shall make a window, finished to a cubit from above; set the door in its sides; make it with lower, second and third decks."

@The ark was to save his family; the flood to save the earth;

He got all the instructions and was told to get to work.

¹⁷"I Myself am bringing a flood on the earth, to destroy all flesh under heaven with the breath of life;

everything that is on the earth shall die!"

@By wickedness we slay them; by righteousness they are saved!

Noah would build for all the creatures and take them in by pairs.

¹⁸"My covenant I will establish with you, Noah; you shall go into the ark with your sons, your wife and the wives of your sons.

¹⁹Of every living thing of all flesh, bring into the ark two of every kind, a male and a female, to keep them alive.

²⁰Of the birds after their kind, and of every creeping thing after their kind; take two to keep them alive.

²¹Take for yourself of all food that can be eaten, gather it to you; food for you and for them all."

@They watched him as he built it, an ark three stories high;

they knew that he was different, but . . . something was not right!

And just as God commanded, the ark would come along;

and all who saw him knew it; something must be wrong!

²² They saw him do all God commanded;

@they observed him through the passage of time; he seemed quite sane and sober, but . . . something was not right!

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Yes indeed, something is not right, but can you discern it? Right you're wrong; now right your wrong; forsake your knowledge and consult the word.

2. Satan is corruption that corrupts and is corrupting; check your heart to see if he gained access.
3. You have the word of God as measure. You have nothing to boast about when the things you think most about are offensive to the Lord of hosts.
4. Sin restricts and shortens human life, righteousness removes the cap and propels you beyond time limitation into eternal life.
5. Your thoughts cry out to God every day; is it crying out for judgment or for favor?
6. Grace suspends but does not abort judgment.
7. Death is an escape from life but not an escape from judgment.
8. Will God find you righteous in your sinful generation, or must He judge you with your generation?
9. Have you blended in with the darkness of this age or is your light fighting back?
10. It is very easy to fit in, it takes character to stand out.
11. Can God use you to save your world?
12. If God outlined to you his plan of salvation, will you get on board with heart and hands? The cross has displayed for you God's plan of redemption, He has your heart, does He have your hands?

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, help me never to be so content with this sinful world that I sit back and do nothing to reach them, in the name of Jesus.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, I shall be a distinction in my generation; I shall not be content to blend in beyond recognition.
- Search my heart O Lord, try my thoughts, see if there is any wicked, abominable thing in me, soak me in the blood of Jesus and set me free, in Jesus' name.
- Sovereign Lord, I avail myself like Noah, to be different, to be a difference; to offer the shelter of the cross, Your ark of salvation, Your new covenant, to this sinful world. Amen.

A SHINING light in darkness,
A beacon at its brightest;
Righteousness that shone,
And the voice of God said, "Come!"

GENESIS 7

¹Then the Lord said to Noah, "Come into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation.

²You shall take seven each of every clean animal, and two each of animals that are unclean, a male and a female.

³"Come, take seven each of the birds of the air, male and female, to keep their species alive on the face of the earth.

⁴For in seven days I will cause rain to come on the earth, forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the earth, every living thing that I have made.”

⁵Noah did according to all that the Lord commanded him to do.

⁶Noah was six hundred years old when the earth was covered with the waters of the flood.

⁷So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and the wives of his sons, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.

⁸Of clean and unclean animals, of birds and of every creeping thing on earth, ⁹two by two they went into the ark, male and female, as the Lord commanded Noah.

¹⁰And the flood waters were on the earth after seven days.

¹¹In the seventeenth day of the second month of the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and water poured down from the sky.

¹²And the rain came on the earth forty days and forty nights.

¹³On the same day Noah entered the ark with his sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, his wife and their wives.

¹⁴And every beast after their kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing and every bird after their kind, of every sort.

¹⁵With Noah, into the ark went, two by two of all flesh which breathed the breath of life.

@Won't you come?

Come and be shut in by the Lord!

Come and be sustained by His word!

Come to a place where you will be safe.

¹⁶When all hope is lost, God’s covenant remains! So every living flesh entered the ark as the Lord commanded him, and the Lord shut him in.

¹⁷The flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted the ark.

Come, feel the ark begin to rise, lifted high above the earth towards the skies;

¹⁸see the waters increase greatly, the ark was on its waves;

¹⁹in all the earth, the waters prevailed. See the waters cover all the hills ²⁰and submerge the mountain peaks.

²¹All flesh died that moved on the earth: birds, cattle, animals, creeping things and man alike, ²²every living thing that had in their nostrils the breath of life.

All that was on the dry land died.

²³Come, for every living thing is now destroyed;

both man and cattle, creeping thing and birds of the air have died.

Only Noah and all that were in the ark with him survived.

²⁴For one hundred and fifty days the waters prevailed.

@Fearsome is God’s wrath, this He displayed.

Come, be like Noah in the earth; shine your light in darkness; show your works!

Come, build an ark of safety for all men, for judgment will surely come again!

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Safe in the arms of Jesus or submerged in the flood of wickedness; righteousness will sustain where grace is restrained.
2. God has spoken it, over and over again: judgment coming! judgment coming!
3. Freedom allows you to believe, democracy allows you to legislate; God is sovereign. His word is the only law His judgment recognizes.
4. You see the signs, why are you not in the ark?
5. Pigs and goats and the fierce wild animals responded to the preaching of Noah’s gospel, yet men made it a spectacle until the floods came; Jesus prophesied, “As in the days of Noah...” How are you responding to the gospel of Jesus Christ?
6. By the goodness of God, an ark of safety precedes judgment of the world; the ark for this generation is the cross.
7. The flood waters are rising all around us; you are being stifled; stop looking for explanations; are you listening?
8. It is not subject to what you believe; go to the manual to understand the rules governing your life and existence.
9. Are you satisfied to enter the ark alone, or will you warn to the very end?

PRAYER POINTS

- Father, forgive me for everyone I have lost without warning them, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord Jesus, You have spoken over and over again, “I am coming soon, I come quickly!” Help me never to ignore the signs, or to seek scientific explanations for them, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord Jesus, I present myself as a candidate to be shut in by You.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, I run into the cross for safety from the judgment coming upon this world, in Jesus name.
- Father God, help me never to take a moment of chance with my life in the name of Jesus. Help me never to gamble with my salvation, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, I reject the wisdom of the people in Noah’s days who had the closed doors of the ark shout at them, “Too late!”
- Lord of hosts, I believe You, You say judgment is coming, it is coming. I pray that no member of my family will be lost, in the name of Jesus.

HE remembers you, Noah,
Your ark will come to rest.
He remembers you, Noah,
Your sons and all the rest.
One hundred and fifty days of pounding, of lightning, heavy rains;
One hundred and fifty days of tossing, the nerves begin to strain.
If He saves you, He will keep you,
If He promises, He will come through;
When you hear the wind, take notice,
the Lord remembers you.

GENESIS 8

¹Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were in the ark with him.

And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided then.

²He remembers you, Noah; the fountains of the deep He has stopped, and also the windows of heaven; the rain will no more drop.

³The waters receded from the earth continually.

At the end of one hundred and fifty days, the waters decreased.

⁴Then the ark rested on Mount Ararat on the seventeenth day of the seventh month.

⁵He remembers you, Noah, the mountain tops are seen;

it was the first day of the tenth month.

He remembers you, Noah, your hope is sure in Him!

⁶Open your window, Noah: at the end of forty days he did this.

⁷Open your window, Noah, send a raven, let it roam.

He sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro.

⁸And Noah sent out a dove to see if the waters had receded from the earth.

⁹The dove found no resting place, and so the dove returned, for the waters still covered the entire earth.

¹⁰After seven days, he sent out the dove again;

¹¹the dove came to him in the evening with a freshly plucked olive leaf in her mouth; and Noah knew the waters had receded from the earth.

¹²Noah sent out the dove after waiting seven days more, and the dove did not return to him again anymore.

@Where is the dove Noah? She is gone, oh, yes, it is true.

When you see these things, dear Noah, the Lord remembers you!

¹³He remembers you, Noah: it was the sixth-hundred and first year, in the first month and on the first day, that from the face of the earth the waters had dried away.

Noah removed the covering of the ark, and...
 "Oh, look! The ground is dry."

¹⁴On the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the face of the earth was dry.

¹⁵Then God spoke to Noah.

His voice brought fresh assurance as He said, "Noah, go forth!

¹⁶Go out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons and their wives.

¹⁷Bring every living creature out with you: cattle, birds and every creeping thing alike.

Time for them to breed abundantly, to be fruitful and to multiply."

Time for you to build an altar; give to God a sacrifice.

¹⁸So Noah went out of the ark with all his household.

¹⁹Every animal, creeping thing and bird went out of the ark also.

²⁰And Noah built an altar to the Lord and took of every clean animal and every clean bird, and he offered burnt offerings on the altar to the Lord.

²¹And the Lord smelled a soothing aroma.

Then the Lord said in His heart,

"I will never curse the ground again for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth continually, nor will I destroy every living thing as I have done.

²²"While the earth remains:

there will be seedtime and harvest,

you will feel the cold and heat,

you will see summer and winter, night and day will never cease!"

@God's promises are eternal;

His promises are true.

When you see these things take notice, the Lord remembers you!

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. You may feel forgotten in this sea of sin, do not forget to remember you are in His ark.
2. The only safe place in this world is in His covenant.
3. God can never forget you in transit; He punished His Son to bring you to a destination.
4. Your flood waters will recede.
5. Step out of your ark and into God's promise if you remain forever in His covenant.
6. It is never too precious or too limited to sacrifice to God. He is your unlimited source of supply.
7. God may never curse the ground again because of man, but He has issued a decree to remove and replace it; until then, while the earth remains...
8. Do not let consistency cause complacency; enjoy day and night, seedtime and harvest, summer and winter, but remember, the same Source that decreed consistency, decreed the end of time. Indeed the sun shall be darkened, the stars shall fall from heaven, the key is...while the earth remains.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father, help me to remain faithful, even when I feel forgotten, knowing You can never forget or forsake Your word.
- O God who made the heavens and earth, Your word is self fulfilling and I can depend on it to come through for me, in the name of Jesus.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, I decree that my flood waters shall recede and I shall live again, in the name of Jesus.
- My Father my God, thank You for shutting me in and keeping me safe in the midst of my bitter storms, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord God, help me to never make anything I administer too scarce or too valuable to sacrifice to You, in Jesus' name.
- Give me the wisdom of Noah to sacrifice first and to live after, knowing You are the supplier, the sustainer and the multiplier, in the name of Jesus.

WHAT a flood! All Your terrors we have seen
None could intervene and none could ever stop it!
O how much a sense of hope and security would mean
I guess, dear Lord, creation needs a promise.

GENESIS 9

Thanks for blessing us:

¹God blessed Noah and his sons, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply..."

We will replenish the earth, even as You prescribed.

²Thanks for the fear and dread of every bird and every beast, and every living thing that moves on the earth and in the sea.

Thanks for giving into our hands, every beast, every bird and every fish;

But we fear Your wrath, dear Lord; we need a promise.

³As You had given us vegetables, You now give to us for our food, every living thing that moves,

⁴but You command us not to eat flesh with the blood, that is its life,

⁵and for our lifeblood You will demand an account;

from the hand of every beast, and of every man it is required.

From the hand of every man's brother You will require man's life.

⁶You decreed that whoever shed man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed, for in the image of God, You made man.

⁷You blessed us on the earth to be fruitful and to multiply, to bear much fruit in it and to produce in abundance.

@It pleases well but, dear Lord, hear our cry; we need a promise so we will know the earth shall stand!

The cry of all creation, God knew it very well;

⁸God spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him and said,

⁹"As for Me, I establish My covenant with you and with your descendants after you, ¹⁰and with every living creature with you. Let the birds and beasts rejoice; of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth alike.

¹¹Thus I establish My covenant with you; no more such floods, no more such rain;

no more will I destroy all earth again!

No more waters shall rise, cover mountain peaks and heights;

no more such floods where all the earth will be destroyed!"

¹²And God said, "As a sign of My covenant, which I make between Me and you, and every living creature with you for perpetual generations:

¹³see the rainbow in the cloud that I have stretched, a sign of the covenant between Me and with all flesh.

@In the midst of rising water and despite pounding rain, know that the waters shall never be a flood like this again.

¹⁴When I bring a cloud over the earth, in it the rainbow will be seen, ¹⁵and I will remember My covenant between Me and you and every living thing;

the water shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh."

¹⁶"The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the covenant between God and every living creature on earth."

¹⁷And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established, between Me and all flesh on the earth."

¹⁸Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

And Ham was the father of Canaan.

¹⁹These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.

²⁰And Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.

@Thank God for His promise, a promise we all need; for man's thoughts are corrupt from his youth, and it is perpetuated in his seed.

Perhaps man will be drunken, will drink excess of wine; or in the eyes of the children, the father will be despised.

@Perhaps the curse of Canaan, when passed on to his children, will turn bondage to hatred, and evil thoughts dictate again.

What could stay You, Father? What could restrain Your hand?

The earth can now breathe freely, because of this Your covenant!

²¹Yes, Noah drank of the wine and was drunk and became uncovered in his tent;

²²and Ham, the father of Canaan, saw Noah's nakedness and told his two brothers outside about it.

²³But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it on both their shoulders, and went backwards and covered the nakedness of their father in doing so. Their faces were turned away so that they did not see their father's nakedness.

²⁴So Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his younger son had done;

²⁵then he said, "Cursed be Canaan; he shall be a servant of servants to his brothers!"

²⁶And he said, "Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and may Canaan be his servant.

²⁷God shall enlarge Japheth, and may he dwell in the tents of Shem; and may Canaan be his servant."

²⁸And Noah lived for three hundred and fifty years after the flood.

²⁹And Noah lived a total of nine hundred and fifty years and then he died.

@But the covenant that God made with all living thing continues throughout time.

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. If His love cannot contain us, His laws must restrain us, or His judgment will constrain us.
2. The blessing to increase in multiples is upon you, it happens naturally and also by effort.
3. The lovely rainbow is a hand of restraint that smiles beautifully to cover the hand of judgment our wickedness courts daily.
4. The rainbow is a symbol of the hand of God restraining Himself, and of His grace in action.
5. Never ridicule your father, even if justified, or the laughter will get stuck on you.
6. True honor covers what indiscretion exposes.
7. When you dishonor your father you dishonor yourself and your children, and you dishonor God.
8. Canaan and his lands have been decreed for Abraham, son of Shem and his descendants by the principle of honor.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father, You remain faithful and true throughout all generations, and Your laws are righteous and just, in the name of Jesus.
- God of might and power, I thank You for restraining Your hand of judgment; and painting the picture of Your grace in the clouds in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- My Father my God, if You should count iniquity I know I could not stand; I thank You for the painting of Your rainbow in the clouds, and the painting of Your blood on the cross. Amen.
- Holy God, help me to honor You as my Father, by honoring my parents on earth, in Jesus name.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, I break every curse of my father's and mother's household on my life, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

- Let the power in the blood of Jesus, break every curse my father has proclaimed over my life, even if it was justified in the moment, in the name of Jesus.

HAIL the sons of Noah, as they began to multiply;
By all these sons of Noah, should the nations and race divide.
Shem, Ham and Japheth, all were born before the flood;
The earth's repopulation, now depended on their sons.

GENESIS 10

¹This is the genealogy of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

And sons were born to them after the flood.

²The sons of Japheth were: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras.

³Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah, all were Gomer's sons.

⁴The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim.

⁵The islands of the Gentiles were divided into their lands by these, everyone according to his language, according to their families, into their nations.

⁶The sons of Ham were: Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan.

⁷The sons of Cush were: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtechah; Raamah's sons were Sheba and Dedan.

⁸*Hey Cush, son of Ham. What are you remembered for?*

Nimrod, your son, mighty on the earth.

⁹He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; therefore it was said, "Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord."

¹⁰His kingdom began with Babel, his name mighty and great, he built Erech, Accad, Calneh on the plains of Shinar.

¹¹From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth, Ir, Calah ¹²and Resen, a city between Nineveh and Calah, (the principal city).

¹³Mizraim begot Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Nephthuhim, ¹⁴Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from which came the Philistines and Caphtorim).

¹⁵Canaan begot Sidon his firstborn and Heth;

¹⁶the Jebusite, the Amorite, and the Girgashite;

¹⁷the Hivite, the Arkite, and the Sinite;

¹⁸the Arvadite, the Zemarite and the Hamathite.

Afterwards the families of the Canaanites were scattered.

¹⁹And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon as you go towards Gerar, as far as Gaza;

then as you go towards Sodom, Gomorrah,

Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.
 20These were the sons of Ham, according to their families, to their languages, in their lands and in their nations.

21Children were born also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder.

22The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram; 23Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash, were Aram's sons.

24Arphaxad begot Salah, and Salah begot Eber.

25To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg for the earth was divided in his days, and his brother's name was Joktan.

26Joktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

27Hodoram, Uzal, Diklah,

28Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

29Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. These were all the sons of Joktan.

30Their dwelling was from Mesha as you go towards Sephar, the mountain of the east.

31These were the sons of Shem, according to their families, to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

32We see the families of the sons of Noah as they multiplied, according to their generations, in their nations; and from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood.

@We see the earth replenished as God had said in blessing Noah after the flood.

The Potter breaks and He rebuilds. You must agree, our God is good.

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. It starts with a seed, it becomes a plantation, it starts with a family, it becomes nations.
2. Never despise the day of small beginnings, embrace the potential in you.
3. If you do it before the Lord, with the help of the Lord, He will distinguish you in your field, business and career.
4. You can be known for being a mighty hunter, or a great artist, but it is best to be known as a mighty hunter or great artist before the Lord.
5. Remain faithful to the word of God, because God is faithful to His word to fulfil it.
6. A painful breaking is a platform for a powerful rebuilding; God is able to process and reposition as He works purpose and fulfilment.
7. You have the power to multiply, you have the potential to release godly seeds that will proliferate to fill the nations.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, let my life be a success story that plays out before the Lord, in the name of Jesus.
- My Father, my God, I refuse to do anything or be anything outside of You, in the name of Jesus.

- Lord of hosts, let Your presence, Your person and Your word, be the launching pad for my success, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Father God, by the divine decree of fruitfulness and multiplication, I declare that the seed of God in me shall have an impact in shaping the nations for God, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- By the power of the Holy Ghost and fire, I declare that I shall not die unwanted, unsung, unrecognized or unfulfilled, in the name of Jesus.

 Yes, your limit is simply God.

GENESIS 11

@One people, one language, one speech, on Shinar's open plain.

One plan, a city with a tower unto heaven; their goal to make a name, 1Now the whole earth was of one language, and one speech.

2They found a plain in the land of Shinar as they journeyed east; there they dwelt.

3They said to each other, "Let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." So they had bricks for stone and slime for mortar.

4And they said, "Come let us build ourselves a city and a tower whose top reaches the heavens."

They feared that they would be scattered, and divided across the face of all the earth.

@One people and one vision, but not one with God;

one magnificent building, foundation great and strong, of very wide dimensions, to extend up high so long.

One people of one vision, one people of one mind; precise in coordination, they must have thought alike.

5One people of one language made God come down to see, the city and the tower, which man began to build.

@What caught God's attention?

What brought Him to this spot?

A people that is united is a people none can stop!

6And the Lord said, "All the people have one language, the people all are one; now they begin to do this thing, and whatever they purpose to do will be done.

@For one people of one language, who agree and speak the same, what they start will be accomplished; nothing imagined can be restrained!

⁷“Come Let Us go down and confuse their language, that they may not understand what each other say!”

When a people speak different languages, there will be divisions and dismay.

⁸So the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth;

Divisions, misunderstandings, will create unfinished works!

They stopped building the city they were building.

⁹Therefore Babel was its name, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth.

And from there the Lord scattered them all over the face of the earth.

@For they were united without purpose, though they all worked a plan;

from Shem, the tenth generation, God would give them one.

¹⁰For Shem begot Arphaxad, two years after the flood.

¹¹Shem lived five hundred years after this and begot daughters and sons.

¹²Arphaxad begot Salah at age thirty-five.

¹³After this Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years and begot sons and daughters.

¹⁴Salah begot Eber at the age of thirty years.

¹⁵He lived another four hundred and three years and had sons and daughters.

¹⁶Eber begot Peleg at age thirty-four.

¹⁷He lived another four hundred and thirty years and begot sons and daughters.

¹⁸Peleg begot Reu at the age of thirty years.

¹⁹He lived another two hundred and nine years and had sons and daughters.

²⁰Reu begot Serug at age thirty-two.

²¹Reu lived another two hundred and seven years and had sons and daughters.

²²Serug begot Nahor at the age of thirty years.

²³He lived another two hundred years and had sons and daughters.

²⁴Nahor begot Terah at age twenty-nine.

²⁵He lived another one hundred and nineteen years and had sons and daughters.

²⁶Terah lived seventy years and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

²⁷This is the genealogy of Terah: Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran begot Lot.

²⁸And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldees.

²⁹After this Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai and Nahor's wife was Milcah. Milcah was the daughter of Haran who fathered Milcah and Iscah.

³⁰Sarai was barren.

³¹And Terah took Abram, his son, and Lot his grandson, Haran's son, and with Sarai his daughter-in-law, Abram's wife.

They set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan.

Purpose was diverted;

They came to Haran and there they lived; but when man is one with God, purpose is complete!

³²Terah died in Haran, at the age of two hundred and five years.

Though Canaan was where he left to be.

But know... when man is one with God, purpose is complete!

- 8. Know your place, function in your place, accept leadership; give 100% at all times, and the tower you are building together will reach heaven.*
- 9. The satisfaction of a mission is its completion; Babel had motivation but it lacked divine designation; Terah had divine designation but he lacked motivation and unity of mission.*

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, help me to understand what You are building so I can join my energy to Your work and not frustrate myself building my own design.
- My God and King, I declare that I would rather be considered a failure building with You, than to be a success building my own kingdom in this world, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- O Lord my God, visit my works to establish them, rather than to blow them away, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- O God of the heavens above, let the Spirit of unity on which the Tower of Babel was raised be upon the church to build Your kingdom in these last days, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Lord Jesus, let the church be one as You and the Father are one, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, let every spirit of disunity, rebellion, division and divisiveness in the body of Christ, be disbanded by the Holy Ghost and fire, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

- Lord Jesus, help me to be united with Your will for my life so that everything You have started in my life will be completed in Your time, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

HE was blessed to be a blessing; his name was to be great. He was to be a great nation, and everyone was blessed in him the same. Through you, let the blessings flow, to all families of the earth; Blessed are all who blesses you; all who curse you are surely cursed!

GENESIS 12

¹Now the Lord said to Abram, "Get out of your country and from your father's house, to a land that I will show you.

²I will make you a great nation; I will bless you. I will make your name great; and you shall be a blessing.

³I will bless those who bless you; he who curses you I will curse.

You are blessed to be a blessing; in you I will bless all the families of the earth!"

@Let the blessings flow, to all nations let them know, he could have run, or tried to hide; he could have given excuses or lied; he could have turned, he could have stayed; he could have stalled, he could have delayed. But blessed to be a blessing is the man who just obeyed!

⁴Abram was blessed to be a blessing as he departed from that land; as God had spoken to him, he set out; with him went his nephew Lot. He was seventy-five years old, when he left Haran.

⁵And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all the persons he had acquired, and all his possessions.

So Abram came to Canaan, and through the land he passed; The land his father had set out for, he set foot in at last.

⁶They came to the place of Shechem, as far as Moreh, to the telebinth tree. And the Canaanites were in the land.

⁷And to Abram the Lord appeared, and He said, "I will give this land to your descendants, for your descendants it is being prepared!"

And Abram built an altar there to the Lord who spoke to him.

⁸He then moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and pitched his tent; Bethel was on the west, Ai was on the east; there he built an altar, and called on the name of the Lord he journeyed with.

@Blessed to be a blessing: Abram believed and he obeyed, and also walked the land, so great was this man's faith!

⁹So Abram journeyed going South, walking through the land.

¹⁰There was a severe famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to dwell.

¹¹When he was close to Egypt, he said to Sarai, his wife,

"Indeed you are a beautiful woman, lovely to the eyes.

¹²"The Egyptians will say you are my wife and kill me, but you they will save.

¹³Tell them you are my sister, so it may be well with me for your sake!"

@Say to all you are my sister, though you are the apple of my eye;

let them think you are a virgin, though you are a lover and a wife!

"Say you are my sister, that my soul may live because of you!"

¹⁴So when Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw the woman and they knew; she was a treasure to look upon.

¹⁵Pharaoh's princes saw her too.

They commended her to Pharaoh, and she was taken to his house.

¹⁶He was generous to Abram because of her. He received oxen, camels, donkeys, sheep and servants, male and female both.

@But purpose is protected, for God would see Sarai out!

Blessed to be a blessing, cursed are all who curse your name.

¹⁷Pharaoh was to know this when he saw his house was plagued.

He was plagued with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

¹⁸So Pharaoh called Abram and said,

"Don't you care about my life? What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me she is your wife?"

¹⁹"Why did you say, 'She is my sister'? I might have taken her as my wife.

Now here is your wife; take her and go your way!"

²⁰And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away, with his wife and all he had.

@Even so God would deliver Abram's descendants in time to come;

they would be hastened out by a Pharaoh, with similar dread after 400 years of bonds!

Let the blessings flow, to all nations let them know!

He could have run, or tried to hide; he could have given excuses or lied;

he could have turned, or delayed,

he could have stalled, he could have stayed,

but blessed to be a blessing is the man who just obeyed!

PRAYER POINTS

- King of Glory, help me to see my life through Your eyes, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Father, help me to understand the purpose of every person you have placed into my life, and for every blessing, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord, let the blessings of Abraham that I received in Christ find no resistance in me as it expresses its mandate to the families of the earth, in Jesus' name; instead let it find gifting and abilities in me that it can put to use for its designated purpose, Amen.
- Every spirit of resistance or hesitation in my life to the voice of the Lord, the word of the Lord or the will of the Lord, be dispelled by fire, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord, help me to place complete confidence in Your promises to me, and not in my own craftiness, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, thank You for Your angels assigned to deliver me, my family and my wealth, from every Pharaoh assigned by the kingdom of darkness, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Righteous Lord, I thank You that You have Your hand on my life to prosper, protect and preserve my purpose, in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

MY all for peace, no call for strife,
You take the left, I will take the right.
Wherever I am placed, I am blessed, I will thrive;
Brethren should never ever divide!

²Abram was rich in livestock, in silver and in gold.

³And he journeyed from the South as far as Bethel, to the place his tent had been between Bethel and Ai, ⁴to the place of the altar he had made there at first.

And there Abram called on the name of the Lord.

⁵And Lot also had tents and flocks and herds. He too was blessed because of Abram.

⁶As Abram grew, Lot's substance grew; the land was too small, could not support the two.

Their possessions were so great, they could not dwell together.

For the blessing of God makes rich.

⁷The herdsmen of Abram's livestock and of Lot's argued, their way was to fight, accept no wrong, always must be right; the livestock of both Abram and Lot needed to be fed.

In the land, the Canaanite and Perizzite dwelt.

@My all for peace, no call for strife;

You take the left, I will take the right.

⁸So Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between you and me and our herdsmen, we are brethren.

⁹"Separate from me; see, the entire land ahead.

If you take the right, I will take the left; or if you take the left, I will take the right."

¹⁰Where grass is green, and watered plains, like the garden of Eden, cool and full of rain.

It was just as the garden of the Lord, before Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed. Just as the land of Egypt toward Zoar, very choice.

¹¹So Lot chose all the plain of Jordan; it caught his eye.

Lot journeyed east to dwell in the land he desired, and so from each other they parted.

¹²Abraham dwelt in Canaan, while Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and as far as Sodom he pitched his tent.

¹³Where the men were wicked; sinful against the Lord exceedingly.

@Lot was drawn by lust and vanity, but Abram held on to God's promises.

The blessings preserve and not the place; Abram was led by the Spirit and by his faith.

¹⁴After Lot was gone from Abram, to Abram the Lord appeared and said, "Lift up your eyes; look north and south, and east and west.

¹⁵All the land you see, I give to you and your descendants forever to possess.

¹⁶I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth.

So if a man can count the dust of the earth, only then could your descendants also be numbered.

¹⁷“Arise and walk this land through; through the length and width, for I give it to you.”

¹⁸And Abram moved his tent and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre, which are in Hebron; and he built an altar there to the Lord.

@Are you for peace? Are you for life?

Will you hold to the promises of God rather than to sight?

As much as you are able, maintain unity; knowing God alone gives true prosperity!

8. Run after the Spirit not after your sight.
9. God will remove people from your life who are preventing you from seeing and hearing Him. See them leave and hear Him speak.

PRAYER POINTS

- My Father, my God, in accordance with the instructions in Your word, help me to walk after the Spirit, not after my sight or the dictates of my flesh, in the name of Jesus.
- O Lord of hosts, fan away from me every friendly family and associates who are not called with me in my mission, in the name of Jesus; where the sentiment is too strong, bless them until they run away, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Lord God of the hearts, I thank You for everything You have done in my life, and for every person You have used to bless me, in the name of Jesus; let the blood of Jesus Christ fan away every spirit of ingratitude from my heart in the name of Jesus, Amen.
- O Prince of peace, make me a peacemaker, even at my own detriment, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, back up every tough decision I will make today for You and for Your purpose in my life, in the name of Jesus.

- By the power in the blood of Jesus, let every King Uzziah and every Lot in my life, who blots my vision of You, or is preventing me from hearing Your voice with clarity, be removed now by fire, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

FORTUNE favors the brave, but God protects the blessed, on distant battle fields, in action or at rest. He will give you tact and strategy; make the strong weak, make the strong flee. Horses and riders are prepared and ready, but if God is with you then you will see: Fortune favors the brave, but God gives victory!

GENESIS 14

¹In the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of nations, ²they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, that is, Zoar.

³All these joined together in the Valley of Siddim, which is the Salt Sea, for war.

⁴For twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

⁵Chedorlaomer came in the fourteenth year, and the kings that were with him.

They attacked and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth, the Zuzim in Ham and also the Emims in Shaveh.

⁶They also struck the Horites in Mount Seir, as far as El Paran which is by the wilderness.

⁷Then they turned back and came to Enmishpat, that is Kadesh, and struck all the country of the Amalekites; they also struck the Amorites of Hazzon-Tamar; indeed they were strong.

⁸And to do battle with them the king of Gomorrah, the king of Sodom, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela which is Zoar, went out as one.

They joined in battle together in the Valley of Siddim.

⁹They fought against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and the other three kings with him that came down; it was four kings against five.

¹⁰The Valley of Siddim was full of slime pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; some fell in them while to the mountains the others fled.

@Sodom and Gomorrah, your strength is now gone; the Valley of Siddim, full of slime pits, has trapped your fleeing sons.

¹¹The mighty kings had conquered, now they plundered Sodom and Gomorrah.

They took all the goods and provisions and on their way they went.

@But Satan knew what the kings did not; they faced the blessed when they took Lot!

¹²They also took Lot, Abram's nephew who dwelt in Sodom, with all his possessions, and went on their way.

Little did they know the strength that they touched that day.

¹³Then to Abram the Hebrew, one person came who had escaped, for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eschol and Aner, who were his allies then.

¹⁴Now when Abram heard his nephew was taken captive, Abram did not fear.

He armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants, who were born under his care.

@He knew that purpose dictated, and purpose would direct;

God's promises are eternal, so he held no fear of death!

So, forward into battle, against mighty kings who won many battles against all the kings.

Yes, for many they would appear to be too strong. He pursued them to Dan.

¹⁵And Abram deployed his servants against them by night.

The aggressors were now being pursued; Abram pursued them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.

@Fortune favors the brave, but God protects the blessed; on distant battle fields, in action or at rest, He will give you tact and strategy, make the strong weak, make the strong flee. Horses and riders are prepared and ready, but if God is with you then you will see:

fortune favors the brave, but God gives victory!

¹⁶Abram recovered all the goods, and also his brother Lot, as well as the women and all the people.

¹⁷And the king of Sodom met him to get his subjects back.

They met in the Valley of Shaveh, that is the King's Valley on his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him.

¹⁸Oh, Melchizedek King of Salem, priest of God Most High; have you come to bless Abram? Have you brought him bread and wine?

¹⁹He blessed him and said, "Blessed be Abram of the Most High God, Possessor of heaven and earth; ²⁰and blessed is the Most High God, who has delivered your enemies to you."

Abram received him. He knew the man of call. He divided what he had taken, and he gave him tithes of all.

@For before he ministered and restored what he had saved, he ensured that God was honored and the first-fruit duly paid.

²¹Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, you keep the goods."

²²Abram rejected, "May it be clearly understood;

I have raised my hand to the Lord, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth, He is all I want and all I need, and all I value that is of worth, ²³that I will take nothing, from a thread to a shoe-latchet.

Lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich', My hope is eternal, God's word has declared me blessed.

²⁴All that I have taken is what the men already ate.

And the portion of the men who went with me; let them take their portion: Aner, Eshcol and Mamre."

@God is my exceedingly great reward, and wherever I am all men shall see:

fortune favors the brave, but God gives me victory!

WHEN by the Lord you are being blessed, And His word to you is, "Numberless!" Yet all you see is bareness, Your faith shall become your righteousness!

GENESIS 15

¹After these things, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Fear not Abram, I am your shield and your exceedingly great reward."
²But Abram said, "Lord God, what will You give me since I am childless, I have no children, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus, my steward?
³You have given me no offspring; behold one born in my house is my heir."
⁴And the Lord said to him, "This one shall not be your heir, from your own loins shall come your heir!"
⁵Then God brought Abram outside and said, "Look now toward the sky. Come, count the stars that shine on high; Numberless, won't you agree? even so, shall your descendants be; numberless!
 Can you number them? Now tell me; even so, shall your descendants be; numberless!" @Numberless, Lord, I believe the words that You now speak to me." Righteousness just to believe, the Lord who promises and fulfils.
⁶"Abram believed what the Lord said, and it was accredited to him for righteousness; numberless!
@I am your shield and your reward; exceedingly great, fear not Abram."
⁷Then the Lord said to him, "I am the Lord who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to plant you here!"
⁸But Abram said, "Lord, how shall I know that I will inherit it at all?"
⁹So the Lord said to him, "Bring Me a heifer, a female goat and a ram, all of them three years old; bring Me also a turtledove, and a young pigeon."
¹⁰He brought all these to Him, and except for the birds, he cut them down the middle in halves.
¹¹When the vultures came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them off.
¹²Now when the sun was going down, Abram fell into a deep sleep; and horror and great darkness came upon him.

¹³Then God said to Abram, "For a certain, this you must know, into a foreign land your descendants shall go. Into a land that is not theirs, there they will serve with affliction for four hundred years.
¹⁴"And I will judge that nation they serve with a strong hand, then I will bring them out, with great possessions.
¹⁵"As for you, you shall surely die in peace; you shall be buried at a good old age.
¹⁶But in the fourth generation, they shall return to this land; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full."
¹⁷And it was, when the sun went down and it was dark, Abram noticed a smoking furnace and a burning torch. Between the pieces they passed.
¹⁸On the same day, the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I have given this land, from the River of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates as one; You have My word, My covenant; Numberless!
¹⁹all the Kenites must go; the Kenizzites and the Kadmonites too; Numberless!
²⁰"all the Perizzites must go; the Hittites, and Rephaim shall make way for you. Numberless!
²¹The Amorites, the Canaanites, the Jebusites and the Girgashites must go; all this land I give to you."
@Numberless! I am your shield and your reward; exceedingly great, fear not Abram; numberless!

PRAYER POINTS

- O Lord God of Abraham, do something, or say something, to blow my mind today, in the name of Jesus.
- Father, show me a picture today of the breadth of Your love for me, the expanse of Your thoughts on me, and the scope of Your plans for me, in the name of Jesus.
- I fan away with the blood of Jesus and the fire of the Holy Ghost, every Satanic bird assigned to abort my moment with God, in Jesus name.
- Father God, help me to never be misguided in believing that it is packaged because it is promised; I arm myself with the mindset to fight the good fight of faith, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- O Lord my God, You are the beginning and the end, I receive, accept and commit to steward all Your promises to me, for my time, and for generations to come, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Father God, give me the nations for an inheritance; I am willing to fight to dispossess the enemy and establish Your kingdom in the earth, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

WHO promised it? God made it;
Always on time, no never late!
Who promised it? God made it;
He fulfils His promises, so...
Why don't you wait?

GENESIS 16

¹Sarai bore Abram no children, but she had an Egyptian maidservant; Hagar was her name.

²So Sarai said to Abram, "The Lord has restrained me from bearing children, please go in to my maidservant Hagar, that I may obtain children by her."

And Abram conceded to Sarai's request.

³Then Sarai, Abram's wife took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

This was after Abram had lived ten years in Canaan.

@Who promised it, Abram? Say, Sarai why not wait?

There is conflict in impatience, but assuring victories in faith.

⁴And Abram went in to Hagar, and she conceived.

And when she saw she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes; Sarai was wrong to have believed.

⁵Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong be upon you!

I have given my maid into your embrace; now she has conceived and see, I am despised in her eyes.

The Lord judge between us both."

⁶So Abram said to Sarai, "Your maid is in your hand; as it pleases you, do to her."

@When one is exalted, they should walk in humility, or in the face of wrath, as with Hagar, they may be made to flee.

And Sarai treated Hagar harshly, so she ran away from her presence.

⁷The angel of the Lord found her by a water fountain in the wilderness; it was on the way of Shur.

⁸And he said, "Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from, and where will you go?" She said, "I am fleeing from the presence of Sarai my mistress."

⁹And the angel said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hand.

¹⁰I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, that they will not be counted for multitude."

There are great blessings awaiting you, but submission is the key.

¹¹The angel said to her, "You are with child, and you shall bear a son.

You shall call his name Ishmael, for the Lord has heard your affliction.

¹²He shall be a wild man;

his hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand shall be against him as well. In the presence of all his brethren he shall dwell."

Who promised it? God made it; indeed I believe.

¹³Then Hagar called the name of the Lord who spoke to her, God Who Sees Me, for she said, "Have I also here seen Him who sees me?"

¹⁴Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; it is between Kadesh and Bered.

@When I am down and out, when situations make me flee;

it helps to know Your name, O Lord, is "God Who Sees Me!"

When I think I am alone and no one cares, or when I am in need,

I will lift my voice and cry to You, "God Who Sees Me!"

¹⁵So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram called the name of his son Ishmael.

¹⁶Abram was one with God; he was eighty-six when Ishmael came.

@He knew that God ordained it; he knew Ishmael was the name.

He knew by all the events, that God is never late; Ishmael would not succeed him; he would just have to wait!

- Father, thank You for grace that visits me in my mess; thank You for love that brings me back to the right path; thank You for promise that watches over my destiny to fulfilment, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord, thank You for perfecting all my concerns, even as You reached out to Hagar for Abraham's sake. Amen.

A FATHER of many nations you are to be;
An everlasting covenant I make with you.
No longer Abram, your name shall be Abraham!"

GENESIS 17

¹Abram was ninety-nine years old, when to him the Lord appeared. He said to him, "I am Almighty God; Walk before Me, with your heart prepared; be blameless.
²I will make My covenant between you and Me;
and I will multiply you exceedingly!"
³Then Abram fell on his face, and God said to him,

⁴"As for Me, My covenant is with you, Abram, you shall be a father of many nations.
⁵Your name shall no longer be Abram, but Abraham, for I have made you a father of many nations.
⁶I will make you exceedingly fruitful;
I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.
⁷I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations.
It shall be for them, an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you forever.
⁸The land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan,
I give to you and your descendants for an everlasting possession, Abraham;
and I will be their God."
⁹And God said to Abraham: "As for you: you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.
¹⁰This is My covenant you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants:
every male child among you shall be circumcised; ¹¹and you shall be circumcised, in the flesh of your foreskins;
it shall be the sign of this covenant between Me and you.
¹²Every male, eight days old among you shall be circumcised.
He who is born in your house or bought with a price, from any stranger who is not your descendant.
¹³He who is born in your house and he who is bought with money must be circumcised;
and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.
¹⁴The male child among you who is not circumcised, shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant, Abraham!"
¹⁵Then God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall no longer call her Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be.
¹⁶And I will bless her and by her I will give you a son;
then I will bless her, a mother of nations she shall become, from her, kings of people shall surely come."
¹⁷Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and he said in his heart,
"To a man who is one hundred year old shall a child now be born?
And shall Sarah who is ninety years old, give birth to a son?"
¹⁸And Abraham said to God, "Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!"
¹⁹Then God said, "No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac;

I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant and with his descendants after him.”

@“Oh, that Ishmael may live!” “No, Sarah shall bear a son!”

“Oh, that Ishmael may live!” “No Isaac shall surely come!”

20“But I have heard you on Ishmael; I have blessed him indeed;

I will make him fruitful and multiply him exceedingly.

I will make him a great nation; from him shall twelve princes be.

21But My covenant is with Isaac, Abraham!

“I will establish My covenant with Isaac whom Sarah shall bear;

he shall come from her womb at this set time next year.”

22Then God finished talking with Abraham, and God went up from him.

23So Abraham took Ishmael his son with every male born in his house, and every male he had purchased with money, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him.

24Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised.

26Abraham was circumcised on that same day and his son Ishmael;

27and all the men of his house, born in his house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised that day with him.

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, I commit myself daily to prepare my heart to love You, to serve You and to walk before You in my pursuit of righteousness, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Father, help me to receive with laughter, all the promises You have made to me in Your word, just as a child, knowing You are faithful and You will never lie to me. Amen. Give me the joy that ever lasts that comes with knowing You. Amen.
- Lord God of Abraham, I want to embarrass You with my faith so You may embarrass me with Your faithfulness. Amen.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus Christ, I clothe myself with the faith of Abraham to receive the promises of Abraham; so I may laugh it to past and obey with immediacy, even through pain, Amen.
- Lord God, help me not to cancel any of Your promises to me by expressions of doubt, or set up opposition to these promises by expressions of fear, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

TO you will the secrets of God be revealed:

If you care for His presence and there desire to be;

If you will prepare Him a table, full of delicacies;

If you will embrace His promises and your destiny;

If you will instruct your children and your household after you consistently;

If you will stand in the gap and you will intercede;

If when I show to you great things, you will believe.

If you know there is nothing that is too hard for Me, then to you will the secrets of God be revealed!

GENESIS 18

1The Lord appeared to Abraham there in the plains of Mamre, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day.

²Abraham looked up, and there three men stood;
he ran from the tent door to meet them, and in their presence he bowed.

³He said, "My lord, if I have found favor in Your sight, please do not pass by your servant.

⁴Let me bring some water to wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

⁵"And I will bring a loaf of bread, that you may comfort your hearts, after that you may go, for you have come to your servant."

They said, "Do as you have said."

⁶So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quickly, make cakes with three measures of fine meal."

⁷Then Abraham ran to the herd for a calf, tender and good to eat; and he gave it to a young man, and he hastily prepared it.

⁸And he set the meal before them, with butter and milk; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate.

⁹Then they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?"

He said, "Here, in the tent." "Yes, he had prepared them a meal; now to him were the secrets of God to be revealed!"

¹⁰And He said, "I will surely return, according to this time of your life; and behold, you shall have a son of Sarah your wife!"

Now Sarah heard it from the tent door behind him there;

¹¹Abraham and Sarah were very old, and Sarah had long past the childbearing age.

¹²So when Sarah heard it, she laughed within herself, for she said, "Shall I have pleasure after I have grown old, my lord also being old as well?"

¹³Then the Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh? Saying, 'Shall I surely bear a child, now that I am old and my time is well past?'"

"To you will the secrets of God be revealed; what He says He will perform, if you will just believe!"

Do not consider your circumstances, He fulfils His word.

¹⁴He said, "Is there anything that is too hard for the Lord?

At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son."

¹⁵But Sarah denied it, saying, "I did not laugh!" for she was afraid.

And He said, "No, but you did laugh." there was no mistake.

¹⁶The men then rose up from there and looked towards Sodom that day.

And Abraham went with them to conduct them on their way.

@There was a thirst for this Presence, in it he wanted to stay,

In the place of God's secrets, in the secret place! Pursuit of the Presence, where deep calls to deep is the place where the secrets of God are revealed! Pursuit of the Presence may spark a debate:

¹⁷And the Lord said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing, ¹⁸since Abraham is destined to be great? He shall surely become a nation, mighty and great, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him.

¹⁹"For I have known him, in order that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment, so that what the Lord has spoken of to Abraham, He may bring to him!"

²⁰And the Lord revealed His secret to Abraham then.

He said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is very great, and their sin is very grievous and grave, ²¹I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it which has come up to Me; if not I will know at that time."

@What do you do when judgement is revealed? The heart of the righteous is to intercede!

²²The men turned their faces, and towards Sodom they went.

But Abraham would not allow them; he stood before the Lord then.

²³And Abraham came near to the Lord and said to Him,

"Will You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?"

²⁴What if there were fifty righteous in the city, will You also destroy the place and not spare it for their sake?

²⁵Let this be a distant thought, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so the righteous should be as the wicked; let this be distant from You!

Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

²⁶ So the Lord said, "The righteous and the wicked, I will separate; if I find fifty righteous in Sodom, I will spare the entire place."

²⁷Abraham persisted, saying, "I, who am but dust and ashes, have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord.

²⁸What if there were five less than fifty? Would You destroy the city for a lack of five?"

So He said, "If I find forty-five righteous, I will not destroy."

In ardent intercession, he spoke again and again:

²⁹"What of forty,

³⁰and of thirty,

³¹and of twenty,

³²and of ten?"

Let not the Lord be angry," he said as he spoke,
 "I have taken it on me to speak; I am pressed in my soul!"
 The Lord said, "I will not destroy for the sake of ten."

³³And as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham, the Lord went His way; and Abraham returned to his place.

@To you will the secrets of God be revealed: if you care for His presence, there you desire to be; if you will prepare Him a table, full of delicacies; if you will embrace His promises and your destiny; if you will command your children and your household after you consistently; if you will stand in the gap and you will intercede; if when I show to you great things, you will believe.

And if you know there is nothing that is too hard for Me, then to you will the secrets of God be revealed!

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, make me a candidate for the revelation of Your secrets today; amen.
- Lord God of my father Abraham, I pursue You with my offering, with my worship, and with spending time in Your presence daily, amen.
- Father, by the power of the Holy Ghost who lives in me, help me never to ridicule any of Your promises to me by doubting in my heart, or by failing to take You up on them, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Lord God, make me an intercessor. Help me never to be so content with my own salvation, that I do not constantly speak to, and up for my loved ones living in sin and destined for fiery judgment, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Father God, give me a heart for the nations, and let me start with my household. Amen.

I SEE blind men searching, they are not satisfied;
 Blind but still searching, the flesh to gratify.
 When struck with blindness, most men would then flee;
 I guess they were blind, for their hearts refused to see!

GENESIS 19

¹The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, as Lot sat in Sodom's gate; when Lot saw them, he rose up to meet them, and to the ground he bowed his face.

²He said, "Behold my lords, please turn in to your servant's house, spend the night and wash your feet, and you shall rise early and go out."

They said, "No, but in the open square we will spend the night!"

³But he insisted greatly; he would not leave the two behind, so they conceded to him, and entered his house, and he made them a meal.

He baked unleavened bread and gave to them to eat; and they ate.

@The men of the city were blind, but it was very clear;

they saw the men enter the city and heard Lot plead with them there.

They saw them as they passed through the door of Lot's house.

They knew that they had eaten, and they did not go out.

The news made the headlines; the news clearly spread!

⁴They came from every quarter before the men went to bed.

All the men of the city, both young and old surrounded the house.

⁵They called to Lot, and said, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? We must know them carnally; send them out!"

⁶Lot went out the door to them, shutting the door after him.

⁷He said, "I beg you my brethren, do not do this wicked thing!"

⁸Behold I have two daughters who have not known a man, please let me bring them to you; what you desire to do to them, this you may do, only do nothing to these men, since they came under the shadow of my roof."

But blinded hearts would not hear it; blindness blocks reasoning and truth!

⁹They said, "Stand back!"

Then they said, "This fellow is a stranger; now he is acting as a judge; now we will do worse to you than with them!" So they pushed hard against Lot and came near to breaking the door in.

¹⁰But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house, shutting the door after him.

¹¹And they struck the men at the door with blindness, everyone both great and small. They wearied themselves trying to find the door; blind indeed, nothing changed at all!
¹²*I see blind men searching; they are not satisfied. Blind but still searching, the flesh to gratify. When struck with blindness, most men would then flee;*
I guess they were blind, for they refused to see!
¹³I see they were urgent, to Lot the men said, "Take your wife and daughters; get them out of this place!
 Have you any other, son-in-law and sons here?
This matter is urgent; there is no time to spare.
¹⁴For the outcry against this city, has grown great before the Lord,
 He has sent us to destroy it; we will destroy this place!"
¹⁵So Lot spoke to his sons-in-law, his daughters' husbands and said,
 "Come, get out of this city, for the Lord will destroy this place!"
 But to his sons-in-law, he was considered a joker,
Hearts held in blindness, cannot see the saving grace.
¹⁶When the morning dawned, the angel hastened Lot, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters, lest you be consumed in the punishment of this city."
¹⁷While he still lingered, the men took hold of his hand, the hands of his wife, and of his daughters, the Lord being merciful to him, brought him out and set him outside the city.
¹⁸So it was, when they were outside, he said, "Escape for your life!
 Do not stay in the plain lest you be destroyed; go to the mountain, do not look behind!"
¹⁹Lot pleaded with them, "Let it not be so, my lords!
²⁰Your servant has found grace in your sight, and you have increased your mercy shown to me by saving my life, but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die.
²¹"Now, there is a little city that is near;
 it is a little one, so that my soul may live, let me escape there!"
²²The Lord granted his request, saying, "See, I have favored you in this thing,
 I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken.
²³Hurry, escape there, for I can do nothing until you arrive."
 Therefore the city was called Zoar.
²⁴Lot entered Zoar at sunrise.
²⁵The Lord rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah from out of the heavens.
²⁶So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants and plants as well.

²⁶But Lot's wife looked back from behind Lot, and she became a pillar of salt.
No looking back when God delivers; look only to the Lord!
²⁷And Abraham got up and went early in the morning to the place where he stood before the Lord.
²⁸Then he looked towards Sodom and Gomorrah and towards the land of the plain. He saw the smoke of the country going up, like the smoke of a furnace.
The plain of beauty that was well watered was in ashes and smoke; beautiful no more.
²⁹So it was, that when God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham; because He interceded;
 and so God delivered Lot when He overthrew the cities in which he dwelt.
³⁰And Lot left for the mountains with his two daughters, for he was afraid to live in Zoar. And he and his two daughters lived in a cave there.
³¹Now the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man to come in to us after the custom of all the earth.
³²"Come, let us make our father drunken with wine, and with him we will lie that we may preserve the lineage of our father; you go in tomorrow, I will go in tonight!"
³³So they made their father drink wine that night.
 Lot was made drunk by wine and senselessly blind.
 And the firstborn went in and slept with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.
³⁴On the next day the firstborn said to the younger, "I lay with my father last night, let us make him drink wine tonight, it is your time to go."
³⁵They made Lot drink wine that night also, the younger went in and lay with him and he never knew it.
³⁶Therefore both daughters of Lot were with child by their father.
³⁷The firstborn gave birth to a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites.
³⁸The younger bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the children of Ammon.
Lot's descendants, of daughters made pregnant by him, in his moment's blindness.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, remove every scale from my eyes and every blockage from my heart in Jesus name. Anoint my ears to hear, my eyes to see, and my heart to understand, and give me wisdom to respond to You, in Jesus name.
- My Father my God, forgive me of all my sins, cleanse me of all unrighteousness; remove every
- iniquity from my heart and replace it with tenderness to the voice of the Holy Spirit, in the name of Jesus.
- Father, help me never to look back with longing to any of the things You have delivered me from, in the name of Jesus; but let me look forward with trust and appreciation to where you are taking me, in Jesus name.
- Father, help me never to get so comfortable with sinners that I fraternize with their sins and forget their designation, in the name of Jesus.
- Holy Spirit, let Your word settle it for me. Let first-time instructions be enough. Amen.

LET him pray; it may save your life!
Let him pray; you have a man's wife!
God will protect His own; let all kings be warned,
Yet He may restrain you also from sinning against the Lord!
You are a dead man, though you are alive!
You are a dead man, though things seem alright!
Let him pray; it may open the womb;
Let him pray; there is a prophet among you!

GENESIS 20

¹And Abraham journeyed from there to the South, and he dwelt between Kadesh and Shur.

And he stayed in Gerar.

²And Abraham said of Sarah, his wife, "She is my sister."

And Abimelech king of Gerar sent for Sarah, and to his house she went; they did not refuse the king as he sent.

³But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, "You are a dead man; you have a man's wife!"

⁴But Abimelech had not had intimacy with her as yet, and so in fear and awe, to the Lord he said, "Lord, will you slay a righteous nation also?"

⁵"Did he not say, 'She is my sister?'"

And she even said herself, 'He is my brother.' I have done all this in the integrity of my heart and with innocent hands."

⁶And God said to him in a dream, "I know you did this in the integrity of your heart,

I also kept you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

⁷"Let him pray, it may save your life; let him pray; restore the man's wife!

He is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you shall live.

If you do not restore her, you shall surely die, you and all that is yours as well."

⁸So Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his men; they were very afraid when he told it to them.

⁹And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done?"

How have I offended you, that you have brought a great sin on me, and on my kingdom?"

You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done."

¹⁰Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you thinking of for you to do this thing?"

¹¹And Abraham said, "Because I thought the fear of God was not in this place, and I feared that they would kill me for my wife's sake.

¹²And indeed she is truly my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.

¹³"And I said to her when God caused me to wander from my father's house, 'You must show this kindness to me, in every place we go, say of me, "He is my brother.'"

¹⁴Then Abimelech took sheep, oxen and servants, male and female, and gave them to Abraham, and he restored Sarah his wife to him.

¹⁵And Abimelech said, "See, my land is before you; choose where you desire to live."

¹⁶Then he rebuked Sarah, saying, "I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; indeed this clears you before all who are with you and before everyone else!”

¹⁷And Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife and female servants, and they bore children;

¹⁸for the Lord had closed the wombs of everyone in Abimelech’s household because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

@Let him pray; it may save your life; let him pray; you have a man’s wife! Let him pray; it may open up the womb; let him pray, or you will be a dead man real soon!

GENESIS 21

¹The Lord visited Sarah as He had said, and He did for Sarah as He had spoken.
²For Sarah conceived and to Abraham she bore a child in his old age at the time God had shown him.
³And Abraham called his son Isaac, whom Sarah bore, ⁴and Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, just as God had commanded him.
⁵Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born.
⁶And Sarah said, “God has made me to laugh; He has made me glad, and all who hear will laugh with me.”
⁷She also said, “Who could have told Abraham, Sarah would have given children suck?
 For in his old age I have borne him a son. God has made me to laugh!”
⁸The child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.
⁹And Sarah saw someone mocking. It was the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she bore to Abraham.
¹⁰Therefore to Abraham she said, “Cast out the bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son Isaac the free.”
God has made me to laugh, but I want total victory!
¹¹And this matter was displeasing in Abraham’s sight because of his son.
¹²But God said to Abraham, “Do not let this displease you because of the boy or your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has spoken to you, listen to her. For in Isaac, your succession shall be. Do not let this thing make you grieve; your seed is in Isaac; to him the promise belongs.
¹³Yet I will also make a nation of Ishmael because he is your son.”
¹⁴Some bread and some water, and early morning the next day Abraham gave these and the boy to Hagar, and sent her away. Away she departed, into the wilderness she went; she wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba until the water was completely spent.
¹⁵The water in the skin was used up and she laid Ishmael under a shrub and sat a good distance from him at that time,

¹⁶she went about a bowshot in distance for she said, "I cannot bear to sit and to watch him die!"

She sat opposite him and in desperation she lifted up her voice and wept, but the God who keeps promises never forgets.

¹⁷and God heard the voice of the young man. "What troubles you Hagar?" It was the voice of an angel of God.

Do not fear for God has heard the voice of the lad.

¹⁸"Arise, lift up Ishmael; hold him up in your hand, for I will make him a great nation, yes, he shall be strong!"

@Arise lift yourself up, if you have His promises stand.

A nation: death could not steal the young man's destiny!

¹⁹*Provision:* God opened her eyes, and she could see a well!

She filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰*Protection:* God was with the boy; he grew and became an archer.

²¹In the Wilderness of Paran he dwelt;

The Promise: his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

²²And Abimelech, and Phicol the chief captain of his army spoke to Abraham and said,

"God is with you in all that you do;

²³"now therefore swear by your God that you will not deal deceitfully with me, with my sons, or with my posterity;

but that according to the kindness I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt."

²⁴And Abraham said, "I will swear!"

²⁵Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech there, because of a well of water which his servants had violently taken away.

²⁶And Abimelech said, "I do not know who did this; you did not tell me; nor have I heard of it before this day and this moment."

²⁷So Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them to Abimelech, and Abimelech received them, and the two of them made a covenant then.

²⁸And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flocks by themselves.

²⁹Then Abimelech asked Abraham, "What do you mean by these?"

³⁰And he said, "You will take these seven lambs of my hand, that they may be my witness that I dug this well."

³¹Therefore he called the place Beersheba, because there they both swore an oath.

³²They made a covenant at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol his chief captain arose, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.

³³And Abraham planted a grove in Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the Lord, the Everlasting God;

³⁴and Abraham dwelt in the land of the Philistines for many days.

PRAYER POINTS

- O faithful God, I praise You with laughter in the midst of my difficult situations, in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Almighty God, Alpha and Omega, show me everything I am passionately holding on to that is holding down my destiny, and give me the courage to let them go, in the name of Jesus.
- Thank You Lord that I do not need to be in control when you already are; our times and destiny are in Your hands. Amen.
- Father God, give my children their own voices that register in heaven; respond to them when they get in trouble and I am not there. Amen.
- Father help me to hear You the first time and to hear and believe Your word; I refuse to be depressed because of the process or discouraged because of the way. Help me never to speak death over the living, but to speak life into the dying, in Jesus' name. Amen.
- Loving Father, thank You for meeting me where my strength fails, in Jesus' name. Amen.
- Lord God of Abraham, give me dumbfounding breakthroughs in the presence of my haters, in the name of Jesus.

If you were told to take your son, your only son, the one you love, and offer him on a mountain as a burnt offering to God, Would you rise early the next morning and be on your way? Or would you plead with God; would you bargain, would you pray?

GENESIS 22

¹After these things, God tested Abraham: He said, "Abraham!" And he said, "Behold, Lord, here I am!"
²Then God said, "Take now Isaac your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love; and go to the land of Moriah and there offer him on the mountain I will tell you of as a burnt offering."
³So Abraham rose up early the next morning and saddled his ass, at first light to get going; obedience holds no time slack!
 He took two of his young men with him, his son Isaac and the wood, and he set off to go to the place God told him about.
⁴On the third day Abraham looked and saw the place some distance away;
⁵and he said to the young men, "Stay; wait with the donkey, the lad and I will go up; @There is a place in worship where with you others cannot go; they may not understand the passion and may try to block the flow.
 we are going up to worship; we will come to you again."
Promises are eternal, though the process causes pain.
⁶So Abraham had Isaac carry the wood of the burnt offering, he took the fire and a knife and the two went together then.
⁷But Isaac said this to Abraham, "Father! I see the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the sacrifice?"
I serve Jehovah-Jireh, and with Him by my side
⁸I can say in confidence, "My son Jehovah will provide! God will provide for Himself the lamb for the offering."
⁹So they both went up together and came to the place which God showed him. And Abraham built an altar there and set the wood in place, but Isaac may have received a fright when Abraham bound him and laid him on the altar on the wood, ¹⁰and then stretched out his knife. He took the knife to slay his son.
¹¹But then, the Angel of the Lord called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!"

"Here I am!" Abraham answered the Lord.
¹²And He said, "Do not place your hand on the boy, or do anything to him, I know that you fear God since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me."
¹³*Jehovah-Jireh:* Abraham lifted his eyes and looked;
Jehovah-Jireh: behind him was a ram caught by his horns in the thick bush!
Jehovah-Jireh: Abraham took the ram and offered it up in Isaac's stead;
¹⁴"Jehovah-Jireh is what I will name this place," is what Abraham said.
 Jehovah-Jireh, The-Lord-Will-Provide; as it is to this day, "In the mount of the Lord it shall be provided."
¹⁵The Angel of the Lord called to Abraham, a second time out of heaven, ¹⁶and said, "I have sworn by Myself, says the Lord, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son;
¹⁷with blessings I will bless you, and multiplying, I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven, and as the sand by the sea; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies.
¹⁸"In your seed all nations of the earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice."
¹⁹And Abraham returned to his young men; so they rose up and went together to Beersheba, and there Abraham dwelt.
@God had tested his depth in worship; he showed he would lay down all: his love, his crown, his honor, at the feet of the Lord.
²⁰After these things Abraham was told of the sons born of Milcah to his brother Nahor:
²¹Huz the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram, ²²Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel also;
²³and Bethuel begot Rebekah; of Milcah, these eight to Nahor were born.
²⁴His concubine Reumah also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.
@He could not know Jehovah would one day give His only begotten Son, But he knew by experience, the great price of selfless love.

A GRIEVOUS and bitter moment in any person's life: the death of a loved one, the death of a wife.

Be comforted Abraham, for she was your crown;

A great and noble woman; and Abraham mourned.

A companion in travel and trials; let a burying-place be found.

Dust to dust; commit her to the ground.

She bore him a son in his old age; she was his delight;

Yes, the woman being buried was Sarah, Abraham's wife.

GENESIS 23

¹One hundred and twenty-seven years were the years of her life.

Her name was Sarah, Abraham's wife.

²So Sarah died in Hebron in the land of Canaan, and to mourn and weep for her Abraham came.

³Then Abraham stood up from before his deceased wife, and spoke to the sons of Heth, ⁴"I am a stranger and foreigner among you this day; give me a possession for a burying-place here, so that I may bury my deceased out of my sight."

⁵And the sons of Heth replied to Abraham,

⁶"Hear us, my lord: you are a mighty prince among us; take the best of our sepulchre and bury your dead in it.

None of us will withhold from you his burial place that you may bury your dead."

⁷Then Abraham stood up, and to the sons of Heth he bowed himself.

⁸And he said to them, "If it is your desire that I should bury my deceased, then petition Ephron the son of Zohar for me,

⁹"that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which is at the end of his field.

I will pay the full price, whatever it is worth, for my possession as a burying place among you."

¹⁰Now Ephron, the Hittite, dwelt among the sons of Heth.

In the audience of everyone, he answered Abraham, and said, ¹¹"No, my lord, hear me, I give to you the field, and the cave that is in it.

In the presence of all the people, to you I give it all. Go now, and bury your dead in it."

¹²And Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land, ¹³and in the audience of the people he spoke to Ephron.

"If you give it, then please hear me. I will give you money for the field;

take it from me and I will bury my dead there."

¹⁴And Ephron answered Abraham, saying,

¹⁵"The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver;

what is that between you and me? Bury your dead as you desire."

¹⁶So Abraham weighed Ephron out the silver Ephron had named in the witness of the sons of Heth; four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchants.

¹⁷So Abraham secured the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, that is Hebron, the field, the cave in it, and all the trees of the field,

¹⁸to himself as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the city gate.

¹⁹After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, that is Hebron, in the land of Canaan.

²⁰So the field and the cave in it was secured to Abraham by the sons of Heth as his property for a burying-place as he desired.
 And there in the cave of Machpelah, he laid his precious wife.

PRAYER POINTS

- O Lord my God, let my lifestyle truly dignify You, in the name of Jesus.
- King of Glory, help me to make You proud by my distinguishing separation in this sinful generation, in the name of Jesus.
- O God my Father, help me never doubt Your promises to me; instead let me behave myself wisely as I possess them. Amen.
- King of hearts, I thank You for divine favor in every area of my life, and for the people whose hearts you have touched to favor me, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

NO going back to where I started from;
 I have laid the foundation my son must build on.
 I regard my lineage, "Go and take him a wife, for he is bound to the promise, wrapped up in God is his life.
 Through much testing I stand here, and much trial of faith;
 The Lord will direct you; I followed Him all the way.
 But after all I have been through, I cannot bear the pain, to see my posterity start all over again."

GENESIS 24

¹Abraham was old and blessed in all things; prospered by God, and living as king.
 @Before he died, he wanted to set things straight and find the right wife for Isaac, before it was too late.

²He called the eldest of his servants who ruled over all that he had;
 "Under my thigh," he said, "please put your hand.

³"I will now make you swear, that you will follow my words, by the Lord, the God of heaven, who is God of the earth.

Swear that you will not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell, ⁴but you will go to my country, and to my family, and there take a wife for my son Isaac."

⁵The servant said to him, "What if the woman is not willing to follow me to this land, must I bring your son back again, to the land from which you came?"

@Rather, from which you were called out, and you had obeyed; away from the promise, attached to these plains. From your very existence, your history, your pains; away from his destiny, and your foundation of faith.

⁶And Abraham said, "My servant, beware, that you do not bring my son back there again.

⁷"The Lord God of heaven who took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me, and swore to me saying, 'I will give this land to your descendants,'

He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from that land.

⁸"And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you shall be fully cleared from this oath. Do what you must, but whatever you do, do not bring my son back there again; this you must never do."

⁹So the servant placed his hand under his master Abraham's thigh, and swore to him concerning this matter as he desired.

¹⁰The servant had all the goods of the master at his disposal, therefore, he took ten of his master's camels and departed.

And he arose and to Mesopotamia, the city of Nahor he went.

¹¹And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well.

It was evening time, the time when women go out to draw water.

¹²And he prayed there and sought direction from God, saying, "O Lord God of Abraham, my master, I ask you please, in kindness to Abraham my master, let this mission succeed.

¹³"I stand here by the well; and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

¹⁴"Now, let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Let your pitcher down that I may drink!'

and she says, 'Drink and I will give your camels water also,' let her be the one You have chosen for Your servant Isaac.

And by this I will know You have shown great kindness to my master."

¹⁵O, servant of Abraham, you have not finished speaking yet, but look, a woman has come, her name was Rebekah, born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, who was the wife of Nahor the brother of Abraham.

She had her pitcher on her shoulder.

¹⁶She was lovely and a virgin, no man had known her .

She went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and with it she returned.

¹⁷The servant ran to meet her and said, "From your pitcher, please give me a drink"

¹⁸"Drink my lord," she said to him.

She let down her hand and gave him a drink.

¹⁹When he was finished, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they are satisfied."

²⁰To water the camels, she hastily ran;

²¹in silence he wondered, "Has prosperity come?"

²²When the camels had finished drinking he gave to her, two bracelets and a nose ring, all made of gold.

²³He then asked about her family, and when he was told, he had given her jewels, but knew he struck gold!

"Whose daughter are you? Is there room in your father's house to lodge?"

²⁴She replied, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.

²⁵We have both straw and feed enough, and room for you to lodge."

²⁶The servant bowed his head then and worshipped the Lord.

²⁷Saying, "Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His mercy and truth to him, who, as for me, has led me to the house of my master's brethren."

²⁸So Rebekah ran and told these things to her mother's household then;

²⁹and Laban, Rebekah's brother, ran to meet the man at the well.

³⁰Her tale and the bracelets and ring that he saw, and when he heard what the man said, he went to the man.

He was standing there by the camels at the well.

³¹And he said, "Come in, O blessed of the Lord! Why do you stand outside?"

For I have prepared the house and a place for the camels too."

³²The man came into the house and he unloaded the camels and gave them straw to eat, he also provided water to wash his own and the man's feet.

³³After they were settled, they gave him food to eat, but he replied, "Until I have told my mission, your servant will not eat."

So they told him, "Speak on."

³⁴So he said, "I am the servant of Abraham."

³⁵They listened as he told them, of what the Lord had done;

how He blessed Abraham, their brother, and made him great and strong;

with herds and flocks, camels and donkeys, silver and gold, male and female servants.

³⁶How Sarah his wife bore a son to him when she was old; and he has given all he has to him, everything he owned.

³⁷They marvelled as he told them that he came to get Isaac a wife;

how Abraham had charged him, not to take him a wife of the Canaanites.

³⁸He had said, "Go to my father's house and to my family, and take a wife for my son there."

³⁹"When I said, 'What if the woman will not follow me?'

⁴⁰He said, 'The Lord will send His angel to lead; and to prosper your way, and you shall take a wife for my son, from my family and from my father's house.

⁴¹'If my family will not give her to you, you are released from my oath.'"

He told them that while he was yet praying, Rebekah came.

⁴²He told them how he came to the well and how he prayed, "O Lord God of my master Abraham, if You will prosper my way, ⁴³"I stand by the well of water and when the virgins come to draw, and I say, 'Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,' ⁴⁴and she says to me, 'Drink, and I will draw for your camels too, let her be the woman appointed by You Lord, as bride for my master's son.'

⁴⁵"Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there came Rebekah, and she went to the well to draw.

⁴⁶I asked her for a drink and she gave me water for my thirst, and watered the camels, as I requested of the Lord."

⁴⁷"Then I asked her about her family and when I was told,

I put the bracelets on her wrists and a ring on her nose.

⁴⁸"Then I bowed my head and worshipped the Lord God of my master Abraham, who has led me in the way of truth, to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.

49“Now if you will be kind to my master tell me, and if not tell me, so I will know which way to turn.”

50Then Laban and Bethuel answered, “This is of the Lord, we cannot speak to you about this, either good or bad.

51Rebekah is before you; take her and go, let her be your master’s wife, as the Lord has spoken.”

52Abraham’s servant worshipped the Lord when he heard it, bowing down to the earth.

53Then he brought out jewels of silver, gold and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah; and to her brother and mother, he also gave precious things.

54The mission now completed, he sat to eat and drink; both he himself, and the men who were with him.

@He was a faithful servant and he would not comfort himself until his task was completed, to which he was sent.

He rose up early the next morning, and said, “Send me away to my master.”

55But her brother and mother said, “Let her remain with us at least ten days, after that she may go.”

56But he said to them, “Do not delay me, since the Lord has prospered my way; let me go to my master; send me away.”

57So they said, “We will call the young woman and see what she says.”

58They called Rebekah and asked her if she would go; she said, “I certainly will.”

59So they sent her away with her nurse, and Abraham’s servants and his men.

60Blessing Rebekah, they said to her, “The mother of thousands of ten thousands, may our sister be, may your descendants possess the gates of their enemies.”

The blessings of Abraham echoed as they rode away.

61Then Rebekah and her maid servants rose up, riding on camels they followed the man. And the servant of Abraham took them and returned again.

62And Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he dwelt in the South.

63While in the field in his evening meditation, Isaac saw the camels come.

64Then Rebekah looked and when she saw Isaac, she came down from the camel;

65for she had said to the servant, “Who is that man, coming to us in the field?”

When she heard that it was the master, she covered her face with a veil.

66The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

67Then Isaac brought her into his mother’s tent, there he knew Rebekah, and she became his wife.

And he loved her. Oh he loved her with all of his soul.
After the death of his mother, he was finally consoled.

GENESIS 25

¹Abraham again took a wife, her name was Keturah.

²She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.

³Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan.

The sons of Dedan were Ashurim, Letushim, and Lummim.

⁴The sons of Midan were: Ephah, Ephher, Hanoch, Abidah, and Eldaah. All children of Keturah.

⁵But the promise was to Isaac, so to him Abraham gave everything.

⁶And he sent all the sons of his concubines away from Isaac, with gifts while he yet lived.

⁷And Abraham lived to be one hundred and seventy-five years of age, ⁸then he breathed his last and died.

⁹His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the field of Ephron; ¹⁰which Abraham had purchased from the sons of Heth, where Sarah his wife was buried.

¹¹And God blessed Isaac, after Abraham died. And Isaac dwelt there by the well of Beer-lahai-roi.

¹²And all God had promised to Ishmael he did.

This is the genealogy of Ishmael, son of Abraham, who Hagar bore to him.

¹³The names of the sons of Ishmael according to generations were:

Nebajoth his firstborn, Kedar, Abdeel, Mibsam,

¹⁴Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

¹⁵Hadar, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

¹⁶These were the sons of Ishmael and their names by their towns and castles.

They were twelve princes in total.

¹⁷To the son of Hagar, Sarah's handmaid, God's promises were realized.

When he was one hundred and thirty-seven years old, he breathed his last and died.

¹⁸From Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt, and to Assyria they dwelt.

He died there in the presence of all his brethren.

¹⁹This is the genealogy of Isaac, son of Abraham. Abraham begot Isaac.

²⁰Isaac was forty years of age when he took Rebekah as his wife;

she was the daughter of Bethuel, the Syrian of Padan-aram, and the sister of Laban.

²¹Now Rebekah was barren and Isaac prayed for her.

God granted his request, and his wife Rebekah conceived.

²²In her womb the children struggled, and she said to herself;

"Why am I like this if everything is well?"

Rebekah was baffled, so she inquired of the Lord.

²³And the Lord said to her, "In your womb are two nations; two peoples shall come from you; one shall be stronger than the other, and the older shall serve the younger."

²⁴When her days had come, it was time for them to be born, there were twins in her womb.

²⁵The first was red and hairy all over, so they called him Esau.

²⁶His brother came out after, and it was revealed, his hand held a firm grip, on his brother Esau's heel;

therefore he was named Jacob.

Isaac was sixty years old when she bore the two.

²⁷In the process of time, the brothers grew.

Esau was a skilful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a regular person; in the tent he lived.

²⁸Isaac loved Esau because he ate of the meat from his hunting, while Rebekah loved Jacob, because of the promise revealed.

²⁹One day when Esau was hungry, coming from the field, very weak;

Jacob was cooking stew, and he desired a plate of it to eat.

³⁰Esau said to Jacob, "Give me some of your stew, I am very weary and weak."

Therefore his name was called Edom for this.

³¹But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day."

³²Esau said, "What good is this birthright to me, when I am about to die?"

³³Jacob said, "Swear to me this day," and to him Esau swore, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

@One bite, in one moment, and his future was sold.

You must resist unto blood, even to death, than to give up God's promise for a moment of flesh.

³⁴Esau ate and drank and rose up, then went on his way;

therefore Esau despised his birthright that day;

@Indeed the flesh was gratified, but things would never be the same.

When your flesh is tested, are you ready to fight? Do you value the free gift that comes with new life?

When the right of the firstborn is thought of as less; when relief for the moment seems the option that is best; where the present obliterates what is ahead in your sight; you know you have lost when the rights of your new birth are despised.

PRAYER POINTS

- O Lord my God, help me never to cloud my destiny with offspring of the flesh that have no place in it, in Jesus name.
- King of Glory, open up my understanding to every puzzle in my life; and give me discernment of every situation I face, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, help me to love and obey Your word above my feelings and my wisdom, in the name of Jesus. Let my walk be guided by the Holy Spirit and not by the dictates of my flesh, in the name of Jesus.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, I take by force, everything that is written in my destiny but not appropriated to it, in the name of Jesus.
- Most holy God, help me to resist every temptation to trade my rights in Christ for temporary gratification of my flesh in the name of Jesus.
- Let the divine wind of the blood of Jesus Christ blow away every deception of the enemy to offer me crumbs and take my storehouses, in the name of Jesus.

A WINNER does not quit, nor can a quitter win!
If your well is stolen, do not be bundled into sin.
Put your faith in God; let Him hold your hand;
get your strength together and dig another one.
A winner does not quit, nor can a quitter win!
Don't give up for one moment; never let your light go dim.
Put your faith in God, on His promises just stand;
get your strength together and dig another one!

GENESIS 26

¹There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine in Abraham's days. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines; to Gerar he came.
²Then the Lord appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land I tell you of.
³Reside there and I will be with you, and there I will bless you.
 For to you and to your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform My oath which I swore to your father Abraham.
⁴"Your descendants shall multiply as the stars of heaven; to them I will give all these countries; and in your seed all nations of the earth shall be blessed,
⁵"because Abraham has obeyed My voice and has kept My charge, My statutes, My laws and My commandments."
⁶So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.
⁷When the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, "She is my sister."
 Though Rebekah was his wife. She was very beautiful, and he feared that for her they would take his life.
⁸After a long time, Abimelech the king of the Philistines, looked through a window and saw them being intimately playful.
⁹Then Abimelech called Isaac to him and said, "She is obviously your wife, so why did you say, 'She is my sister,' then?"
 Isaac replied, "Because I said, 'Lest for her sake I die.'" ¹⁰Abimelech said, "What is this that you have done to us?
 One of the men may have had intimacy with her lightly, and you would have brought guilt on us."
¹¹Then Abimelech charged all his people, saying to them, "He who touches this man or his wife, shall surely be put to death."
¹²Then Isaac sowed in the land and reaped a hundredfold; for indeed, he was blessed of the Lord. Isaac had herds, flocks and servants.

¹³He grew and prospered to greatness;

¹⁴he had possessions of flocks, herds and many servants, and the Philistines envied him.

¹⁵And the Philistines stopped with earth, all the wells the servants of Abraham had dug in Abraham's days, and they filled them with earth.

¹⁶And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we are."

¹⁷So Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar and there he dwelt.

¹⁸And Isaac once more dug the wells his father's servants had dug, in Abraham, his father's days.

For the Philistines had stopped them up after his father Abraham died.

And he called them by the names his father gave them when he was alive.

¹⁹And Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and there his servants found, a well of springing water, ²⁰and for this the herdsmen of Gerar argued.

They quarrelled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The well is ours."

So he named it Esek because they quarrelled with him.

@Disappointed; his servants felt the pain. His hope fixed on the promise, Isaac dug another well.

@A winner does not quit, nor can a quitter win! If your well is stolen, don't be bundled into sin. Put your faith in God and let Him hold your hand; get your strength together and dig another one.

²¹They dug another well and Isaac called it Sitnah, for they quarrelled over this one too.

@Months of sweat and hard labor, yet to have the success reproved.

But a winner does not quit! This Isaac would not do.

²²Frustrated but not deterred, from there he moved; and Isaac dug again that time.

He found water and called the name Rehoboth.

For this one the herdsmen did not fight.

He said, "Now the Lord has made room for us; we shall be fruitful in this land."

Certainly Isaac was no quitter.

²³He went up to Beersheba from there.

²⁴That same night, the Lord appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham;

I am with you, do not fear.

I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of My servant Abraham."

²⁵So Isaac built an altar there, and called on the name of the Lord.

And he pitched his tent there, and there his servants dug another well.

²⁶After this Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath, a friend, and Phichol the captain of his army.

²⁷Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away?"

²⁸But they said, "We have seen the Lord is with you;

so we said, 'Let there be an oath now between us, and let us make a covenant with you,

²⁹that you will do us no harm since we have not touched you, and since we have done you nothing but good.'

@Oh, what about the wells stolen?

No, that is not a winning mood!

'We have sent you away in peace, now you are the blessed of the Lord.'

³⁰He made them a feast and they ate and drank and so he assured their hearts.

³¹Then they rose early the next morning, and to each other they swore an oath, and Isaac sent them away, and they departed in peace therefore.

³²And on that same day Isaac's servant came and told him about the well that they had dug, saying, "We have found water; it is springing up."

³³So he called it Shebah. Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

It was the place where the covenant with Isaac and Abimelech was made.

³⁴When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

³⁵And it grieved the mind of Isaac;

Esau what have you done?

Rebekah too was concerned, but God had another plan.

GENESIS 27

¹Now, when Isaac was old, and he could not see for his sight was so dim, he called Esau his older son, and he said to him,
 "My son," and he answered, "Here I am."
²Then he said, "I am old; I do not know the day I will die.
³Take with you your weapons, your quiver and bow; and go out to the field, and hunt game for me.
⁴"And make me tasty meat, as I love it. Bring it to me that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die."
For the soul will surely bless when the soul is satisfied.
⁵Someone was listening, someone heard him then, it was Rebekah his wife, she heard all that Isaac had said.
 Now as Esau went out hunting in the field,
⁶Rebekah spoke to Jacob and said, "I heard your father tell Esau your brother,
⁷"Bring venison and make me tasty meat, that I may eat and bless you, before the Lord, before my death."
⁸"Now, my son, obey my voice, do as I command.

⁹Go bring from the flock, two of the best goat kids, and I will make tasty meat from them for your father, just as he loves it.
¹⁰Then you shall take it to him, that he may eat and he may bless you before his death."
¹¹And Jacob said to Rebekah, "Mother, Esau is hairy, I am a smooth-skinned man.
¹²Should my father feel me, I will appear as a deceiver to him, and I will bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing."
¹³But his mother said to him, "Let the curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me."
¹⁴So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she made tasty meat as his father loved.
¹⁵Then Rebekah took good clothing of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and she placed them on Jacob her younger son.
¹⁶And she put the skins of the kid of the goats on his hands and on the smooth of his neck.
¹⁷Then she gave the meat and bread to Jacob which she had prepared.
¹⁸So he brought them to his father and said, "My Father."
@But his voice was without dressing; His father knew something was wrong.
 He said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"
¹⁹Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn.
 I have done just as you told me. Please sit and eat my venison, that your soul may bless me."
For the soul will bless, when the soul is satisfied.
²⁰But Isaac said to him, "How have you found it so quickly, my son?"
 He said, "Because the Lord your God brought it to me."
²¹Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near that I may feel you, my son, to see if you are really Esau indeed."
²²So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him, and said,
 "The hands are the hands of Esau, though the voice is Jacob's voice."
²³And Isaac did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy as Esau's was. And so Isaac blessed him. But he had one final question:
²⁴Then he said, "Are you really my son Esau?"
 Jacob said, "I am."
²⁵He said, "Bring the meat near to me. I will eat of my son's game, that my soul may bless you."
 So he brought it near to him and he ate it, and he drank the wine he brought.
²⁶Then his father Isaac said, "Come near now and kiss me, my son."
My son...wait, one final thought.
²⁷And so he came near and kissed him, and he smelled the smell of his garment.

And he blessed him, and said,
"See, the smell of my son is like the smell of the field which the Lord has blessed.

²⁸Therefore may God give you of heaven's dew, and of the fatness of the earth as well, and plenty of grain and wine.

²⁹Let peoples serve you and nations bow down to you.

Be lord over all your brethren and let your mother's sons bow down to you.

Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you!"

³⁰Now, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing
Jacob, and Jacob had only just gone out, departing from the presence of his father, Isaac,

from his hunting, his brother Esau came.

³¹He also brought to his father the tasty meat that he too had made.

And he said, "Father, arise and eat of my venison that your soul may bless me."

³²And his father Isaac answered, "Who are you?"

"I am Esau, your son, your firstborn." he replied.

³³Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said,
"Who...? Where is he who hunted and brought meat to me before you came?"

And I did eat, and I blessed him, and he surely shall be blessed."

³⁴A great exceeding bitter cry, proceeded from Esau, when he heard his father's words;
"Bless me, even me also, my father!" he pleaded.

³⁵His father spoke and in his pain he heard,
"Your brother came in subtly and has taken away your blessing from you."

³⁶And Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob?"

For he has supplanted me now not one time but two.

First he took my birthright away, and now look, he has taken away my blessing."

Desperate, despairing but not deterred,
Esau asked, "Is there not a blessing for me that you have reserved?"

³⁷Isaac answered Esau and said, "I have made Jacob your lord, and I have given all his brethren to him as servants.

I have sustained him with wine and corn.
What shall I do now for you my son?"

³⁸And Esau said to his father, "Have you, O
Father, one blessing yet?"

And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

³⁹Then Isaac his father answered and said to him, "Your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven above.

⁴⁰By the sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother;
and it shall be that when you have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from your neck."

⁴¹So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him.

And Esau said in his heart,
"My father will die soon; the days of his mourning are near.

I will kill my brother Jacob then."

⁴²The words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah.

So she sent for Jacob her younger son and said,

"Your brother Esau comforts himself,
purposing to kill you.

⁴³Now therefore, my son, obey my voice, arise and flee to my brother Laban in Haran.

⁴⁴Dwell with him there for a little while, until your brother's wrath is turned away;

⁴⁵until his anger is turned from you and he forgets what you have done;

then I will send to bring you from there.

Why should it be that in one day, I should be bereaved of you both?"

⁴⁶Then Rebekah told Isaac, "I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth; they vex my soul.

If Jacob should take a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these who are the daughters of the land, what good shall my life be to me?"

For destiny would be fulfilled, despite the deception.

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, open the eyes of my spirit to every trick and trap of the enemy aimed at my divine rights in Christ, in Jesus' name Amen.
- Holy Spirit, I honor You; help me not to grieve You, but to hear You with clarity so I will walk daily with discernment, in the name of Jesus.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, I shall not surrender my blessings in Christ. I commit myself to live a life that gives full regard and honor to my blessing received by faith in Christ Jesus. Amen.
- I fan away with the blood of Jesus, every temptation of the flesh that will cause me to dishonor my divine nature, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, I thank You that I have all the blessings of Abraham, not by my own works but because of Your Son's death; let my life from this moment be worthy of such a precious cargo, in the name of Jesus.
- Father, forgive me of all my sins; help me to maintain a tender heart before You always; I declare that I shall not gamble with my eternity for one minute, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

I SEE steps to heaven,
Its foot on the earth;
Angels ascending and descending,
Ah yes! I see the Lord.
I guess I must be dreaming, running from reality;
He stood above the ladder;
then He spoke to me!

GENESIS 28

¹I see Esau still searching, but if Isaac he might please;
he heard Isaac charge Jacob,
"Do not take a wife of one of these.
Do not wed any of the daughters of Canaan."
²"Arise, go to Padan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father;
take a wife of the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother."
³"May God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful and increase, so that a multitude of peoples you may be;
⁴and give to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your descendants with you, that you may inherit the land in which you are a stranger, which God gave to Abraham."
⁵So Isaac sent Jacob away;
and to Padan Aram, to Laban, the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, his mother, he went.
⁶Esau saw that Isaac blessed Jacob, and sent him to Padan Aram to take himself a wife, and charged him saying, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan."
⁷and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone.

@I see Esau still searching, to please his father this one time.
⁸He realized that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac, ⁹so Esau went and took Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael, son of Abraham for his wife, in addition to the wives he had.
¹⁰So Jacob obeyed his parents and, while going from the land, after he set out from Bersheeba on his way to Haran, ¹¹he came to a place and stopped to spend the night at the setting of the sun.
He took some stones for a pillow, and while he was asleep, ¹²he saw a ladder, set up on the earth in his dream.
He saw the angels in motion, like men on mission sent;
he watched them climbing upward, and their workmen-like descent.
¹³Above it, a Shining One was standing;
it must have been a dream.
The Lord, he could not believe it!
Ah yes, he heard Him speak.
"I am the Lord God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac too;
the land on which you are lying, I will give it to you.
¹⁴"Your descendants will be as many, as the dust of the earth.
You shall spread out to the east and west, to the north, and to the south.
In you and in your descendants shall all families of the earth be blessed.
¹⁵"Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land;
for I will not leave you until all I have spoken to you I have done."
*@He was going back to the land from which Abraham was called;
but so he knew he would surely come back, he was met there by the Lord.*
¹⁶Jacob said as he awakened,
"Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it."
¹⁷He was awed and afraid, as he said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, the gate of heaven!
How awesome is this place!" he was so afraid.
¹⁸He rose up early the next morning, and set up for a pillar, the stone on which he slept.
He poured some oil on it,
¹⁹and he named it Bethel.
The city was named Luz previously.
²⁰There Jacob made a vow to God, saying, "If You will keep me in the way that I am going,
and give me food to eat and necessary clothing,

²¹so that I return to my father's house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God.

²²And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be the house of God, and I will give back to You a tenth of all You give to me."

SEVEN years hard labor,
Seven years of work;
Seven years of labor,
That is what his wife was worth.
But the morning after,

Jacob sang a different song,
For his wife was not Rachel
And he could not lose this one.
GENESIS 29

*@Seven years more labor,
you can get an advance;
fulfill her week now, Jacob,
and with Rachel you shall dance!
Seven years of labor
was as nothing in his sight;
fourteen years of labor was worth his heart's delight!*

¹So Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of people of the East.

²He saw a well before him and lying by it he saw three flocks of sheep.

A large stone was there for safety, on the mouth of the well it was placed.

³When all the flocks were gathered they would roll the stone away.

They would then water the sheep and the stone would be replaced.

⁴Jacob said to them, "My brethren, where are you from?"

They replied, "We are of Haran."

⁵He inquired there about Laban,
"Do you know Laban, Nahor's son."

They said, "We know him."

⁶He asked then about his health.

They said, "He is well; see, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep."

⁷He said, "Look, it is high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together.

Water your sheep and go make them feed."

⁸They replied, "We cannot;
until all the flocks are gathered and they have rolled the stone from the mouth of the well;

⁹we will water our sheep then."

While he was still speaking to them, Rachel came, with her father's sheep which she kept.

¹⁰When Jacob saw Rachel, his uncle Laban's daughter, he went near and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well, and watered Laban's flock.

¹¹Then Jacob kissed Rachel and he lifted up his voice, and wept while she stood wondering, tears flowing from his eyes.

¹²He then said to her, "I am your father's brother; I am Rebekah's son!"

She ran and told her father.

¹³When Laban heard the report about Jacob, his sister's son, he ran out to meet him.

He embraced him and kissed him and brought him back to his house.

And he told Laban all these things,

¹⁴and Laban said to him, "Surely you are my flesh and bone."

And he stayed with him for one month.

¹⁵Then Laban said to Jacob, "Should you serve with me for nothing, just because you are a brother?"

Name your wage; what shall it be?"

¹⁶And Laban had two daughters, the elder was Leah, the name of the younger was Rachel.

¹⁷Leah's eyes were cast, but Rachel was beautiful in appearance.

¹⁸Jacob loved Rachel.

He said, "I will serve seven years for Rachel your daughter."

¹⁹And Laban said, "It is better I give her to you than to another man." So he agreed.

²⁰So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, for his love was true; love made seven years of labor seem like days and just a few.

@Seven years hard labor, seven years of work; seven years of labor, that is what his wife was worth. But the morning after Jacob sang a different song, for his wife was never Rachel and he could not lose this one!

²¹Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for I have performed my obligation, that I may go in to her.

²²And Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast.

²³In the evening he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.

²⁴And Laban gave his maid servant Zilpah to be his daughter's maid servant.

²⁵In the morning, Jacob realized it was Leah. He said to Laban,

"What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve for Rachel? Why have you deceived me?"

²⁶And Laban said, "It must not be done like this in our country; the firstborn must first go.

²⁷"Seven years more labor, you can get an advance; fulfill her week now, Jacob, and Rachel too you shall have."

@Seven years of labor was as nothing in his sight, fourteen years of labor was worth his heart's delight!

²⁸When Leah's week was finished he received Rachel for his wife;

²⁹and Laban gave his maid servant Bilhah to be Rachel's maid servant.

³⁰And Jacob went in to Rachel, and loved her more than Leah; and he served with Laban yet another seven years.

³¹When the Lord saw Leah was hated, He opened up her womb; but Rachel was barren, she could not conceive.

³²So Leah conceived and bore a son; Reuben was his name; for she said, "Surely the Lord has seen my affliction; now my husband will love me!"

³³She conceived again, and bore another son and said, "Because the Lord has heard that I was hated He has given me this son too." She called his name Simeon.

³⁴And again she conceived and bore another son.

She said, "Now my husband will be attached to me because I have borne him three sons." Therefore his name was called Levi.

³⁵And she conceived again and bore another son, and said,

"Now I will praise the Lord indeed!"

Therefore she named him Judah.

And her childbearing ceased.

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, let every elusive dream I carry, be ushered to me now by fire, in the name of Jesus.
- By the power in the blood of Jesus, every spirit of deception operating in my environment to frustrate me, be frustrated now, in Jesus name.
- Lord God of heaven, give me an attitude of hard work and commitment in all my godly pursuits, until fulfilment, in the name of Jesus.
- Father, give me Your heart, so I will never show partiality, but instead seize the opportunity to inspire and to develop my charges, in the name of Jesus.

- Let every spirit of competition in my family or work environment be consumed by the fire of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus.
- My children shall be free to live their own destiny and not be selfishly named in my domestic disputes, in the name of Jesus.

But the weak were Laban's losses.

GENESIS 30

¹When Rachel saw she bore Jacob no child, she envied her sister and to Jacob she cried, "Give me children or else I die!"

²Jacob was angry with Rachel, and said, "Am I in God's place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

³So Rachel said, "Here is my maid servant Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear a child on my knees, that by her I may have children likewise."

⁴And she gave him Bilhah, her maid as wife; and Jacob went in to her at that time.

⁵And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

⁶And Rachel said, "God has heard my case, and He has also heard my voice and has given me a son."

Therefore she called his name Dan.

⁷And Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again, and she bore Jacob a second son.

⁸Then Rachel said, "With great wrestlings, I have wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed."

Therefore she called his name Naphtali.

⁹Now when Leah saw her childbearing had ceased, she took Zilpah her maid servant and gave her to Jacob as wife.

¹⁰And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

¹¹"A troop comes, a troop comes!" Leah said. And therefore she called his name Gad.

¹²Then Leah's maid, Zilpah, bore Jacob a second son.

¹³And Leah said, "I am happy for the daughters will call me blessed.

Asher shall be his name," she said.

¹⁴Then Reuben went out in the days of wheat harvest, and there he found mandrakes in the field.

He brought them to his mother, Leah.

And Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

¹⁵But Leah said to her, "Is it a small thing that you have taken my husband away?

Would you also take away my son's mandrakes?"

And Rachel said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."

¹⁶Leah went to meet Jacob in the evening as he came from the field, and said, "You must come in to me, for with my son's mandrakes I have hired you."

And Jacob lay with her that night.

¹⁷And God listened to Leah and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth son.

¹⁸And Leah said, "God has given me my wages, because I have given my maid servant to my husband."

So she called his name Issachar.

¹⁹And Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son.

²⁰And Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good reward;

I have borne my husband six sons, now he shall dwell with me."

And she called his name Zebulun.

²¹Leah bore a daughter afterwards, and called her name Dinah.

²²Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb.

²³And she conceived and bore a son.

And she said, "God has taken away my reproach."

²⁴So she called his name Joseph, and said, "The Lord shall add to me another son."

²⁵And Jacob said to Laban after Joseph was born,

"Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my own country.

²⁶Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you."

²⁷And Laban said to him, "If I have found favor in your sight, please stay; for experience has taught me that the Lord has blessed me for your sake.

²⁸I will give to you any wage that you name."

²⁹And Jacob said to him, "You know the manner in which I have served you, and how your livestock had been with me.

³⁰What you had before I came was little, now it has increased to a large number.

The Lord has blessed you since I came. Now, when will I provide for my own house also?"

³¹So he said, "What shall I give you?"

And Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything, if you will do this for me, I will feed and tend your flocks once more.

³²"Allow me to pass through all your flocks today, and remove the speckled sheep and those with spots; and all the brown lambs and the speckled and spotted goats;

and such shall be my wages.

³³So my righteousness will answer for me in the future when the subject of my wage comes to you.

Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, will be considered stolen if it is with me.”

³⁴And Laban said, “Let it be as you have spoken.”

³⁵So he removed that day the speckled, the spotted and the ringstraked goats, both male and female, and also all the brown lambs, and gave them into the hands of his sons.

³⁶Then they departed from Jacob, the distance of a journey of three days; and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

@Jacob the name, usurp the game; he used rods of green with peeled strips of white, so when the flocks conceived at the water troughs, they would be speckled and his by rights. Jacob increased; yes, he was rich with livestock and maids and asses.

The strong livestock conceived among the rods, but the weak were Laban’s losses.

³⁷Jacob took rods of poplar that were green, and of the hazel and chestnut tree he peeled white strips in them so the white in the rods were exposed.

³⁸He set these rods before the flocks in the water trough, so that they would conceive when they came to drink.

³⁹So the flocks conceived before the rods, and they brought forth, speckled, spotted and streaked.

⁴⁰And Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face towards the streaked, and all the brown in Laban’s flock, but he put his own flock by themselves; he did not put them with Laban’s flock.

⁴¹And so, when the stronger livestock conceived, Jacob laid the rods in the gutters, before their eyes, that they might conceive among the rods.

⁴²But he did not do this to the feeble flocks. So the feeble ones were Laban’s and the stronger his.

⁴³Thus Jacob increased exceedingly; yes, he was rich, with male and female servants and asses. He had much livestock and camels with them, but the weak were Laban’s losses.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, I have tried to do it my own way and I have failed, please remember me, in the name of Jesus.
- Father in Heaven help me not to wrestle with people I should be loving, in the name of Jesus. Let every wrestling between brethren in the body of Christ be fanned away by the blood of Jesus. Amen.
- King of Glory, let heaven reward me with breakthrough ideas for every injustice meted against me, in the name of Jesus. And let the God within me keep me honest, in Jesus name.
- Lord God of heaven and earth, channel to me all the resources I need to fulfil the mandate upon my life in the name of Jesus. I declare that I am a candidate to steward the wealth You will redistribute from those who will not honor You with it, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

ALL the rams that leap are speckled; I have given all to you. Speckled all, ringstraked and grizzled, Now it is time to go. The face of the times is changing fast; Laban’s face has changed to wrath. Ten times he has changed your wage, but know, To Canaan, the promise, you must go. See! All the rams are speckled, He can do nothing to you.

GENESIS 31

¹Jacob heard Laban’s sons say, “Jacob has taken all that were our father’s away.

From our father he has acquired all this wealth.”

²And Jacob saw that the look on Laban’s face, did not favor him as before.

³Then the Lord said to Jacob, “Return to the land of your father and relatives, and I will be with you.”

⁴So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to him, to his flock in the field, ⁵and said to them, “I see your father’s countenance; it is no longer favorable towards me, but the God of my father has been with me.

⁶“And you know I have served Laban with all my might,

⁷yet your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times, but the Lord did not permit him to hurt me.

⁸“If he said, ‘Your wage shall be the speckled’, then all the flocks bore speckled.

If he said, ‘The ring-streaked shall be your wages’, then all the flocks bore ring-streaked.

⁹So the Lord has taken away all the livestock that had been your father’s and has given them to me.

¹⁰“And at the time the cattle conceived, I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, and indeed, all the rams which leaped on the flocks were ring-streaked, speckled and grizzled.

¹¹“And the angel of the Lord spoke to me in a dream, saying, ‘Jacob.’ And I said, ‘Here I am.’

¹²And He said, ‘Lift up your eyes now and see. ‘All the rams which leap on the cattle are ring-streaked, speckled and grizzled; for I have seen all that Laban has done to you.

¹³‘I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar, and where you vowed a vow to Me. Now arise, get out of this land and return to the land of your relatives.’”

@To the land of the promise go.

The God who met him on his journey coming down was now ordering his return.

¹⁴Then Rachel and Leah both answered him, “Is there still any portion here for us in our father’s house?”

¹⁵“Are we not counted as strangers to him? For he has sold us and devoured our money.

¹⁶For all the riches that God has taken from our father belongs to us and to our children too; therefore, whatever God has said to you, this do.”

¹⁷Then Jacob rose up, and set his wives and his sons on camels.

¹⁸And he carried with him all his livestock and all his possessions which he had gained and acquired in Padan-aram, and he departed to go to his father in the land of Canaan.

¹⁹Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel had stolen the idols that belonged to her father.

²⁰And Jacob stole away, unknown to Laban the Syrian; he did not tell him he was leaving. ²¹So he fled with all his possessions. He arose and crossed over the river, and he then moved towards the mountains of Gilead.

²²And on the third day Laban was told Jacob fled.

²³Then Laban took his brethren with him and was up and away.

He pursued Jacob, a journey of seven days. In Mount Gilead he overtook him.

²⁴But the Lord God had appeared to Laban in a dream by night;

He said to him, “Take care that you do not speak to Jacob, neither good nor bad.”

²⁵So Laban overtook Jacob.

And Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountains.

In Mount Gilead Laban and his brethren also pitched.

²⁶Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done, that you have stolen away in secret without a word, and have carried away my daughters as when captives are taken with the sword?”

²⁷“Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me without telling me? I would have sent you away with laughter and songs, and with timbrel and harp.

²⁸“And you have not allowed me to kiss my sons and daughters.

In so doing, you have done foolishly.

²⁹“It is in the power of my hand to harm you, but last night I was met by your father’s God. He said, ‘You must take heed that you do not speak to Jacob, either good or bad.’”

³⁰“And though you need to go because you miss your father’s household, why have you stolen my gods?”

³¹Then Jacob answered Laban and said, “Because I was afraid, for I said, ‘Perhaps you would take your daughters by force from me.’”

³²“Now whomever you find with your gods, let him not live; kill that person.

In the presence of our brethren, determine what is yours, and take all that you identify that is yours.” Rachel had the images but Jacob did not know.

³³And Laban went into Jacob’s tent, into Leah’s tent, and into the maid servants’ tents also, but he did not find them, so into Rachel’s tent he went.

³⁴Now Rachel had taken the idols she had stolen and placed them in the camel’s saddle, and on them she sat.

And Laban searched all the tent, but he did not find them.

³⁵And she said, “My lord, I do not rise, but let it not displease you, for the custom of women is on me now.” And he searched, but he did not find the idols.

³⁶And Jacob chided Laban, for he was angry with him.
 And he said, "What is my trespass? What is my sin that you have so hotly pursued me?"
³⁷"You have searched all my belongings, what of your belongings have you found?
 Set it here before our brethren, mine and yours, that they may judge between us both."
³⁸"These twenty years I have been with you, your ewes and your female goats, have not cast their young.
 The rams of the flock I did not eat;
³⁹I did not bring to you that which was torn by beast, but I bore the loss of these; you required it of my hand.
 Whether stolen by day or night, the loss belonged to me.
⁴⁰"I was there; consumed by the heat in the day, and consumed by the frost by night.
 My sleep departed from my eyes."
⁴¹"Even so, I have been in your house for twenty years.
 I served fourteen years for your two daughters, and for the livestock I served six more.
 You have changed my wages ten times, but the God of my father has been sure."
⁴²Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, you would have sent me away empty.
 But God has seen my affliction and my labor, and has rebuked you last night."
⁴³And to Jacob, Laban replied,
 "These daughters and children are mine, and this livestock is my livestock; all you are looking at belongs to me.
 But what can I do to my daughters and to the children they have borne?"
⁴⁴Now therefore let us make a covenant, you and I,
 and let it be a witness between us both."
⁴⁵So Jacob took a stone and set it up for a pillar.
⁴⁶Then Jacob told his brethren to gather stones.
 And they took stones and made a heap, and on the heap they ate.
⁴⁷Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.
⁴⁸And Laban said, "This heap is a witness between us this day."
 Therefore, Galeed it was named,
⁴⁹and also Mizpah, for he said,
 "May the Lord watch between you and me, when from each other we are away."
⁵⁰"If you afflict my daughters in any way, or take other wives with them, although no man is with us, see, the Lord is witness between you and me."
⁵¹Then Laban said to Jacob, "Here is this heap and this pillar, I have placed between you and me."
⁵²"This heap and this pillar are witnesses that I will not pass over this heap to you for harm, neither will you pass over this heap and this pillar to me for harm."

⁵³"The God of Abraham and of Nahor, the God of their father judge between me and you."
 And by the Fear of his father, Isaac, Jacob swore.
⁵⁴Then Jacob offered sacrifice on the mountain, and he called his brethren to eat bread.
 And they ate and remained all night on the mountain.
⁵⁵Early in the morning Laban arose, and he kissed his sons and daughters, and he blessed them also.
 Then he left and went to his place.
@He came in wrath but left in peace; for though all the rams were grizzled, God had warned him, and he could not speak.

GENESIS 32

@No letting go until I am at peace; until I am free I have relief until the Lord God touches me, until a blessing is released.

¹The angels of God met Jacob as he went on his way

²When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the host of God", so he named the place Mahanaim.

³Then Jacob sent messengers to Esau, in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

⁴He commanded them, saying, "Say to my lord Esau, 'Your servant Jacob has come. He says, 'I have been dwelling with Laban and have dwelt there until now.

⁵'I have oxen, donkeys, flocks and servants, both male and female; and I have sent to tell my lord, that in your sight I may find grace.'" ⁶The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "To your brother Esau we came.

Esau is coming to meet you, and with him he has four hundred men."

⁷So Jacob was very afraid and he was distressed.

Esau comes, but why the army of 400 men?
He had no time to waiver, so he devised a plan;

he divided the people with him and the flocks, herds and camels, into two bands.

⁸If Esau comes and attacks one company, the other company will flee, and therefore the other company shall escape."

⁹Then Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the God who said to me, 'Return to your country and to your relatives, and with you I will deal well.'

¹⁰"I am not worthy of the least of Your mercies, and of all the truth which You have shown me, for with my staff I have crossed over Jordan, and now I am become two companies.

¹¹"Deliver me from my brother's hand, I pray, and from the hand of Esau, for I fear him terribly, lest he come and attack me and the mothers and children too.

¹²For You said, 'I shall surely do you good, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'"

¹³That same night he lodged there, and took for his brother a present of what was close at hand:

¹⁴two hundred female goats, and two hundred male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, ¹⁵thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.

¹⁶Then he delivered them to his servants, each drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and between each drove put a little space."

¹⁷He commanded the first one, saying, "When my brother Esau meets you and he says to you,

'Who are you? Where do you go? And who do these belong to?'

¹⁸Say, 'To your servant Jacob they belong; it is a present sent to you, Esau my lord; and behold he is behind us now.'"

¹⁹And so he commanded the second, the third, and all those who were with the droves, saying,

"Speak in this manner to Esau when you find him;

²⁰and also say, 'Behold your servant Jacob is behind us.'"

For he said, "I will appease him with the presents that I send ahead of me, and afterwards his face I shall see; perhaps then he will accept me."

²¹So the present went on over before him, but he himself lodged that night with the company.

²²That night he arose and he took his two wives, his two female servants and his eleven sons, and over the ford of Jabbok he crossed.

²³He sent them over the brook, and with them, all that he had.

²⁴And Jacob was left alone.

*@Cannot go back, nowhere to go!
Alone, afraid, distressed and sad;
alone when things were really bad;
separated, distraught, pouring out his heart;
away from men, alone with God.*

Alone no more, a Man has come.
 Jacob held on to Him in desperation
 Until day break, no letting go.
Prevail I must, I need it so!
²⁵When He saw He did not prevail, the Man touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh;
 yet Jacob wrestled on though his hip came out of joint.
²⁶"Let Me go!" He said; "For the day now breaks."
 "I will not let You go!" Jacob said;
 "No letting go until I am blessed!
 Unless You bless me I will still wrest!"
²⁷So He said to him, "Now tell Me, what is your name?" He said, "Jacob."
²⁸Then he heard Him say,
 "You shall no longer be called Jacob, from this day Israel shall now be your name.
 "For as a prince you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed."
*@Prevailing prayer positively pays;
 no letting go through storm or hail.*
²⁹"Please tell me Your name?" Jacob asked Him then.
 "Why do you ask My name?" He said.
 And He blessed Jacob there.
³⁰So Jacob named the place Peniel, for he said, "I have seen God face to face, and indeed my life is spared."
³¹As he passed over Penuel, on him the sun arose, and on his hip he limped.
³²Therefore to this day, the children of Israel do not eat the muscle that shrank, which is on the socket of the thigh, for He touched the socket of Jacob's hip in the muscle that shrank that night.

FOUR hundred men strong they will come,
But your strength is with the Lord.
Four hundred men strong, but when all is done the tears will say it all.
Four hundred men ready for war;
This was the moment they were waiting for.
But Esau ran; they kissed, wept and embraced.
The emotions swept 400 men away.
For Jacob's battle was already won,
Not with 400 but with One.

GENESIS 33

¹Jacob lifted up his eyes and saw Esau then; he came and with him were four hundred men.
 So he divided the children between Rachel, Leah and the two maid servants.
²He placed the maid servants and their children first in line, then Leah, then Rachel and Joseph behind.
³He then crossed over before them then, and seven times to the ground, he bowed himself.
 He did this until he came near to his brother.
⁴But Esau ran to meet him and they embraced.
 He then fell on his neck, and kissed him and together they wept.
@While four hundred pairs of surprised, teary eyes looked on.

Jacob's battle was already fought and won. They saw Esau's heart change, but they could never see Jacob's fight the night before on a different battlefield.

⁵When Esau lifted up his eyes, he saw the women and children;

"Who are these with you?" he asked him then.

"The children God has graced me with," Jacob said.

⁶Then the maid servants came near with their children and bowed themselves.

⁷Then Leah and her children came and bowed, and Joseph and Rachel came near and also bowed.

⁸Then Esau said, "What do you mean by the droves I met?"

"These are to find favor with you," Jacob said.

⁹And Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; what you have keep."

¹⁰And Jacob said, "No, please, if I have found favor with you, take this blessing of me; inasmuch as I have seen your face as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me.

¹¹"Please, take my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me and I have enough."

So he urged him and he took them from Jacob.

¹²And Esau said, "Let us take our journey and go, and I will now go before you."

¹³But Jacob said to him, "The children are tender, my lord you know, and I have herds and flocks with young also; If we overdrive them in one day all the flocks will die.

¹⁴Please let my lord go on ahead before his servant, I will continue slowly behind, just as the livestock and children can endure, until I come to my lord at Seir."

¹⁵*Of the 400 men who were his strength,* He offered to leave some behind to be Jacob's help.

But Jacob said, "There is no need; in your sight let me find grace."

¹⁶So with his four hundred men Esau returned on his way to Seir.

¹⁷Jacob journeyed to Succoth where he built a house, and made booths for his livestock; therefore the place is called Succoth.

¹⁸And Jacob came safely to a city of Shechem, in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, and before the city he pitched his tent.

¹⁹And He bought the parcel of land where he had pitched his tent for one hundred pieces of silver from the children of Hamor, the father of Shechem, and upon it he spread his tent.

²⁰And he erected there an altar, and called the name El-Elohe-Israel.

@An altar of worship, for by experience, he knew the victories that emanate from the Lord's presence.

Build an altar of thanksgiving, for in worship there is strength.

Esau came and left with his 400 men.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, I renounce and relinquish everything in my life that prevents You from fighting my battles, in Jesus name.
- Great problem solver, great burden bearer, the God who calms troubled waters, please calm the storms in my life, in the name of Jesus.
- Father, in the name of Jesus, dispatch Your host of angels to fight against every spirit that opposes me and my destiny, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God I align my ways to You so that my hostile opponents will become my submissive friends in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- God of wisdom, knowledge and understanding, give me the divine wisdom to break down my enemies from the inside and to vanquish the spirit of opposition that energises their hostility, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord Jesus, I commit my entire body, soul and spirit into Your hands, and construct my altar to You my God, El-Elohe; deal with me according to your righteousness, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

SISTERS, have you been caused offense?
Sisters shall come to your defense.
Sisters, have you suffered wrong?

Justice shall come; it will not be long.

GENESIS 34

¹Dinah, Jacob's daughter, who of Leah was born, went out to see the daughters of the children of the land.
²But when the prince of the country, Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, saw her, he took her to bed; she was defiled.
³After doing the evil act, Shechem ached for her; his soul was fixed on Dinah, Jacob's daughter, indeed he was in love. He spoke kind words to her therefore.
⁴And Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this young woman as a wife father, I ask this of you please."
⁵Now when Jacob heard he defiled Dinah his daughter, he held his peace; for his sons were with the livestock in the field so he left it until they came.
⁶Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to speak with Jacob.
⁷Eleven angry men were Jacob's sons. In Israel, this was disgraceful; this folly should not be done. For when the sons of Jacob heard it, they came in from the field; an offense to a sister had left them very grieved.
⁸Angry men listened, as they heard Hamor say, "My son loves Dinah; let her be his wife I pray."
 Angry men must take a stand. As he said, "Make marriages with us, dwell in our land.
⁹"Make marriages with us; give your daughters to us and take of our daughters for your wives.
¹⁰"So you shall dwell with us in all the land, in any place. Stay here and trade, acquire property here, let us integrate."
¹¹To her father and brothers Shechem pleaded, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you ask me I will give."
¹²"Ask me the dowry you desire, and gift, and I will give likewise. Just let me have the young woman for my wife."
¹³Angry men spoke to Shechem and Hamor in deceit, ¹⁴"This is against our just belief. To give a sister to one who is uncircumcised, would be a reproach in our eyes.
¹⁵"You may have her, but just one way: circumcise you must and also every male.
¹⁶"You must become as we are. Circumcise all, else we shall all go. Then we will give you our daughters, and your daughters we will take;

and we will dwell with you, and become one people then.
¹⁷"If you will not be circumcised as we ask, we will take our daughter and be gone."
¹⁸Their words were pleasing to Hamor and Shechem, his son;
¹⁹so the young man did not delay to have it done. He was more honorable than his house, and Dinah was his delight; do what he must, this he would do to set things right.
²⁰When Shechem and Hamor his son came to the city gate, they spoke to the men of the city, saying:
²¹"These men are at peace with us, let us let them stay, let them dwell in the land and also trade. The land is large enough. Let them marry to our daughters and we to theirs.
²²"But only on this condition will they consent to stay, if we circumcise among us every male as they are circumcised as well."
²³Will not their livestock, their property and all their animals be ours; only let us consent to them in this.
²⁴All who went out of the city obeyed Hamor and Shechem his son; every male was circumcised who from the city gate went out.
@Sister, have you been caused offense? Simeon and Levi to your defense.
²⁵It came to pass, on the third day when the men were sore, Simeon and Levi came boldly upon the city with their swords, and they killed all the males.
²⁶They killed Hamor and Shechem with the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house and went out.
²⁷Then the sons of Jacob came upon the deceased, and plundered the city, because their sister was defiled.
²⁸They took the sheep, the oxen, and the donkeys in the city and in the field;
²⁹they took all the wealth, and all their little ones and wives captive; and they plundered all that was in the houses.
³⁰And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have troubled me by making me a stench among all the people of the land. Among the Canaanites and the Perizzites and since I am few, they will gather against me and destroy me, both me and my household."
³¹But they replied, "Should a sister be troubled, and we are not? Should a sister be taken for a harlot? Should a sister be made to feel offense and brothers not plead for her defense?"
@As they acted in this manner, they showed it was much worse not to defend a sister, than to put safety first.

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, give me self-restraint in dealing with members of the opposite sex, in the name of Jesus.
- Father remove every lustful spirit from my heart, in the name of Jesus. Let every spirit of lust attacking me be fanned away by the blood of Jesus. Amen.
- My Father, my God, help me not to surrender to lustful temptations on the presumption or excuse of marriage, but to honor You completely in my dating, so You will honor me in marriage, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Lord God of Abraham, help me not to make any covenant with sinners that is inconsistent with my destiny and Your calling on my life; in the name of Jesus.
- O Lord God of hosts, most holy God, give me a heart of integrity to keep every covenant I make, in the name of Jesus.
- Let every deceptive spirit attacking me or seeking to control me, receive the judgment fire of God now, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, I stand in defence of every sister or brother who has been wronged or abused. I call forth Michael and His warring angels to rise to their defence now, in the name of Jesus. Holy Spirit, comfort and restore them speedily. Erase every bitter memory and replace them with good ones, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

IN covenant, then in His care;
All that will harm must retreat in fear.
They will say, "Cannot go face them, and face God's horror;
They are small in number but... their God is terror!"

GENESIS 35

@He is the God who came to me when I fled before;

when I fled from Esau, He was there for sure.

¹Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go dwell in Bethel; make an altar to God there, who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau's face."

²And Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the strange gods among you, purify yourselves,

Time to be holy and different, and to make it seen, and to change your garments; it is time to be clean.

³Then let us arise and go to Bethel, and I will make an altar to God there, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me all the way."

⁴So they took all the foreign gods they had, and all earrings from their ears, and placed them under the oak at Shechem, and Jacob hid them there.

⁵As they journeyed the terror of God was on the cities all around them, yes they knew, Jacob and his sons had departed, and they could not pursue.

@God will protect purpose and everyone called by grace; everyone who will move to harm you, will know terror face to face.

⁶So Jacob came to Luz in Canaan, which is Bethel by name; he and everyone with him.

⁷He built an altar there to God; he called the place El-Bethel, for there God appeared to him, when from his brother he fled, ⁸and there Deborah, Rachel's nurse, died, and below Bethel under the oak tree she was buried; so they named it Allon-bachuth.

⁹Then God appeared to Jacob again, and had blessed him, when from Padan-aram he came.

¹⁰And God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, but your name shall be called Jacob no more," "Your name shall be Israel." So He called his name Israel.

¹¹And God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall come from you and kings shall come from your loins.

12¹²I give you the land which I gave to Abraham and to Isaac, and to your descendants after you I give this land.”

13¹³Then God went up from him, in the place where He talked with him.

14¹⁴So Jacob set up a pillar of stone in the place where He talked with him, and he poured oil and drink offerings on it.

15¹⁵And Jacob called the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

16¹⁶Then he moved from Bethel, and when they were only a little distance from Ephrath, Rachel labored in childbirth and her labor was hard.

17¹⁷And so it was, when she was in hard labor, the midwife said to her, “Do not fear, Rachel; you will have this son also.”

18¹⁸And as she was dying(for she died), she named her son Ben-oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

19¹⁹Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem.

20²⁰And Jacob set a pillar on her grave; and to this day it is the pillar of Rachel’s grave.

21²¹And Israel pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder as he journeyed from there.

@Careful Reuben; beginning of Jacob’s strength, maintain control!

The jealousy is over, Rachel is dead; let it go!

22²²As Israel dwelt in the land, Reuben went and lay carnally with Bilhah, his father’s concubine; and Israel heard of it.

Now Jacob’s sons were twelve, and those twelve were:

23²³the sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn; Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun; 24²⁴Joseph and Benjamin, the sons of Rachel;

25²⁵Dan and Nephtali, the sons of Bilhah, Rachael’s maid servant;

26²⁶and Gad and Asher, the sons of Zilpah, Leah’s maid servant.

These were Jacob’s sons who were born to him in Padan-aram.

27²⁷Then to Isaac his father, at Mamre, Jacob moved, this was the same Kirjath Arba, or Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac dwelt.

28²⁸Isaac lived for a hundred and eighty years.

29²⁹And Isaac died, old and full of days, and his sons Easu and Jacob buried him.

@Israel had God’s covenant, and by experience Israel knew:

when in covenant you are in His care; all those who will harm you will retreat in fear.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, I lay aside every idol in my heart and fully surrender myself to You, in the name of Jesus.
- O Lord my God, You are my shield and my defence, and my strong wall of protection in the times of trouble.
- Lord of hosts, mighty God, let Your terror fall upon everyone who is plotting my harm, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, thank You for unrestricted access to Your throne; help me to value my prayer altar and to tabernacle there and not just resort.
- Let my prayer altar receive fresh fire from heaven now, in the name of Jesus.
- Father help me to value everything You have given to me because of my new birth in Christ. Help me not to surrender my birthright in You for one moment of flesh or any other good excuse, in the name of Jesus.
- I reverse every negative name or pronouncement over my life and the lives of my children, even if it was justified in the moment, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

WHEN God makes you an “heir to stay,” And someone else stands in your way, God blesses you; and they will know You are here to stay, so they will peacefully go.

GENESIS 36

¹This is the genealogy of Esau, who is Edom.

²Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan:

Adah the Hittite, daughter of Elon and Aholibamah daughter of Anah the Hivite, the daughter of Zibeon;

³He also took Basemath, Ishmael’s daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

⁴And Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel.

⁵Aholibamah bore: Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were Esau's sons who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁶Then Esau took his wives, his sons, and his daughters, and every person of his household, his cattle, his animals, and all his possessions which he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went into the country, far away from his brother, Jacob's presence.

⁷Their wealth was too great for them to share the land, and their livestock were too many for the land to bear.

@Though he was once filled with anger and with hate,

Esau was now happy to go, to give Jacob his rightful place.

When God makes you an "heir to stay" and someone else stands in your way, God blesses you, and they will know; the one you feared will peacefully go.

⁸So Esau went to dwell in Mount Seir with all his wives.

Esau is Edom, the father of the Edomites.

⁹This is the genealogy of Esau in Mount Seir.

¹⁰These are the names of Esau's sons:

Eliphaz the son of Adah, Esau's wife, and Reuel the son of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹¹The sons of Eliphaz were: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz, the total five.

¹²Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, son of Esau; to him she bore Amalek. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

¹³These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹⁴These were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife; she bore Esau: Jeush, Jaalam and Korah.

¹⁵And in Mount Seir, Edom grew in number. From him came many dukes:

Duke Teman, Duke Omar, Duke Zepho, Duke Kenaz,

¹⁶Duke Korah, Duke Gatam, and Duke Amalek. These were dukes of Eliphaz in Edom, all sons of Adah.

¹⁷Of Reuel, Esau's son, the dukes were four, Duke Nahath, Duke Zerah, Duke Shammah, and Duke Mizzah.

These were sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹⁸The dukes of Aholibamah, Esau's wife were: Duke Jeush, Duke Jaalam, and Duke Korah.

¹⁹These were the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these were their dukes.

²⁰The sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land, were: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

²¹Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.

These were dukes of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

²²The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam and Lotan's sister was Timna.

²³The sons of Shobal were: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

²⁴Ajah and Anah were Zibeon's sons. It was Anah who found hot springs in the wilderness as he pastured the donkeys of Zibeon his father.

²⁵Anah had two children; Dishon, and Aholibamah his daughter.

²⁶Dishon had four sons: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

²⁷Ezer's sons were: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

²⁸Uz and Aran were the sons of Dishan.

²⁹The dukes of the Horites were: Shobal, Zibeon, Anah and Lotan; ³⁰Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were all dukes of the Horites in Seir.

³¹These are the kings who reigned in Edom before any king reigned in Israel:

³²Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom in the city of Dinhabah.

³³Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place when he died.

³⁴He was succeeded by Husham of the land of the Temanites.

³⁵Hadad the son of Bedad who smote Midian in the field of Moab succeeded him. The name of the city was Avith.

³⁶When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

³⁷When Samlah of Masrekah died, Saul of Rehoboth succeeded him.

³⁸Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor succeeded Saul.

³⁹Hadar succeeded Baal-Hanan after he died. The name of the city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

⁴⁰These are the dukes of Esau, eleven dukes came of him;

they were: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

⁴¹Aholibamah, Elah, and Pinon,

⁴²Kenaz, Teman, and Mibzar,

⁴³Magdiel and Iram.

These were the dukes of Edom, according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession.

Esau was the father of the Edomites.

@Know you will expand and increase, kings will reign on your thrones if you respect what God is blessing and you leave the blessed alone.

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Possess your possession by faith.
2. Serve the Lord faithfully and your enemy will serve you; seek the kingdom persistently and everything will be added.
3. Never have a mindset to share God's inheritance, it is not yours to share, it is God's.
4. God may defeat them with power, or He may defeat them with blessing, either way, they will go to their own place.

- 5. The enemy cannot withstand your prayers, keep praying.
- 6. Your possession is not the place for the opposition to your vision to settle; they must find their own place.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, let every Esau spirit expanding in my inheritance be fanned away by the blood of Jesus. Amen.
- O God my Father, let every stubborn person holding on to things that belong to me, let go and find their own place now, in Jesus' name.
- Lord God of Israel, I pray for the peace of Israel; let every person militating against the nation of Israel, be fanned away by the blood of Jesus. Amen.
- Mighty God, let every foreign spirit expanding in the possession of the church scatter and contract, in Jesus' name. Amen.
- O God who turns hearts just as You bend rivers, change the heart of every Muslim, give them a divine encounter with You so they too will have an eternal hope, in the name of Jesus.

DREAM on, brother, dream on I say, Though there are some who are filled with hate; But all the things they say and do, Cannot stop your dreams from coming true.

GENESIS 37

¹Israel lived in the land in which his father was a stranger, in Canaan.
²Joseph being seventeen years old went out with his brothers, to feed the flock. With the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives he went, and he brought back to his father a bad report of them.
Many colours is the way Israel's love was expressed;
³Joseph was the son of Israel's old age and therefore he loved him above the rest. many ways there were to let it out; Israel made Joseph a many-coloured coat.
⁴When his brothers saw what Israel did, how his father loved Joseph more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak to him in a peaceful way. @A many-coloured love had just made way for a burning multi-coloured hate.
Dream on brother, shhh...! Do not tell your dream; they will hate you more because of it.
⁵Joseph had a dream and he told it to his brothers and they hated him more because of it.
⁶For he said to them, "Please hear this dream that I have dreamed:

⁷"In the field we were, binding sheaves, and behold, my sheaf stood upright and yours stood all around, and to my sheaf, your sheaves bowed down."
⁸"Shall you rule us, Joseph? Shall you indeed have dominion over us?" His brothers said.
 And they hated him even more, because of his dream and because of his words.
@Dream on, brother; you are seeing far; did you say, "Sun, moon, and eleven stars?"
⁹Joseph dreamed another dream and this to his brothers he told, saying, "I had another dream; to me the sun moon and the eleven stars bowed down."
Dream on, brother; but hold your tongue.
¹⁰He told it to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him, saying, "What is this you are dreaming, shall your mother and father and your brothers bow down to you?"
¹¹Joseph earned the envy of his brothers, but all he said his father Israel observed.
¹²His brothers went to feed their father's flocks in Shechem.
¹³And Israel said to Joseph, "Your brothers are feeding the flocks at Shechem, let me send you to them."
 And he said, "Here I am."
¹⁴Then he said, "See it is well with your brothers and the flocks, now Joseph, go, what you have discovered, come back and let me know."
 So he sent him from the Valley of Hebron and to Shechem he went.
¹⁵A certain man found him, wandering in the field.
 He asked him saying, "What do you seek?"
¹⁶"My brothers and the flocks," Joseph said.
¹⁷He said, "They left for Dothan."
 So Joseph went there and found them.
¹⁸They saw him from a distance, before he came near, and they conspired against him to kill him there.
¹⁹They said to each other, "The dreamer is coming, see!
"Let us lead him back to reality.
²⁰"The dreamer is coming, let us kill him and throw his body in a pit; 'A wild beast has slain him', let us say this. Today we will see what all this means; what shall become of all his dreams."
²¹But Reuben heard and he delivered him, saying, "Let us not kill him."
²²He said to them, "Why shed blood? Why should you kill?
 Cast him into a pit in the wilderness; do not lay a hand on him."
 Reuben had hoped to spare the pain, and to bring Joseph back to his father again.
²³So it came to pass that when Joseph came, his brothers took his multi-coloured coat away.

²⁴They took him and cast him into a pit. The pit had no water inside, it was empty. If they felt guilt it was concealed.

²⁵*Satisfied*, they sat down for a meal. They lifted their eyes and saw a company of Ishmaelites; they were coming from Gilead and going to Egypt with their camels bearing myrrh, balm, and precious spices.

"Hey look! A company of Ishmaelites comes."

²⁶Judah said, "He is our brother and our flesh; let not our hand be upon him to put him to death.

What do we profit if we kill him and conceal his blood?"

²⁷"Let us not lay hands on him, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites."

Together they agreed and took his advice.

@What use are dreams when you are stalled: a big pitfall and four pit walls.

But then you see the colours change; you are taken out but hate remains.

²⁸Twenty shekels of silver, they paid the price; Joseph was sold to the Ishmaelites.

To Egypt bound, Joseph was carried; Saved from death but enslaved in life.

²⁹Reuben returned to the pit after they left. Joseph was not in the pit; he was distressed.

³⁰He returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is gone, where shall I go?"

³¹They took Joseph's coat and killed a goat, and dipped it in the blood.

@A colored coat, now marred with blood, the colored coat of Israel's love.

³²They took the coat of many colors, and to their father the coat they brought, saying, "We have found this. Is it your son's coat or not?"

³³He recognized it, "It is my son's coat," he said.

A visual impression of a son now dead.

"A wild beast has devoured him for sure; Joseph is torn to pieces without a doubt."

³⁴Israel put sackcloth on himself and tore his clothes, and for many day, his son he mourned.

³⁵From his sons and his daughters comfort came, but Israel refused to be comforted, nothing could ease this pain!

Israel beheld the colored coat and wept; "I shall go down to the grave mourning my son," he said.

³⁶Joseph was carried into Egypt, a merchant's load; and to Potiphar, Pharaoh's captain, he was sold.

@Distressed and in a foreign land, away from love, but dream right on.

For when by acts of life the colours change, by dreams and visions you will be sustained.

- Father God I commit my life to You, my destiny is in Your hands, guide me through my tunnels of darkness to that perfect day, in Jesus name.

HIS firstborn was called Er,

And his firstborn erred.

His name really meant, Watch,

But the vision he did not catch,

For he chose a path of wickedness;

But the wage of sin is always death.

Onan erred; Judah erred too; what is it with Tamar now?

He was... or was he, faced with a harlot in his house?

GENESIS 38

¹At that time Judah went down to his brothers, and went to a certain woman named Hirah,

an Adullamite.
2There he saw the daughter of Shua, a certain Canaanite.
He married her and went in to her.
3She conceived and bore a son and he named him Er; which means watchful.
4She conceived again and bore a son, and she named him Onan.
5She again conceived and bore a third son, and he was named Shelah.
He was at Chezib when he was born.
6Then Judah took Tamar to be Er's wife.
7But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the Lord's sight, and the Lord killed him because of his wickedness.
8Judah then said to his son Onan, "Go, marry Tamar to raise a heir up to your brother as is the custom."
9But Onan knew the son would not be his, therefore when he went in to his brother's wife, he spilt the seed on the ground, so he would not raise up a heir to his brother.
10This displeased God, so God slew him too.
11Then Judah said, "Tamar, you shall remain a widow in your father's house until Shelah my son is grown."
So Tamar his daughter-in-law went to her father's house to reside, for Judah feared that just as his other brothers, Shelah too would die.
12Tamar waited as time went by, until the daughter of Shua, Judah's wife, had died.
Judah was comforted, and so to his sheepshearers at Timnah he went;
with him was Hirah the Adullamite, his friend.
13Tamar was told that Judah was going to Timnah to shear his sheep, and in her heart a plan was conceived.
14"I will take the widow's garment off, and be tender and soft once again,
I will wrap myself and cover myself with a veil."
This she did, and she sat in an open place, when he would pass to Timnah on his way.
For she said, "Shelah is grown and I am not made his wife;
how else am I to have a child?"
15So Judah saw his daughter-in-law there in an open place and thought she was a harlot, for she had covered her face.
16So he turned in to her by the way, saying,
"Please let me come in to you."
For he did not know who she was, that in truth, she was his daughter-in-law.
She said, "What will you give me in exchange?"
17He said, "A kid from the flock shall be your pay."
As a guarantee she desired a pledge.

her at her request.
All these items Tamar received;
then Judah went in to her and she conceived.
19She arose, departed and took off the veil, and put her widow's garment back on again.
20And Judah sent the goat kid with his friend the Adullamite to receive his pledge and give her the hire.
21"Where is the harlot?" he asked. She could not be found.
"She operates openly in this place?" "No there was none."
22So he returned to Judah and told him the tale,
the men said there was no harlot in that place.
23So Judah said, "The staff and signet that bear my name,
let her take them, lest we be put to shame.
For I did send the young goat and she was not found."
24But three months later he would know;
for to Judah it was told.
Where is the harlot? She is in your house.
"Tamar your daughter-in law has gone out of line, she has played the harlot and now she is with child."
Judah said, "Bring her out and let her be burned!"
Abstain, a lesson that all must learn.
25*Where is the harlot? What has she sent?*
Oh no, my bracelets, my staff, and my signet!
She said, "I am with child by the man to whom these belong,
Here is the tune, you sing the song."
26Judah acknowledged them and said in guilt,
"She is no harlot, let her live.
She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah my child."
And he did not know her intimately again.
27When it was time for giving birth, twins were in her womb;
heirs raised unto Er, and not one but two.
28When she was giving birth, the hand of one came out and the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on the hand that came out, saying, "He indeed is first."
29But he surprisingly drew back his hand, and his brother came out instead;
and she said, "How did you break through?
This breach be on you!" Therefore he was named Perez.
30Afterwards his brother came, and on his hand was the scarlet tread; he was named Zerah.
Finally heirs to Er, after much drama.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father, give me the heart to cover my brothers and sisters and to preserve their Godly heritage, in the name of Jesus.
- Lord Jesus, I wash myself in Your blood; preserve my heart from transgression and my feet from slipping, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- I declare that I shall not surrender the symbols of my authority to harlotry, in the name of Jesus.
- O Righteous Judge, remove every spirit of judgment from my heart, instead let me be constantly surrendered to You as I judge myself by the standards of Your word, in Jesus name. Amen.

THE eye of the master is on you;
"You make me blessed, do what you do."

The eye of the master is on you;
 Oh and yes! The eye of his wife too.
 A prosperous man is in the house;
 Potiphar left to him all that he owned.
 "All that I have you shall oversee,"
 For I will take a ride with prosperity.

GENESIS 39

- ¹The Ishmaelites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, captain of the Egyptian guard.
²The Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man, and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.
³Potiphar saw, yes, he was shrewd, the Lord was with Joseph and did him good.

The Lord made everything he did prosper in his hand;
⁴so Joseph found favor in the sight of his master, the Egyptian.

He made Joseph overseer of his house, and all that he had he placed under Joseph's control.

⁵And from the time he made Joseph overseer, the Lord blessed his house for Joseph's sake; the blessing of the Lord made his substance great.

The Lord blessed all he had in the house and in the field.

I will invest in this blessing for maximum yield.

⁶Potiphar took no responsibility and knew only what he ate;

into Joseph's care he left everything else.

Joseph was a handsome man and favored well.

@In God's presence he wisely conducted himself. Joseph, the eye of the master is on you!

He has been blessed because of all you do;

@The eye of the master is on you!

And, Oh, yes! The eye of his wife too.

⁷Someone was watching Joseph with great desire.

It was the eye of the master's wife.

She said to Joseph, "Lie with me."

⁸But Joseph refused, saying, "What is with me in the house, my master does not know he has committed everything to me; he trusts me so.

⁹"Above me there is none greater in his house; he has kept back nothing from me but you alone; and it is just because you are his wife. I cannot do this, and sin against my God with this great wickedness!"

¹⁰Day after day she insisted and nagged, but Joseph did not give heed to carnally lie with her; he honored God.

@Day after day, but do not give in; all your gain is lost in one moment's sin. Be careful, for the woman is obsessed; someone is out to have the blessed.

¹¹Be careful for the house is not safe;

This is no normal business day.

Not safe, for no other man is there, but a woman obsessed lurking somewhere.

Joseph went in to do his work;

This was the time that she had been waiting for.

¹²"I have you now, come lie with me!"

Leave the garment and go; run, Joseph, flee!

She took hold of his garment and she held on, but he ran outside and left it in her hand.

@Has he denied me once again?

Well sweet revenge will ease my pain.

She then conceived an evil plan,

¹³When she looked at his garment in her hand.

¹⁴With her voice raised high, the woman cried; "That Hebrew came to mock me!" the woman lied.

"The amorous came to lie with me; I cried, he ran, his garments; see!
 15When I lifted my voice and cried, he left his garment and fled outside."
 @His lamp blown out as with a flame; gone was his freedom and his good name.
 16She kept the garment until the master came home,
 17and spoke to him with these conniving words,
 "The Hebrew servant you brought us came to mock me," she said;
 18"And when I lifted my voice, he left his garment with me and fled."
 @Joseph, the wrath of the woman is on you; oh, and yes! The wrath of the master too.
 19When he heard the words that his wife spoke, saying, "Your servant did this," his anger was aroused.

20To prison sent, no help around; to the place where the king's prisoners were bound.
 @What good are dreams when you are stalled? A big pitfall and four cell walls! Alone, abused, bound and depressed. For what? For truth and innocence! Sold by my brothers; now this has come. Fear not, God is with you when you are down.

21The Lord was with Joseph and showed mercy to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22The keeper of the prison committed all the prisoners to Joseph's hand, and everything done in the prison, he was in charge.

23The keeper of the prison did not look to anything Joseph did, for the Lord was with him and prospered him in everything.

@Joseph, the eye of the keeper is on you; he trusted everything Joseph would do. The eye of the keeper is on you. And, oh, yes! The eye of the Lord your God too. Yes, the eye of the Lord is roving, and if you stand for truth, the eye of the Lord will rest steadfastly upon you.

I am in prison and I want to be free. I am captive bound; yes, I have a name But what good is it if I wear these chains? Honor and wealth can never satisfy; Freedom should be man's first 'soul cry'.

GENESIS 40

1And after these things, the chief baker and chief butler of Pharaoh king of Egypt, incited his wrath; they offended him, 2Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, he placed them in prison, in the house of the captain of the guard.
 3In the place where Joseph was found; disconsolate, dejected, grief stricken, and alone.
 4The captain of the guard placed both men in Joseph's charge and he served them.

They were in custody for a while.

⁵After a season both men, the butler and the baker, had dreams;

both on the same night, what will this mean?

⁶When Joseph came in to them that morning, they were both sad.

⁷So he asked Pharaoh's officers, "Tell me, what is wrong?"

⁸They said we both had dreams and there is no one to interpret, and to reveal what they mean."

Joseph said, "Interpretation belongs to God. Please tell me the dreams."

@Sold by his brothers and imprisoned; all hope seemed lost, but God was working all things together for good on his behalf.

⁹The chief butler told his dream to Joseph, saying, "I saw a vine in my dream;

¹⁰"and in the vine, there were three branches. It was as though it budded and then blossomed, and then ripe grapes came forth.

¹¹"And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took them and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup.

And I placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

¹²Joseph said, "This is the interpretation, the branches are three days.

¹³"Within three days Pharaoh will lift your head and restore you to your place again.

You will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand once more, as when you were his butler before."

¹⁴"But I am not satisfied, remember me. Tell the Pharaoh that I would be free.

¹⁵Stolen away from the Hebrews' land, I did nothing to be here in this dungeon.

@When it is well with you, think on my name, I can never be satisfied in chains."

¹⁶"Your dream is good, I will tell mine too: white baskets, I saw three, just as you.

The three baskets were on my head."

¹⁷"They had baker's meats to fill the mouth; and the birds came down and ate them out, directly from the basket on my head."

¹⁸So Joseph answered and said.

"This is the interpretation of your dream: three days is what the three baskets mean.

¹⁹In three days Pharaoh will cut off your head and hang you on a tree; and from there your flesh, the birds will eat."

²⁰Two days then passed, and on day three it was Pharaoh's birthday; he held a feast.

He lifted the head of the chief butler then, and also the chief baker's head.

²¹He said, "Bring the butler back; let him be restored,

Let him place the cup in Pharaoh's hand once more."

²²And he hanged the chief baker then; it was just as Joseph had said.

Tell someone, "Please remember me!"

²³The chief butler forgot, though he was set free.

@Known in prison, but do you not see, I would rather be unknown and have my liberty. Not satisfied, how can you be; if you have gained the world, but you are not free?

How can one be satisfied with gain if grace has not removed the chains?

HAVE you ever thought that all is gone?
You feel forsaken by everyone.
You look for hope but you find none;
Then someone says, "Your day has come!"
Forsaken he must have felt indeed,
But after two full years Pharaoh dreamed.

GENESIS 41

¹Two full years had come and past; the hope was dying in Joseph's heart. Dream, Pharaoh, dream; where are you now?

By a river bank, you are standing up.
²Dream, Pharaoh, dream; what do you see?
 Out of the river came seven fat cows that in a meadow eat.
³Then seven meager and skinny cows followed them out,
⁴and the skinny cows devoured the fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.
⁵Dream, Pharaoh, dream, a second time; a field with corn is in your mind. Seven ears came up, they were on one stalk looking good and strong, that is what you saw.
⁶Then up came seven ears, blighted and lean;
⁷they devoured the good ones. So Pharaoh woke up. It was a dream!
⁸Dream on, Pharaoh; what troubles you? Dreams of the night, what will you do? He sent for the wise men of Egypt, and the magicians.
 They have no answer, but dream right on.
⁹Dream on, Pharaoh; your chief butler has come;
¹⁰"I remember my faults and things I have done."
¹⁰"How you in anger imprisoned me in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker were placed in the prison ward.
¹¹We both had dreams in one night; separate dreams, he and I.
¹²There was a young Hebrew there who interpreted, according to each of our dream he interpreted.
¹³They came to pass just as he said. You restored me to my office, but the baker was hanged, in accordance with the Hebrew's interpretation!
@Dream on, Joseph; Pharaoh has called for you; perhaps his dream will make yours come true!
¹⁴Hurry, change your clothes, you must be shaved
 Pharaoh calls for you; he requires haste.
¹⁵Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have a dream with no one to tell what it means, but I heard that you can interpret dreams."
¹⁶So Joseph said to Pharaoh, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."
@Not I, Pharaoh, not in my ways; God answers dreams; give Him the praise."
¹⁷As Joseph listened, Pharaoh told him of the seven lean that ate the fat as he stood there on the river bank.
¹⁸Of the seven cows that out of the river came; fine, looking fat, that in the meadow fed.
¹⁹How after them came up seven so very thin, such ugliness as in all Egypt he had never seen.
²⁰How the thin cows ate up the fat cows;
²¹and that they had eaten the fat cows, you could never know, they were still as meager. After this he awoke.
²²And of the seven good ears of corn on one stalk, ²³and of the seven thin ears blistered and small.

²⁴And of how the thin ears of corn ate up the seven fat ones.
 He said, "I sought interpretation from the magicians but no one could explain it to me."
²⁵And Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Two dreams you saw; they both are one. God has shown you what He is about to do.
²⁶"The seven good cows are seven years, so are the seven good ears of corn, ²⁷"Also the seven thin and ugly cows and the seven blighted ears of corn. They are seven years of famine.
²⁸"This is the thing I have spoken to Pharaoh, God has shown you what He is about to do.
²⁹"Seven years of plenty, great abundance shall come;
 this shall be throughout the entire land.
³⁰"Then you will have seven years of famine, seven years of lack.
 The seven years of famine will consume the land.
³¹"So severe shall this famine be, that the years of plenty shall not even be a memory.
³²"The dream was repeated to Pharaoh two times, because God has established this thing; it shall shortly come to pass."
³³"Let Pharaoh find a man, discreet and wise, and over the land of Egypt, let him preside.
³⁴"And let him appoint officers over the land to take a fifth of the food produced, ³⁵and store it while the years are good.
 Keep the food in the cities, lay the grain in store;
³⁶"for the seven years of famine let it be reserved, so that during the famine to come the land may be preserved."
³⁷To Pharaoh and his servants the advice was good.
³⁸Pharaoh said, "Can we find such a man as this, he is distinguished by the Spirit of God."
³⁹Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Forasmuch as God has shown this to you; there is no one as discreet and wise as you.
⁴⁰Over my house, you shall now be; only in the throne, shall I exceed you in authority.
 By your word shall my people be ruled."
⁴¹And to Joseph Pharaoh said, "See, over all the land of Egypt, I have set you."
Rise up, Joseph; your day has come!
⁴²Pharaoh placed his signet ring on Joseph's hand, and in fine linen garments he clothed him then.
 He placed a gold chain around his neck.
⁴³And he had him ride in the second chariot he had;
 they cried before him, "Bow the knee."
 And so he was set over Egypt's land.
@Certainly Joseph it pays to dream, though the process can be rough and mean.

⁴⁴Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent shall no man lift a hand or foot in the land of Egypt."

Rise up, Joseph; this is your night;

⁴⁵Pharaoh gave to Joseph Asenath to be his wife.

She was the daughter of Poti-Pherah, the priest of On.

And so Joseph went out over all of Egypt's land.

⁴⁶Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, Egypt's king.

And he went out from the presence of Pharaoh, throughout all the land of Egypt then.

⁴⁷In the seven years of plenty, the ground brought forth abundantly.

@Rise up, Joseph; it is time for work.

Let all the food be gathered up until the food you cannot count, until you have gathered a good amount.

⁴⁸Throughout the land of Egypt Joseph went until the seven years of plenty were spent.

In every city he laid up the food of the surrounding fields.

⁴⁹He gathered much grain, even as the sand of the sea;

until Joseph stopped the count; it was such a great amount.

⁵⁰To Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine, which Asenath, Potipherah's daughter, bore to him.

⁵¹And Joseph said, as he named them, "My firstborn shall be named Manasseh, for God has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house alike."

⁵²The second son he called Ephraim, for he said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

⁵³The seven years of plenty in Egypt came to an end;

⁵⁴and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph said.

The famine was in all the lands, but in the land of Egypt there was bread.

⁵⁵When all Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh's throne.

Pharaoh said, "Go to Joseph, what he says let it be done."

⁵⁶The famine was over the face of all the earth; and Joseph opened his storehouses and to the Egyptians food was sold.

All countries came to Joseph to buy from his store.

And in Egypt the famine became severe.

⁵⁷So people came to Joseph to buy grain from countries everywhere; for the famine was severe in all the lands.

It was a famine that affected everyone.

GENESIS 42

¹When Jacob saw that in Egypt there was corn he said to his sons,
 "Why do you look at each other?"
²"I have heard that in Egypt there is grain, get down and buy for us there, so that we may live and not die."
@What he did not know as he made his case was to whom they would be coming face to face.
³Off Joseph's brothers went, all ten of them; ⁴gone without their brother Benjamin.
 For Jacob said, "With Joseph gone, I will take no chance he comes to harm."
⁵And the sons of Israel went to buy grain among all who came to buy, for the famine was in the land of Canaan on every side.
⁶Joseph was governor over the land and it was he who sold to everyone; and before him, his brothers came and bowed to the ground.
⁷Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger and spoke roughly then.
 He said, "Where are you from?"
 They said, "We have come to buy food, we are from the land of Canaan."
⁸Face to face they were recognized, but he made sure they did not realize.
⁹As his brothers all bowed down to him, Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamt.
 Joseph said, "You are spies, and you have come to assess the weaknesses of the land."
¹⁰They replied, "No my lord, your servants have come to buy food;
¹¹we are all sons of one man, not spies but true."
¹²But he said, "No!" then he said once more, "To see the weaknesses of the land you have come for sure."
¹³And they said, "We are twelve brothers, the sons of one man; the youngest is with our father today in Canaan.
 Twelve sons we are and one is no more."
¹⁴But Joseph said, "You are spies indeed, I told you so!
¹⁵Know that you shall be proven by this; you shall not leave this place, by the life of the Pharaoh, except your younger brother comes.
¹⁶"Send one of you, let him bring your brother now.
 You shall be kept in prison until he comes. By the life of Pharaoh you are spies!
 Unless your brother comes and your word is verified."
@His brothers did not know, but this was but a taste of wrath fermented, face to face.
¹⁷Joseph placed them all together in prison for three days.
But the fear of God would save the day.

¹⁸On the third day, Joseph said, "Hear! Do this and live, for God I fear."
¹⁹"If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be bound here in prison, while the others take back grain for your homes."
²⁰"And bring your youngest brother to me; so your words will be verified, and so you shall not die."
²¹Tears filled his eyes as Joseph heard them say these words,
 "We are guilty for our brother for we saw the anguish of his soul; he pleaded with us, but we would not hear; therefore this distress is come upon us here."
²²Reuben said, "Did I not say, 'Sin not against the child'; yet you would not hear? Now of us his blood is required."
²³They did not know that Joseph understood for he spoke to them through an interpreter.
@Tears came to his eyes; No! They were running down his face.
They must not see him crying, but he must cry someplace.
²⁴So he turned away from them and wept, and returned again to the business.
 He took Simeon, and before their eyes he was bound.
²⁵And Joseph commanded his servants to fill their sacks with corn.
 He said, "Return every man's money to his sack, and give them provision for the journey." And they did that.
²⁶They laid the load on the donkeys and departed.
²⁷And as one of them opened his sack to feed his donkey at the inn, in the mouth of his sack he saw the money.
²⁸He lifted his voice to his brothers, and said, "The money has been restored to my sack that I paid!"
 Then their hearts failed them and they were afraid, they said to each other "What is this that God has done to us?"
²⁹To the land of Canaan they came, to their father Jacob.
 They told him all that had happened to them, saying,
³⁰"The man who is lord of the country spoke roughly to us and called us spies.
³¹But we said, 'We are honest men and not spies; in this we do not lie.
³²'We are twelve brothers, sons of one father, one is no more, he is passed away; the youngest is with our father in the land of Canaan this day.'
³³"Then the man said to us, 'This is how I will know that you are true; leave one of your brothers here with me and to your household take food.
³⁴'Bring your youngest brother to me, this way I shall know, and I will deliver your brother; then you shall trade, you shall travel to and fro.”

³⁵And as they emptied their sack, there every man's money lay, and when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were very afraid.

³⁶And Jacob said to them, “Of my children, you have bereaved me; Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, do you now want to take Benjamin from me? All these things are against me.”

³⁷Then to his father Reuben said, “Kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Deliver Benjamin to me, and I will bring him back again.”

³⁸But he said, “My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead; He is left alone. If anything happens to him as he goes, in sorrow you would bring my grey hairs to the grave.”

None can say what will happen when he meets this ruler face to face.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father God, Lord of the universe, make me a worthy steward of everything You assign to me here, in Jesus name.
- Kind and loving King, You forgave us debts we had no chance of repaying; help us also to forgive the relatively small trespasses we hold, in Jesus' name.
- Merciful and forgiving God, help me to deposit all my hurts in the cross, and to withdraw mercy for everyone who offends me, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

- Mighty God, Consuming Fire, let Your fear restrain me from personal vengeance, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- O my Lord and my good, good Father, help me not to attack my relationship with You by withholding forgiveness, or stubbornly seeking revenge, in the name of Jesus.
- Heavenly Father, remove the desire from me to prove myself in any forum, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- All wise, all knowing God, please grant me divine wisdom, interpretation and understanding for every confusing and puzzling situation in my life, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

TORN between hunger and emotion for his son,

Torn by the famine and torn, oh so much, by love.

At home there in Canaan, and in a distant land,

The hearts of two men torn apart are further torn by one.

While one would mend the other, tears would grace the while,

Torn between a meal with his brothers and water filling up his eyes.

GENESIS 43

¹The famine was harsh in the land,

²and it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn that from Egypt they had brought, their father said to them, “Return and buy us some food now again.”

³But Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man warned us solemnly, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’”

⁴If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.

⁵“But if you will not send him, we will not go down to that place, for the man said to us, ‘Unless he is with you, you shall no more see my face!’”

⁶“Why have you dealt so dreadfully with me to tell this man that you had a brother?” Israel replied.

⁷And they answered, “We had no choice. The man asked us directly of our family and of our own state; saying, ‘Do you have another brother? Is your father yet alive and safe?’”

“We responded to him according to the tenor of his words; could we possibly have known that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

⁸Then Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the boy with me that we may live and not die; both we, our little ones, and you alike.

⁹I will be the guarantee for him; you shall require him at my hand.

If I do not bring him back to you, on me let the blame forever stand.

¹⁰“For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned the second time”

¹¹Then Israel said to them, “Do this if it must be so, but know that I am torn inside.

Take of the best fruit of the land and carry down a present to this man:

a balm, a little honey, spices, and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

¹²“Take double money in your hand, and take back the money that was brought back in your sack’s mouth, perhaps it was an oversight, so let it be returned.

¹³“Take also your brother; to this man arise and go;

¹⁴and may God Almighty give you mercy before this man also, that he may send your other brother, and Benjamin with him;

for if I am bereaved of my children, then I am very much bereaved.”

¹⁵So the men took presents and double money in their hand, and with Benjamin they rose up and headed for Egypt again.

There they stood before Joseph.

¹⁶And when he saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, “Bring these men to my home, kill an animal and prepare it, for they shall dine with me at noon.”

¹⁷The man did as Joseph commanded him, and brought them to Joseph’s house.

¹⁸When they saw they were brought to Joseph’s house, the men were very afraid.

“It is because of the money returned in our sacks the first time,” they said.

“That is why we are brought here, that he may seek occasion against us, seize us and make us bondmen, and take also our donkeys.”

¹⁹So they approached the steward of the house; and they conversed with him at the door of the house

²⁰and said, “O Sir, we came to buy food when we came down at the first,

²¹but when we came to the inn and opened up our sacks, each man’s money was in the mouth of his sack in full weight, and we have brought it back.

²²“And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy more food;

we cannot tell who placed the money in our sacks, no, we do not know the truth.”

²³But he said, “Peace be to you; it is no time to fear.

I had your money. Your God and your father’s God placed the treasure there.”

Then he brought Simeon out to them.

²⁴And brought them into Joseph’s house.

He gave them water to wash their feet, and food for their donkeys also.

²⁵Then they prepared the gifts for Joseph’s arrival at noon, for they heard they should eat there with him in his house.

²⁶And when Joseph came home they brought to him the present which was in their hands, and bowed down before him to the earth, just as Joseph had dreamt would be done.

²⁷Joseph asked them of their well-being, and said, “Is your father well?

Is the old man you spoke of yet alive?”

²⁸And they said, “Our father is in good health; he is yet alive.”

And they showed him respect with heads bowed down.

²⁹And he lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son.

He said, “Is this your younger brother, the one of whom you spoke that day?”

And he said to him, “God be gracious to you my son.”

³⁰And Joseph then left in great haste.

He was torn with emotions, for comradeship with his brother he yearned;

he sought a place to weep, and entered into his room and wept there alone.

³¹Then he washed his face and went out, and he restrained himself.

And he said, “Serve the bread.”

³²So they set a place for him by himself and he sat them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him, by themselves separately, for it was an abomination to the Egyptians if they should eat with Hebrews.

³³*Oh, how did he do it?* By birthright from the firstborn he sat them down, they marvelled at each other; something was going down.

³⁴He sent plates of food to all of them, but Benjamin’s plate was five times more.

So they drank and were merry with him; things were not so bad in Egypt after all!

- O God my Father, give me divine wisdom and divine provision that will distinguish me in the seasons of famine, in the name of Jesus.

TESTED and tried, in an old familiar way,
But his brothers were different; things had really changed.
The father's favored and loved son they envied now no more.
They had an easy decision, but would not have him sold.
Their father was regarded, and too, what his heart desired.
So that Benjamin would not become a slave, they would now give their very own lives.

GENESIS 44

¹Joseph commanded the steward, "Fill the men's sack with all the food they can take. Put each man's money back, send them on their way."
²A little parcel for my younger brother; discreetly place my silver cup in his sack." The steward did all that Joseph commanded.
³At the dawn of the next morning the men were sent on their way; both they and their donkeys.
⁴When they had gone out of the city, and were not very far away, Joseph said, "Up, get up now and follow, and when you overtake, say to them, 'You have received good; why this evil reward?'"
⁵You have taken the cup that belongs to my lord.
 Is it not the cup of his pleasure from which he drinks his wine?
 And the cup of my knowledge with which he practices divination?
 You have done evil in doing so."
⁶So he overtook them, and to them he spoke these words.

⁷And they said to him, "Why do you say this thing? This evil is not in us to do."

Stranger things have happened, but when? They did not know!

⁸"See, we brought from Canaan the money we found in our sacks; how then would we steal silver or gold from the house of your lord?"

⁹With whomever it is found let him die, and we will be my lord's slaves likewise."

¹⁰And he said, "As you have spoken, we will do."

With great wisdom they were being tested but they had no clue.

"With whom the cup is found, he shall be my slave, but on the others there shall be no blame."

¹¹Each man placed his sack on the ground and opened it speedily, and he began to search.

¹²He searched from the eldest, but they did not know that the cup would be found hidden in Benjamin's sack.

¹³"What trouble has come upon us," see all Israel mourn, and tore their clothes, and to Egypt returned.

¹⁴To Egypt, to Joseph, @confused and ashamed; They had lost all their honor, their respect and their name.

They fell to the ground, a brother was at stake.

¹⁵Joseph said, "What evil have you done? Did you not know that I can divine?"

@Now would they have a favored brother be a slave yet another time?

¹⁶Then Judah said, "How can we clear ourselves? What can we speak?"

God has found out our iniquity, our wrong He has seen.

Here we are as your slaves, we are yours now, both us and he with whom the cup was found."

¹⁷Joseph objected, saying, "Certainly not! You shall not all serve; the one who had the cup stays, for that he deserves.

He shall be my slave; to your father go in peace."

¹⁸Then Judah came near, he was compelled to speak.

He said, "My lord please, hear what I have to say, do not be angry with me, for you are as Pharaoh this day.

@Times had changed since a brother was a bondman for sale;

now they would give their own lives, their brother to save.

¹⁹"Remember what happened; remember when we first came, and you asked of our father, and if we had a brother that day?"

²⁰"We told you we had a father, who is very old, and a child of his old age, who is young and at home.

His brother is dead, of his mother's children, he is left alone; his father loves him. There was no jealousy anymore.

21 "You told us, 'Bring your brother down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.'

22 We told you he cannot leave his father, or he would die because of this.

23 "But you said to your servants, 'Unless your younger brother comes, you shall no more see my face.'

24 We returned and told it to our father, and he could not find peace.

25 He told us to return and buy food,

26 but we said without him we will not go, for we may not see your face unless our youngest brother is with us.

Without him we surely cannot go up.

27 Then our father said to us, 'His mother bore me two sons;

28 and one went out from me and I said, 'Surely he is torn!

I have not seen him since that day.

29 If you take this one and he is harmed, you will bring my grey hair with sorrow to the grave.'

30 "The life of my father is bound up in the youth's life.

31 If he sees he is not with us, he will certainly die.

32 And I will be responsible for his death; for I was the guarantee for the boy's return, saying, 'If I do not bring him back, I shall forever bear the blame.'

33 "Now therefore, please let me stay as a slave instead of the boy now, and with his brothers, let the boy go.

34 "For how shall I go up to my father, if the boy is not with me and the evil that should come up on my father then I would see."

@They cared for the young man; they stood up for his rights.

They cared that he would not be a slave, so they offered their own lives.

They cared for their father, that he would not die. Changed from the persons who had rejected his own pleas and cries.

Joseph cared for them all; the moment was ripe; and he cared not that the tears were coming to his eyes.

- Transforming power of the Holy Ghost, transform every crooked area of my life so that my past mistakes will not return to spoil my present glory, in Jesus name.
- I declare that I am a new person, I have changed, I am free from every sin and bondage of my past, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Holy Spirit I honor You, let Your fruits be on display in my life, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- God of Israel, give me a heart to defend the brethren tenaciously on my knees and before men, in Jesus' name.

OH, tell me of Joseph; tell me of his fame.

Tell me of the day he told his brothers his name.

Tell me of Jacob who would not believe, Then said; "It is enough! I must now go and see."

GENESIS 45

1 Tell me of Joseph, who could no longer restrain.

You can tell, no more pretending, see his distorted face.

"Cause everyone to go from me!" They heard him cry.

And as every man departed, he could no longer hide.

You can tell something was happening as the governor wept; he made himself known to his brothers, as by emotions they were swept.

2 An overwhelming moment, hear him weep aloud; tell it to Pharaoh, tell it all about.

3 Then Joseph said, "I am Joseph, does my father still live?"

But his brothers were troubled at his presence; they could not answer him.

4 And he said to his brothers, "Please come near to me," and they came near.

He repeated himself, for they were all stunned. "I am Joseph," he said, "whom you sold into Egypt.

5 Now do not be grieved or angry with yourselves that you sold me here.

But all things work together for good.

It was to preserve lives that God sent me before you.

6 "The famine has been in the land these two years; there are five years to go still yet, where there shall neither be an ear to grow nor will there be a harvest."

@Tell them, for you know it, there is purpose for you here.

There may be panic and consternation until that purpose becomes clear.

⁷“Yes, God sent me before you, your lives to save;

and to preserve you a posterity, by a deliverance very great.

⁸“So it was not you who sent me, but rather it was God.

He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and to all his house made me lord.

And also a ruler in Egypt, in all the land throughout.

⁹“Hurry and go to my father, and tell him these words:

“This is a message, from Joseph, your son; “God has made me lord of all Egypt, delay not to come down.

¹⁰“You shall dwell in the land of Goshen and you shall be near me; you, your children, their children, your flocks and herds and all that you possess indeed.

¹¹“There I will nourish you, for the famine is yet five years, lest you and your household come to poverty there.”

¹²“See, your eyes and the eyes of Benjamin have seen that it is me.

¹³“Tell Father of my glory, and all that you have seen.

You shall hurry and bring my father here,” he said.

¹⁴And Joseph fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept.

You can tell it was a heart-rending moment; on his neck Benjamin wept also.

¹⁵You can tell Joseph loved his brothers; as he kissed and wept over them they knew.

¹⁶Now this news report went out, and to Pharaoh’s house it spread.

Pharaoh heard that Joseph’s brothers had come, and it pleased him and his servants very well.

¹⁷Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, “Go to the land of Canaan; load your animals and return.

¹⁸Bring your father and your households, and come to me.

I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, the fat of the land you shall eat.

¹⁹Now you are commanded: take wagons for your wives and your little ones, bring your father and come.

²⁰Do not be concerned about your possession, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.”

You could tell Pharaoh was excited as he told Joseph these words.

²¹And Joseph gave them wagons, as Pharaoh commanded that day; and he also gave them provision for the journey on the way.

²²To them all he gave changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of garments.

²³He sent ten donkeys for his father, loaded with all things of Egypt that were good.

Ten female donkeys loaded with corn, bread, and food for his father’s journey down.

²⁴To Canaan, to Canaan! He sent them away. But can you tell why he would say, “Ensure you do not fall out by the way?”

@Oh, tell me of Joseph, tell me of his fame;

tell me of the day, he told his brothers his name.

Tell me of Jacob who would not believe, then said, “It is enough! It is enough! I must now go and see.”

²⁵To Canaan, to Jacob, the brothers are now come;

You can tell their attitudes were changed from when they had gone down.

²⁶They told Jacob, “Joseph is alive,” but was he relieved?

Oh no! His heart fainted; he could not believe. They told him, “He is the governor”; memories of his dreams returned.

²⁷They told him of all Joseph’s words, and the heart began to yearn.

They showed him the wagons, and the old came alive.

²⁸“Enough! That is enough!” he said, his spirit fully revived.

Enough, for I have seen it; Joseph is alive.

Enough, I believe it; I will go see him before I die.”

@Sudden change from an old man, distressed and unwell; something has happened, and someone can tell.

FORWARD, forward to Egypt we go;
Forward, but we will return, for God told me so.

The dead and the dying, through turmoil survived;

Passionate reunion, Israel came to life!

GENESIS 46

¹Israel went on his journey with his sons and all that they had; he stopped in Beersheba and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

²There God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, saying, "Jacob!" And he said, "Here am I."

³He said, "I am God, your father's God; go forward to Egypt; you have no need to fear, for I will make you a great nation there.

⁴"I will go down to Egypt with you and I will surely bring you up again.

And Joseph will put his hand on your eyes."

⁵Refreshed and revived, Jacob went forward from Beersheba that day, in Pharaoh's wagon, his sons carried him all the way.

Their little ones and their wives also were carried in the wagons.

⁶They took their livestock and their goods which in Canaan they acquired, and went to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants alike.

⁷His sons, his sons' sons, his daughters and theirs and he brought all his descendants with him there.

⁸The children of Israel came to Egypt; these are their names;

Jacob and his sons: Reuben, the firstborn

⁹and the sons of Reuben:

Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi; his sons numbered four.

¹⁰The sons of Simeon were: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman, and Zohar.

¹¹Gershon, Kohath and Merari were Levi sons.

¹²The sons of Judah that came were: Shelah, Perez and Zerah; for Er and Onan died in Canaan.

The sons of Perez were: Hezron and Hamul.

¹³Tola, Puvah, Job and Shimron, were Issachar's sons.

¹⁴The sons of Zebulun were: Sered, Elon and Jahleel, three of them.

¹⁵These were the sons of Leah who she bore to Jacob in Padan-aram.

With his daughter Dinah, all the persons were thirty-three.

¹⁶There were seven sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and their brother Areli.

¹⁷The sons of Asher were Jimnah, Ishuah, Isui, Beriah, and a daughter, Serah.

And the sons of Beriah were Malchiel and Heber.

¹⁸There were the sons of Zilpah who Laban gave to Leah;

she bore Jacob, sixteen sons in all.

¹⁹The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife, were Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁰And to Joseph in Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, the sons that to him, Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah the priest bore.

²¹And Benjamin had ten sons, they were: Belah, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppm and Ard.

²²A total of fourteen sons of Rachel, to Jacob were born.

²³Hushim was the son of Dan.

²⁴The sons of Naphtali were: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem.

²⁵These were the sons of Bilhah, who Laban gave to his daughter Rachel; she bore Jacob seven sons.

²⁶Sixty-six persons went with Jacob to Egypt, who came from his own loins;

this was not counting Jacob's sons' wives.

²⁷And the sons of Joseph born to him in Egypt were two.

In total, the house of Jacob who went to Egypt numbered seventy persons.

²⁸Then Israel sent Judah ahead to Joseph to direct them where to go, to show the way to Goshen, and so, to the land of Goshen they came.

²⁹And Joseph made his chariot ready, and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel.

He presented himself to him, and fell on his neck and wept a long while.

The one thought dead with the aged and dying, finally reunited.

³⁰Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, with peace I will go to the grave; because you are still alive; I have seen your face and have verified this."

³¹And Joseph said to his brothers, and to his father's household,

"I will go up and see Pharaoh and I will say to him,

"My brothers and my father's house who were in Canaan, are here, ³²but the men all are shepherds, and they have livestock to tend and to care. They have brought their flocks, their herds and all that they have.

³³When Pharaoh asks your occupation,

³⁴you shall say, 'Our occupation from our youth until today, has been to tend livestock, both we and our fathers before'; that he will make you to dwell in Goshen when he hear these words, for to the Egyptians, every shepherd is an abomination."

@Away from Canaan, from God's promised land; forward, to Egypt, to the process, as God showed to Abraham.

To be nurtured by Joseph, as he helped them settle down.

But Jacob looked forward, for he knew God had ordered their return.

Take me back to Canaan; God gave us that land.

GENESIS 47

¹Joseph reported to Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds, have come up from Canaan, and they are in Goshen now."

²To Pharaoh with Joseph, five of his brothers came.

³Pharaoh asked them their occupation; they answered, "Both we and our fathers are shepherds by trade."

⁴They told Pharaoh, "We have no pasture for our flocks in Canaan, for the famine is great, let us dwell in Goshen, that we may survive in this place."

⁵Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your fathers and your brothers have arrived;

⁶"the land of Egypt is before you; choose the best land for them to live.

As they have requested, in Goshen they shall dwell;

if there is one able among them, let him be in charge of my livestock as well."

⁷To Pharaoh with Joseph, Jacob was brought. He set him before Pharaoh as Jacob blessed Pharaoh, ⁸then the king asked, "How old are you now?"

⁹And Jacob replied, "I am one hundred and thirty years, my years evil and few, not attaining to the years that my fathers knew."

¹⁰And Jacob blessed Pharaoh and he then went out.

¹¹And Joseph gave his fathers and brothers a possession in Egypt, in Rameses, in the best of the land, just as Pharaoh spoke.

¹²There Joseph cared for his father, the young for the old, and with bread he nourished his brothers and all their households.

¹³*Now back to business, no bread in the land; @The ruler of Egypt is a shrewd businessman.*

In all of Egypt, the famine was sore, so all Egypt and Canaan starved; they had nothing more.

¹⁴Joseph gathered all the money that was found in the land, for the grain bought from him, by all Egypt and Canaan; and into the house of Pharaoh he brought the money that they paid.

¹⁵So in the land of Egypt and in Canaan, all the money failed, and to Joseph, all the Egyptians came.

They said, "Give us bread;

the money is all gone; why should we die in your presence?"

¹⁶But Joseph said, "Bring your livestock and come;

I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone."

¹⁷So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread; in exchange for their horses and flocks, their donkeys and cattle they were fed.

They received bread that year in exchange for their livestock.

¹⁸At the end of the year, the people came to him and they said,

"We will not hide from you that our money is spent;

you also have all our livestock we have nothing left;

nothing but our bodies and our lands.

¹⁹"Why should we die before your eyes and our land become a waste?"

Buy us and our land for bread and we will be Pharaoh's slaves.

Give us seed that we may live and that our land will not become desolate."

²⁰Then Joseph bought all the land for Pharaoh, for every man sold his field; for the famine was so severe on them. Pharaoh now owned everything.

²¹And he moved the people to the cities, from one end of Egypt to the next.

²²"He did not buy the land of the priests, for Pharaoh had appointed rations for them.

Their lands therefore they did not sell.

²³Then Joseph said to the people, "I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh; here is seed for you to sow the land.

²⁴"You shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh of all the increase; four-fifths shall be your own as food for your households and as seed for the field."

²⁵And they said, "Let us find favor in your sight and we will be Pharaoh's servants, for you have saved our lives."

²⁶And Joseph made it a law over all Egypt and to this day it is required; that Pharaoh should have one-fifth except for the land of the priests.

²⁷So Israel dwelt in Egypt and in Goshen; they had possessions and they multiplied and grew.

²⁸Jacob lived in Egypt seventeen years.

The length of Jacob's life was a hundred and forty-seven years, ²⁹and the time that Israel should die was drawing near.

He called his son Joseph, there was something to set straight;

@There is promise, there is purpose, but it is in another place.

Where purpose is, that is where I must lie, though history determines the place where I die.

"Swear to me Joseph, under my thigh place your hand;

be kind and true to me, do not bury me in Egypt, not here in this land.

³⁰Let me lie with my fathers, so carry me back;

carry me out of Egypt, here bury me not.

I want to be buried in their burying-place

Where the descendants of our children will play on someday."

³¹"I will do faithfully and kindly; I will do all that you have said."

Joseph swore as he had asked him, and Israel bowed himself on his bed.

OLD and sick but leaning still
On the promises God made;
Tell it, hear it, all who will,
Time to bless the sons that will remain.

GENESIS 48

¹After these things Joseph was told that his father was ill; so he took Manasseh and Ephraim, his two sons with him.
²When they told Jacob, "Joseph your son comes!" He strengthened himself and in his bed he sat up.
³Jacob said to Joseph, "It was in Luz in the land of Canaan, that God Almighty appeared to me and blessed me.
⁴And He said to me, I will make you to be fruitful, and I will multiply you exceedingly. I will make a multitude of people from you, and give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession."
⁵"Now your two sons belong to me. Ephraim and Manasseh who were born in Egypt before I came to you are fully mine, just as Reuben and Simeon.
⁶"Your children which you father after these shall be yours, but they shall be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.
⁷"But as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died, in the land of Canaan on my way; I was by her side. On the road to Ephrath, and yet a little way, I buried her near Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem) on our way going there."
⁸Then Israel saw Joseph's sons, and he said, "Who are these?"
⁹Joseph said in response, "These are the sons God has given me here in this place." And he said, "Please, bring them to me; let me bless them this day."
¹⁰The eyes of Israel were partially blind because of age; he could not see, but Joseph brought them near. Israel kissed and embraced them;
¹¹then to Joseph he said, "I never thought I would see your face, but now, God has shown to me your offspring as well."
¹²Joseph brought them from between his knees, and with his face to the earth, he bowed himself.
¹³Joseph took them both; Ephraim was placed near Israel's left hand; then he placed Manasseh towards Israel's right hand; and he brought them near to Israel.
¹⁴His eyes were partially blind, he could not see, but with eyes of faith he was guided. He placed his right hand on Ephraim, the younger son's head, the left he placed on Manasseh's, guiding his hand cunningly, for Manasseh was the firstborn of Joseph's children.

¹⁵Blessing Joseph, he began to say, "God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked; the God who led me all my life long,
¹⁶the Angel which redeemed me from every harm, now bless the boys and let my name be named upon them with the name of Abraham and Isaac. Let them become a multitude in the midst of the earth."
¹⁷Now when Joseph saw what his father did, that he laid his right hand on Ephraim's head, it displeased him; so he held his father's right hand to remove it to the head of Manasseh from the head of Ephraim.
¹⁸And Joseph said to his father, "My Father, not so; this one is the firstborn; on his head your right hand should go."
¹⁹But his father refused, saying, "I know it, my son; though I am blind and cannot see, this I surely know. He shall become a people and shall be great also, but the younger brother shall be the greater one; his descendants shall become a multitude of nations."
²⁰So he blessed them that day, saying, "Israel shall bless by you, saying, 'May God bless you as Ephraim and Manasseh.'" And in this blessing he set Ephraim before Manasseh.
²¹His faith was strong though his body was frail. He said to Joseph, "Behold I am dying, but with you God will be, and He will lead you once more to the land of your fathers, certainly."
²²Moreover I have given you one portion above your brothers, which I took from the Amorite with my sword and my bow."
@A fight claimed, already won, yet had not yet taken place, for though old and sick, he was leaning still on the promises God had made!

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Let your faith-talk accompany your faith-walk.
2. Never be too old or too experienced to hear God.
3. See with the eyes of the Spirit and you will never be mistaken by the vision of the eyes, or the lack of it.
4. Affirm your children; declare blessings into their lives, but position yourself to prophetically bless them with ears tuned to the Spirit.

- 5. God will always put your Ephraim before your Manasseh, He focuses on your fruitfulness for destiny, for then your painful memories will be erased, just as with Joseph.
- 6. It is taken by the sword and appropriated long before the fight; unravel this mystery and you will unravel the promises of God for you.
- 7. You have it may mean you have to get it, or rather take it. You have it but let the Lord reveal to you how you will get it and the timing.
- 8. Faith only speaks present tense to future events. You have it; speak as if you already possessed it.

PRAYER POINTS

- Lord Jesus, help me to hear the voice of the Spirit with clarity, so I do not make decisions in the flesh, in the name of Jesus.
- God of Jacob, let my lips be lips of blessing, charged and ready to declare blessing into lives and situations every day, in Jesus' name.
- Father give me the heart to affirm my children daily, and the words to command every godly deposit in them to come alive into their destiny, in Jesus name.
- Lord Jesus, help me to talk the talk of faith so I will decree a thing and see it established, in Jesus' name.
- Let the spirit of prophesy fall upon my life now by fire, in the name of Jesus.

A FATHER'S blessing is etched in stone; Speak well before you die. With God you speak of things to come, Unveiled before the eye. A father's blessing is etched in stone; God honors righteous decrees. Blessings shape the lives of generations; Decree a thing and it shall be.

GENESIS 49

¹Jacob called his sons together, "Come together my sons, and your father's words receive; I will tell you what will happen to you in the days to come; what will surely be.
²Gather together and hear now; you sons of Jacob; listen to your father speak:
³Reuben my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength, the excellence of dignity, and of power likewise;
⁴unstable as water, you shall not excel, for your father's bed you have defiled; you went up to your father's bed. He went up to my couch.
⁵Simeon and Levi are brothers, instruments of cruelty are in your dwelling place;
⁶O my soul, do not enter their secret; my honor, do not be united with them in any way.
For in anger they slew a man, in their self-will they hamstring oxen.
⁷Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce, and cruel is their wrath!

In Jacob I will divide them, and scatter them in Israel.
⁸Judah, you are the one your brothers shall praise; to you, your brothers shall bow down. Your hand shall be on your enemy's neck.
⁹Judah is a lion's offspring. From the prey, you have gone up my son. He stoops down; he crouches as a lion. As a lion, who shall rouse him up?
¹⁰From Judah the sceptre shall not depart; a lawgiver shall not fail from between your feet; until Shiloh comes you will give the law. Unto you shall the gathering of the people be, ¹¹binding the donkey to the vine, and the donkey's colt to the very best vine. He washed his clothes in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes.
¹²His eyes are darker than wine and his teeth are very white; whiter than milk.
¹³Zebulun shall dwell by the haven of the sea; he shall become a haven for ships; unto Sidon his border shall be.
¹⁴Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between two burdens;
¹⁵he saw that the rest was good and that the land was pleasant. A band of slaves put to tribute he became; he bowed his shoulder to bear burden.
¹⁶Dan shall judge his people, as one of Israel's tribes;
¹⁷Dan shall be a serpent in the way, the horse's heels he bites, and so the rider fall backwards.
¹⁸I have waited, how have I waited, for your salvation O Lord!
¹⁹A troop shall overcome Gad, but at the last he shall triumph.
²⁰The bread from Asher shall be rich; he shall yield royal dainties.
²¹Naphtali is a deer let loose; pleasant words he always gives.
²²Joseph is a fruitful bough; a fruitful bough by a well he is. His branches run over the wall.
²³The archers have bitterly grieved him, hated him and at him they shot,
²⁴but the bow remained in strength; his arms were made strong by the hands of the Mighty God, the God of Jacob (from him is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel), ²⁵by the God of your father who will help you, by the Almighty who shall bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep beneath, blessing of the breast and the womb as well.
²⁶The blessings of your father have excelled the blessings of my ancestors, to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills above. They shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

²⁷“Benjamin, you are a ravenous wolf; in the morning rise and toil.

You shall devour the prey in a predator’s mood, and at night divide the spoil.”

²⁸These are the twelve tribes of Israel.

He blessed them, each according to his blessing.

²⁹Then he charged them, and to them he said, “I am about to be gathered to my people;

@Take me back to the land of Canaan

Back to the promise God has made.

Bury me with my father in the cave in the field of Ephron.

³⁰“The cave in the field of Machpelah, before Mamre in Canaan, which Abraham bought from Ephron for a burying place, to be his possession.

³¹“Where Abraham was buried, with Sarah his wife, and where Isaac, Rebekah and Leah were buried likewise.

³²“The field and the cave in it were purchased from the sons of Heth.

@There in the land of our inheritance bury me; in the land that to our fathers, God gave.”

³³When Jacob had finished commanding them, he drew his feet up on his bed; and at that time he breathed his last breath.

Jacob died and was gathered to his people then.

@He had blessed his sons with a father’s blessing, now etched in stone; words gone before them, declaring things to come.

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. Declare it, decree it; your word has the power to shape destinies.
2. A father’s decree carries prophetic significance; be careful to speak over your children; be careful what you speak over your children.
3. You will be arrested on the brink of your blessings by your own indiscretions.
4. You have entered into the blessing of Abraham by your new birth, you surrender it by submitting to your old man.
5. Your action has consequences; because it is not present in your present does not mean you can ignore its emergence in your future.
6. Position yourself to receive the blessing others take for granted. Judah received the firstborn blessing by default as his elder brothers disqualified themselves.
7. Let your branches run over a wall like Joseph; there are nations to be blessed.
8. Your heart may have stopped in a foreign land, but let it rot in the land of promise.
9. Be the symbol in life and death of what God has promised your generations.

PRAYER POINTS

- Every spiritual exactor, waiting to arrest me on the brink of my breakthrough because of past failures, be arrested by the power of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus.

- Father let every sin of my past be washed away and every handwriting of judgment against my life be erased by fire, in Jesus’ name.
- I reject the spirit of the tail and I declare that I shall be the head, above only. Amen.
- O God of Jacob, arise in the multitude of Your blessings and shower my life with every good blessing from on high, in Jesus’ name.
- I receive everything the Lord has in store for me, in the name of Jesus.
- I declare that by faith in the Lord Jesus, I have the blessing of Abraham; I hereby command every good blessing Jacob decreed over his sons to fall upon my life now, in Jesus name.
- Father God let my sons and daughters be blessed to promulgate the seed of Christ, to populate, to increase, to multiply, to access, to possess and to be a blessing, in Jesus’ name.

MOURN all Egypt, mourn Israel; MA great man is now gone.

A pioneer indeed, who sought God fervently. For Jacob let us mourn.

Weep, sons of Jacob, but why do you fear?

You fear Joseph and revenge;

“Fear not, God will surely visit again;

Weep now, weep but swear,

That you will take my bones up from here.”

GENESIS 50

¹Then on his father’s face Joseph fell, to weep and to kiss the dead;

²then Joseph commanded his servants the physicians, to embalm his father Israel.

³Forty days were fulfilled for him, as was the custom for all those who were embalmed in those days.

And the Egyptians mourned there for him seventy days.

⁴Now when the days of mourning were over, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh’s household, saying “If I have found favor in your sight, please speak to Pharaoh and say,

⁵“My father made me swear, saying, “I am on my dying bed, take me back to Canaan, to the grave I have prepared for myself.”

Now therefore, please let me go, and I will come back again.”

⁶And Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father as to Israel you swore.”

@Mourn all Egypt, mourn; mourn all Israel!

A great man is now gone; a great man who lived well.

⁷And Joseph went up to bury his father; and all the elders of Egypt went with him, and all of the elders of Pharaoh’s house as well.

⁸All the sons of Israel went up; the house of Joseph, his brothers and his father’s house.

See the many chariots and the horsemen.

They left the flocks, the herds and their small children in Goshen.

⁹It was a very great gathering; with him went chariots and horsemen.

¹⁰They had seven days of mourning on Atad's threshing floor.

It was a solemn lamentation.

¹¹The Canaanites who saw it said, "Egypt is very grieved for sure, this is a deep mourning for the Egyptians." Therefore they named the place Abel Mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

¹²So his sons did for him just as he had commanded them.

¹³For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and in the land of promise Jacob was laid. He was buried in the field of Machpelah in the cave, which Abraham bought of Ephron the Hittite for a burying place.

¹⁴And Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all those who came with him.

@Weep, you sons of Israel, O but why are you scared?

¹⁵They feared Joseph's hatred and vengeance now that their father was dead.

¹⁶So they sent messengers to Joseph, saying, "Before your father died he commanded,

¹⁷You shall say to Joseph, "Please forgive your brothers' sins, for they did you wrong; I beg you forgive the trespass of the servants of your father's God."'"

When he heard this Joseph wept.

¹⁸His brothers also came and before Joseph they fell.

They said, "We are your servants."

¹⁹He was still weeping as he told them, "Do not be afraid, I see this through God's eyes.

²⁰You meant to do me evil, but God used this to save many lives.

He worked it all for good.

²¹"Now do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones."

From his kind words they took comfort, and rested in his hands.

²²So Joseph lived in Egypt, and his father's household with him.

Joseph lived a total of one hundred and ten years.

²³He saw Ephraim's children to his great-grandchildren; the children of Machir the son of Manasseh was also brought up on his knees.

²⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am dying; but God will surely visit us, and bring you up from this land, to the land He swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

²⁵"I am dying; you may weep for me but swear; in Egypt I have prospered, but you shall carry my bones from here."

@Lay me in the promise, as with Abraham before; also with Isaac and with Jacob, the land that shall be ours.

²⁶Joseph died at one hundred and ten years of age;

then they embalmed him, and in a coffin he was placed.

@To be taken back to Canaan as they promised that day.

To rest in God's promise as he lived in God's grace.

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. When all Egypt mourns a foreigner, (their abomination), and escort his body for burial in Canaan, you know God is saluting an awesome journey.
2. They know what they have done you and live in fear that you know it too; they know what they have done you but fail to accept what God has done for you through their ignorance.
3. You begged for mercy they did not hear; they beg for mercy you shed compassionate tears. The fear of God makes the difference.
4. When you have God's perspective you look beyond the damage to the destiny.
5. When you have God's perspective forgiveness is easy.
6. When you have God's perspective you see the good being mixed in His hands, rather than the bad He processed to hand the good to you.
7. When you have God's perspective the progress is more important than the process.
8. When you have God's perspective you shatter the evil expectations of those who hated you and spitefully used you by doing good to them.
9. When you have God's perspective, you set your heart on the promise and commit your people to set your body in it.
10. Leave something behind to remind and position them. Joseph had God's perspective. His embalmed body was a reminder of God's promise and a channel of hope and expectation to a people who would soon feel forgotten by hope.

PRAYER POINTS

- O God my Father, help me to see what You are doing, above what has been done to me. Amen.
- Lord God who resides in Heaven above, give me Your perspective in every area of my life so that I may respond with divine accuracy. Amen.
- Father God, let every evil act that anyone has meted out to me be erased and forgotten from my memory by your over-compensating kindness, in the name of Jesus.
- Gracious Father, give hatred, vindictiveness and vengeance no place in my life or in my heart, in the name of Jesus.
- Forgiving God, let my bitter rivals, false accusers and captors know they are truly forgiven; give me opportunities to bless them and to do them good, in the name of Jesus.
- Father God, make me a symbol of righteousness, that even my dead body will point others to their land of destiny and their eternal hope, in the name of Jesus.
